

BEGIN CAMPAIGN TO RAISE FUND

Industrial Association Committees Started Out Today After Luncheon at Which Plans Were Made.

OUT EXPENSES CLOSE

Small Amount is Being Asked to Run Association and Provide Factory Proprietion Funds.

This noon at luncheon at the Elks club, plans were laid by the soliciting committees of the Keokuk Industrial Association for the campaign for funds which will be waged for three days, commencing today, and continuing through Thursday.

A second luncheon will be given to-morrow noon. There may be some changes in the personnel of the committees due to the fact that some of the committeemen will not be able to serve through the entire campaign, and their places must be taken by other volunteers.

The campaign will last for three days. The association is asking for money to re-finance it, and to continue the work which has been begun by the association. The needs of the association were amply covered in the statement which was made by the board of directors a week ago.

The committees which started out today are as follows: C. F. McFarland and George S. Merriam; Ira W. Willis and J. O. Boyd; J. F. Elder and J. J. Ayres; L. A. Hamill and John A. Dunlap; Stephen Irwin and Thomas H. Joyce; James T. McCarthy and M. F. King; Jacob Schouten and Frank Swan; James Fulton and John Tuelty; O. B. Towne and LeRoy Wolf; Roy H. King and J. A. Kiedaisch; R. F. Rollins and B. B. Hobbs; W. B. Woolley and T. A. Craig; M. F. Baker and M. E. Justice; C. R. Joy and R. B. Smith.

South Dakota Campaign.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Oct. 20.—Various parties and factions in South Dakota now have their leading speakers in the field and until the eve of the election on November 3, the voters of the cities and towns of the state will have opportunities to hear the issues of the campaign discussed by speakers of all shades of political opinion.

Governor Byrne is among the republican speakers who are in the field. He is making a fight in behalf of himself and the remainder of the nominees on the republican ticket. The return to the state of Congressman Charles H. Burke, the republican nominee for election to the U. S. senate has added interest to the campaign which now has only about two weeks more to run. Congressman Burke will return to Washington after a short sojourn in the state, but during his stay in South Dakota will make use of every moment to advance the interests of himself and the other republican nominees.

FUTURE GROWTH OF KEOKUK PLANNED

The Great Mistake Made by Cities of the Land Has Been Forestalled by the Association.

KEOKUK WILL GROW

Now That She Has a Chance is the Important Matter for the Industrial Association to Settle.

Is there any system or any pattern blue print or set of specifications whereby the city can grow with any degree of system? These are questions which have come up to the builders of all cities, sometimes early but usually after tremendous mistakes have been made and millions of dollars wasted in improvements which must be destroyed before future growth is possible.

Just as Hugh L. Cooper required plans and specifications of the most accurate kind that no mistake might be made and that the great dam might stand for all time, so Keokuk through its industrial association has planned the growth of this city to make it permanent and symmetrical for all time to come.

The Nolan plan for Keokuk is one of the best. Keokuk stands out peculiarly prominent in the state of Iowa because it is the only Iowa city which has a city plan scientifically drawn by a professional city planner, who knows what a city should be.

The reason why Washington, D. C. is such a beautiful city is because the plans of the great French city planner are being followed in detail.

Few people will realize the value of this plan for the city because it is to prevent mistakes, which if made, might later cost millions of dollars to correct. Cleveland, Ohio, neglected its city plan until it has become a large city. Now that the expense of change will be perfectly enormous the city of Cleveland has discovered that it can never be the great city hoped for until it has been replanned and remodeled. This replanning and remodeling is costing Cleveland millions of dollars and yet Cleveland is willing to do it because of what it will mean to future growth. German and French cities have been practically made over at enormous cost and inconvenience because of the lack of any system about their growth.

Keokuk has forestalled all of this and has made its own future secure, beautiful, business like, economical, adequate to the needs of tremendous growth and modern.

The fact that the industrial association has seen this need so early in the development of the city and has been able to handle it at particularly small expense, thus providing for the future in a most acceptable manner, more than justifies the effort and the money expended. The present generation will enjoy it greatly but future generations will see the plan more completely and satisfactorily filled.

TERM COMMENCES IN FEDERAL COURT

Judge Van Valkenburgh of Western District of Missouri Presides at Opening Session This Morning.

JURY WORK IS LIGHT

This Body Expects to Complete Its Work Today—Criminal Docket is Ordered Called.

Federal court opened this morning at 10 o'clock with Judge Arba S. Van Valkenburgh of the western district of Missouri, presiding. The grand jury was empaneled, and after being sworn, was sent to its room to deliberate on the matters which will be presented. It is expected that it will finish its labors today. The equity docket was considered and the criminal docket was called this afternoon.

Judge Van Valkenburgh is presiding in the place of Judge Smith McPherson. He was appointed to hold this term by Senior Circuit Judge Sarnborn. It was found on roll call that there were sixteen of the grand jurors present. This was just the number required by the statutes, and after the usual questions by the district attorney respecting qualifications, the court ordered R. J. Rainey of Centerville sworn as foreman. The members of the panel are: W. H. Burdun, Foster; F. J. Boyd, Fairfield; Frank Bishop, New London; S. G. Bargrover, Burlington; W. H. Collins, Salem; T. J. Kelley, Iavenport; William Kohl, Ottumwa; Clay Kneese, Muscatine; O. H. Lewerton, Milton; Claude Myers, Ottumwa; D. S. Noff, Wayland; L. H. Rowland, Milton; W. W. Smith, Ottumwa; J. W. Ward, Burlington; R. C. Whisler, Morning Sun.

Two prisoners were presented to the grand jury, and offered no objections. The cases of Otus Logan and J. E. Garnett, charged with bootlegging, and Wood's, charged with the manufacture of opium are some of the cases before the grand jury. They are in custody.

At Morning Session.

During the morning session the motions. The cases of Otus Logan and Wilson vs. the Mississippi River Power company to the district court were argued by the attorneys for both sides.

In the cases of Merritt Margison vs. A. R. Putnam, and Merchants National bank of Burlington vs. Federal Contracting company, a master probably will be appointed.

In the case of Charles A. Besser vs. Merritt Culvert Core company in which testimony was taken before Charles J. Smith, examiner, the presence of two attorneys was desired, and they were expected in this afternoon. Also some exhibits were expected.

In the case of H. F. Bonbow vs. Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad company, Mr. Stewart called attention of the court that as Judge McPherson had signed an order disqualifying himself to hear the matter, and no other judge had been named he did not believe it could be heard by the court unless he had been especially designated. The court agreed with Mr. Stewart. Attorney Benbow said it was agreeable to him to proceed before Judge Van Valkenburgh. It was intimated that there might be a settlement, which led the court to remark that it was best to exhaust all measures for peace before taking up arms.

Judge Van Valkenburgh called the petit jury for this afternoon at 2 o'clock when the sessions resumed.

STOCK EXCHANGE NEEDS A GUARDIAN

Government or State Recognition Would Prove of Benefit to all Concerned.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 20.—A tremendous opportunity to inspire the public with confidence and take a step in the direction of restoring normal financial conditions in the opinion of Senator Miles Polindexter of Washington, when, before the New York exchange is opened, to submit voluntarily to some form of governmental recognition before re-opening for trading.

"I believe that the New York exchange should be regulated by the national government," said Senator Polindexter today, "but on the other hand it will be impossible for congress to enact legislation in the immediate future looking toward regulation of stock exchanges. Adjustment is upon us and the next session is the short one in which we will not have much more than enough time to put through the appropriation bills. I do not know whether it would be practicable for the state of New York to put into effect any scheme of governmental regulation before the time of reopening the exchange comes or not, but certainly some such regulation should be had. In event that it is impossible to get through any legislation either state, or federal, stock exchange members should show to the public their desire to protect everybody from suspicion of double dealing and offer voluntarily to permit such regulation without any law being passed compelling it."

You have a throbbing sensation in your head, a bad taste in your mouth, your eyes burn, your skin is yellow, with dark rings under your eyes; your lips are parched. No wonder you feel ugly, mean and ill-tempered. Your system is full of bile not properly passed off, and what you need is a cleaning up inside. Don't continue being a bilious nuisance to yourself and those who love you, and don't resort to harsh physics that irritate and injure. Remember that most disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels are cured by morning with gentle, thorough Cascarets—they work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from your druggist will keep your liver and bowels clean; stomach sweet, and your head clear for months. Children love to take Cascarets, because they taste good and never gripe or sicken.

While declaring that it was highly desirable that some form of governmental regulation should be imposed on the New York stock exchange before its re-opening Senator Shafroth, one of the senators from the banking committee, who stood by Senator Owen in his efforts to have passed last winter a bill for regulation for stock exchanges, admitted today that there was no immediate prospect of national regulations. "I think something ought to be done by the state of New York," said Senator Shafroth. "There is intense opposition in congress for any federal regulation but there could not be the same opposition for regulation by the state of New York. But I am not sure it would be well to rush any regulation through the state of New York. Measures hurried through usually are so full of holes as to be worthless. Perhaps the ideal solution would be for the New York stock exchange governors to submit voluntarily to some form of regulation."

Good Eating at Low Cost

We eat far too much meat. We eat meat to excess under the mistaken idea that it is necessary to nourish our bodies, while we continually pass up foodstuffs that (weight for weight) contain more nutriment and cost considerably less than meat.

Take Faust Macaroni for instance. A 10c package of this macaroni contains as much nutriment as four pounds of beef, and has another big advantage, too, in that it is much easier digested.

And consider the many savory, appetizing dishes that can be made from Faust Macaroni. Write for free recipe book today. Your grocer sells Faust Macaroni—5c and 10c packages. Buy today.

THE REBEKAH ASSEMBLY

Representatives From Keokuk Serve on Committee—Perfect Weather Marks Opening of Convention.

BURLINGTON, Iowa, Oct. 20.—Perfect weather marked the opening day of the annual convention of the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs. The delegates began to arrive in the city on Sunday and yesterday every incoming train brought its quota of members. The city is in gala attire and everybody is ready to welcome the visitors. This convention is in the nature of a home-coming as it marks the seventieth anniversary of the organization of the first lodge in Iowa at Burlington on April 4, 1847. Washington lodge No. 1, was instituted by District Deputy John Potts, of Galena, Ill., at that time, following the granting of a dispensation by the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the United States. The six charter members of Washington Lodge No. 1, were Richard Mansley, W. H. Mauro, John Jones, Oliver Cook, William D. McCash and T. E. Goodhue.

This is the sixty-seventh annual session of the I. O. O. F. Grand Lodge of Iowa. Twenty years ago the forty-seventh session was held in Burlington and many who were present then, are here now. The headquarters of the convention are at the Hotel Burlington. The hotel presents a most animated appearance with its throngs of delegates to the Odd Fellows convention and the Rebekah assembly. The Odd Fellows hold their meetings at the Grand opera house, while the Rebekahs meet at Elks hall. Yesterday morning was spent in registration, renewing old friendships, and making trips about the city.

The Grand Encampment. The grand encampment was called to order at 1:30 p. m. Monday, the following officers being present: Grand patriarch—Zala A. Church. Grand high priest—Geo. P. Campbell, Davis City.

The roll was called, nearly all representatives being present.

The Rebekah Assembly. The Rebekah assembly met at the Elks hall at eight o'clock last night. The social feature of the evening was emblematic of Rebekah Odd Fellowship. Beautiful tableaux were given. In one of them representing the orphan's home at Mason City, Pauline and Richard Otto of Wapello took part and met with great applause.

The anniversary ceremony was exemplified by the staff from Derexa Rebekah lodge No. 129 of Wapello. The exercises were beautiful and impressive and everybody felt more than repaid for coming to the convention after witnessing last evening's ceremony.

Mrs. Bessie Watson Niemeyer, of Burlington, rendered one of her always popular whistling solos. Mr. George Bruhl gave a reading which received great applause and Prof. Frank Sherratt gave a pleasing concert solo.

The officers taking part in the Rebekah meeting last night were as follows: Noble grand, Laura Rice; vice grand, Louise Cody; past grand, Carrie Hoag; inside guardian, Gail Bishop; staff, Alice Otto, Mayme Davidson, Lou Erwin, Zilla Wright, Mary Davis, Nellie Hale, Ada Smith, Gertrude Poor, Georgiana Murphy, Louise Barnes, Anna Warren, Josie Reutinger, Pianist Lorena Bean; director, Louisa Grimm.
