

Great Piano Prize Distribution

TO BE MADE BY

Duncan-Schell Furniture Co.

To the Most Energetic Men, Women, Boy or Girl in Keokuk and Vicinity

CAMPAIGN STARTS
MONDAY, NOV. 2

THE PRIZES

CAMPAIGN ENDS
TUESDAY, DEC. 15

Important Points to Remember

You may enter.

You may win.

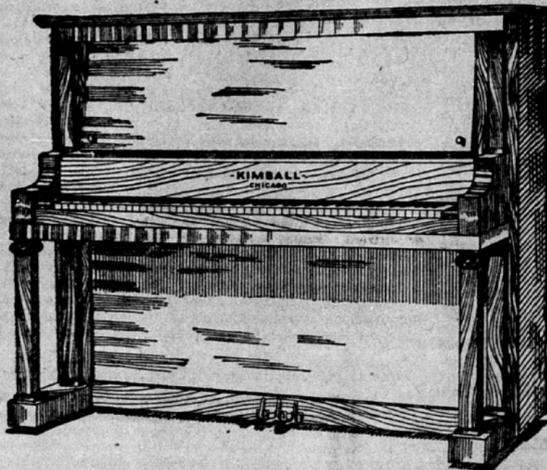

We will assist you and give you help at any time.

Hand in the names of your prospects early; if they are sold after being accepted you are paid a 2 per cent commission if you do not win a prize.

The handing in of the name of a prospect counts you nothing until that prospect is sold a piano. We will try and sell them and you should use your influence toward that end.

The prospects must be bona-fide prospects. The prospect must be accepted by us.

The fact that the merit of Kimball Pianos is known everywhere helps you. DUNCAN-SCHELL FURN. CO.

FIRST PRIZE—Either Oak or Mahogany

Awarding of Prizes

First prize—$300 Kimball Piano, either oak or mahogany finish, as desired by the winner.

Second prize—$50 in cash.

Third prize—$25 in cash.

The contestant who hands in the names of the prospects to which we make the largest number of piano sales during this campaign will receive first prize.

The contestant who hands in the names of the prospects to which we make the second largest number of piano sales during this campaign will receive second prize.

The contestant who hands in the names of the prospects to which we make the third largest number of piano sales during this campaign will receive third prize.

Persons winning any of the three main prizes will not be allowed the 2 per cent commission mentioned elsewhere.

NOTICE: Contestants who hand in the names of prospects and do everything in their power to influence their prospects during the campaign, but who fail to win one of the three main prizes will be paid a commission of 2 per cent on all sales to the prospects that were handed in by them, accepted and sold. Everyone can win.

WHO MAY ENTER CAMPAIGN RULES AND CONDITIONS

Everyone who is of good character, married or unmarried, old or young, is eligible to compete in this campaign. This means that both men and women are acceptable.

No employe of the Duncan-Schell Furniture Co., or member of the employe's immediate family can enter or compete for any of the prizes.

The Duncan-Schell Furniture Co. reserves the right to reject any entry. Anyone may enter this campaign at any time during its progress.

Prospect coupons will appear in the different newspapers from time to time. When sending in names of prospects these coupons should be neatly cut out, properly filled in and brought or mailed to the Duncan-Schell Furniture Co. music department, so that they may be placed on file there. If it is impossible to get prospect coupons, the same information should be handed in in writing.

No two persons can receive credit for handing in the name of the same prospect. Prospects cannot be transferred but must be secured through the regular channel according to the rules of this campaign.

If the name of a prospect is handed in and accepted we will endeavor to sell them, and if they are sold, the sale will be credited to the contestant who handed in the name and had it accepted. If the name of a prospect is to count, a sale must be made. The coupon does not count unless we succeed in selling the person by 10 o'clock p. m., December 15.

Contestants may secure prospects anywhere, within a radius of 35 miles of Keokuk. Contestants may have anyone, anywhere influence the prospects. Contestants who hand in the name of prospects and do everything in their power to influence their prospects during the campaign, but who fail to win one of the three main prizes will be paid a commission of 2 per cent on all sales to the prospects that were handed in by them, accepted, and sold. Everyone can win.

All questions arising during this campaign not provided for in these rules, will be decided by the Duncan-Schell Furniture Co.

In the event of a tie, the value of the prizes tied for will be equally divided among those tying.

Any statement or promise made by any solicitor or contestant varying from the rules laid down and published in the newspapers, will not be recognized by the Duncan-Schell Furniture Co.

The Duncan-Schell Furniture Co. reserves the right to alter rules and regulations during the competition if necessary for the protection of the best interest of the contestants and themselves.

The Duncan-Schell Furniture Co. guarantees fair treatment to all contestants, and should any question arise a decision of the management will be considered final and absolute.

It is not necessary for you to buy anything or be a customer of the Duncan-Schell Furniture Co. to enter this campaign.

Persons who enter and take part in this campaign will thereby bind themselves to abide by the foregoing rules.

FAINTING BERTHA IN NEW GUISE

This Time an Old Soldier Springs Trick and Secures Generous Donations as Result.

Some months ago an old man was picked up in Hamilton streets in a fainting condition. He was carried to the Granite hotel and cared for until able to leave town. He was given some money and a ticket to a point in Indiana where he had relatives. Getting on the T. P. & W. he only went as far as LaHarpe where he pulled off the same stunt and met with the same generous treatment. In Bushnell he pulled the same play, and now attention is called to the exploits of the old man in Iowa. From an Iowa exchange is the following: James Brady, a confederate veteran, is vying with the woman known as "Fainting Bertha." He has fainted at Keosauqua, Fairfield and other places and purses of money have been raised for him. Of his recent Bloomfield "faint" a paper says: "James Brady, the confederate veteran who suffered a fainting spell in the Fairfield park last Tuesday, seems to be addicted to the habit. The spells seem to come upon him in the central part of a town where there are a good many people present. Thursday at Bloomfield, when the members of the Third Iowa cavalry were holding their reunion there, Mr. Brady appeared and had another fainting spell. All the details occurred as at Fairfield, as stated by Fairfield people who witnessed both 'accidents.' In Fairfield a purse of about $25 was raised for the stranger, who looked as if he needed it. In Bloomfield the purse raised amounted to $35. The stranger claimed to be a member of the Third Virginia cavalry, the famous Black Horse brigade."

ORDERS ARE ENTERED BY JUDGE HAMILTON

Probate Matters and One Judgment Are Taken up by Court This Morning.

The final report in the estate of A. E. Gross has been filed by the administrator, R. B. Ross and approved by the court. The will of R. K. Galloupe was opened and publicly read this morning. An order was issued setting November 10 as the day for probating this will. A judgment was signed in the district court this morning by Judge Hamilton in favor of the Keokuk Wire Products company and against Casper, Butler, the amount being $3,000.

Woman's Strange Story.
[United Press Leased Wire Service.]
CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—The strange story told by Mrs. Florence Marrow Raymond, wife of a wealthy chemical manufacturer, was to be investigated in court today when her attorneys sought a writ of habeas corpus for her release from the Psychopathic hospital, where she is detained in a cell for an examination as to her sanity. Jules N. Raymond, her husband, is at the Columbus hospital, where it is said he is suffering from arsenical poisoning. According to his wife's story, an analysis of his food showed the presence of large quantities of arsenic. Almost immediately after this discovery was made she was "kidnaped," she says, and rushed to the hospital for a sanity investigation on commitment papers procured by her husband.

Her brother learned of her presence and took steps to bring about her release. At the Psychopathic hospital today Mrs. Raymond, who is known there as "the copper haired beauty," admitted that she once fled from a trip to Florida, she said, and found her husband had established another woman in a flat. Matters were patched up, she said, and she withdrew the suit. "Why should they send me here, when I'm as sane as anyone?" demanded Mrs. Raymond. "I didn't poison him. Why should I? I'm not jealous any more."

CHANCE MEETING REUNITED SISTERS

Des Moines and Alton Women Go to Youngstown for First Real Reunion.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.]
CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—Reunited by chance, Mrs. Laura Krantz of Des Moines, Iowa, and Mrs. Bertha Martin of Alton, Ill., sisters who had not seen each other for twenty years, were enroute to Alton today for a real reunion. Mrs. Krantz, who was Laura Mackey left her home at Youngstown, Ohio, twenty years ago and came to Chicago. Later she moved west and married, but in some way the report reached her parents that she was dead. Mrs. Krantz, enroute home from a trip to the east, encountered her sister, who had been shopping in Chicago, in the union station. Mrs. Martin at first insisted that her sister was dead and declared Mrs. Krantz an impostor because she did not bear a peculiar birthmark on her neck. Mrs. Krantz proved her identity by taking the Alton woman to a physician who had removed the birth mark.

OBITUARY

[Contributed.]

On Oct. 23, 1914, George Olander of Quincy, Ill., departed from this world after an illness of six weeks. Little hope was entertained for his recovery, but every effort was made to prolong life. He had been failing in health for two years. The cause of his death was cerebral spinal meningitis. The deceased had been a life long resident of Quincy and vicinity. He was prominent in political circles and highly respected and esteemed by all who knew him.

On Aug. 12, 1908, he was united in marriage to Miss Lettie Johnson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Johnson of Alexandria, Mo., who was constantly at his bedside during his illness, until death relieved him of his suffering. Besides his widow and children of a former marriage, he leaves to mourn his loss, an aged mother, sister and brother of Portland, Ore., another sister of Quincy. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Bingaman of the Lutheran Memorial church, assisted by a mixed quartette. His demise was a great shock to his many friends as he was not confined to his home until the latter part of his illness.

ATTENDED FUNERAL OF GEORGE OLLANDER

Many Missouri Relatives of the Late-ent Young Man Go to the Funeral at Quincy.

The following personal items came to The Gate City from a friend at Alexandria, Mo., of relatives and friends who attended the funeral of George Olander, who died at Quincy and whose obituary is given elsewhere:

Dr. and Mrs. Johnson of Alexandria have returned home after attending the funeral of their son-in-law George Olander of Quincy.

Mrs. Lydia Cull and Sam LaFrents of Wyaconda, Mo., attended the funeral of their cousin George Olander of Quincy.

Wm. Bennett of Alexandria attended the funeral of George Olander of Quincy.

Miss Lessie Johnson of Alexandria, came up from St. Louis to attend the funeral of her brother-in-law George Olander.
