REPORT IS MADE ON MONEY SECURED

Industrial Association Directors Learn That $6,001 Was Collected in Campaign Recently Waged Here.

TALK OVER PROJECTS

More New Industrial Prospects Are Heard From in Last Month According to Manager's Report.

The directors of the Keokuk Industrial association last night received a report on the money collected in the recent canvass. This amount is $6,001, according to the report which was received. This is a final report in the matter of canvasses which were made last month, and continued into this morning.

The meeting Monday night, which Manager Towne and C. R. Joy had with Messrs. Day and Roberts, Hugh L. Cooper and power company and Stone & Webster company officials was discussed at some length. The general tone of this discussion was optimistic, as it was felt that these men were interested in Keokuk or they would not have asked as many questions as they did.

It was reported that there had been progress along industrial lines. Nine new projects have developed this month, which is considered quite hopeful. In all it was reported that there are some thirty-five projects along industrial lines which are still alive and which may develop into something worth while. Many of these projects were those taken up at one time or another in the months past which have not been dropped, but which are being held up for reasons.

The entire discussion by the directors last night was optimistic, and the industrial outlook was felt to be better than it has been.

ANNOUNCEMENT. The public will be interested to know that Arthur C. Reed of Sedalia, Mo., has engaged in the poultry business in Keokuk, having bought the Consumers Wholesale Supply Co.'s poultry business and will conduct the same with no connection with the above company whatever. Mr. Reed has been engaged in the poultry business for fourteen years at Sedalia, Mo., and in Los Angeles, California, and is a practical man in every particular branch of this business. He has moved his family to Keokuk and will reside here. It will be of special interest to poultry raisers in this section of the country to know that Mr. Reed will pay the highest cash prices for poultry of all kinds. Establishment at the corner of Eighth and Johnson streets.

RUDD WILL SPEAK ON "EARTH" TONIGHT

First of Scientific Lectures Before Peoples' Institute is to be Given.

At the Peoples' Institute tonight the members will have the privilege of hearing the first of a series of lectures on the subject, "The Wonders of Science," which is to be given this winter. The lecture this evening will be on the subject, "The Earth We Live On," and the speaker will be the Rev. Dr. Rudd of Ft. Madison, who was for twenty-seven years professor of science in a leading school in Illinois. Dr. Rudd is a delightful speaker, and the lecture this evening, which will be profusely illustrated with stereopticon views, will prove of great interest to the members of the institute.

Mrs. J. L. Rand of Carthage.

CARTHAGE, Ill., Nov. 20.—Mrs. J. L. Rand died last evening of apoplexy and paralysis after many years of declining health, aged sixty-six.

Mrs. Rand was a member of the Presbyterian church and the funeral will be held from that church Sunday afternoon.

A Steaming Hot Dish for Cold Nights.

When the air is snappy and you feel like having a steaming hot meal that will put vim and life into you, try Faust Spaghetti.

Serve it real hot—cooked with ripe red tomatoes. Sprinkle some powdered cheese over. All you need to go along with it is plain bread and butter and you've got a meal that will surely touch the spot. Nutritious, too—a 10c package of Faust Spaghetti contains four times more nutriment than a pound of the finest tenderloin steak.

Cut down on your meat bills and eat Faust Spaghetti oftener. Make it the chief meal at least twice a week; as a side dish, serve frequently. Write for free recipe book. Buy a package at your grocer's today—5c and 10c. MAULL BROS., St. Louis Missouri

HERE GOOD FELLOWS WON'T YOU ASSIST?

Yesterday one of the Good Fellows found a family consisting of man, woman and three small children who were actually suffering from want of a fire. They were endeavoring to keep warm with a few small boxes which they were burning in the heating stove. The man is not a dissipated workman but one of the unfortunates who has had more idle time than work and whose family is not as healthy as they might be. This same family are greatly in need of a cook stove. They are now using a two burner gasoline stove. Coal was provided at once and the Good Fellows ask their friends to assist in keeping up this good work by making as liberal a contribution as possible to a fund which will be used exclusively for aiding similar families. Make your check payable to Golden Book Fund and send it to No. 9 South Third. All contributions will be acknowledged.

Christensen will speak on "Special Reasons for Thanksgiving," emphasizing our cause for thanksgiving this year as a nation. The music will include a vocal duet by Miss Ethel Osborne and Miss Alice McGowen, "Count Your Blessings."

—The first of a series of special musical services will take place at St. John's church on Sunday afternoon next under the direction of Mr. Frank E. Fuller, organist and choirmaster. The soloist for the afternoon being Master Elmer Bunch, who possesses a voice of great sweetness and richness. These special musical services will be held on the fourth Sunday of each month during the winter and spring.

MRS. FRANK HALBECK DIES IN CHICAGO

Demise Occurred This Morning at 2:00 O'clock at Home in Suburbs of City.

Word was received here today of the death in Clyde, Ill., of Mrs. Frank Halbeck. Death occurred this morning at 2:00 o'clock. There were no particulars in the telegram announcing her demise, and no funeral arrangements have been made as yet. It is probable that she will be buried at Keokuk, however.

Mrs. Halbeck formerly lived in Keokuk. Both she and Mr. Halbeck were former Keokuk residents. Mr. Halbeck's brother, C. A. Halbeck, and sister, Mrs. Ed. S. Lofton, live here.

Mr. and Mrs. Halbeck have made their home near Chicago for a number of years. They went there from this city. Mrs. Halbeck's death was not unexpected as she had been ill for some time. Friends and acquaintances here extend their sympathy to Mr. Halbeck.

DEFECTIVE FLUE CAPS STARTS TWO FIRES

Most Popular Cause of Small Fires Again Coming Into its Own Since Cold Weather.

Defective flue caps are again coming into their own as the most popular cause of fires. Two fires were started this morning from this cause. The first occurred at 6:55 when a defective flue cap allowed the wall paper in the home of Roy Mitchell, 1721 Carroll street, to catch fire. A loose flue cap in the basement of Moeller's cigar store between Sixth and Seventh on Main, allowed the sparks to drop to the floor, starting a small fire there. The damage in both fires was slight.

It is expected that there will be a large attendance at the service.

Decorating.

The girls engaged in promoting the Japanese exhibition were down in force this afternoon decorating the rooms preparatory to the Japanese exhibition and are showing much skill and taste in their decorative efforts. They are also engaged in making candy for the exhibition. They are as busy as bees, yet are as active and full of joy as if they were at play instead of work.

AMUSEMENTS.

Nell O'Brien Minstrels.

The third annual appearance of Nell O'Brien and his great American minstrels at the Grand next Tuesday night, will, as formerly, be anticipated no doubt with much real pleasure by all minstrel lovers who have come to regard Mr. O'Brien and his associates as the country's leading exponents of black face merriment. The organization is again under the management of Oscar F. Hodge who promises an entirely new show in every detail, all new scenery, new wardrobe, new faces and new features.

A big new dancing number introducing several entirely new and novel features, has been staged by Pete Detzel and is said to be the most elaborate act of its kind ever staged. During this number several features will be introduced including the appearance of Geo. F. Peduzzi, an European female impersonator who has won renown for his magnificent gowns and wonderfully deceptive make up. It also affords an opportunity for Eddie Mazier and Major Nowak to introduce a little skit of mirth provoking qualities. Doran and Strong in new dances and Pete Detzel in a new and absurdly grotesque terpsichorean effort that it always convulsing. The closing number conceived and staged by Mr. O'Brien is said to be in the nature of a surprise and out of the ordinary, enlisting the services of the entire company with some beautiful and artistic scenic effects.—Advertisement.

Orpheum Tonight.

A special picture program will interest the patrons of the Orpheum tonight. "Monsieur Bluebeard" in two acts; "Across the Court," another fine picture; also, "When Father Goes to Church," a great comedy, and a special program of music. If you want to see a real show of pictures, the Orpheum is the place to go.—Advertisement.

Isle of Smiles.

One of Ned Alford's, Inc., shows, "The Isle of Smiles," appeared at the Hippodrome last night and gave entire satisfaction to a large crowd present.

The Isle of Smiles differs in general character from any of the shows that have gone before or any that will follow. It is different in conception and different in treatment.

It appears, so the story goes, that one Ayr Shipp, an American aviator, learn that he is the heir to many millions of dollars secreted by his grandfather in the interior of Mexico over half a century ago at the time General Scott was making the greasers take to the lengthy and unstocked. Ayr determines to betake himself to the troubled land in search of the lost treasure. The trip is made in his air craft and he is accompanied by his aids, Willie Hanz and Jules Nix. It would take no Hawkshaw to discover that these worthless furnish most of the fun in The Isle of Smiles. The first act occurs on the Hacienda de Las Vegas, where the treasure is supposed to be buried. Arriving at the ranch Ayr meets Bella Pazzaza, a former sweetheart, whom he met while she attended Vassar. The young woman is the daughter of Senor Tabbasco y de la Pazzaza, the owner of the Hacienda. The young people renew their courtship in true comic opera fashion while the two Germans get mixed up in all kinds of troubles.

with the various ranch employes. Then Queen Fortuna makes a startling entrance from a huge cactus plant and divulges the hiding place of the treasure. Ayr and his aids find the money.

See it tonight at the Hippodrome. Plenty of music and a star cast.—Advertisement.
