

Improve the Coffee and You Improve the Meal

The corner of the table that holds the coffee urn is the balancing point of your dinner. If the coffee is a "little off" for some reason or other—probably it's the coffee's own fault—things don't seem as good as they might; but when it is "up to taste" the meal is a pleasure from start to finish. If the balancing point is giving you trouble, let Wanda Blend coffee properly regulate it for you. 30c a pound.

RID STOMACH OF GASES, SOURNESS, AND INDIGESTION

"Pape's Diapepsin" Ends all stomach distress in five minutes.

You don't want a slow remedy when your stomach is bad—or an uncertain one—or a harmful one—your stomach is too valuable; you mustn't injure it with drastic drugs.

Pape's Diapepsin is noted for its speed in giving relief; its harmlessness; its certain unfailing action in regulating sick, sour, gassy stomachs. Its millions of cures in indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis, and other stomach trouble has made it famous the world over.

Keep this perfect stomach doctor in your home—keep it handy—get a large fifty-cent case from any drug store and then if anyone should eat something which doesn't agree with them; if what they eat lays like lead, ferments and sours and forms gases; causes headache, dizziness and nausea; eructations of acid and undigested food—remember as soon as Pape's Diapepsin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. Its promptness, certainty and ease in overcoming the worst stomach disorders is a revelation to those who try it.

ON THE CHILLY ROAD BOUND FOR OSKALOOSA

Two Aged Colored People and Two Sons Left Keokuk Yesterday Afternoon in Unique Style.

Two aged colored people, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hobbs, started on a unique trip yesterday afternoon with their mules' heads turned toward Oskaloosa. With them were their two sons and they formed an interesting group and told an entertaining story. They came to Keokuk about two months ago, and after paying their fare and the freightage on their goods, including two mules and a wagon, they had not much left to carry them through. The old man complained that he could find no work in his line in Keokuk, so concluded to load up his little wagon, to which he hitched his mules and at the signal "Git up," he and his family left Keokuk, and the old man said, as his financial condition was at a low ebb, if he didn't get something to do at Oskaloosa, "they'd have to walk to some other promising local locality."

The wagon was fitted up in style as comfortable as the old man could make it. He had arranged a small stove on the inside, which was to be used as both a heater and a cooker, and the wagon was to serve as a room for all purposes, bedroom, sitting room, parlor, kitchen and dining room, except when they choose to cook by the road side over a twig fire on the ground.

They appeared to enjoy the situation and not a wave of trouble crossed their peaceful brows. They appeared to be used to such conditions and related how they once made a trip the same way, from Abilene, Kan., to Lawton, Okla., a distance greater than on which they started from Keokuk yesterday afternoon, and came out of it with glowing colors. It is hoped that the old couple and their two sons will find the end of the rainbow as they drive into Oskaloosa.

Tonight, if you feel dull and stupid, or bilious and constipated, take a dose of Chamberlain's Tablets and you will feel all right tomorrow. For sale by all dealers.—Advertisement.

LITTLE ANECDOTE ABOUT BURDETTE

Death of Famous Humorist Recalls Remark Made at Time He Wrote His First Lecture Years Ago.

HE TRIED IT OUT HERE

Said Keokuk Hated Burlington and if He Succeeded Here He Knew It Must Be Good, and It Was.

The death of Robert J. Burdette which occurred last week, recalls among other things that his first lecture was written at the instance of his wife and tried out at Keokuk. The reason for his coming to Keokuk, however, was disclosed by a writer for a Pasadena, Calif., paper. The clipping was sent to some friends in Keokuk and is given here:

Robert J. Burdette began cultivating good humor obscurely in Peoria, Ill., forty years ago, when he spent part of his days at a desk on the Peoria Transcript "trying to think," as he himself once related, "of pleasant things to tell the folks when I went home at night."

His audience of "folks" then was Carrie Garrett, the Peoria girl he had married a short time before while she lay supposedly on her death bed, but who lived and, though an invalid for life, became immortalized by her husband as "Her Little Serene Happiness."

It was she who encouraged him to sow his humor in wider fields. At her bedside Burdette became prolific with fun-making contributions to the Burlington (Iowa) Hawk-Eye, and through these he became famous the country over as "The Burlington Hawk-Eye Man."

Invalid Wife Aided Him. The little invalid wife encouraged him, too, to try the lecture field.

"She kept me at it," said Burdette, "and in due time we had a lecture on our hands—'The Rise and Fall of the Moustache.'" Burdette insisted on trying the first lecture in Keokuk. "For Keokuk hated Burlington," and if he succeeded there he would know it was good. Even Keokuk applauded. The whole United States later did the same. He became a sort of itinerant preacher.

At 60, ten years ago, Mr. Burdette was called to the permanent pastorate of the Temple Baptist church of Los Angeles, Calif.

Although Burdette's original home was in Greensboro, Pa., where he was born in 1844, the latter part of his life was spent in California. At Chilton-on-the-Sea and at Pasadena, he had spacious homes with broad verandas. His first wife had died after fifteen years of encouragement to him, during which she had traveled all over the country with him. In 1899 he married Mrs. Clara B. Baker of Pasadena.

WON'T MIX.

Bad Food and Good Health Won't Mix.

The human stomach stands much abuse but it won't return good health if you give it bad food.

If you feed right you should feel right, for proper food and a good mind is the sure road to health.

"A year ago I became much alarmed about my health for I began to suffer after each meal no matter how little I ate," says a Denver woman.

"I lost my appetite and the very thought of food grew distasteful, with the result that I was not nourished, and got weak and thin."

"My home cares were very heavy, for beside a large family of my own I have also to look out for an aged mother. There was no one to shoulder my household burdens, and come what might I must bear them, and this thought nearly drove me frantic when I realized that my health was breaking down."

"I read an article in the paper about some one with trouble like mine being helped by Grape-Nuts food and acting on this suggestion I gave Grape-Nuts a trial. The first dish of this delicious food proved that I had struck the right thing."

"My uncomfortable feelings in stomach disappeared as if by magic and in an incredibly short space of time I was myself again. Since then I have gained 12 pounds in weight through a summer of hard work and realize I am a very different woman, all due to the splendid food Grape-Nuts." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Read the famous little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a Reason."

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

HELP THE STARVING BELGIANS

On behalf of the Belgium Relief Association of Iowa, under the direction of G. W. Clarke, governor, the committee of the first Iowa district of which F. J. Kuhlemeier of Burlington is president, is asking for newspaper distribution of information relative to the movement to help the people of this unfortunate country. Postal cards like the one printed below are being sent to every farmer in the district and The Gate City wishes them to know that the movement is not only a worthy one but for legitimate purposes and backed by the governor of the state and responsible citizens. So do not hesitate to contribute all you can to help these starving people. The card that is being mailed soliciting help, is as follows:

THE HOMELESS WOMEN AND CHILDREN OF BELGIUM ARE FACING STARVATION. IOWA WILL COME TO THE RESCUE

The Belgian Relief Association of Iowa, under the appointment of G. W. Clarke, Governor, appeals to the farmer for donations of corn. Your local elevator has opened its doors to receive corn contributions, and all banks, money donations. Bring your donation of corn to your elevator at once. Railroads will transport corn free.

What can a woman do when little children cling to her skirts, begging for bread?

"Give me three grains of corn, mother,
Give me three grains of corn,
To keep the little life I have
Till the coming of the morn."

Respond to this appeal of starving women and children. The need is great. Make this a Thanksgiving Offering!

The Warsaw Gate City

Warsaw, Ill., Nov. 22, 1914.

Thursday evening, the Concordia society, composed of young people of the Lutheran congregation, gave an entertainment in place of holding their regular meeting. Many of the relatives and friends of the members of the society had come to hear and see what the young people could do, this being their first attempt in this line.—The entertainment consisted of vocal and instrumental music, recitations, dialogues and dramatic plays, lasting about two hours. Judging by the hearty applause each number was given the audience was well pleased. The present officers of the society are: Albert Koehler, president; Miss Selma Erdmann, vice-president; Miss Amanda Luedde, secretary; George Koch, treasurer.

On Wednesday evening, Nov. 18, Max Ellenberg and Miss Anna Wirth were united in marriage at the Evangelical parsonage by Rev. E. H. Jagdstein. Both are popular young people. They will take up their residence in Warsaw. Their many friends extend hearty congratulations.

On Sunday next, Nov. 22d, the last Sunday of the church year, special services will be held at the Evangelical St. John's church in memory of the dead.

The basar and supper given by the Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church was largely attended last night in spite of the cold weather. Thanksgiving day again is approaching. The hand that giveth gladly and abundantly is beautiful, no matter how otherwise it may be shaped.

Aside from several funerals, marriages, entertainments, suppers and socials, nothing of importance has happened in Warsaw during the past week, yet to many of those directly effected by the events mentioned it was, no doubt, all the experience and excitement they cared for in one week. And if you were not effected, may be your turn for some special excitement will come some other day.

The many friends of our genial, accommodating, and on account of these virtues highly esteemed fellow-townsmen, Mr. T. F. Patterson, will be glad to learn that he is rapidly recuperating from the recent sudden and severe attack upon his health. May he soon fully recover and be permitted to go on with his good work in the interest of all Warsaw as well as his own and his esteemed family's.

Union Thanksgiving services will be held by the Presbyterian, German M. E. and English M. E. churches, while the Lutheran, Episcopal, Catholic and Evangelical congregations will worship separately in their respective churches.

On Thanksgiving day evening, from 5 to 8 o'clock, the Lutheran choir will serve an oyster supper at Concordia hall.

Y.W.C.A. NOTES

Birthday Party. The first of the monthly birthday suppers was held last night at the Y. W. C. A. cafe. Promptly at 6 o'clock fourteen sat down to supper. The table had a large birthday cake lighted with candles in the center. The table was also decorated with autumn leaves. The ring in the cake was secured by Miss Mary Hollingsworth, the money by Georgia Dunagan, and the thimble by Violet Inman.

Following were those present: Misses Harriet Solomon, Mary Hollingsworth, Violet Inman, Helen Peterson, Edna Drew, Janet Schoel, Georgia Dunagan, Cecil Miller, Mary Lillerstrom, Minnie Waggoner, Opal Peck, Lenna Gaines, Elizabeth Nutting and Tirza Dinsdale.

After supper there was music for a short time until the girls had to depart.

The December party, it is expected, will be even larger than the November one.

Social Plans. The plans of the two social committees are complete for the Kensingtons of the "At Home" members and the young women for next Tuesday afternoon and evening.

These affairs will give all the association members an opportunity to meet Miss Frances Crittenden of Minneapolis, the city executive for the north central field of the Y. W. C. A., who is to be here for a couple of days.

Miss Crittenden is to meet the board of directors at a luncheon in the private dining room on Tuesday afternoon at one o'clock.

Miss Crittenden's visit will center around the association work among high school girls. It is hoped, as a result of her visit, that the high school girls who are members of the local association and any who may wish to join, may be organized into a high school branch of the local association here in Keokuk.

Many of the city associations over the United States have such branches which are doing effective service.

The local work has many high school girls in gymnasium and campfire groups, etc., and it is the hope to unify and therefore strengthen the work.

Thanksgiving Vesper. The Thanksgiving vesper service is to be held Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Miss Harriet Solomon of the high school is to lead the service and Mrs. O. B. Towne is to give a violin solo.

THANKSGIVING DAY DINNERS FOR POOR

Supervisor Young and Fred Korschgan, Superintendent of the Poor, Planning Baskets.

A chicken in proportion to the size of the family for which it is intended, together with trimmings to constitute a real Thanksgiving dinner will be given to each of the families on the list of the county superintendent of the poor, Fred Korschgan. These baskets will be distributed by the county.

This plan of giving the dependents on the county in Keokuk a Thanksgiving treat was decided upon at a conference yesterday between Senator D. A. Young of the board of supervisors and Mr. Korschgan.

Last year it was found that the plan of distribution tried resulted in duplication of baskets in some cases and in missing some of the other people, entirely. To avoid this the county will attend to the distribution entirely this year.

The chicken which will go into the baskets will be proportionate to the size of the family. A big chicken will be sent to a large family, so there will be plenty of drum sticks and wings for everybody.

WOTAN ZOELLNER TO PLAY SUNDAY

Gifted Boy Violinist From Keokuk Will Appear in Recital by Lehman's Pupils.

Next Sunday afternoon Wotan Zoellner and Mrs. Albert Zoellner will appear in the recital which will be given in Chicago by the pupils of Alexander Lehmann. Wotan is the son of Prof. and Mrs. Albert Zoellner of this city. He is but seven years old, but considered one of the most gifted musicians Mr. Lehmann has taught.

His first number will be Mazurka by Mynarski, the second number will be one for two violins and a piano, in which Master Zoellner, Professor Lehmann and Mrs. Zoellner take part, the boy's mother being at the piano.
