WAR WAS MOTHER OF RED CROSS SEAL

It Now Stands as Symbol of Fight for Humanity Against Great White Plague, in All Parts of the World.

ARE TO BE SOLD HERE

Visiting Nurse Association Will Have Charge of Sale of These Seals at Christmas Time as Heretofore.

The Keokuk Visiting Nurse association will again this year sell Red Cross stamps, the proceeds of which go directly toward stamping out tuberculosis in this city. Miss Agnes Trimble, Miss Elsie Buck, Miss Laura Alton, Miss Nettie Younker and Miss Aelxine Reid are the committee in charge of the sale.

Nearly $1,900,000 has been raised by Red Cross Christmas seals in the last six years, and yet many people who will buy these holiday stickers at this seventh annual sale do not know how the charity stamp idea originated.

It was war that brought forth the charity stamp—our civil war of '61 to '65. Some of our grandmothers first played "postoffice" with stickers similar to Red Cross seals 'way back in 1862, when they conceived the idea of selling stamps at fairs for the benefit of the relief funds for the soldiers' hospitals in Brooklyn, Boston and elsewhere. Nearly $1,000,000 was raised in this way before 1865. After the war this method of raising money was discontinued in this country for a generation, although it found vogue in Portugal, Switzerland, Austria, France, Spain, Denmark, Norway, Russia, Sweden and other European countries. There are now several thousands of different types of charity stamps used in all parts of the world, as many as forty being used in Austria for children's hospitals alone.

The Crusade in Norway.

Stamps or seals were first used to get money for the anti-tuberculosis crusade in Norway and Sweden in 1904. To Jacob Riis, the well known social worker of New York, and to Miss Emily P. Bissel, the energetic secretary of the Delaware Red Cross, jointly belong the honor of originating our American Red Cross Christmas seal. In 1909, Mr. Riis' interest was aroused by the receipt of a Christmas tuberculosis stamp on a letter from Norway. He published an article about this queer-looking stamp in the "Outlook," and suggested some possible uses for it in this country.

Night Watchwoman.

(United Press Leased Wire Service.) NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Having produced a public school fire woman, New York today brought out its only "night watchwoman."

She is Mrs. Ethel Ryan, of Brooklyn, and so attractive that Magistrate House could not help gasping slightly when she appeared against a robber. Mrs. Ryan is watchwoman for Washington street produce dealers. She doesn't carry a gun—not even a night stick.

Only Three Killed.

(United Press Leased Wire Service.) NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Motor propelled pleasure vehicles killed three persons and injured fourteen over the Thanksgiving holiday, in and around New York.

HOLIDAY ENJOYED BY ALL KEOKUK

One of the Mildest Thanksgivings in Years Is Recorded, Official Temperature Reaching 64 During Day.

PLENTY OF AMUSEMENT

Family Dinners and Reunions Were Held During Day—Many Visitors Were in the City Yesterday.

Yesterday was one of the mildest Thanksgiving days Keokuk has enjoyed. The weather man announced the temperature officially as 64. The day was fair and the weather ideal for everything but traditional turkey day weather which is supposed to have something of a tang of snow and ice mixed in with it.

Keokuk observed Thanksgiving day as a holiday. Most of the business houses were closed during the entire day, and there was a half holiday at least, for the clerks. The day was one of family reunions and parties. Many of the young people from Keokuk who are attending college were home for the short vacation.

During the afternoon, football, auto racing and theatres divided the crowds. There were over three hundred at the football game and over 1,300 saw the auto races. The theatres did a rushing business, and all Keokuk seemed bent on enjoying their holiday.

The day was an ideal one for auto driving, and Lake Shore drive on both sides of the lake was quite popular. A number of Illinois people were attracted here by the foot ball game and auto races.

Union church services in the morning and afternoon were well attended. The collection taken at the morning service was devoted to the use of the Benevolent Union.

MONTROSE.

Telegraph lightning slingers at the Montrose depot enjoyed a Thanksgiving six o'clock dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hancock where an excellent repast was served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Crooks, Mr. and Mrs. Bowen, Mr. and Mrs. Hancock, Mr. and Mrs. Knobbs and Owen Collins.

One of the largest industries of Montrose is the large ice house of John Noonan, which is one of the best houses along the Mississippi river, equipped with a capacity of three thousand tons. From fifty to one hundred tons can be stowed away a day and it affords employment to seventy-five men.

Evangelistic services have been conducted at the M. E. church all week by the Rev. Rex, pastor, and Rev. Enman of Nauvoo. The young man is a very pleasing speaker.

Mr. and Mrs. John Miles have opened a short order house in the J. L. Varnsdoll building on Main street.

About the hour of five o'clock, the cry of fire from the Jemison meat market called the fire ladders to that place of business. As usual, they did good work and should be complimented for being the most efficient fire department in the county. The building was mostly damaged on the roof and windows broken. Insurance on stock and building in full.

The reporter was entertained and enjoyed an appetizing dinner at the home of Mrs. Ida B. Stockwell on Thanksgiving day where the menu was par excellence.

Home Chimesman of Iowa City is a guest of his mother for an indefinite stay.

Miss Cassie Cale who underwent surgical treatment at St. Joseph's hospital for appendicitis recently, is rapidly improving.

Montrose has many things to be thankful for and there was not one family in the old town but what enjoyed either chicken or turkey and yet we, as a whole, are not thankful enough for blessings we enjoy.

A cotillion party was given at the home of Moch Mitchell Friday night. Rider & Dyes orchestra furnished the music.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hardin, north of Montrose, on Wednesday, Nov. 25, 1914, occurred the marriage of their daughter Miss Blanch Hardin to Mr. Ernest Waider, the Rev. Mr. Rex of the Methodist church officiating. The bride was attired in white satin and carried roses and ferns. The house decorations were green and white. After the ceremony a bounteous three course dinner was served in the dining room. The young lady is a pupil of our high school and would have graduated this year, being an unusually bright scholar. Mr. Waider is a young man of excellent qualities and is a successful farmer. They left on the 1:30 train north for a short stay.

A surprise was planned last Sunday on Mrs. Ida B. Stockwell, it being her birthday anniversary. Her children invaded her home with baskets of good things and left her several tokens of esteem to remind her of the day.

Our people hate to see Sheriff J. C. Scott and wife leave, but good wishes follow them to their new home at Keokuk.

Union Thanksgiving services were held at the Presbyterian church by the Rev. Rex. The theme of the sermon was "What is man, thou are mindful of him."—Psalm 4. He spoke on Christ, the savior of all mankind and the necessity of all mankind being saved. The choir's selections were pleasingly rendered.

Mr. Thonberg of Mt. Hamill was recently a guest at the Louis Wahrer home. We noticed him to be a guest of honor of one of our successful merchants and business men.

The Rev. A. G. Beecham of Hartford, Iowa, has been chosen as pastor by the Presbyterian church for the ensuing year of 1915.

LITTLE BOY WEAK AND SICKLY

Mother Tells How Her Little Son Was Made a Strong, Healthy Boy by Vinol After a Severe Sickness.

New York City.—"About five years ago my little boy, then seven years old, was very ill with gastritis, then he contracted measles from the other children, pneumonia soon followed, and there seemed no hope of saving his life. However, we fought off the disease and he recovered, but was in a very weak and delicate condition.

"The doctor prescribed cod liver oil, but his little stomach swelled up like a drum, and the doctor said there was no cure for him. I decided to try Vinol, results, and it seemed to agree with him. That bloated condition soon disappeared, and now he is a strong, healthy boy, thanks to Vinol."—Mrs. THOMAS FITZGERALD, 1990 Park Ave., New York City.

In all cases where the healing, curative, tissue building influence of cod liver oil, or the strength-creating, blood-making properties of tonic iron are needed, Vinol gives immediate benefit, for it is easily assimilated and acceptable to the weakest stomach, because it contains no oil or grease, and tastes delicious.
