MRS. FOUTS DIED SUNDAY AFTERNOON
 At the Family Home, 1216 Park Street, a Resident of This Vicinity All Her Life.
 Another Keokuk family is called to mourn for the loss by death of a devoted wife and a kind and affectionate mother. Mrs. Amanda J. Fouts, wife of Joseph Fouts, died at the family residence, 1216 Park street, at 4:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon, of stomach trouble and complications. Mrs. Fouts was before marriage, Miss Amanda J. Martin, and was born in Lee county. She was twice married. Her first marriage was to John Huele. After his death she was married to Joseph Fouts in September, 1871, and had lived in this locality during her entire life. While not an affiliated member of any church organization, earlier in life she was baptised according to the rites of the Baptist faith by a minister of that church. She was a woman, however, of noble christian

 Ideas, and her deeds were in keeping with her ideas of a true and exemplary life. She was a social and genial neighbor, a fond wife and mother, devoted to family, home and the welfare of her friends of whom she had many. She will be sadly missed in her home and among her friends and neighbors where her gentle influence was felt and appreciated.
 She is survived by her husband, Joseph Fouts, and two sons by the former marriage, William H. and George M. Huele, both of Keokuk, and three daughters of the second marriage, Mrs. Nellie Wharton and Mrs. Daisy Allen, both of Keokuk, and Mrs. George Alvis of Montrose. Besides these there are twenty grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

BIG REAL ESTATE DEAL IS RECORDED
 E. E. Hawkes Sells Building at Eighth and Main Streets for $13,500, to Mary Cameron.
 One of the big real estate deals of the present month which have been recorded is the sale of the building at Eighth and Main streets, owned by E. E. Hawkes, to Mrs. Mary Cameron. The warranty deed recording the transfer was filed for record today.
 The property is described as the northwest 30 feet of lot 7 in block 106 in the original city. A tentative agreement was made some time ago for the transfer of this property, and it was to be completed before December 1.

NAMES OF JURORS BEING PREPARED
 Total of 1,823 Have Been Certified From Election Board to Clerk of District Court.
 A total of 1,823 names are to be written on the jury slips for the coming year by the county clerk. These names have been certified to the clerk from the judges of the election boards. The names are divided as follows: One hundred and fifty for the grand jury; 1,074 for the petit jury and 599 talesmen.
 Clerk Hart has commenced the huge task of writing these names on the officially designated jury blanks.

by policemen and firemen who formed "human chains" to pass several women who had fainted, from the top floor windows. A score or more persons were rescued by being swung from windows and fire escapes to ladders, the tops of which had not reached the walls of the building. The fire is thought to have started from a cigarette stub thrown among papers in the lower hallway.
