In Teachers' Favor. [United Press Leased Wire Service.] NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—Teacher-mothers who have been fighting the New York board of education rule by which married teachers are suspended for remaining away from their duties to bear children, today predicted a rescinding of the order. Mayor Mitchell last night appointed eight new members of the board. He had previously expressed disapproval of the ruling which made it impossible for married teachers to become mothers and declared that "some way would be found to give the teacher-mothers a chance." Adherents of the teacher-mother cause said today that all of the eight new members are favorable to their cause.

Wisconsin Suffragists. MILWAUKEE, Wis., Dec. 3.—The twenty-ninth annual convention of the Wisconsin Woman Suffrage association opened a three day session here today.

The Nauvo Gate City

Nauvo, Ill., Dec. 3, 1914

Ed. Bevering, the Keokuk "Bob White" cigar man, was a Nauvo business visitor on Wednesday of last week.

We were pleased to meet our old friend Geo. Rutledge of Keokuk, last Saturday. The gentleman came up to Nauvo to tune several pianos, at which work he is an expert.

Frank Wiegand, a Nauvo man became violently insane, while on a visit to a brother in Oquawka, Ill., a week or so ago and was taken to the state institution at Jacksonville.

Messrs. Wm. Reimbold, Jr., and little son and Charles Miller of Keokuk were Nauvo visitors Thanksgiving day.

Mr. Fred Koehling, the "Old Hat" cigar manufacturer of Keokuk was among dealers in Nauvo a few days ago.

The burning question of the hour, "What shall I get for so-and-so?" Do your shopping early and find out.

All of Nauvo stores will soon keep open of evenings until Christmas day. They will all probably close all day on Friday, Jan. 1, a legal holiday. After Christmas the stores will adhere to the old rule of closing on evenings, except on Monday and Saturday.

The hobos like the birds fit south in the winter. There has been but few tramps who applied for lodging at the Nauvo city jail so far this winter.

There is still time to organize a D. Y. C. S. E. club. There is just twenty days left in which to do your Christmas shopping early.

In a nearby town they have a debating society. In its last wrangle the society had a heated discussion over whether a man would do more for love of money than he would for love of a woman. The "love or woman" side won, of course. The question is a ticklish one. In these days and times, aside from the purely sentimental view, a fellow had better have a love for making money if he loves a woman and hopes to maintain it year in and year out.

The Nauvo Ladies' Priscilla club will meet at the home of Mrs. Theo. Ochsner on Thursday afternoon of this week.

Get your resolutions ready for 1915. Nauvo's popular Ladies Aid society of the Lutheran church held a successful bazaar and oyster supper Thanksgiving day and evening in their church building. They cleared about $150 for their efforts.

The old year is dying and the new one is close upon us. St. Rose society of the Nauvo Catholic church gave a card party in the Nauvo opera house Thanksgiving evening and cleared about $40. There was a large crowd in attendance.

Rev. Wm. Hertel of the Lutheran church was elected as a member of the board of education at an election held at the second ward school house in Nauvo last Saturday afternoon.

Another reason for shopping early is that the longer you wait, the more disagreeable the weather is likely to be. Consult the ad columns of the Keokuk Daily Gate City at once and deal with those business men who are not afraid to let you know what they have for Christmas gifts.

Nauvo ice houses will soon be prepared for their frigid store. Nauvo could organize a Sons of Veterans order of over one hundred members. Our old soldiers are fast disappearing and when they are gone who will be here to properly observe Memorial day? Nauvo had a large order of this kind a number of years ago. Why not organize one now?

The average youngster will begin to attend Sunday school regularly now. Christmas is coming and the churches will begin making arrangements for large trees in their religious temples.

Cold weather makes people move about more briskly and makes things more lively. If the weather turns cold Nauvo people would like to see a solid ice bridge form over Lake Cooper at this point and stay for a while. Sixteen years ago the first of this month Illinois' sparrow law went into effect and there was a bounty of two cents per head paid for killing the bird. The law has been repealed, but the bird remains a pest.

One evening last week a mysterious woman dressed in male attire visited Nauvo and imbibed of the liquors sold here. She asked to be directed to a doctor's office, saying she wanted to undergo an examination, but was still taken for a man. She found one of our physician's office and stated her desire and proceeded to disrobe when her sex was discovered. The doctor gave her a reprimand when she hurriedly adjusted her clothing and departed from the city and nothing has been seen or heard of her since. Her actions were very strange and some think she was mentally deranged.

After the holidays installation ceremonies will take place in many of the Nauvo secret lodges. The pocket books of the Christmas buyers for the next three weeks will follow the example of the days by continuing to grow shorter.

Next year in June occurs the 40th anniversary of St. Mary's academy. Great preparations ought to be made by Nauvo people to commemorate the event of this grand and noble institution.

It is expected that gold coins will be used as Christmas gifts this year; that is, by those who can afford to give them. Those intending to use them for this purpose may as well shop early, for there will be no bargain sale on these articles.

Charles Lutz of Appanoose township recently lost over twenty hogs from cholera. The hogs averaged in weight about 65 pounds apiece. It was quite a loss to him.

Nauvo's ladies Civic league met at the comfortable home of Mrs. Wes. Schneider last Tuesday afternoon. Several weeks ago these ladies hastily signed a contract with a Chicago chautauqua concern to make an exhibit in Nauvo under their direction and after summing up the enormity and expense of the undertaking they asked the company for a release of the contract. This the Chicago concern refused to do unless they received $200 from the Nauvo league. A manager for the company was in Nauvo last week and met with the ladies and after discussing the question of a chautauqua and the $200 release of contract it was agreed by the ladies to go ahead with the enterprise after the manager agreed to make a considerable reduction on the original price. The Civic league has an "elephant" on their hands, but thought it advisable to push the enterprise through rather than pay $200 and receive nothing in return.

Thursday of this week is a holiday in Illinois. In 1818 this state was admitted into the union. It will not be observed in Nauvo.

The stockholders of the Nauvo Canning company held its annual meeting Wednesday afternoon of the present week. Hancock county newly elected officials will take charge of their respective offices next Monday. The board of supervisors meet today and will attend to the preliminaries. It was thought last election time that Nauvo would send out a man or two to fill a position, but we got left.

Thanksgiving day was a beautiful one in Nauvo and there were many delightful family dinners to which relatives were invited to partake. Joseph Smith, president of the Latter Day Saints Mormon church is very ill at his Independence, Mo., home. He resided in Nauvo for many years. He is 82 years old.

Mrs. Jas. Moffitt who resides on a farm a few miles southeast of Nauvo will celebrate her birthday anniversary on Thursday of this week and

To the Ladies of Keokuk Miss Florence M. Peet, the lecturer in The Gate City's Free School of Home Economics, uses Royal Baking Powder Exclusively Teachers of cookery, and baking experts generally, use Royal Baking Powder because they know it can always be relied upon to make the finest and most wholesome food.

This venerable old lady has invited the Woman's Relief Corps to come out and spend the afternoon with her. She lived in Nauvo for several years and was a faithful member of the corps. Nauvo has several fellows who are deeply in love with themselves and strange to say they haven't got a rival. Wooden shoes that used to be seen on Nauvo streets a number of years ago, worn by some of the natives seem to have entirely disappeared. We doubt if there is a few pair in the city now.

Miss Ada, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Rahn of this city, as a "hello" new girl at the Nauvo telephone central office.

Nauvo Catholics are observing Advent now and social functions are at an end until Christmas. Rev. Father Reimbold is still in the Chicago hospital, but may be able to come to Nauvo for a visit during the holidays.

Nauvo's trim little ferry boat has now entered her winter home in the Anton creek in the northwest part of Nauvo. Capt. J. W. Reimbold, the owner, has had a most successful season and well he deserves it, for he is one of the most accommodating and obliging passenger, freight, express and mail carrier we ever had. He will do his best from now on to make it convenient and comfortable for passengers who travel across Lake Cooper without the means of the boat. We understand he will have a barge shoved by a motor boat when the ice will not interfere and all who cross the lake will be made comfortable.

Two pieces of real estate known as the Desney estate in the east part of Nauvo were sold at public sale here last Saturday. One piece consisting of 5 1/2 acres brought $1,800 and the residence with 2 1/2 acres was sold for $1,100. That's some price for real estate in Nauvo.

Edward Argast, Sr., recently sold a residence and one acre of land to Mrs. Lenscher for $1,000. It is located near the third ward school house and a beautiful location.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Diemer entertained a number of Nauvo married folks at their home last Sunday evening. Cards and sociability was the evening's pastime. Fine refreshments were served and all present had a splendid time.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Nauvo M. E. church will serve an old fashion country dinner in the church basement next Tuesday at noon hour and they invite all to come and eat something good.

This is the season of the year when the dog and gun are most dangerous. It is too late for dog days, but there is the fellow in the dog and gun business. Keep a close lookout for him. If he comes for game, restrict him to the quail and rabbit. Tell him they are plentiful and can have all he wants so he will load for game and not for stock. Load so as to kill if it is game and miss if it is stock. And above all tell him to close the gates and not accidentally kill himself. John Burmeister has a contract to rebuild the fence along the Kimball estate on the river road, north of Nauvo. He and his help will finish the work in several more days. Several Nauvo teachers attended the county meeting in Carthage last Friday. The Nauvo schools were closed from last Wednesday until last Monday.

The First National bank of Nauvo is in possession of federal reserve bank notes of the $5 denomination. Our farmers are bitterly complaining of a scarcity of water. Many of their wells have gone dry and makes hauling of nature's fluid a necessity for their stock.

Mother earth in Nauvo and vicinity got a small dampening Tuesday. Nauvo people have been pretty well supplied with fresh fish this far and all caught in Lake Cooper at this point.

A number of Nauvo young men will give another old-fashioned hop after the holidays. Their recent dance was such a great financial and social success that they think a repetition will prove a like result. John Reppinger's new garage building will soon be completed.

Our county superintendent seldom inspects Nauvo schools, but they don't need inspection. They are provided over by a corps of first class instructors.

You can tell a newly married man nearly always because he buys every tool patent saving device for the kitchen that comes along. St. Rose society meet at the K. C. hall Wednesday afternoon of this week. They will enjoy tying comforts and exchanging the gossip of their neighborhood.

Next Tuesday occurs the feast of the Immaculate Conception, an obligatory holiday in the Catholic church. Miss Barbara Stoffel visited Keokuk relatives for several days last week.

The Misses Amy Richtman and Alma Spring, two of Keokuk's pleasant and popular young ladies, ate Thanksgiving dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Mulch and daughter, Miss Arline, in Nauvo. These young ladies know where to go to enjoy a finely prepared menu.

Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Ochsner will soon leave Nauvo for Fort Madison, where Theodore will enter his brother's implement and auto store. One by one families leave Nauvo and hardly ever one comes here to live. Four or five families have left Nauvo or going to leave within the past several weeks and if we don't get that railroad and present conditions continue, will soon become depopulated.

Mrs. M. M. Morrill, wife of one of the greatest attorneys this section of the country ever produced, but who died a number of years ago, while living at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Louis Valet, in Seattle, Washington, died on November 17 last. She was eighty-five years old and was the daughter of one of the first pioneers in the western part of Illinois. Mrs. Morrill resided in Nauvo for seventy-three years. Milton of Nauvo, and Ernest Morrill of near Powellton, are two children who survive. Three sons and one daughter living in distant cities, also survive her.

Nauvo was visited by no less than half a dozen cigar men from neighboring towns in the past week. Miss Clara Bauer of Spencer, Iowa, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. F. Argast, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Blum of Nauvo, are in Chicago with their infant child, which has some serious complaint and the parents went there to consult some noted specialist in regard to its ailment. It is hoped that the fond parents will succeed in getting their baby relief and that it will soon regain the best of health.

Several Nauvo girls are talking about a broken engagement of a Nauvo young lady. If the Nauvo Keokuk Gate City lady readers would have us tell them, it would set them all agog over the news. Well, we can't tell, for we said we won't.

Just think of it; only about four weeks more left of 1914. Let's begin practicing writing it 1915 now so as to be prepared.

But it is believed that gasoline can stand a good many operations before they cut all the profits out of it.

About sixteen years ago one could buy five gallon lots of gasoline for 37c. Mr. and Mrs. James Farren and daughter, Miss Berry, have returned from their Kansas City visit and report an enjoyable trip and splendid visit.

It is easier for the average Nauvo woman to muster up courage to face Nauvo business men are anxious to know something more about the war tax; some seem to think they are immune in the tobacco line and pool table license because they don't conduct a pool hall. It would be a wise move for them to investigate. It will also be well for our wine dealers to find out where they stand.

The newspapers at this time are recording their predictions of the weather we are to have this winter. Some say that we will have an open winter because the corn husks are thin and the groundhogs are digging shallow holes in which they will emerge in February to take observations. We will wait for the United States weather service to publish its prophecy before registering a prediction. When the high-brow scientific ducks at Washington tell us that we shall have an "extremely cold spell" on a certain date, we'll leave our overcoat at home, and when they give notice of a "warm wave," put on our extra heavy underwear with our overcoat.

Herman Berger, Jr., will have a public sale next Saturday in Nauvo, rain or shine. He will sell all kinds of stuff, carpenter, blacksmith and cement tools, etc. Public sales bring farmers to town and a big crowd is expected in Nauvo next Saturday.

Mr. Louis Frank, a popular salesman of Chicago, was a Nauvo business visitor a few days ago. Mr. Frank is a genial gentleman one is always glad to meet and we are safe in saying he is one of the most popular salesmen that visits Nauvo. He has a lucrative trade here.

James Kraft of Nauvo and Miss Iva Smith of Sonora were married in Hamilton on Thanksgiving day. James is one of Nauvo's industrious young men and the bride is a very popular young lady in the community in which she lived. After a short home stay with the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Smith, they will go to housekeeping probably in Nauvo. The well wishes of their many friends go with them through their wedded life.

The quail season opened in Nauvo November 15 and closes next Wednesday. It looks almost like folly to protect the birds during certain long parts of the year and then at the very last moment turn a prodigious battery of many firearms loose among them. It is enough to scare all the birds in Nauvo and vicinity out of it. There was a large amount of bombarding among the birds here since the season opened and there is no wonder these birds are becoming extinct despite our so-called efforts at conservation.

Household Economy How to Have the Best Cough Remedy and Save $2 by Making It at Home Cough medicines, as a rule contain a large quantity of plain syrup. A pint of granulated sugar with 1/2 pint of warm water, stirred for 2 minutes, gives you as good syrup as money can buy. Then get from your druggist 2 1/2 ounces Pinex (30 cents worth), pour into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with sugar syrup. This gives you, at a cost of only 64 cents, a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready made for $2.50—a clear saving of nearly $2. Full directions with Pinex. It keeps perfectly and tastes good. It takes hold of the usual cough or chest cold at once and conquers it in 24 hours. Splendid for whooping cough, bronchitis and winter coughs. It's truly astonishing how quickly it loosens the dry, hoarse or tight cough and heals and soothes the inflamed membranes in the case of a painful cough. It also stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the persistent loose cough. Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, combined with guaiacol, and has been used for generations to heal inflamed membranes of the throat and chest. To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex," and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation.
