CITY NEWS.

—Mrs. H. B. Moore has been removed to St. Joseph's hospital for treatment.

—Fine line of holiday goods in boxes at reduced prices, at removal sale. B. & H., 516 Main street. E. T. Bart-ruff.

—An information against Carl Russell was filed in the superior court this morning by his step-mother, Mrs. Calvin Russell, charging him with disturbing her peace by using insulting language.

—Masonic. Special meeting of Eagle Lodge No. 12, A. F. & A. M. 7:30 o'clock Tuesday evening, December 15, 1914. Work on first degree. Visiting brethren fraternally invited. By order of the W. M. S. H. Johnston, secretary.

—A picture of Frank Nagel, formerly of this city and Warsaw, as he looked twenty-five years ago, appeared yesterday morning in the Register and Leader, in the society section. Dean Nagel will tonight conduct a recital of The Messiah at Des Moines.

—People residing along the North Road will, on the 22, 23 and 24 of December be able to come to Keokuk and do their shopping and return home the same day. The "Burlington" road will hold the afternoon train in this city until 5 o'clock on the days mentioned.

—Nauvoo Independent: Emil Newton and bride arrived here from Alabama Thursday for a visit with relatives and friends. Emil has been in Alabama the past several years. He took a notion to get married and he and his bride are here on their honeymoon trip. Emil was married December 3 at Decatur, Ala., to Miss Anna Shaneyfelt of Hartzell, Ala. They expect to make their home at Keokuk.

—Nauvoo Independent: J. M. Fisher received a letter from C. S. Petsch, the interurban promoter, a few days ago, calling attention to certain unnecessary criticisms of his project by certain newspapers. Mr. Petsch cannot understand why they should belittle his project when it hasn't cost anybody anything except himself. He has not given up his project, but of course unusual circumstances in the financial market has caused a delay.

—Nauvoo Independent: Mrs. Thos. Kelly of Sonora last Monday passed the 82d milestone. She came to the section they now live on, in 1840. She was married later at Nauvoo and then moved to where they now live on Section 4. She is the only one of her family living. She and Mr. Kelly and daughter Mima, live on the old place and it is a treat to visit them as Mr. Kelly has a wonderful memory of earlier days and is familiar with the Mormon history.
