Seal, Fur or Cloth Caps for Christmas Gifts

It is a whole lot easier to choose something useful and serviceable for HIM than to make fancy work fixings--and what's more HE will like the useful things a whole lot more.

Now, who wouldn't like a sealskin cap? They cost $4 to $15.00, but we have other furs down to $1.50 and all sorts of cloth caps, 50c to $1.50.

And Hats--correct derbies or soft styles, $1.50 to $5.00--Yes, hats make acceptable gifts.

Then there are Smoking Jackets, Bath Robes, Neckwear, Gloves, Pajamas, Half Hose Sets, guaranteed Half Hose, etc. Every one pleasing to men and all attractively priced.

Y.W.C.A. NOTES

Christmas Parties. Plans for the Christmas parties for the various departments are well under way.

First Event. The first of these will be held Friday afternoon at 4:30, under the direction of the social committee of the student club for high school girls.

Gymnasium Class Event. Friday evening the members of the evening gymnasium classes and educational classes will unite in a Christmas frolic in the gymnasium. This will be under the direction of the gymnasium committee as will also the Saturday morning frolics planned for the three children's gymnasium classes of Miss Nuttins.

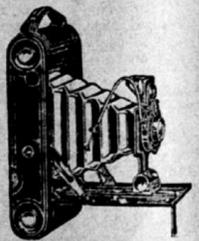

Junior Sewing Classes. Saturday afternoon all three divisions of the junior sewing classes will meet at 2:30 in the gymnasium for an hour and a half for a Christmas program and party. This will be in charge of the five campfire groups of the association, each one having charge of some part of the plans.

December Birthday Supper. Saturday night at 6 o'clock the December birthday supper will be held. Anyone having a birthday in December is most cordially invited to be present and asked to telephone the association office not later than Friday noon.

Christmas Dolls. Some very attractive and tastily dressed dolls prepared for the Christmas exhibition by a group of girls at the Young Women's association, are being admired by many callers at the association building.
