MEAT CAUSE OF KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take Salts to Flush Kidneys if Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers.

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. To neutralize these irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys and flush out the body's urinous waste get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness. Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink.

HUGHES' FARCE GOING TO LONDON

Keokuk Author's Play Which Has Sent America Off in Gales of Laughter, Will be Played in England.

TO LIVE UP THINGS

Producers and Managers Believe It Will Relieve Something of Strain Under Which People Are Living.

Rupert Hughes' farce, "Excuse Me," will be taken to England in the endeavor to give a lighter atmosphere to the theater attractions which are now playing at London. Some of the producers feel that there is too much sombre drama now on the boards in London, and to this end Henry Savage visited Mr. Hughes and asked if the English rights to the farce could be secured.

The necessary permission to use "Excuse Me" in London has been granted by Mr. Hughes, and the play which has had American people doubling up with laughter, and which is from the pen of the versatile Keokuk man, will go across the water to give a lighter tone to the English attractions.

With the tension as great as it is at the present time on the continent, London theaters are looking for something to take some of the strain off the public. It is felt that the present attractions are too sober for this time, and they are looking for something more of the nature of "Excuse Me."

Mr. Hughes is receiving a flood of congratulatory letters on his new story which has appeared in the Metropolitan. It is an Irish story, and the compliment is paid him, that it comes closest to "The Old Nest" of any he has written.

Rupert Hughes has sent to his father Judge F. T. Hughes of this city, copies of some of the letters which he has received and in which the most complimentary things are said of the new series of stories.

Rupert Hughes has said that his "What Will People Say," is the best seller today, judging from the reports he has received.

Rheumatism

A Home Cure Given by One Who Had It.

In the spring of 1893 I was attacked by Muscular and Inflammatory Rheumatism. I suffered as only those who have it know, for over three years. I tried remedy after remedy, and doctor after doctor, but such relief as I received was only temporary. Finally, I found a remedy that cured me completely, and it has never returned. I have given it to a number who were terribly afflicted and even bedridden with Rheumatism, and it effected a cure in every case. I want every sufferer from any form of rheumatic trouble to try this marvelous healing power. Don't send a cent; simply mail your name and address and I will send it free to try. After you have used it and it has proven itself to be that long-sought-for means of curing your Rheumatism, you may send the price of it, one dollar, but understand, I do not want your money unless you are perfectly satisfied to send it. Isn't that fair? Why suffer any longer when positive relief is thus offered you free? Don't delay. Write today.

MRS. KENNEDY DIED AT MONTROSE

Mother of Hon. Charles A. Kennedy, Representative in Congress From This District.

WAS BORN IN IRELAND

Came to the United States When a Girl, Lived in Keokuk and Was Married in This City.

Announcement was received in the city Saturday morning of the death of Mrs. Maria Kennedy, an old resident of the county and a resident of Keokuk at the time of her marriage with a residence at Montrose of over fifty years. She was the mother of Hon. Charles A. Kennedy, member of congress from this district. She had been ill for some time.

Biographical.

Mrs. Kennedy before marriage was Miss Maria Williams and was born at Dublin, Ireland, December 13, 1817. On the death of her parents she accompanied an aunt to the United States, living for a time in the state of New York and later removing to Keokuk. While a resident in this city she met a bright promising young man, William Kennedy, a native of County Galway, who had learned the trade of a shoemaker in his native land, and was continuing his vocation at a shop in Keokuk. In 1858 she was married to this bright young man, William Kennedy, and in 1860, they removed to Montrose, where he worked as a shoemaker until his death, June 22, 1885. The little household was broken and grief sent its shadows about the model home, but the good wife, now a widow, with a noble woman's courage faced the unpromising ordeal and looked with affection and care to the children about her. Home became more her idol and she spent most of her time in caring for it and those who needed her wise counsel and watchful attention. Soon had health came and for a number of years she was an invalid, forced by affliction to remain indoors. Recently she was taken down seriously, was in a condition for some time, without hope for recovery, and at last the death angel came and bore her spirit to the land of love and rest.

Mrs. Kennedy was a notable example as a wife and mother and possessed many social qualities which endeared her to many friends and acquaintances. She was a faithful member of the Episcopal church, as was her departed husband. She and her four daughters were members of the Order of the Eastern Star, of which at one time she was worthy matron of that organization. Though confined to her home most of the latter portion of her life, her acquaintance was extensive in Lee county, especially that portion of it in which she resided, and was highly respected for her striking personality and qualities of noble womanhood. Through a long illness, she bore the pain accompanying her illness, with a spirit of true Christian courage and fortitude.

The death of this, another of the good old mothers of Lee county, casts a shade of sorrow in the circle of homes, in which she was so favorably known, respected and held in affectionate regard and friendship.

Mrs. Kennedy was the mother of eight sons and daughters, John P. Kennedy, a prominent citizen and attorney at law at Montrose, recently retired as postmaster of that place, after a service of sixteen years in that position; William Kennedy, a prosperous lumber dealer at Doty, Washington; Mrs. Eva Chapman, who died in December, 1902, the wife of N. J. Chapman, at their home at Everett, Washington; Jennie, the wife of F. D. Britzer, of Bucoda, Washington; Hon. C. A. Kennedy, member of congress from this district, which position he has held several terms; George Kennedy, superintendent of public schools at Montrose; Mrs. Frank Kerr and Misses Anna and Lilly Kennedy, of Montrose.

AMUSEMENTS.

Gilbert Wells Makes Hit. Gilbert Wells of Burlington made his bow professionally to Keokuk yesterday, when he appeared in One Girl in a Million, which played a return engagement matinee and night, at the Grand. Mr. Wells' dancing with Miss Leonore Novasio, in the second act, was one of the hits of the show. He responded to repeated encores with a little speech. He said he thanked his Keokuk friends for their appreciation of his dancing. And glancing over to the box where his mother was sitting, he smiled and added "my mother, too." Mr. Wells appeared in the first act in some eccentric dancing which was quite clever, and showed the versatility of this talented young man. In the second act, with Miss Novasio he appeared

New Management at Colonial.

C. C. Bridwell, of Minneapolis, for several years successful owner and operator of a number of motion picture houses in various cities in Minnesota, Illinois and Iowa, has taken over the management of the Colonial theatre and will institute a new policy there at once. It is anticipated that under Mr. Bridwell's management the Colonial will soon become one of the most popular motion picture theatres in this section of the state. Mr. Bridwell's long experience makes it possible for him to know exactly what the people want in the line of entertainment and he gives them what they want.

Within a few days a new orchestra will be placed in the Colonial, this being one of the first steps that will be taken to make this theatre as up to date and modern as possible. Commencing on next Saturday, all school children will be admitted to the theatre free on every Saturday. The theatre will cater especially to women and children in the future and will establish everything possible that will add to the comfort and pleasure of the patrons.

The bill for tonight contains two big features, either of which alone is worth the price of admission. "Slippery Slim and the Impersonator," a screeching comedy, and "New Magdalen," a two reel drama. In addition to these two features will be shown a great educational picture, "The Cliff Dwellers."—Advertisement.
