FUNERAL RECORD

Mrs. Ruth C. Kerr.

Funeral services for the late Mrs. Ruth C. Kerr were held at her home near Summitville at one o'clock Monday afternoon. The Rev. McElree of the U. P. church conducting the services. Her five sons, Robert Kerr of Warsaw, Ill., W. C. Kerr of Elvaston, Ill., I. B. and W. B. Kerr of Alexandria, Mo., T. E. Kerr of Moor, Iowa and a son-in-law, Mr. Kite, acted as pall bearers.

Mrs. Kerr was one of the oldest residents of Lee county, having lived in the home where she passed away for more than sixty-two years. She was a woman of unflinching faith and sincere consecration. The power and influence of her christian life will long remain with those who for so many years have been associated with her. She was a helpful friend to all in trouble and by words of kindness and counsel, led the way to a higher, purer life. In the fellowship of the U. P.

church of which she had so long been a member, were found some of her richest joys and her home life was surpassingly beautiful.

It is not death to die. To leave this mortal clod, it is not death to fly away And be at home with God.

W. B. K.

Ida Violet Powell.

The funeral of Ida Violet Powell, aged four years, whose death was announced yesterday in these columns, was held at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Powell, 1915 Palean street at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. Rev. McAllister of the First Baptist church, officiating.

DEAD MAN'S BODY FOUND IN WOODS

No Identification Marks Can be Found on Corpse Discovered Frozen on Welrath Farm Near Summitville.

BODY LYING FACE DOWN

Believed That Man Died From Exposure Saturday night or Sunday—Stranger Seen in Afternoon Along Road.

The body of an unknown man, with no marks of identification on his clothes or in his pockets, was found on the John Welrath place, a mile east of Summitville, yesterday afternoon. John Welrath who was cutting wood on the place, said he had been working there about an hour, when he stopped to get his breath. As he looked up he noticed the body lying there, face down.

Mr. Welrath notified some of his neighbors who notified John C. Scott, sheriff. James S. Burrows, acting coroner, Walter Clements, investigated, and will hold an inquest tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock if Mr. Clements is unable to come to Keokuk.

The body was frozen, and it is thought probable that the man was frozen to death. There seem to be no marks of violence on the body. The body was found face downward, the arms under the chest, and one fist was doubled up. There was a trace of blood between the fingers.

Saw Man Saturday Night. Two persons along this road, told Justice Burrows that on Saturday afternoon they saw a man passing along the road. He was staggering at the time, but they watched him and he passed out of sight along the road. One person remembered speaking to him, but received no answer. If the dead man was the same one who passed along the road, it is evident that he turned around and went back across country. He had just crossed a creek in the Welrath place, evidently, as the body was found near this water.

The man is described as being about 60 years old, five feet seven or eight inches tall. His hair was just turning gray. He was smooth shaven, and was dressed in sweater coat, only partly worn, vest and trousers, only partly worn. The other wearing apparel besides the sweater looked as though it had been pretty much worn. The underclothing was found to be fairly clean.

Initial K on Handkerchief. "The only article which might possibly serve for identification was a handkerchief, brand clean, and in the corner of which was embroidered a letter K. The handkerchief had never been washed. It was assumed, in view of the fact that the stencil marks from the pattern from which this letter had been transferred were still visible under the embroidery.

A pen knife also was found in the pockets of the man's trousers. The knife was covered with mud. There were no marks on the clothing, no store labels, and no scraps of paper or anything to lead to further identification could be found in the pockets of the man's clothes.

Cold and Exposure Cause. The body was frozen stiff, and this fact coupled with the fact that what was supposed to be the same person was seen staggering about in the vicinity on Saturday night leads to the belief that the man either died from exposure or was stricken with heart trouble. A sudden cold wave visited the vicinity on Saturday night, and the wind was high and the cold severe that night, and Sunday.

The Welrath place is situated about a mile east of Summitville, and on a much traveled road. It is thought the man must have wandered back of the house and gotten in the timber for he was not seen from the front of the houses.

The body was brought to the Crimmins and Chase undertaking parlors. An inquest will be held in the office of Justice Burrows tomorrow afternoon.

CASE OF LABOR AGAINST WEALTH

(Continued from page 1.) Pennsylvania. I knew the crimes of the steel business. When the steel corporation was formed, it inherited some of the worst and some of the best labor policies then in existence. Take the Frick company. Its manager, Mr. Lynch stood for "safety first" and he was the man who induced the steel corporation to develop that as one of its policies and today it is increasing this policy and intelligently applying it.

"The unspeakable coke villages of the Pittsburgh district are at least sanitary and fit for human occupancy and no longer mere parts of the ash pits.

"And the steel trade has also ap-

Ends Dry, Hoarse or Painful Coughs Quickly

A Simple, Home-Made Remedy, Inexpensive but Unequaled

The prompt and positive results given by this pleasant tasting, home-made cough syrup has caused it to be used in more homes than any other remedy. It gives almost instant relief and usually overcomes the average cough in 24 hours.

Get 2 1/2 ounces Pinex (30 cents worth) from any drug store, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. This makes a full pint—a family supply—of the most effective cough remedy at a cost of only 64 cents or less. You couldn't buy as much ready-made cough medicine for $2.50. Easily prepared and never spoils. Full directions with Pinex.

The promptness, certainty and ease with which this Pinex Syrup overcomes a bad cough, chest or throat cold is truly remarkable. It quickly loosens a dry, hoarse or tight cough and heals and soothes a painful cough in a hurry. With a persistent loose cough it stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the annoying hacking.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract rich in gualiacol and is famous the world over for its splendid effect in bronchitis, whooping cough, bronchial asthma and winter coughs.

To avoid disappointment in making this, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex," and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

plied the eight hour day to from 11 to 25 per cent of its employees. The Commonwealth Steel company of Granite City, Ill., whose head has refused to make a contract to produce shrapnel to kill men, no longer has long time but uses the eight hour system because of results secured by a shorter work day. You cannot make safety by law, she said.

"The passage of laws demanding safety appliances is all right, but you must also have an educational program. There must be co-operation between the men and the employers to get an adequate proportion of safety. This safety educational program has cost the United States steel corporation three quarters of a million dollars a year. But it has saved the corporation many millions and also what is more to the point, has saved many lives."

AFTER SICKNESS A SPLENDID TONIC

All Hard Run-down After a Hard Spell of Bronchitis. Mrs. Horthough Regained Strength by Taking Vinol.

Waynesboro, Pa.—"My system was all run down after a hard spell of bronchitis. It was hard for me to keep about. I had pains in my chest and took cold easily. I learned of Vinol from a friend and tried it. I soon felt better and now it has built me up and I am strong and well, and able to do my work, which I had not been able to do for about three months before taking Vinol.

"You may publish this statement so others may know about Vinol and get help as I did."—Mrs. Y. R. HORTHOUGH, Waynesboro, Pa.

Thousands of other intelligent people are constantly praising Vinol for restoring health and strength. Understanding that we will pay back your money if it fails to help you.

If you are run-down and not as strong and energetic as you ought to be, try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that we will pay back your money if it fails to help you. McGrath Bros. Drug Co., Keokuk, Ia., and at leading drug stores everywhere.

State Tax Problem. ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 19.—Immediate, drastic and radical revision of the state's tax laws was the keynote of the fifth New York state conference on taxation which opened today. Men representing all branches of state and city government are here to aid the conference in framing suggestions which will undoubtedly be presented to the legislature before adjournment.

Those attending the meeting feel encouraged in their work by the reference to the state's tax laws made by Governor Whitman in his initial message to the legislature. All agree with the governor that the tax laws as they now stand are nothing but a patchwork, sadly in need of simplification.

THE WEATHER

For Keokuk and vicinity: Unsettled with light snow this afternoon and tonight. Wednesday partly cloudy and colder.

For Iowa: Unsettled with light snow this afternoon and possibly east portion tonight. Colder tonight, Wednesday partly cloudy and colder.

For Missouri: Generally fair; tonight and Wednesday. Colder, fresh north-west winds.

For Illinois: Unsettled with snow flurries this afternoon and possibly north portion tonight. Colder north portion tonight, Wednesday partly cloudy and colder. Fresh, strong, shifting winds.

Weather Conditions. The pressure is low along the northern boundary this morning, with one storm center passing over the northeastern coast, another central in Minnesota. This has been attended by rain in all sections east of the Mississippi river, which was heavy in the northeastern states, high temperature for the season on the entire eastern coast, and it was also warm in the plains states yesterday, and this has been followed by light snow.

Conditions indicate light snow for this section this afternoon and probably tonight, becoming colder, and partly cloudy Wednesday.

LATEST MARKET QUOTATIONS

United Press Associations Telegraph Market Report Over Gate City Leased Wire.

Grain Review. [United Press Leased Wire Service.] CHICAGO, Jan. 10.—Weak Liverpool cables and more liberal offerings of Argentine wheat than have been forthcoming for a week or longer, forced wheat down to from 139 1/2 to 123 1/2 at one period of today's trading. The market was nervous all day. Opening down from 1/4 to 1/2 over yesterday's close, then there was an advance from 1/4 to 1/2 over the opening. From then on until 139 1/2 to 123 1/2 was reached, there were steady recessions. After touching these low prices, the market on May wheat steadied somewhat until the price reached 123 1/2. July wheat at this time was at 123 1/2. Corn acted with wheat, prices tending toward lower levels.

Oats were up a fraction and steady at the opening but later dropped to 1/2 below the opening in sympathy with wheat. Provisions started generally higher but fell off later.

Stocks Advance. NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—Prices showed a tendency to continue advancing at the opening of the stock market today. There was considerable activity. Missouri Pacific fell up 1/4, at 11 1/2. Bethlehem Steel fell off a point in early sales.

11 a. m.—Rapid advance in prices between 10:30 and 11 a. m. forced hurried covering by shorts and the heaviest trading in any hour since the exchange opened on December 12. U. S. Steel joined in the upward movement, going to 52 1/2.

Horse and Mule Market. ST. LOUIS, Jan. 18.—Horses—War horse demand continues to stand out as the greatest source of outlet at present. Eastern trade, however, is sufficiently large to be noticeable, and a few encouraging signs of convalescence were visible in the southern horse division the past week. Commission men assure shippers of an outlet for all horses that will meet the requirements of buyers whose purpose is to supply the belligerent foreign nations with war horses. In their opinion, this outlet is not a matter of demand, but a question of finding enough horses to meet it. Prices range from $150 to $170.

Mules—About the only thing that could be said with any degree of positiveness is to warn shippers to keep runs to a minimum until some sort of a movement is begun. It seems that almost any kind of a supply, however small, will prove advisable to ship lightly at present. Prices are very low, and then for good animals.
