KEOKUK MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION MEETING

An Interesting Meeting of This Representatives Body at the Y.
M. C. A. Building.

The Keokuk Ministerial association met yesterday at the Y. M. C. A. building and in the absence of the president, Rev. W. H. Nell, the meeting was presided over by Rev. F. G.
Beardsley, vice president.

Rev. E. LeRoy Steffey conducted the devotional exercises, reading Ephesians 2:1-10 on which he made some very interesting and pertinent comments after which Rev. W. L.
Hawkinson and Rev. H. L. Todd led in prayer.

After the business of the morning had been concluded, Rev. W. M. Baker read a splendid paper on "Church Publicity," which was listened to with marked attention.

The meeting adjourned with prayer by Rev. H. B. McElree.

CARD OF THANKS.

We are very grateful to our friends and neighbors for their kindness, and wish to thank all for the beautiful flowers.
MR. AND MRS. JAS. ADAMS,
AND FAMILY.

CITY NEWS.

—Pianos and player pianos at cost to close out. Loewenstein Piano Co., 628 Main.

—The Keokuk Armature works located at 413 Johnson street, make a specialty of electric repairs and carry a complete line of motor supplies. If you have any work of this kind, it will pay you to call on them. Read their ad in this issue.

—Lagomarcino-Grupe Co. have invited the retail grocerymen of Keokuk to attend a social gathering tomorrow evening at 8:30 o'clock in the Lagomarcino-Grupe Co. building, 417-419 Bank street. There will be refreshments, cards and music.

—A customer of the classified column came into the office yesterday very much depressed over the loss of a lodge charm. He placed a liner in the classified column and his grief vanished. The lost article was found and restored.

—First Church of Christ Scientist, of Keokuk, Iowa, announces a free lecture on Christian Science at Elks hall at 8 o'clock this evening by Bicknell Young, C. S. B. of Chicago, Ill., a member of Christian Science Board of Lectureship of The First Church of Christ, Scientist, Boston, Mass.
The public is cordially invited.

—That the deserters from the United States army are becoming more numerous daily was proven, locally, this morning when the police received several notices and rewards for deserters, the last one numbering 22-886, enough men to take part in a rather lively battle, either on land or sea.

—The city council this morning passed an ordinance fixing the time for the regular meetings of the council. In the future they will be held at nine o'clock on Monday and Thursday mornings, excepting when the above days are legal holidays in which case the meetings will be held on the following Tuesday or Friday, as the case may be.

—Word has been received here by Mr. and Mrs. James Walton that the body of N. A. Walton has been placed in a vault in Galveston until spring when it will be brought north for burial. The illness of an infant child in the family and the danger in bringing it into another climate this time of the year, caused the change in funeral plans.

—The new management of the Grand theatre at Fort Madison, has adopted the policy of having girl ushers in the place of young men, who formerly took charge of this work, says the Democrat. Misses Lena Yaeger, Ruby Finch, Bertha Niggemeyer and Elsie Haigh now have charge of the ushering whenever a large feature film is shown and eventually they will be used at all of the large shows which appear.

LUMBER MEN ARE TO HAVE MEETING

Keokuk Men Will Leave This Afternoon for Big Meeting Which Will Last Two Days.

The Southeastern Iowa Lumber Dealers will meet in Iowa City tomorrow for a two day session, and a large delegation from Keokuk will attend the meeting. Among those who will go from Keokuk will be J. M. Furlong, George Angel and Harvey Beach of the Keokuk Lumber Co., J. T. Mc-Broom from Taber Lumber Co., Harry Patterson and E. P. Sauerwein.
Chandler Carter had intended to go as representative of the S. C. and S.
Carter Co., but will be unable to go.

This convention is the same as was entertained at Keokuk last year.
The program for the two day meeting is an elaborate one. The meeting will be called to order on Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock, and will continue in the afternoon and Thursday morning. One evening will be given over to the Hoo-Hoos for a Dutch lunch and social session. On Thursday evening the convention will be brought to a close with a banquet.

Thursday afternoon the lumber men will be shown through the state university buildings. The banquet which is to be served in the evening, will be under the auspices of the Iowa City Commercial club.

DUNCAN-SCHELL ANNUAL MEETING

Directors and Officers Elected at Annual Meeting of Stockholders of Local Company.

The annual stockholders meeting of the Duncan-Schell furniture company was held last night when directors and officers were elected. The directors named were: H. C. and C.
M. Duncan, L. A. Hamill, E. Ross Baker, and F. R. Bulman. Officers elected by the directors were: H. C. Duncan, president; L. A. Hamill, vice president; E. Ross Baker, treasurer, and M. E. Justice, secretary.

Rummage Sale

This Sale is not on the choicest or most desirable goods, but is on goods that for some reason or other have not sold well. A great many articles that we are offering in this sale have been piled on top of the shelf or stored under the counters. Some are soiled, some, sorry to relate, out of style; nothing in the whole lot that we would call first class merchandise. Still it is worth something to somebody, and the prices we are making on the goods will strongly emphasize our poor opinion of the whole lot.

Below we give you a partial description as near as we can of what this sale consists. Come in to look anyway. If you cannot use the goods yourself you might have some one in mind who would be glad to have as a gift from you some of the things that will keep out the cold.

Sweaters

Ladies', misses and children's sweaters in all sizes, most of them are soiled, especially the white ones, but they will wash. They sold from $1.25 to $4.50. Our price now 25c, 50c, $1.00.

Silk and Lace Waists

In a lot of about fifty waists, hardly more than one size of a kind. This is an accumulation of several seasons.
There are waists from $3.50 to $10.00.
To close out at 95c.

Silks

The change from narrow 18-in silks to the wider ones, has left us with quite a few narrow silks on hand. Some have become tender lying on the shelves, some are as strong as the day they were made.
Pick out the strong kind at 25c per yard

Ladies' Silk and Wool Dresses

We were undecided for some time whether or not to put in this lot of silk dresses, because they are really good styles and quite a number of them recent purchases, yet as we wish to make room in our ready-to-wear department for new goods which will soon be arriving, we decided to include these in the sale. Dresses that are worth from $12 to $25 now on sale at $3.90.

Stripped Domet Flannel

This is a white Domet flannel with fine hair line stripes, very suitable for waists, and many other purposes. It sold for 15c. The rummage sale price will be 8 1-3c per yard.

Moreen for Petticoats

Colored wool moreen that sold for 50c per yard, has been piled on top of the shelf for several years, never even took it down for inventory. Perhaps someone can use it, now that petticoats are coming back, at 12 1/2c per yard.

Odds and Ends

Besides the goods enumerated, there are a lot of odds and ends, such as remnants of embroidery, remnants of lace, damaged kid gloves, etc. Pesky little annoyances that we wish to part company with.

Ladies' Suits

There are about fifty suits in this lot, mostly navy blues, grays and black and a good range of sizes. The suits, of course, are not this fall's styles, but they are a very sensible cut—more than can be said for some of the later styles.
The suits sold from $15 to $25.00. Will put them on sale for $2.50.

Ladies' Coats

This lot of coats we have had packed in a box and stored in our annex for more than a year, so you may know that they do not closely resemble the present styles, yet they are long coats and maybe made over, or the fine material that is in them could be used for some other purpose. Carry off your choice for $1.50

Curtain Scrims

In remnants only, from 2 to 5 yards, at half price.

Black Tafetta Silk Dress Skirts

All these silk dress skirts were bought the past season; the prices range from $7.50 to $15.00. For slender people these skirts are desirable. Be sure to see them, only $2.50.

Underwear

There is a lot of about fifty dozen, fleece underwear for children, ranging in sizes from 1 to 14 years, goods that sold from 25c to 50c; our price on this lot will be 10c per garment. Besides this lot, we have some odd sizes in ladies' fine underwear, made of wool and cotton and of silk and wool, principally in small sizes, at half price.

Children's Coats

When we say these coats are warm coats we have said all we can truthfully say about them. Price $1.00.

Tailored Waists

Long sleeves, buttoned in front tailored waists that sold from $1 to $3.50.
Have been taken out of the boxes stacked on the counter; they will be closed out at one-fourth to one-half regular prices. A dollar waist good style, for 25c should appeal to everyone.
