

Beautiful Cameos

Through old business connections, we are in direct touch with the Italian cameo market. That means a wonderful saving in first cost. It means, too, a superior choice of fine cuttings, advantages that are of vital interest to you.

Cameos have always been highly prized, and the present vogue, now at its height, has created the greatest demand for fine cameos that the cameo cutters have experienced.

All Ayres & Chapman have imported from Italy, the home of fine cameos. Our prices will agreeably surprise you.

The Warsaw Gate City

Warsaw, Ill., Feb. 10, 1915.

The following facts relating to the life and death of the late Mrs. D. A. Robinson, Sr., will be of interest to the many readers of the Gate City among whom she had many warm and loving friends:

Laura Doris Chandler was born Dec. 25, 1830, at Chandlersville, Muskingham county, Ohio. At the age of nine years she came with her parents Samuel and Laurinda Chandler, to Illinois, where she has since lived.

January 8, 1856, she was married to David Allen Robinson. She was the mother of seven children, all but one of whom are living. Mrs. Harriet Robinson Wood, who died May 14, 1914.

Mrs. Robinson was a woman of strong character, deep religious conviction and kindly sympathy. After a patient endurance of weeks of suffering Mrs. Robinson entered into rest at eleven o'clock, Friday, Feb. 5, 1915.

The burial service, held at her late home in Hamilton, Ill., at two o'clock Sunday afternoon, Feb. 7, was conducted by Rev. Hall of Hamilton Presbyterian church, assisted by Rev. Gracell of Wythe and Rev. Thompson of Warsaw. The two sons, S. C. Robinson and D. A. Robinson, Jr., the sons-in-law W. E. Albers and C. A. McPheeters and two nephews W. B. Robinson and Ed. Wright acted as pallbearers. The body was laid to rest in the family lot in the Wythe Congregational cemetery.

Mr. Robert Crane and wife of Elbert, Wis., arrived Tuesday night for a visit with their parents Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crane. Robert is a brother of Miss Katherine Crane and Mrs. Mabelle Buckert, and has many friends here who knew him in boyhood and who in their previous visits have made the acquaintance of his estimable wife. May their stay be a long and pleasant one.

Word was received here Sunday of the marriage of a former popular Warsaw boy in St. Louis, Wm. C. Shephard of the Peters Shoe company, to Miss Elsie Gay, Holmes of St. Louis, by Rev. Tadlock of the Methodist church officiating. The wedding occurred Thursday morning, February 4, and the newlyweds left immediately for New York City and from there will go to the Bermuda Islands for a short stay, returning to make their home in St. Louis. Will, or "Bud" as he is familiarly called here, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Shephard and brother of Paul Shephard, rural route agent. He was born in Warsaw where he has many friends who extend to him the usual congratulations for his future happiness.

Gus Braunt of Warsaw and his brother-in-law Carl Braun of Los Angeles, Calif., returned Monday from a three weeks trip to New Orleans. They report a delightful trip, going one route and returning another, thus making the trip more enjoyable.

Mrs. Frank Lebron, Sr., of Keokuk spent Monday with her son J. W. Kirkpatrick, the jeweler.

River here is clear of ice, making the transporting of the mails much easier.

Henry Jacobs of Cornwall, Calif., writes very enthusiastically of that country, and the town in particular. Henry is a brother of Mrs. Thos. Z. Peters and several years ago owned a meat market in Chicago. He now handles real estate.

Rev. Tuschoff of Warrenton, Mo., is assisting in the revival at the German Methodist church, and is drawing crowds every night to hear him. He is a forceful, earnest, eloquent preacher, speaks right from the heart, and fixes your attention at once. Everybody should hear him: he preaches every night this week in English.

On Tuesday, Feb. 16, at Saenger hall, Warsaw aerie 1914, F. O. E. will give a masquerade ball. Prizes will be given as follows:

Best ladies' costume—Box of bonbons.
Best gents' costume—Box of cigars.
Ladies most comical costume—Silk handkerchief.
Gents most comical costume—Silk tie.

Music will be by Eymann's orchestra. This will be a jolly event, the best of the season.

Warsaw has been called to mourn another of her leading citizens in the person of Adolph Roessler who passed away on Saturday morning, Feb. 6.

Mr. Roessler was born in the city of Schleich, Rhemish, Prussia, July 26, 1829. In 1848 he came to the United States, locating in New Orleans, and in a few years removed to St. Louis, where on Nov. 12, 1851, he was united in marriage to Miss Susanna Rett, and on November 14, the same year, removed with his bride to Warsaw where he has since lived. Four children were born to this union, Rudolph, Carl, Emma and Oscar, Oscar alone survives. Their mother also passed away several years ago.

Mr. Roessler had been in poor health for years, and a few years ago had a slight stroke of paralysis affecting his right leg finally, and preventing him from walking. The infirmities of age caused his death on Saturday, Feb. 6, at the ripe age of 85 years, 8 months and 10 days.

Mr. Roessler early engaged in the tin and stove business in Warsaw and was one of her leading merchants, afterwards taking up the manufacture of stove polish, his own invention. He was prominent in all things pertaining to Warsaw's welfare and growth, was a number of terms mayor, and also president of the board of education, and at the time of his death was president of the public library board. For years past he has not been engaged in business. He was a man of strict integrity and worth and held in high esteem by his fellow citizens.

In early years he became a member of Warsaw lodge 257, A. F. & A. M., and has filled the office of master a number of years.

His funeral occurred at 2 p. m., Monday, Feb. 8, from his late residence, Rev. Alfred Lee Jones of St. John's Episcopal church officiating. He was buried with Masonic rites, Warsaw lodge following his remains to the grave where Past Master John Scott of Carthage officiated.

Cuts 350 Pound Cake.
NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—As the clocks in the Hotel Astor banquet hall pointed to one minute after midnight today, Miss Ethel Levy flourished a six foot knife and cut into a 350 pound birthday cake, the centerpiece of the speakers' table at the second annual banquet of the Far Western Travelers' association. There were 1,500 guests at the banquet.

Miss Levy is assistant secretary of the organization. The cake was the gift of the Northern Pacific railway and a special attendant brought it here in a freight car.

Sugar Advances.
[United Press Leased Wire Service.] DENVER, Colo., Feb. 10.—A jump of 3c to 4c per 100 pounds retail was made in the price of sugar here as a result of the rising New York price.

FRANCE

The French and German artillery duels continue without cessation. The Germans are bringing up additional troops in this region and are preparing to attempt another offensive as soon as the weather will permit. In the north there has been fighting at a number of widely separated points, but without any material damage.

Children Have Kidney Trouble

Three years ago my little girl, Angela, was taken sick with scarlet fever and later dropsy set in; her face and limbs swelled and her eyes puffed. A leading physician here at the time, treated her without the slightest success. A sample of your Swamp-Root having been left at the house at the time, I resolved to try it, and as it agreed with her stomach I continued using it with gratifying results. The inflammation began to subside after she had taken the first fifty-cent bottle, and after she took two large bottles she was pronounced cured by the doctor, and has been in good health ever since. The doctor came to see her every day and examined her every second day until he pronounced her kidneys in perfect condition.

Now then the doctor was under the impression that I was giving my girl his medicine, but as his medicine had failed to do a bit of good, and desiring not to offend him, I did not tell him I was giving her Swamp-Root and he did not know the difference. I did not use one drop of his medicine, after I started my girl on Swamp-Root, and have always felt that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root saved my girl's life, for which I am grateful.

I cannot praise it too highly.

Very truly,
MRS. MARY BYRNE,
New Brunswick, N. J.

State of New Jersey, County of Middlesex—
I, MRS. MARY BYRNE, being duly sworn by me, according to law, on her oath saith that the above statement made by me is just and true.

MRS. MARY BYRNE,
Sworn and subscribed to before me, this 16th day of July, A. D. 1909.
MARGARET P. O'DONNELL,
Notary Public.

Letter to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Prove What Swamp-Root Will do for You

Send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample size bottle. It will convince anyone. You will also receive a booklet of valuable information, telling about the kidneys and bladder. When writing, be sure and mention the Keokuk Daily Gate City. Regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles for sale at all drug stores.

TIME OF YOUR LIFE: KILLING OTHERS

hardships were atoned for by twenty minutes good time.

"What do you mean by a good time?"

"Plenty of killing," said the officer. "And then watching the enemy run. Do you know what strikes me as funniest of all?" he concluded.

"What?"

"How little the women of the world know of their men and how little the men know of themselves until they get a chance to kill."

Tom Tinker Lynched.
[United Press Leased Wire Service.] MAYFIELD, Ky., Feb. 10.—The body of Tom Tinker, a white man, was found hanging to a tree near the court house here today. Tinker shot and killed Constable Richard Tatt while resisting arrest. A mob of fifty men broke into the jail and lynched him last night. He met death suddenly, refusing to make a statement before the noose was adjusted about his neck.

LATEST MARKET QUOTATIONS

United Press Associations Telegraph Market Report Over Gate City Leased Wire.

Grain Review.
[United Press Leased Wire Service.] CHICAGO, Feb. 10.—A marked falling off in demand, caused a sharp decline in wheat prices today. Over night recessions of 1/2 and 3/4 for May and July were shown with the opening today. The dullness continued until late in the day, prices at one time falling off 1/2 to 3/4 from opening.

Corn prices were down from yesterday's close at the opening. As stimulating some of the weakness exhibited in wheat, there were further recessions later in the day which at one time reached 1/4 cent lower than opening.

Oats also were weak, but a slight buying rally about mid-day, raised them slightly to more strength than the other grains. Oats toward late afternoon were down a fraction from the opening.

Provisions opened weak and lower and continued so.
