LOOK AT CHILD'S TONGUE IF SICK CROSS, FEVERISH

When constipated or bilious give "California Syrup of Figs."

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative;" they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here. To be sure you get the genuine ask to see that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

PERSONALS.

W. J. Hubert will return this week from a business trip to Davenport. Mrs. D. B. Hamill who has been visiting in St. Louis for the past few weeks, returned to her home Friday evening, greatly improved in health. Rev. J. Nuech of Los Angeles, Calif., formerly pastor of St. Paul's church, this city, arrived here last evening for a few day's visit. His many friends will be glad to welcome him to his old home. Mrs. E. B. Newcomb has returned from a visit of ten days in Fort Dodge.

TOWNE WILL MAKE CONFERENCE TALK

Manager Keokuk Industrial Association Will Discuss Commercial Club and City Administration.

SECRETARIES MEETING

First Annual Gathering of Commercial Club Heads Will be Held at the State University.

O. B. Towne, manager of the Keokuk Industrial association will be one of the speakers at the first annual conference of commercial club secretaries at Iowa City this week. Mr. Towne will discuss at one of the round table sessions, "The Commercial Club and the City Administration."

Mr. Towne expects to go to Iowa City Tuesday night to attend the conference which is under the auspices of the extension department of the state university of Iowa. The following from Iowa City gives some idea of the program which will be given this week.

O. E. Kingsman, acting director of the University of Iowa's extension division, has announced the program for the first annual conference of Commercial Club secretaries, which will be held here February 17 and 18. The first round table subject will be "The Function of the Commercial Club," leader George E. Wood, Red Oak. The second subject is "The Duties of the Secretary of a Commercial Club," leader Herbert Hershey, Charles City. A symposium on "the value of a city survey" will be presented by the following members of the University of Iowa faculty: Bessie E. McClenahan, E. J. Ashbaugh and Frank E. Horack.

A banquet given by the Iowa City Commercial club is scheduled for 6 o'clock and at 8 p. m. the secretaries and the Iowa Engineering society will listen to a lecture on "City Planning" by Nelson P. Lewis, chief engineer of the board of estimates and apportionment of New York City. He comes to the university under the auspices of Sigma Xi, an honorary scientific fraternity.

Thursday morning, R. F. Weirick, a landscape architect, from Des Moines, will lecture on "City Planning for Iowa Towns," before a joint session of the secretaries and the Iowa Engineering society. Following the Weirick lecture, the secretaries will hold a round table discussion with the following subjects and leaders: "The Commercial Club and the City Administration," O. B. Towne, Keokuk; "Securing of Industries," Irving Norwood, Davenport.

Thursday afternoon, I. A. Loos, head of the department of political economy and sociology in the state university will speak on "The Training of a Secretary of a Commercial Club." O. E. Kingsman will follow with an address on "What Some Commercial Clubs Have Accomplished." At 8 p. m. the secretaries will be the guests of the Tri-Angle club at an informal reception and through the courtesy of the Iowa Engineering society they will hear the illustrated lecture by Prof. S. M. Woodward on "The Dayton Flood Relief Project."

Will Give Bridge Party.
Miss Leonore Dickey will entertain a company of friends at bridge Monday afternoon.

Elks Open House.
The members of Keokuk lodge, No. 106, B. P. O. E., kept open house on Friday evening in their club house, having as their guests the families of the members. More than three hundred and fifty attended the evening's entertainment. From eight to nine there was a reception. Many played cards in the grill room during that hour. At nine o'clock, there was dancing in the ball room to the music of Agno's orchestra. Cabaret performers, imported from Chicago for the occasion, appeared three times during the dance program, and every time received hearty applause. At eleven o'clock, according to the custom in Elkdom, a toast was given to Our Absent Brothers. The toasts were given on the three floors of the club house, by Dr. F. C. Smith, O. B. Towne and E. P. McManus. Supper was served from ten o'clock to midnight in the main dining room. Salad, sandwiches, olives, pickles, ice cream, cake and coffee were served. The ladies were given carnations as favors. Punch was served in the foyer during the evening. The Elks were both lavish and gracious in the hospitality extended at their open house.

Ladies of Charity Valentine Party.
The valentine party given by the Ladies of Charity on Friday afternoon in the parlors of St. Vincent's academy was very largely attended. The parlors were decorated in strings of hearts and with flags. The receiving line included Mrs. Howard Connable, Mrs. E. P. Kruse, Mrs. Joseph Greaves, Mrs. Joseph O'Brien and Mrs. Albert Mullarky. The table, from which refreshments were served had for a cen-

The Warsaw Gate City

Warsaw, Ill., Feb. 12, 1915.

Crowds of farmers in town today, in spite of the fact that the country roads have "no bottom." Wheat looks fine and so far has wintered well, never looked better this time of the year.

There are congratulations on every side over the fact that Warsaw is to have a public library building—something she has needed for years, and this is made possible by the liberality of our lamented fellow citizen, Adolph Roessler.

Warsaw greatly needs a high school building, as the higher classes every year are growing larger. A fine adjunct would be a gymnasium with department for boys and one for girls. A rubber roofing roof has been put on the Battels building, replacing one of tin, which was leaking.

Henry Kamps, who lives on East Main street, has sold his home and a few acres adjoining, to Mrs. Eva McMahan, and has bought the Wolfenbarger property, on north side of Main street, between Seventh and Eighth streets. This gives Mr. Kamps a snug home not far from the mill where he is employed. Mr. Wolfenbarger has not decided on his plans for the future.

The ladies should not forget that they have a vote this spring; at the primaries as well as at the April election.

All preparations are about completed for the banquet and other entertainments of the High Tension club of Keokuk, which meets in Warsaw Monday evening, February 15. This club is composed of employes and officers of the Mississippi Water Power Co. and Keokuk Electric Co. and has already met in this social way several times in Keokuk, once each in Fort Madison and Nauvoo, and the last time in Hamilton. The club numbers over 100 members, gentlemen whom it is a pleasure to meet and Warsaw feels honored that they will be with us.

As soon as the frost is out of the ground, work will be commenced on the new addition on Clay street, to the Main street garage of M. C. Eckbohm.

The McMahan brothers are contemplating extensive improvements on their farm residences, one will also build a barn, and a third may build a house and barn.

The following young ladies assisted in serving: Miss Margaret Ewers, Miss Margaret Moeller, Miss Gertrude Breheny, Miss May Breheny, Miss Margaret Finigan, Miss Norine Farrar, Miss Emmanuela Flood, Miss Beatrice McKenzie, Miss Dorothy Kruse, and Miss Madeline Connable. The society received many gifts to aid in their serving for the needy. The gifts were placed in a large basket and were received by Miss Lulu Noelkemper, Miss May Hurley and Miss Leonore Dickey. The committee which planned the very successful party was Mrs. James Breheny, Mrs. Julia Shehan, Mrs. Charles Fogers, Mrs. McDowell, Mrs. Ed. simply horrible caricatures of him—though not meant as such—but ought not to have been printed for they are an insult to his memory and do not even resemble him, at least so say those who knew him in Springfield, Ill., his old home, and saw him every day, and often heard him make political speeches, and plead in the courts, in the days before the war.

By request of Superintendent Fairfax, the Warsaw Bulletin in its last issue, published the enrollment of pupils in grades 1 to 8 in the public schools, whose earnest school work has entitled them to a place in the first half of the class. This is gratifying to teachers, scholars and parents. The enrollment in each grade is as follows: Grade one, 18; two, 27; three, 34; four, 40; five, 34; six, 29; seven, 31; eight, 30.

Rev. Tuschoff of Warrenton, Mo., will preach his last sermon here on Sunday evening in the German M. E. church, where he has been assisting in revival work for over a week.

Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Edwards entertained the Baraca, and Gleaner classes on Thursday evening last, at their home. An oyster supper was served by a committee of the Baracas, composed of young men, who proved they understood one branch of domestic science. The evening was spent in games, music and other social pleasures.

There will be a meeting of the executive committee of the Goodfellows Saturday evening, February 13, at city hall. The finances of the club are in good condition and new friends are being made almost every day, friends that count.

W. C. VanPappelendam has returned from Chicago. Hon. Truman Plants is in Rock Island on M. W. A. business, as the order's attorney.
