CLOSE TO THE GATES A SPACIOUS GARDEN LIES.

Close to the gates a spacious garden lies. From storms defended and inclement skies. Four acres was th' allotted space of ground. Fenced with a green inclosure all around. Tall thriving apple trees confess'd the fruitful mold; The reddening apple ripens here to gold. Here the blue fig with luscious juice o'erflows. With deeper red the full pomegranate glows. The branch here bends beneath the weighty pear. And verdant olives flourish round the year.

And there in autumn's richest purple dy'd, Beds of all various herbs, for ever green. In beautiful order terminate the scene. Two plenteous fountains the whole prospect crown'd; This through the gardens leads its streams around. Visits each plant and waters all the ground; While that in pipes beneath the palace flows, And thence its currents on the towns bestows; To various use their various streams they bring, The people one, and one supplies the king. —Alexander Pope.

To Keep the Face Fresh, Clear, Youthful

More important than the cosmetic care of the complexion is its physical care. To keep the face clean, fresh, youthful, there's nothing better than common mercolized wax. It absorbs the rolls or faded worn-out skin particles. Cosmetics simply add unwholesomeness to the complexion. That's the difference. By all means, acquire the mercolized wax habit. It's so easy to get an ounce of the wax at the druggist's, apply at night like cold cream and wash it off next morning. There's no detention indoors, the old skin coming off so gradually no one suspects you're using anything. When in a week or two the alluringly youthful, roselike, under skin is fully in view—well, you won't want, or need, a make-up complexion after that. It must be apparent that this process means complete riddance of all cutaneous blemishes, like freckles, pimples, blotches and blackheads. For obstinate wrinkles, a face bath made by dissolving an ounce of saxolite in a half pint witch hazel, surmounts massing cream and everything else for results.

CHILD GETS SICK CROSS, FEVERISH IF CONSTIPATED

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harm tender stomach or bowels

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold, or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is oftentimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

On the Tail End.

Des Moines Tribune: The whole cause of the unrest in Iowa is that we are not boring with a big enough auger. We are not doing the things that stir state pride. There is too much "catching up with the procession."

The Large Figure Beautiful

It is just as fashionable to be large as to be petite if your corset is correctly chosen. There are many corset models for stout figures, but few take into consideration every detail that must be perfect in order to give a fashionable result. The designers of have given their stout model figures particular attention and we are pleased to recommend them for your inspection.
