

FEDERAL COURT DOCKET HEAVY

Judge M. J. Wade Will Find Big Volume of Business Awaiting Him at His First Term Here.

CONVENES ON TUESDAY

Malley Case, Hawk Case for Damages, and Besser Infringement Case Are All Marked for Trial in Docket.

The docket for the coming term of the United States district court for the southern district of Iowa which will convene here on Tuesday, has been received here. The docket shows that there will be considerable business before Judge M. J. Wade, who will hold his first term of court here.

Three cases, criminal, law and equity, have been noted for trial at this term. They are the cases of the United States vs. George E. Malley, charged with violation of the Mann law; Edward Hawk, vs. F. M. Tombs et al. a suit for damages; and Charles A. Besser vs. The Merrilat Culvert Core Co., an infringement.

The Malley case was tried at the last term of court and resulted in a disagreement. This case will be one of the first criminal cases to be heard. It is expected. Another criminal case which will be heard is that of the United States vs. Charles W. Johnson, another Mann act case. Johnson has been granted a new trial by the court of appeals. He was brought here from Leavenworth.

The case of Hawk vs. Tombs et al. for damages is the $75,000 suit which a former Burlington baseball player has brought against some doctors there. Hawk fell out of a window in a Burlington hotel and fractured his leg. He claims that the bone was improperly set. He asks damages for this alleged malpractice.

The infringement case of Besser vs. Merrilat grows out of a dispute over a patent on some culvert cores. There are three cases pending against the Merrilat River Power Co. One of these is Jagger and Jagger vs. the Power company. The plaintiffs are Fort Madison men, and they claim damages for overflow. The other two cases are those of A. C. Miller, Adm., vs. the Power company, and grew out of the launch accident on Lake Cooper two years ago.

BISHOP LLOYD TO VISIT ST. JOHN'S

Eminent Churchman Will be Here This Coming Wednesday and His Visit Will be of Special Import.

IS LEADER IN MISSIONS

Parishioners at St. John's Will Have Chance to Meet Him and to Hear This Eminent Divine.

The Right Rev. Arthur S. Lloyd, D. D. will visit St. John's Episcopal church this coming Wednesday. The event will be made one of particular importance to the people of St. John's. A recent the bishop's visit, Church Life has the following comment by its editor, the Rev. John C. Sage:

An event of unusual importance in the history of St. John's will be the coming to our parish on Thursday next of the Rt. Rev. Arthur S. Lloyd, Bishop Lloyd's presence in the church is the outcome of his service in stirring up the whole body of church people to a fuller realization of the mission of the church.

No priest or bishop has ever won for himself so warm a place in the affections of such a vast number of people. His simple manner, his gracious courtesy and above all his intense earnestness in speaking of the love of God for all people has aroused the conscience of the church. He is a speaker of rare power and eloquence. As secretary of the board of missions he declined bishoprics offered him in four or five dioceses until at length the call came to him from his native Virginia. There he was bishop-coadjutor. But when a few years afterward the call came to him to again take up his leadership in the mission cause he obeyed and was made president of the board which position he now holds. Bishop Lloyd is making a visitation of the sixth province with Dr. Rollit, who is secretary.

We are most fortunate in having Bishop Lloyd visit us as he stops at only four cities in Iowa. Our parish board of missions has arranged for a meeting of women in the afternoon at 2:30 o'clock to be addressed by Bishop Lloyd and Dr. Rollit and a dinner to be served promptly at 6 o'clock for all our parishioners, at which they will again speak. So great is the privilege of a visit to this vicinity of Dr. Lloyd that it is expected the clergy and lay delegations will be with us from Quincy, Palmyra, Carthage, Warsaw, Mt. Pleasant, Ottumwa, Oskaloosa, Burlington, Ft. Madison, Montrose and Mocar.

The Warsaw Gate City

Warsaw, Ill., April 10, 1915.

Kalem's Biblical masterpiece, "From the Manger to the Cross," a reverent moving picture life story of Jesus of Nazareth, in five reels, was given Friday, April 9, at 2:30, 7:15 and 8:20 p. m. at Dreamland theatre, the house being filled to its utmost capacity—600. Rev. George Long of St. Paul's church, delivered the lecture in a most interesting and instructive manner, charming and fascinating his hearers; without this the pictures would have lost much of their value; Warsaw owes Mr. Kuse a vote of thanks for the privilege of viewing this marvelous production, costing many thousands of dollars, and many months of preparation. The thought occurs to many patrons and would-be patrons of moving picture shows, why not have more of this class of moving pictures, historical, and biblical, and also scenes in the great cities of the world? They would be more instructive, would be uplifting and educational and very much better for the morals of the rising generation than much of the sensational and suggestive scenes that the people seem to demand all over the country. If the picture companies would create the demand they would get the patronage.

About 200 acres of tomatoes, and sixty acres of pickles have been contracted for. It has been several years since we have had a good pickle crop, and the hope is expressed that this year will be an exception.

The rain Friday and Friday night was of inestimable value to the wheat, the pastures, lawns and gardens; it came just right.

Major R. W. McClaughey was united in marriage on April 8 to Miss Emma F. Madden, sister of his deceased wife. The major is well known in this vicinity, Hancock county being his birthplace, and in all three of the states, and has a world-wide reputation as to his advanced and kindly method of treating criminals, he having for years been warden of Joliet penitentiary, and also of the U. S. penitentiary at Leavenworth. Both contracting parties live in Leavenworth, and will make it their future home, residing with Mr. and Mrs. Will McClaughey. The bride has been matron of the Wm. Small Memorial Home of Leavenworth, for the past two years.

Walker township voted "dry" in the recent election, two to one. The entire republican ticket was elected, Chas. Carter succeeding D. Luft as supervisor.

Carl Haas, brother of the late Mrs. Henry Aubage, and of Miss Johanna Haas of this city, died at his home in Centria, Wash., April 1, after an illness from pneumonia. He was fifty-nine years of age, born in Germany on December 31, 1856, and came to this country in 1883, with his mother and sister. He was well and favorably known here and his many friends will be pained at the news of his death. He leaves a wife, two daughters and one son, also a sister, Miss Haas, of Warsaw.

Hon. Chas. E. Hay of Springfield, is a guest at the home of his son, William R. Hay, opposite the park; he bears his years well.

Rev. J. M. Thompson attended a committee meeting of the synod of Illinois in Chicago, the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Dodge and daughter, Miss Katherine, went to St. Louis Tuesday last.

Extension of water mains east and south is being planned, thus giving the city much needed fire protection in that section, and also making it possible to secure more consumers.

There is talk of two more saloons probably asking for license. No use, gentlemen, the bars are up—the fence bars—and will stay up.

Mr. and Mrs. James Simmons lost their oldest child, Oran, a bright boy of eleven years of age, after an illness of nine days, from an abscess on the brain, which developed blood poisoning. He is survived by his parents, three brothers, and one sister. His death occurred Monday, and burial Tuesday, 2 p. m. Rev. J. M. Thompson of the Presbyterian church officiating.

As many of the office force of the Mississippi Valley Telephone Co. as can be spared from here, propose to attend the operator's school to be held in Carthage on the 20th and 21st of April. W. R. Vivian of Chicago, secretary of the Independent Telephone association, of the United States, will be in charge. Probably fifty operators both days will attend.

Warsaw aerie F. O. E. will give a dance in Saenger hall, Tuesday evening, April 13. Music by Eymann's orchestra.

It has been suggested that Warsaw has a minister who takes a heartfelt interest in the young, and their education, who would make a most valuable member of the board of education, applying the place of one of the retiring members.

They positively decline to be candidates for reelection; both have been members of the board of education for about twenty years, the former as president; both have been faithful and efficient, and their decision is much regretted.

Walter Giller, attending polytechnic school at Milwaukee, spent a few days with home folks last week. He is looking fine.

Mrs. S. P. Wallace has gone to St. Louis to have her eyes treated by Dr. W. H. Luedde, and also to visit her children there. She was accompanied by Mrs. Robt. P. Wallace, who returned home after a pleasant visit here.

Ed Lonzecker and Al Walzen of Milwaukee, Wis., are visiting home folks for a few days.

Miss Florence Giller is home from a few weeks' visit to Chicago. O. R. Myers, circulation manager of the Quincy Journal, came up to vote and visit, Tuesday.

Rev. J. Forbes Mitchell will conduct the morning service at St. Paul's Episcopal church Sunday, April 11. Mrs. Wm. Edmann is much improved in health after recently undergoing an operation at St. Joseph hospital, Keokuk.

On Thursday, April 8, at 2 p. m., at the parsonage of the Bethel M. E. church, Quincy, Miss Florence Biggen of Marine, Ill., and Mr. Chas. Zobel of Warsaw, were united in marriage by Rev. H. Kasiske, pastor of the church above mentioned. They were attended by Miss Freda Weirather of Quincy, cousin of the groom, and Mr. Henry Zobel, of Warsaw, his brother. After the ceremony a wedding supper was enjoyed at the home of Henry Weirather, Quincy, and the young couple left at once for a short honeymoon trip to Marine, Ill., the former home of the bride. They will reside on the corner of Fourth street, opposite the park, where the groom has furnished a cozy home for his bride. The bride is a charming young lady, well fitted for the new sphere she will fill, and the groom is a young man of sterling worth, and is employed in the button factory. Both have many friends who cordially extend to them the usual felicitations.

Roy Williams, who is attending high school at Hamilton, came down Saturday to spend Sunday with his parents in Wythe township.

The bazaar and luncheon of the R. N. A. at Odd Fellows' dining room, on Friday and Saturday, was freely patronized, and proved a success. Dr. Matzke and bride are expected home in about one week; they are returning by an interesting and circuitous route, taking in a number of large cities.

Make You California Exposition Plans—Now

The California Expositions are exceeding everybody's expectations. If you let this opportunity slip by you will live to keenly regret it. Once in a lifetime, comes such a chance—such favorable railroad rates.

But don't simply go and come with your eyes shut to everything except the expositions. Get all the glorious good you can out of seeing the West—seeing America.

The Burlington Railroad has arranged a Grand Circle Tour—costing only a few dollars more than the direct round trip rate—that enables you not only to see Colorado and Utah, with all their scenic treasures and interesting points, by daylight, but Los Angeles, and both expositions, including a two days' ocean trip up the Pacific Coast to Portland. Returning, you can come via either Glacier National Park, or Yellowstone Park; then on to Billings, returning to St. Louis via the Big Horn Mountains and Black Hills or Minneapolis and St. Paul and the famous Mississippi River Scenic line. It's a wonder tour—with stop-overs at any point in either direction. Your ticket is good for ninety days, and costs only $75.88. A shorter tour for only $59.25 includes Colorado and Utah by daylight, and both Expositions.

Rates are in effect and tickets on sale daily until October 30th. Let Burlington Service begin with helping plan your trip. We're more than glad to give advice, answer questions, supply you with descriptive literature and maps, and make reservations. The time to complete your arrangements is now. We will help you. Please write, call or phone today. C. P. Conrad, City Ticket Agent, Fifth and Ohson Streets. Pjhone 976.

day, April 11, at the fair grounds, thus opening the baseball season here.

Geo. Gollmer is planning much needed improvements in his store this spring. The front will be painted, and the interior will be papered and painted and he will install a soda fountain and ice cream parlor.

Town is full of farmers this afternoon, and all wear smiling faces because of the soaking rain last night.

IOWA WOMAN POSED AS A MAN

Sex Was Not Discovered Until She Fell From Tree and Was Injured.

MONROE, Wis., April 10.—Ned Hudson, joined the section gang working on the Illinois Central south of here, two months ago. His comely appearance and extreme youth made him the butt of his fellow workers' rude horse-play, for a while, but his ability to wield a pick and shovel with the best of them, soon earned their respect and they "laid off of him." The boy kept a good deal to himself. He never retired until the others were in their bunks in the freight car which served as their the commission in 1915, possibly in some Swiss town is not impossible.

Sierstorpf, vice president of the German executive commission for the Olympic games, stated today that the time set by the international commission for the 1916 games has not as yet been changed. Decision on this is impossible now since the length and final result of the war cannot be foretold and this will decide whether the games are to be transferred to some neutral country—possibly America—or will take place in Berlin. Participation of Britain and France is left to their decision.

The count is at present the only available member of the executive commission here in Berlin. Baron Venningen was killed in the war. Count Arnim is with his regiment at the front. Despite the war, the international commission's work is not being stopped. The French, Baron Coubetor, living in Lusane, is in steady and friendly communication with sleeping quarters, and was always up and dressed before the others "rolled out" in the morning. Hudson fell from a low trestle near Amboy, Ill., today and was rendered unconscious. Then it was discovered that "Ned" was a woman.

She confessed that she was Mrs. Henrietta Nearing, of Council Bluffs, Iowa. Her husband deserted her three months ago, after they had been married a year. She was too proud to ask her father for aid as her parents had disapproved of her marriage. She worked a while as a waitress in a hotel, but did not like the work. She then donned male attire and got the job as a section hand. She will be sent back to her parents.
