—Ft. Madison Democrat: O'Donnell, under sentence of death at the prison, is expecting a decision of the supreme court on his appeal some time about the middle of the month. He is very hopeful and does not show any evidence of weakness. In fact, the only grievance he has ever expressed is that some one tried to start the rumor that he was not sane. He says that if he has to get out of his trouble through the insanity dodge, he will stay in it. And so far as that is concerned he is about as sane now as they make them. He has not discussed his case with any one at the prison, and whatever thoughts he may have, have been kept strictly to himself.
