

ORDERS SIGNED IN INJUNCTION CASES

Temporary Restraining Orders Have Been Prepared Against Score of Women and Will be Served Today.

ONE INJUNCTION DENIED

No Writ Was Issued in Ruby Bland Case—One Writ Issued in Liqueur Case.

Orders were signed in the district court this morning granting temporary writs of injunction against a score of women, who were charged by the state with being keepers or inmates of alleged immoral resorts. An injunction asked for by the state against Ruby Bland was denied. A temporary injunction was issued against James Sullivan who was charged with illegal sale of liquor. The orders against the women restraining them from "in any manner using, maintaining and continuing said building or premises for the purposes of lewdness, assignation or prostitution, contrary to law." Those named in the orders are: Florence Schmidt, Gladys Bentley, Hattie Kirby, Mary Carey, Bonnie Burton, Beatrice Rose, Jap Roth, Minnie Chokey, Marie Jones, Verdie Darden, Daisy Brooks, Minnie Watkins, Pearl Davis, Minnie Myers, Pearl Rogan, Loretta Burton, Iva Williams, Lucille Grady. The state asked an injunction against Ruby Bland, but this was denied by the court. James Sullivan is temporarily enjoined from "selling in violation of law or keeping for sale with intention of selling in violation of the law, intoxicating liquors in the building or in any part thereof."

FARMERS ARE NOT TO BE TAXED

Clifford Thorne Says Railroads Will Not be Allowed to Hold Them Up.

[United Press Leased Wire Service] WASHINGTON, Iowa, Aug. 13.—Although Clifford Thorne, chairman of the Iowa railroad commission, the man who led the fight against the western freight rate advance, has not yet studied the broad basic principles involved, he says it was clear that the railroads were not to be allowed to tax the farmers on their products. The commission has also suspended advances on packing house products, fertilizer, hides, broom corn and grain products. The advance on vegetables and fruit are from Texas points, those on rice from Louisiana and Texas. No substantial advance was granted in midwestern territory except on coal. In this section, the advance on hay and straw is only two per cent of the total at issue in the case. No parties opposed. "The decision indicates," says Thorne, "that the commission proposes to demand more than a mere declaration of a railroad to justify a proposed rate. The difficult science of cost accounting has not received marked recognition by both the supreme court and the interstate commerce commission. "A plaintive tone runs through the comments of some railroad officials calling for sympathy because the poor railroads did not get this money. This is all too bad. But there is no use of wasting much sympathy or of becoming alarmed that the railroads will not have enough money to take care of their properties. During the trial of the case, the chief counsel for the railroads admitted that they were able under the present rates to maintain their properties as they should be maintained."

MRS. HELENE BRITTON HAS IT OUT WITH UMP

Vice President and Majority Stockholder of St. Louis Cardinals, Disgusted With Umpires.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] ST. LOUIS, Mo., Aug. 13.—Mrs. Helene Britton, vice president and majority stockholder of the Cardinals, scored Umpire Bill Byron at Robison field after Thursday's game. Mrs. Britton, disgusted with the umpiring, asked for a hearing, received one and spoke her mind. At the close of the thirteenth inning yesterday, Mrs. Britton made a hasty getaway from her private box, met the umpire and introduced her self. For fifteen minutes she and the umpire conversed. Mrs. Britton was asked for a statement, and said: "Really, I am disgusted with the work of umpires against my ball club and I decided to secure a reasonable explanation. I asked Mr. Byron if Mr. Huggins or Mr. Betzel used bad language to him when the players were put off the ball field. He said no, and then I asked him why he put them out of the game. I asked Mr. Byron if he did not think he was favoring the other club. He smiled and denied it."

CARD OF THANKS.

HUNGER.

The starving men they walk the dusk, With hunger in their eyes. To them a lighted house is like A lamp of paradise. It is the window in the dusk. That marks the drifter's coast: It is the thought of love and light That mocks the drifter most. Now I have been a starving man And walked the winter dusk; And I have known how life may be A heaven and a hulk. The fainting hands they lulled my sleeve. And bade me curse the light; But I had seen a rich man's face That looked into the night. A hungry face, a brother face, That started into the gloom. That started into the gloom, love Within a lighted room! —Dana Burnett in Harper's Monthly.

A., at 8 o'clock, a three-reel moving picture showing the Big Creek hydro-electric development in California, a few miles east of Fresno, will be put on the screen. The engineering work was done by the Stone & Webster company, which constructed the dam here. A water storage of 4,520,000 cubic feet was created in this gigantic task, which is said to have presented many engineering difficulties. The principal features of the construction are shown in the pictures, which will undoubtedly prove of unusual interest to the members of the High Tension club. The reels were given a preliminary showing yesterday at the Grand theatre to the High Tension program committee and officials of the Keokuk Electric company and the Mississippi River Power company.

NINTH INNING RALLY DANGEROUS

Morrells Fill Bases in Final Frame and Home Run Scores All, But Locals Survive.

KEOKUK WINS 8 TO 5

Crown Pitches Great Game for Y. M. C. A. Team in the Contest Yesterday at Baseball Park.

The Morrell Packing company team from Ottumwa was no match for the local Y. M. C. A. nine in the contest staged yesterday afternoon at the north side baseball park before three hundred excursionists from Ottumwa. Keokuk winning, 8 to 5.

The Morrell team was in a crippled condition, having only three of the regular lineup in the game, the other six being picked out of the best material on the excursion.

Kleth Crown pitched a great game for the Y. M. C. A. team, holding the visitors down with two runs until the ninth session, when the Morrells came near tying up the result on a few bingles and wild throws of the home players.

Myers opened up on the round for the visitors but was knocked out. Woodberry next being led to the slaughter. Ten blows off these two pitchers gave the Y. M. C. A. team eight runs.

In the ninth frame it was 8 to 2 in favor of Keokuk. Two Morrells survived on wild throws to first by Dickey and Crown filled the bases by walking the next man up. At this juncture of the game, the Keokuk fielders, evidently under the delusion that there was three outs, came in to the bench and the next Morrell up knocked a home run to left field, and everybody scored.

The team then buckled down and refused the side before any more damage could be done. The batteries for Keokuk were Crown and "Pa" Belt, and for the visitors, Meyers, Woodberry and Shaffer. Hiram Stebbins umpired.

Disease Under Control. [United Press Leased Wire Service.] CHICAGO, Aug. 13.—The foot and mouth disease is completely under control and will soon end, declared President Leonard, of the United Stock Yards company, today. "The farmers may be reassured concerning the outbreak of the disease this week at several points in Illinois and one case in Minnesota. Each farm closely watched by state and federal officials and the possibility of its spread is confined to a narrow field. All animals infected have been killed and buried and all suspected counties quarantined," said Leonard. Leonard advises holding of stock until well fed, as there is a great abundance of feed for winter and a scarcity of animals to consume it.

Daily Stock Letter. [Copyright 1915 by the New York Evening Post.]

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—Wall street was a good deal taken aback by the announcement of the interstate commerce commission's decision in the anthracite rate case. The news came out after the close of the market yesterday so that selling orders were ready for execution at the opening of the market today. These forced prices down from 1 to 5 points in the stocks immediately affected. The industrial shares, as well as the railroad stocks, declined sharply during the first half hour. Then there was a good rally, so that by noon the losses had been largely made up. Heaviest selling was in Erie, Reading and Lehigh Valley, the latter stock breaking 6 1/2 points soon after the opening, rallying later. The entire market was unsettled, however, and there was heavy profit taking in the more speculative of the war stocks. The violent break of sterling exchange was a factor, causing some uneasiness as to just how payment would be made for some of the war material that was ready for delivery. A good deal of attention was paid to reports from Chicago regarding the cancellation of contracts for the exportation of wheat. The grain markets were lower, wheat falling 3 cents a bushel at New York.
