MADE SAW OUT OF HIS KNIFE--CAUGHT

Prisoner in County Jail at Memphis Was Evidently Preparing to Cut His Way to Freedom When Apprehended.

WEAPON WAS MISSED

It Was Taken Off Service Platter and Turnkey's Wife Found She Was Short When Count Was Made.

[Special to The Gate City.] MEMPHIS, Mo., Aug. 28.—Because the wife of the turnkey of the Memphis county jail counted her case knives and found one of them missing, the attempt of "Sol" Foutz, awaiting trial at the November term of court, to escape, was frustrated. It was found on investigation that Foutz had notched teeth in the blade of the knife with a spring out of the instep of his shoe. That he was going to try to saw his way out with this instrument, is the belief of the jail officials. Foutz is charged with burglarizing C. B. & Q. freight cars and taking numerous articles from them. He is said to have taken a case knife from the service platter while eating a meal the other day. With the steel spring from the instep of an old shoe he made teeth in the blade of the knife, supposedly preparing to attempt to saw his way to liberty. The turnkey's wife missed the knife, and notified the jailer. A search of the cell occupied by Foutz was made, and resulted in finding the knife hidden in an excelsior of his mattress. The knife had an even row of teeth notched in the blade and was considered quite an efficient tool. Foutz is said to have escaped at another time by the aid of tools sent in from outsiders. Foutz was accused of taking some canned corn. He was watched by the railroad detectives and arrested. He was later released from the state penitentiary. His case comes up at the November term of court.

NOTHING MARS WEEK

Weather Was Good Except for Cloudiness on Big Day—Some Fast Races Staged by Good Horses.

KAHOKA, Mo., Aug. 28.—In a blaze of glory, marred by no accidents or unfavorable features, with fair weather, the annual Clark county fair was brought to a close here last night, excellent races featuring the last day's racing card. One of the features of the fair was music by a mixed band of between twenty-five and thirty pieces, some men and some women, all of this vicinity. The organization played splendidly and attracted wide attention. The work was tip top and the accommodation displayed by the band shows the interest taken by the members. Major C took the 2:25 pace in six heats, winning the deciding heat from Lady Sparks in 2:19 1/4, both horses and drivers doing some excellent work, amid the plaudits of the great crowd. The winner is the property of Charles Cochran of Hamilton. Bezoni, owned by William J. Purpus of Clayton, won the 2:15 trot, four heats being required to settle the argument all of the heats requiring more than 2:15.

What Our Neighbors Say.

Muscataine, Iowa.—"When in Oklahoma and waiting to build, I was exposed to cold weather. I was not well and felt the need of some medicine to give new strength. Having seen 'Golden Medical Discovery' advertised I procured and used one bottle, then I used the 'Favorite Prescription' also. These two combined caused me to get stronger and to throw off the unpleasant effects of the exposure. I shall always speak highly of Dr. Pierce's remedies."—MRS. SARAH BARTON, 123 West Front St., Muscatine, Iowa.

SCOTTY ESTELLE AND MILITANT WIFE LEAVE Take Journey Saturday Afternoon in Preference to Thirty Day Jail Sentence.

ESTABLISHED 1856 One of the largest Wholesale Dry Goods, Notion, Underwear and Hosiery Houses in the Middle West. Manufacturers of Indian Head Dress Shirts, Work Shirts, Overalls, etc. Sole Agent for "Tom Boy" Hosiery. New York Prices Duplicated. Irwin-Phillips Co., Keokuk, Ia. Hamilton, Ill.

The police annals will no longer be cluttered up with the fighting record of Scotty Estelle and his militant wife, both colored. They left the city Saturday for St. Louis after having been given a choice between leaving the city and also the state, or a thirty day jail sentence. Scotty and his wife were regular entries on the police calendar and out of the past seven months had spent four in jail. They were always arrested on the charge of disturbing the peace, each being a scrapper of renown in the colored section of the city, and when they were not fighting each other, both were pummeling up some other unfortunate. —Read The Daily Gate City. 19 cents per week.
