

BOSTON IN THIRD STRAIGHT VICTORY OVER MORAN'S MEN

Red Sox Get Early Lead Over Phillies That Eighth Inning Rally Failed to Overcome.

PHILS SCORE IN EIGHTH

Cravath's Triple Followed by a Single by Luderus, Gives Visiting Warriors Their Only Run.

BRAVES FIELD, BOSTON, Oct. 12.—Boston's onrushing Red Sox climbed to within one game of the world's baseball championship this afternoon by defeating the Phillies in the fourth game of the series, two to one, before a crowd that packed the mammoth new Braves field.

Philadelphia's defeat is a new three day old story of failing to hit in the pinches.

In only three of the nine innings did Philadelphia fail to get men on bases, but each time her sluggers succumbed to the elusive slants of young Ernie Shore, who by his victory made up for his defeat in the opening game of the series.

Batting heroes for the day were equally divided between Fred Luderus, the big Philly first sacker, and Dick Hoblitzel, who operates around the same bag for the Carrigan clan.

BRAVES FIELD, BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 12.—Approximately fifty thousand supposedly staid New Englanders fought and scratched their way into Braves field between 10 a. m. and 2 p. m. today to witness the attempt of the onrushing Red Sox to drive a third spike into a world's championship.

And it was some fight. For two blocks around the park gates a struggling sea of humanity wormed its tedious way toward the box office. Thousands were to be disappointed, as admissions were at a premium.

Speculators, who yesterday did not break even, made money today. Nobody worked in Boston today but the ball players. It was a holiday. Something over 400 years ago, Old Chris Colum found America. Boston today is confident that a world's baseball championship has found her again after a three years absence. Therefore Boston celebrated.

There was music galore—stringed, instrumental and chdn.

Three Bads Play

Three bads played the huge throng into its seats. The club furnished one, the "Royal Rooters" another, and an added starter made its appearance among the crowd of 700 gray uniformed postmen, which occupied a block of seats back of third base.

Each postman was equipped with a scarted Boston banner, making the scene a flaming square against a somber and blackground.

A kilted whining of the crashing of the trio of bands. The bleachers started singing contests back and forth across the field, using "Tipperary" as the vehicle. The crowd didn't care—it was a holiday, and besides Boston was winning. Moreover, it was a day picked out of June and transplanted into autumn.

Boston had still Penn's back against the wall today, and the Phillis showed they knew it by putting more "pop" into their practice than they had heretofore exhibited. They put practically all their time in batting practice—a thing badly needed. Rumors were current that Moran was going to shake up his infield and take Niehoff out of it, but they were traceable to no source. Niehoff hasn't made a hit during the entire series. But his work around second base has been brilliant. Moran has not made a change in his line or used a pinch hitter since the series started.

Mayer and McQuillan served up the slants for the Philly batters to slam.

Two Hours of Work.

Boston again was on the field a good two hours before the game time, working every minute. Ray Collins, Greg and Mays worked for Carrigan's sluggers.

At 1:45 p. m. Shore and Chalmers began warming up, while other pitchers retired to the dug-outs. After Moran had watched Chalmers critically for a few moments, he motioned Rixey, his tall left hander from the cave, and the two took the kinks out of their arms side by side.

Moran stood at Rixey's shoulder as he worked, and the big pitcher opened up a burst of speed that looked good.

Shore was the only pitcher who warmed up for Boston. Umpires: Evans behind the plate; Riggler on bases; O'Loughlin and Klein on foul lines.

Ten minutes before the game time, it appeared certain that the crowd would exceed that of yesterday. The bleachers were practically full, which thousands were still surging about the streets surrounding the big field. Hundreds were standing in the center field. On the far bank of the Charles river many could be seen congregated for a view of the crowd if nothing else. The playing field was in the best condition. The base lines were dry and fast.

Five minutes before game time Chalmers was the only Philly pitcher warming up.

Play by Innings

First Inning.
PHILLIES—Stock up. Ball one. Strike one, called. Strike two, called. Ball two. Stock singled to left and went out at second. Lewis to Scott, trying to stretch it.

Bancroft up. Ball one. Ball two. Strike one, called. Ball three. Bancroft walked.

Paskert up. Ball one. Strike one, called. Foul, strike two. Ball two. Ball three. Bancroft stole second when Barry dropped Cady's throw, an error for Barry.

Paskert fanned, Cady touching him after dropping third strike.

Cravath up. Foul, strike one. The ball rolled foul. Ball one. Strike two, called. Ball two. Cravath fanned.

No runs; one hit; no errors.

Shore had a close call on a roller from Cravath which went foul by inches. Bancroft had taken a big lead and dashed over the pan, bringing the crowd to its feet.

Second Inning.
PHILLIES—Luderus up. Ball one. Foul, strike two. Luderus singled to right.

Whitted up. Foul, strike one. Whitted sacrificed. Hobby to Barry, who covered first.

Niehoff up. Foul, strike one. Niehoff fouled out to Cady.

Burns up. Ball one. Ball two. Ball three. Burns walked.

Chalmers up. Foul, strike one. Ball one. Strike two, called. Ball two. Fanned.

No run; one hit; no errors.

Chalmers was Shore's third strike-out victim. With a runner on second, Niehoff again failed to get a hit and his record for the series is still blank.

BOSTON—Hobby up. Ball one. Ball two. Strike one, called. Ball three. Strike two, called. Fanned, swung.

Lewis up. Strike one, called. Ball one. Lewis out, Chalmers to Luderus.

Gardner up. Ball one. Gardner flied to Paskert.

No runs; no hits; no errors.

Lewis got a great hand from the crowd when he came to bat.

Duffy couldn't deliver, however, and was an easy out.

Third Inning.
PHILLIES—Hobby up. Ball one. Ball two. Strike one up. Foul, strike two. Stock out, Gardner to Hobby.

Bancroft up. Ball one. Foul, strike one. Ball two. Ball three. Walked. It was Bancroft's second free ticket.

Paskert up. Foul, strike one. Ball one. Strike two, swung. Fanned.

Cravath up. Cravath flied to Lewis.

No runs; no hits; no errors.

The Phillies kept Shore working, having had a man on in each inning. He had the number of the Philly sluggers, Paskert and Cravath, however.

BOSTON—Barry up. Strike one. Ball one. Ball two. Ball three. Strike two, called. Walked.

Cady up. Foul, strike one. Cady safe at first and Barry at second on an infield single.

Shore up. Strike one, called. Barry scored on Hooper's bouncer to Niehoff, which went for a single. Cady took two.

Shore sacrificed. Stock to Luderus.

Hooper up. Strike one, called. Barry scored on Hooper's bouncer to Niehoff, which went for a single. Cady took two.
