FEDS TO INVADE NEW YORK SURE

Rumors of Peace Between Federal League and Organized Baseball Without Foundation.

FEDS WILL FIGHT ON

Gilmore Announces That Choice Lot on Manhattan, Will be Secured for New Baseball Club.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—The Hague tribunal would have a fat chance arbitrating the baseball war now. Col. Will Gilmore, the fighting Fed, apparently pulled all the feathers out of the justly famous peace dove with the flatfooted announcement that Kansas City Fed franchise transferred to New York means just what it says—that the Feds positively and absolutely will have a team and a park in Manhattan next summer.

"There are one or two details to be arranged," said Gilmore, "and they will be arranged with all speed. In a week or so, we will make a detailed announcement of our plans. But say this positively, the Federal league will be represented in New York by a strong team and the grounds will be located centrally right here on Manhattan Island."

Real estate men are taking Gilmore at his word.

"They're besieging me with choice plots," he said. "Incidentally Gilmore cleared up the mystery of his jaunt to French Lick with Weeghman.

"Our wives happened to be at French Lick," he said. "That's all. There was no conference with the O. B. moguls. We're satisfied with the boys as they are."

Captain Huston, of the Yankees, figures that he'll get the jump on Gilmore by grabbing the best park site first. Huston said today the Yankees are pretty certain to play in a new park of their own at Queensboro next summer.

From Media, Pennsylvania, today came flat denial from Homerun Baker that he will play with the Yanks. Baker dropped the hint that he might play with the White Sox if he came back to the big league at all.

Rock Island Matter Left to New Board

ROCK ISLAND, Ill., Nov. 16.—The matter of the territory of Rock Island as regards the claims made by both the Central association and the Three-I league was not decided upon by the National association meeting in San Francisco, according to M. H. Sexton, of Rock Island, the president of the association, who arrived in Rock Island Sunday, called home by the sudden death of his sister. Instead the claim of the Central association was referred to the board of arbitration.

Both Hayes of Davenport, representing the Three-I, and President Justice of the Central association, presented their contentions to Sexton, who referred them to the board of arbitration in case they failed to adjust the matter between themselves.

The board of arbitration continued in session following adjournment of the association.

Sexton declares he has not yet decided whether he will accept the presidency of the association to which he was elected, notwithstanding his expressed desire to retire from baseball.

Even Money.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 16.—Even money was being placed here today on the bout scheduled for tonight at the Auditorium between Harry Greb of Pittsburgh, and Tommy Gibbons. Greb has made a splendid showing in his gymnasium work, demonstrating that he carries a wallop in either mitt. A fast card of preliminaries is scheduled.

Yes, Jess Will Fight, But Who is There to Fight Him?

Heavyweight Champion is King of All He Surveys

[By George R. Holmes, United Press Staff Correspondent.] NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—The recent and widely heralded announcement by Jess Willard that he will defend the title he won from Jack Johnson next March has brought to light another situation akin to that of several years ago when Johnson was in his prime. And that is that there is no heavy now looming up on the pugilistic horizon capable of giving the champion a real championship battle. Since Willard barred the blacks, it leaves but seven men who even by stretching several miles of points can be considered contenders. Of these, perhaps Frank Moran of Pittsburgh, stands the best show, but ring men consider it a mighty poor best. Moran's chief claim to fame is that he held Johnson off for twenty rounds and that he knocked out Jim Coffey in three rounds. There was a suspicious odor to that Johnson affair, in Paris which has never lifted, and his showing against Coffey, even while he knocked him out, was not impressive. The Roscommon giant, was busily engaged in building up a victory on points when Frank slipped over his sleep kiss. Then there is that tremendous handicap in size Willard would stand a full head taller than Moran, would reach four inches farther and have a big advantage in the weight.

Frank's best friends do not claim he is a boxer. And Willard's worst enemies will have to concede that Jess is fairly clever for a big man. Coffey has a glass jaw which eliminates him. Fred Fulton, the Minnesota giant, is clamoring for recognition. Fulton's claim to fame is his size and the fact that he knocked out Arthur Pooley.

About the only ones that haven't knocked out Arthur are those who haven't fought him. Fulton should meet and lick such men as Coffey, Weinert, Jack Dillon, Tom Cowler, Gunboat Smith and three or four others before he can really claim to be a top-notch.

Gunboat Smith's star is fast setting. Charley Weinert licked the Gooner last summer, and Charley in turn has lost twice to Jack Dillon by big margins, once by a two-round kayo.

That should elevate Dillon, but Jack fights best at 170 to 175 which would give Jess about forty pounds in weight, at least seven inches in reach and over a foot in height. Dillon, as good as he is, could hardly overcome those things.

Tom Cowler is a big man, dug out of the wilds by Jim Corbett, but he is as yet untried against good men. Jess, it appears, is the king of all he surveys.

KEOKUK HIGH IS GIVEN BOUQUETS

Quincy Paper Finds Purple and White Warriors Were Well Drilled for Game.

The Keokuk high school football squad is given a bouquet by the Quincy Herald which says:

Keokuk had a much faster and better drilled team than anyone in Quincy expected. The visitors' strength was underestimated. Coach Linenberger had to use a make-shift lineup, as Sinnock, Dickson and D. Best were ineligible. Cottrell was laid up with a sore hip. Balzer was on the sick list, and Capt. Stuart had not entirely recovered from the effects of the rough handling in the game at Hannibal. With four or five substitutes in the backfield, the local team was no match for the visitors. Keokuk had everything, but weight. The team had the forward pass down pat and used it for long and short gains in every period. The visitors also had a number of new plays and formations, while the locals employed only old-fashioned football tactics.

Horses Lost.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—Search was being made today for 100 valuable race horses turned loose during a fire last night, which swept the historic Benning track, causing the death of one stable boy, serious injury to three others and property loss estimated at between $50,000 and $75,000. Hundreds of horses were being trained at the track for the races at Bowie, Md., Havana and Juarez.

Ferry Belmont had his entire training equipment destroyed, but had his horses saved. George Day lost his entire stable of nine horses valued at $50,000. Thomas F. Ryan's stable equipment was also lost. Fire destroyed fourteen of the twenty-five stables. The grand stand was not damaged.

Ticket Scandal.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] CHICAGO, Nov. 16.—Chicago developed a ticket scandal all its own today when charges were made that brokers have obtained large blocks of notebooks for the big Chicago-Illinois game at Stagg field Saturday and are holding them for twice and three times the face value.

Maroon athletic officials announced today that Stagg's big fullback, Flood, is expected to gain the annual classic. Flood was kept out of the Minnesota game through study deficiencies.

Billiard Tournament.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—Welker Cochran, the Iowa youngster, and Joseph Mayer of Philadelphia, former national amateur champion, were matched in the afternoon play of the 182 handicap billiard tournament today. George Sutton and George Slosson, old timers, will meet tonight. Joji Yamada, Japanese champion, who was spotted 125 by Willie Hoppe last night, made only 43 points, while Hoppe rolled up five hundred.

Bouts for Welsh.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—If Lightweight Champion Freddie Welsh honestly wants to scrap, here are two bouts New York promoters are ready to fix up for him: With Johnny Dundee, at New Haven, New York, day, $12,000 for twenty rounds, backed by Scotty Monteith. With Joe Azevedo, $15,000 for forty-five rounds backed by Jack Curley.

New Formation.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 16.—Tom Sheelin's new formations, brought from the west, will be worked for the first time against Harvard Saturday. Yale has been saving them and did not show all she had against Princeton. Confidence was the reigning spirit today despite the announcement that Carl Wieseman, end, cannot play Saturday because of water on the knee.

Ertle Gets Another Scalp.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—"Kewpie" Ertle, the St. Paul claimant of the bantam title, had another scalp on his belt today. Ertle had the best of it in eight rounds of his ten round scrap with young Solsberg, of Brooklyn, last night. The other two rounds were even.

Turner, of Baltimore, newly elected president of the Amateur Athletic union of the United States, prepared today to put in effect registration of women swimmers, and other constitutional changes adopted by the union at its convention last night.

To Battle Tonight.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 16.—Charley Cochran, of the Iowa youngster, and Joseph Mayer of Philadelphia, former national amateur champion, were matched tonight at the Atlas A. A. White is the favorite.

"CLEAN MAN" IS SERMON SUBJECT

Rev. Steffy Preached at Special Services Being Held in His Church, From Lesson Given by Daniel.

NEED FOR CLEANLINESS

Pastor Brings Out the Thought That Person Who is Clean in Sight of God, Will Receive Honor.

Another splendid Monday evening congregation greeted Rev. Steffy in evangelistic services of the First Methodist Protestant church last evening. The sermon subject considered was, "A Clean Man," the lesson being drawn from the life of Daniel. After briefly telling of the dream of Nebuchadnezzar and its interpretation by Daniel and the subsequent reward that came to Daniel from the hands of the king, the speaker declared, "As surely as God liveth, the author of all real goodness, loyalty shall become, in due time, royalty." But Daniel sat in the gate of the king. Faithful devotion shall be honored in the presence of monarchs and mighty men. The man who bows at the feet of the eternal in lowly homage shall by and by see others at the same feet.

"All real dignity has its beginning, not in ancestral fortune, but in righteous purpose. The heart is the seat of all noble deeds. Self-purification, cleanliness of soul, is the settled purpose of a renewed heart. What grim dirt is to the fair countenance, what rust is on virgin gold, what soot is on crystal snow, such is sin on the human soul. We want the person clean, but how about the soul? No one would think of going to the dentist without first brushing his teeth; no one would think of going to the shoemaker with dirty feet and hose full of holes; no one would think of going to a manure without first washing his hands; and yet we come up to God with our souls covered with the filth of sin, with our soul defiled. Any wickedness is defilement, disease, curse and rottenness. Now the works of the flesh manifest, which are these: Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strifes, seditions, heresies, envyings, murders, drunkenness, revelings, and such like; of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in times past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God." Any one of these is defilement, and makes a man unclean. Many a person on the account of his uncleanness, has had an original instinct at the judgment as a cross-eyed woman in a beauty show, and will be about as enthusiastic as a man with a cork leg at a high society dance.

Edward Grey from the ministry, because of their diplomatic defeat in the Balkans. Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst at once issued a statement to the public declaring the action of the Albert Hall authorities was inspired by the government to hush public protests against "the betrayal of Serbia." She defiantly announced that the meeting will be held at another time and another place.

Kilbane Easy Victor. [United Press Leased Wire Service.] PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 16.—Featherweight Champion Johnny Kilbane fairly played with Bobby Reynolds here last night. At the end of the sixth round Reynolds was hanging on to keep his head.

Fay Will Not "Squal." [United Press Leased Wire Service.] NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—Federal authorities today abandoned their efforts to obtain from "Lieut." Robert Fay the names of "higher ups" in the plot to blow up ships carrying war munitions to the allies.

Fay himself announced that he will not turn government evidence and plead guilty, after conferring with Assistant District Attorney Knox. He understood, he said, that he would not get more than two years imprisonment if he told the government all about the bomb plot, but was informed by Knox today that he might be sentenced to serve twelve years.

Counsel for Fay and for Walter L. Schurz, his brother-in-law, today fled demurely to the indictments returned against them. They attacked the indictments on the ground that the statute they cite attempted to legislate regarding foreign owned ships on the high seas.

Cannot Forget Him. [United Press Leased Wire Service.] NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—Rumors that Illinois progressives will ask Colonel Roosevelt to enter the race for the republican presidential nomination, accompanied Medill McCormick of Chicago, vice chairman of the progressive national committee, into town today.

McCormick went at once to Colonel Roosevelt's home at Oyster Bay. It was reported that he brought a request from Illinois supporters of Roosevelt that they be allowed to put his name before the Illinois state primaries in April.

Grain Ship Burned on Lake. [United Press Leased Wire Service.] CALUMET, Mich., Nov. 16.—The steamer Alfred P. Wright, wheat laden, bound from Duluth, burned to the water's edge in the Portage entry harbor of refuge early today.

The vessel was 286 feet long and had a gross tonnage of 2,207. It was owned by A. T. Kenney of Cleveland.

The steamer entered the harbor Sunday night to take refuge from the storm. It tried to leave Monday morning, but was driven back by the gale. It was the only boat in the harbor this morning when the fire was discovered.

The captain and the crew leaped to the pier and let the stern lines go. The vessel drifted into the channel and sank in twenty feet of water. The captain and crew have gone to Houghton, Michigan, and are planning to leave for their homes today.

SIMPLE REMEDY FOR CATARRH

Just Breathe Hyomel Four Times a Day and Be Relieved.

If a few years ago some one had said you could treat catarrh by breathing air charged with a healing balsam, the idea would have been ridiculed and it remained for that eminent investigator, R. T. Booth, to discover in Hyomel this wonderful method of treatment.

Hyomel has performed almost miraculous results in treating catarrh and is today recognized by thousands of people as the only advertised remedy for catarrh that can be relied upon to do just what it claims. The complete outfit of Hyomel is inexpensive and consists of an inhaler, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomel.

Breathe the air of Hyomel through the little inhaler druggists furnish with it for a few minutes four times a day and it will help the worst case of catarrh. It soothes and heals the mucous membrane of the air passages, prevents irritation, and effects complete and lasting relief.

In Keokuk there are scores of well known people who have been relieved of catarrh by Hyomel. If it does not help you Wilkinson & Co. will return the money you paid for Hyomel. This is the strongest evidence that can be offered as to their faith in this remedy.

Suffragettes Break Out Again.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] LONDON, Nov. 16.—Hostilities between the Pankhurst militant suffragettes and the government, interrupted since the beginning of the war, broke out afresh today.

The authorities of Albert Hall cancelled the permit for a mass meeting of suffragettes to have been held Thursday night. It had been advertised that the suffragettes would demand "a loyal and vigorous conduct of the war," but it was known that suffrage speakers would demand the removal of Premier Asquith and Sir
