ALL-WESTERN TEAM PICKED BY AXELSON

Chicago Herald Sport Writer Finds Nearly All Material in Conference.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] CHICAGO, Nov. 29.—Nebraska is the only western eleven outside of the conference to be given a place on the All-Western team picked by G. W. Axelson of the Herald. The Corn Huskers get two positions, Chamberlain, end, and Rutherford, half back.

Johnny Maulbetsch, all American selection last year, was relegated to the second all-western eleven by Axelson. The Michigan catapault's disappointing showing this year was given as the reason.

Three Minnesotans are elected by Axelson. They are Dunnigan, guard; Baston, end, and Bierman, full back. Watson, center, is the only Illinoisan chosen.

The first and second team selections are: First team. Position. Second team Chamberlain, Nebr. .... Squier, Ill. End.

Buck, Wis. .... Boughton, Ohio Dunnigan, Minn. .... Fitzgerald, Notre Dame Guard.

Watson, Ill. .... Fisher, Chicago Center. Blocker, Purdue. .... Abbot, Nebr. Guard.

Shull, Chicago. .... Randolph, Northwestern Tackle. Baston, Minn. .... Quist, Minn. End.

Russell, Chicago. .... Whitaker, Indiana Quarter. Rutherford, Nebr. Maulbetsch, Mich. Half back.

Driscoll, Northwestern. .... Macomber, Illinois Half back. Bierman, Minnesota. .... Bachman, Notre Dame Full back.

Coffey-Smith Bout. [United Press Leased Wire Service.] NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—Jim Coffey and Gunboat Smith will mix for ten rounds at Madison Square Garden tonight.

Appointed Coach. [United Press Leased Wire Service.] WEST POINT, N. Y., Nov. 29.—John J. McEwan, the Army's big center, will lead the cadets on the gridiron in 1916. McEwan was appointed to West Point from Minnesota.

Leading Point Maker. [United Press Leased Wire Service.] NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—Football statistics today showed Captain Barrett of Cornell the leading point maker of the season.

$12,500 OFFER DON'T EXCITE FREDDIE WELSH

Eddie Pitts, Who is in Chicago to Arrange Bout, Says Champ is Stalling.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] CHICAGO, Nov. 29.—If Freddie Welsh and his manager, Harry Pollock, want to make $12,500 in the space of an hour they will have to come to Chicago (at their own expense) to talk business.

This was the edict tonight of Eddie Pitts, who came here from Denver Saturday to make the offer for a twenty round Welsh-White fight. He expected Pollock to be here to talk business. Learning the Briton's impressario was in New York, he wired his man invitation to a conference.

Pitts got the shock of his life when he got the answer from Pollock: "Write me a hundred and I'll come and talk business."

Pitts said he would be here several days and that if Pollock wanted to come on for a talk, he would meet him.

"I don't see where Pollock and Welsh get off any way," said Pitts tonight. "Welsh isn't half the drawing card he thinks he is. He is plainly afraid of White and the promoters ought to call a halt to his six-round tango stalling. If he can keep his title by fighting, every one will be with him. He knows it. He is simply trying to get away with all he can before a real fighter knocks his block off."

No More Umpire Baiting. BOSTON, Nov. 29.—In a letter mailed to every member of the Boston National league baseball club, President James E. Gaffney announced his determination that "next year the conduct of the team shall be above criticism."

The field tactics of the Braves during last season were criticized in some quarters. The letter sent out said: "Umpire baiting is a thing of the past. It is a detriment to the winning of pennants and every player who is fined by an umpire next season must pay his own fine. No player under suspension shall receive salary during that period."

President Gaffney assured the players he would "back them to the limit" if they were right and the umpire wrong, but he expressed the belief that the umpires would treat players properly if met in the same spirit.

JEWISH HOLIDAY ON DECEMBER 2

Feast of Hanukkah Will Commence on Thursday and Will Last Eight Days, According to Tradition.

LIGHTS IN ALL HOMES

These Are Increased Progressively Until Eight Burns on the Last Evening—Favorite Holiday.

The festival of Hanukkah, takes place on December second (corresponding to the Hebrew date, the twenty-fifth day of Kislev), and lasts eight days. It was established for historic reasons and celebrates the victories of the Maccabees over the Syrians. Antiochus, king of Syria, in the second century before the common era, aspired to dominate the countries of the east. He pursued the policy of suppressing all national distinctions and of foisting upon his subjects, in the various countries which had come under his control, the religion and civilization of Syria. This, though Greek in origin, was debased in spirit and practice. The Jews, proud of their traditions and devoted to their pieties and moralities, resented the intrusion and the violence of the Syrian conquerors, who were respecters neither of the conscience nor of the lives of the Jews. Under the leadership of Judas Maccabees, they made good their loyalty to their faith and homes and met the Syrians on the battlefield. Their defense was valiant and successful, despite the fact that they were few and grappled with a powerful enemy. After signal victories, they achieved their emancipation, and re-affirmed the pious practices of their fathers and, true to the spirit of Judaism, they proceeded at once to the re-dedication of their temple.

The Doggon'dest Day. [United Press Correspondence.] SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 29.—This promises to be the doggon'dest day San Francisco ever had. The international dog show begins. About the only well known dogs absent are the dogs of war. It is a most aristocratic affair, this show; what the unregenerate would describe as an occasion for much dog. That canine whose pedigree isn't twice as long as a greyhound's tail, just doesn't belong, that's all. While the proud father and mother dogs stiffer about with their noses and tails in the air, the puppies, more democratic because they didn't know any better, yipped and rolled and tumbled and chewed each other's faces very fiercely. There was a general bark of well-come and much august tail wagging when the show opened. However, it was not the sort of a welcome that would convince any unsoaped knoodle on the outskirts that he was wanted. Dog fanciers from all over the world are here. Several thousand dogs are benched. Awards will be mostly in $1 to $5 prizes and ribbons.

OMAHA BRIDGE WRECKED BY FIRE One Section Destroyed and all Trains on Union Pacific Must be Detoured.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 22.—The $2,000,000 bridge on the Lane cut off on the Union Pacific railroad over the Papillon valley, is on fire this morning. One section of the bridge has been destroyed and railroad men are working desperately to save the remainder. The Lane cut off was built eight years ago and saves the Union Pacific eight miles on its main line. Trains are being detoured over the old line.

Omaha city firemen, aiding the railroad men, succeeded in extinguishing the fire at 9 a. m. One section of the bridge had collapsed and the fire fighters arrived. Trains will have to be detoured over the old line until the damage can be repaired.

Women Munitions Workers. [By Henry Wood, United Press Staff Correspondent.] LONDON, Oct. 9. (By mail.)—Women munition workers of England say they are being sweated and that their patriotism is being exploited to satisfy employers' greed. The women's formal charges, just filed with the labor board, add to the labor muddle in the united kingdom.

The women usually are not affiliated with regular trade unions, whose domain they have invaded, but in this case their charges coincide with the allegations of the laboring men. The English working women, like the men, persist in their efforts to get a hearing when the life of the nation is at stake, they say, because although they declare themselves patriotic they cannot permit their patriotism to be exploited.

While the manufacturers grow rich out of government war contracts, the working women insist their wages remain increased while the cost of living is constantly ascending. The men charged this too; and the women add that their employers are taking advantage of their inexperience to sweat them.

One advantage the women have is that government boards were appointed to investigate conditions under which they might be called upon to work. These boards have responded to the cry for help and are, after investigation, lending the weight of their authority to the protests.

The complaints center largely in the Manchester district where thousands of women are employed and hundreds are being added weekly. It was found that many factories are installing lighter machinery for the women, but are not paying them men's wages, nor nearly so much.

The wages were found to vary from a maximum of about $5 for a 48 hour week down to $2.50 for a 51 hour week. Despite the minimum wage of seven cents an hour fixed, many concerns paid less.

The women demand factory canteens so the women night workers may have a hot meal. A demand is also made for a shift schedule that will not permit a woman to work more than 8 hours at a time.

Another protest was against heavy work being given to the women. One young girl handled an 18 pound shell every minute throughout the day. Other girls were found working on rough cast shells weighing 23 pounds.

The report of the government's committee was that women could not be employed on heavy physical work of this nature for the period of hours now required, unless they were paid sufficiently to permit of proper food and nourishment.

The Warsaw Gate City

Warsaw, Ill., Nov. 29, 1915.

George Bellersheim of Springfield, Ill., is visiting friends here—his former home.

Mrs. Vivian Ward and young son, of Peoria, are visiting Mrs. Ward's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller. Miss Eva Stephens is visiting her sister in Hamilton, Mrs. C. W. Fletcher.

Election of officers of Warsaw camp 340 M. W. A. for the year 1916, will be held at the regular monthly meeting Thursday evening, December 2.

Rev. E. H. Jagdstein, pastor of the Evangelical church, Warsaw, will deliver an address on the "Juvenile Courts of the United States" before the united men's movement meeting in Quincy on Tuesday evening, December 2; a rich treat is in store for the bearers. Rev. Jagdstein is the originator of the men's movement in Warsaw, and which has spread to Hamilton and also Keokuk; he is a power in every good work for the betterment and uplift of his fellow man.

Besides its high significance for men and women, it is also a children's holiday and the religious schools celebrate it with elaborate festivities and great heartiness. In the homes, songs accompany the kindling of the lights and the ritual of the synagogue is enhanced by the recital of selected psalms. The social amenities of the week are happy and cheerful, and, in accordance with the genial spirit of the festival, comprise entertainment and benevolences in the home and community.

The fireman's ball Thanksgiving evening was a most enjoyable one, a large crowd being in attendance. Music was fine.

Miss Edna Peyton and sister of Wilcox came home from Carthage college to spend Thanksgiving, and brought three young lady friends, college classmates, with them.

R. O. Marsh of Washington, D. C., left Saturday for Chicago and the east.

Walter Dross has just completed his beautiful auto sales room and office in his Main street warehouse; the interior is painted in gloss white, and the room is lighted by two handsome electric fixtures. Indirect lighting, three large plate glass windows give abundance of light through the day. The improvement is a credit to Warsaw, and to our enterprising young fellow citizen, Walter Dross.

Frank Connor of Chicago is here visiting relatives.

The cannery factory is busy these days filling orders.

Hon. Truman Plantz will leave Monday for Rock Island.

W. E. Albers and wife will make Los Angeles their objective point, going from there to Elmore, where the Albers fruit ranch is located; they may visit Portland; they will leave Tuesday next.

Mr. Wm. Larson of Fairbault, Minn., visited Miss Ethel Leffler last week, returning home on Wednesday.

Frank McElin and family now of Memphis, Mo., expect soon to make their home in Warsaw.

Pimples and Skin Eruptions Danger Signs of Bad Blood

It May Mean Eczema, Scrofula—The First Sign of Inherited Blood Disease

Pimples, scaly itching skin, rashes, burning sensations and Scrofula denote with unfailing certainty a debilitated, weakened and impure state of the blood. The trouble may have been in your blood from birth, but no matter how you were infected, you must treat it through the blood. It is a blood disease. You must use S. S. S., the standard blood tonic for 50 years, if you expect certain relief. For purifying the system, nothing is equal to it. The action of S. S. S. is to cleanse the blood. It soaks through the system direct to the seat of the trouble—acting as an antidote to neutralize the blood poisons. It revitalizes the red corpuscles, increases the flow so that the blood can properly perform its physical work. The dull sluggish feeling leaves you—the complexion clears up. Even long standing cases respond promptly. But you must take S. S. S. Drugs and substitutes won't do. Get S. S. S. from your druggist. If yours is a special case and you need expert advice, write to S. S. Co., Atlanta, Ga.

Begin Rex Beach's New Novel

You must read this new romance. Placed in Cuba where blood is warm and passion strong, it surpasses even the "Ne'er-do-Well", "The Spoilers", and the rest of those bold adventure tales that have made Rex Beach famous.

Dona Isabel, Havana beauty, who plots to gain the buried Varona treasure from her elderly husband and despoil her step-children of their inheritance—

Don Mario, who covets Rosa, the daughter of the house of Varona, and bribes her step-mother to aid him—

O'Reilly, adventurous American, pledged to marry the dark-eyed Rosa, who receives pathetic word that the storm of insurrection has left her homeless and hunted—

These are the real, flesh-and-blood people, drawn with Beach's characteristic insight into human nature. The story of young O'Reilly's departure from New York, and how, under suspicion alike by Spanish soldier and Cuban rebel, he starts his dangerous search for Rosa, will make the blood tingle. Begin
