CITY NEWS.

—Dinner at Holt's Sunday.
—Dollar Day Friday at Lowitz's.
—Christmas cigars at Jos. Moeller's.
—See our line of fancy box chocolates, the largest in Keokuk; our own make. The Rose.
—Christmas tree exercises will be held at the Second Presbyterian church Friday evening. A very interesting program will be provided by the several classes.
—What would be better than a box of "Grand Leader" cigars for a holiday present? Let Clem W. Ewers supply you with a box.
—The postal department is congratulating all postoffices on the results of the twine saving economical movement which was recently inaugurated. An example of the saving in used twine was shown in the report of one division that 76 1/2 percent of twine was used twice.
—Laubersheimer for your Christmas grocery order. Home-made mince meat, oysters, fruits and vegetables.
—Up at Ft. Madison the city council is likely to go outside its own membership to select a successor to Mayor A. P. Brown when his resignation becomes effective December 27, according to rumor in downtown circles. A number of business and professional men are said to be ready to urge the appointment of either E. N. Johnson or George B. Stewart. Discussion, however, is quite informal and those who say that either of these attorneys would make a good man for the place, admit that they are not sure that either would be in a receptive mood.
