SCOVILLE BEGINS EMPORIA SERIES

Evangelist Who Comes to Keokuk in February is Conducting Services in William Allen White's Town.

BIG PARADE AS STARTER

Evangelistic Party of Nine All on Deck and Mayor Leads Citizens in March Through Street.

[Special to The Gate City.] EMPORIA, Kas., Dec. 31.—With nearly three thousand persons marching through the business section of the city and all traffic on the downtown streets temporarily checked, the Charles Reign Scoville evangelistic campaign was launched here last night. The parade from the court house down Commercial street to the great tabernacle extended for nearly five blocks. The crowd sang time honored revival hymns, including "Where He Leads Me, I Will Follow," and curious onlookers and others too timid to march down the street car tracks, watched the procession from the sidewalks.

The tabernacle has a seating capacity of more than 5,000 persons, and a choral loft that will hold six hundred. After introducing the members of his large party, the evangelist launched into his initial sermon. He did not take a text. He declared that he is "not here after the Hittites or the Amelkites, but the Emporians." He asserted that the success of the meetings depends upon the members of the local churches.

A New Year's watch party will be held in the big worship shed tonight. It is expected that more than a thousand persons will remain most of the night for prayer. Evangelist Scoville, Mrs. Arlene Dux Scoville, and a colored maid reached here yesterday afternoon from Chicago. There are nine members in the company, and all are here for the local campaign. Scoville was introduced last night by Mayor R. M. Hamer, who marched at the head of the parade with the revivalist. Scoville came to Emporia from Jefferson City, Mo., where he converted more than four thousand persons, and preached to approximately two hundred and twenty thousand men and women in six weeks.

NEW YEAR'S DAWN—BROADWAY.

[By Sarah Teasdale.]
When the horns wear thin
And the noise, like a garment out-
worn,
Falls from the night,
The tattered and shivering night,
That thinks she is gay;
When the patient silence comes back,
And returns,
Rebuffed by a ribald song,
Wounded by vehement cries,
Fleeing again to the stars—
Ashamed of her sister the night;
Oh, then they steal home,
The blinded, the pitiful ones
With their gew-gaws still in their hands,
Reeling with odorous breath
And thick, coarse words on their tongues.

They get them to bed somehow,
And sleep, the forgiving,
Comes thru the scattering tumult
And closes their eyes.
The stars sink down ashamed
And the dawn awakes,
Like a youth who steals from a brother,
Dizzy and sick.

From "Rivers to the Sea."

Today's Oddest Story.

DENVER, Colo., Dec. 31.—With the arrival of the new year at midnight tonight, Colorado will mount the water wagon, via the stepping stone of her new state prohibition law, for a long, long ride. New Year's cafe parties read significance in the signs posted everywhere, even during the day: No drinks served after midnight.

CARRY STOMACH JOY IN YOUR VEST POCKET

Wilkinson & Co. Have Such Faith in This Dyspepsia Remedy that

They guarantee it. One of the greatest successes in the sale of medicine has been achieved by Mi-o-na, the standard dyspepsia remedy, and its sale is increasing so rapidly that Wilkinson & Co., the popular druggists, have hard work to keep a stock on hand. It is very popular with bankers, ministers, lawyers and others whose business or profession keeps them closely confined, while those who have brought on indigestion through irregular eating, worry, or other causes, have found relief in this reliable remedy.

Mi-o-na comes in tablet form and is sold in a metal box especially designed for convenience in carrying the medicine in the pocket or purse. It is pleasant to take, gives quick relief and should help any case, no matter of how long a standing. This remedy has been so uniformly successful that Wilkinson & Co., in the future will sell Mi-o-na under a positive guarantee to refund the money if it should not prove entirely satisfactory. No other dyspepsia medicine ever had a large enough percentage of cures so that it could be sold in this manner. A guarantee like this speaks volumes for the merit of the remedy.

There is no time like the present to do a thing that ought to be done. If any one has dyspepsia, today is the best time to begin curing it.

DATE CHANGED TO JANUARY TENTH

Test Sale of Liquor to be Made Here on Second Monday in New Year—Notices Sent Out.

SERVICE IS SECURED

County Attorney McManus Will Probably Have Entire Charge of State's Case in Keokuk.

The date on which the test sale of liquor will be made here has been set forward again to Monday, Jan. 10. Attorney Frank M. Ballinger has sent notices to Attorney General Cosson and county and city authorities concerning the time, place and other points of the sale to be made and has secured service on all of them with the exception of the one sent to Cosson. This went through the mail yesterday and no word had been received from the attorney general up till noon.

Attorney General George Cosson will not come to Keokuk to direct the fight, according to word received from him by County Attorney McManus. At first it was planned to send one of his aides to Keokuk, but this will probably not be done as Cosson expects to have his hands full with the Davenport fight which will start on Monday. The matter will likely be left entirely in the hands of County Attorney McManus.

Following is a copy of the notice sent to the officials:

NOTICE.
To the Hon. George Cosson, attorney general of Iowa, E. W. McManus, county attorney of Lee county, Iowa, Theodore A. Craig, city attorney of the city of Keokuk, Iowa, John C. Scott, sheriff of Lee county, Iowa, and John M. Kenney, chief of police of the city of Keokuk, Iowa:

You and each of you are hereby notified that on the morning of the 10th day of January A. D. 1916, at the hour of ten (10) o'clock a. m., one, Philip Nickel, will make a sale of one bottle of Lelsy beer to one, F. J. Krieger, in the premises known as the front twenty (20) feet of lot six (6) in block four (4), city of Keokuk, Iowa, said property being otherwise known as No. 2 South Water street, in the city of Keokuk, Iowa, and that said sale will be made for the purpose of laying the foundation to test the defendant's right to legally sell liquor in the state of Iowa.
PHILIP NICKEL.

SELLING MILEAGE BOOKS AT ADVANCE

Railway Ticket Offices in Western Passenger Association Districts Add $5 to Prices.

Railway ticket offices in the district of the Western Passenger association ceased selling mileage books under the 2 cent a mile rate Tuesday night. New mileage books were placed on sale Wednesday at an advance in price of $5, which is in line with the interstate commerce commission's recent decision to permit the railroads to charge 2.4 cents a mile for interstate travel, while the interstate rate in Iowa, fixed by the legislature is 2 cents a mile, says the Sioux City Journal.

Mileage books are good for 2,000 miles. The present books are sold for $40. The new books have been sold within the last month to packing plants, wholesalers and traveling men. The 2 cent books are valid one year after date of sale. When the interstate commerce commission handed down its decision the sale of old books increased rapidly, for a considerable amount of money could be saved.

Ticket offices have not received new tariffs. Thus, the person who has no new mileage book will still travel at the 2 cent interstate rate. New tariffs, including rates to all interstate points, are expected within a few days.

The new books are good only for interstate trips between the states of Iowa, Illinois, Minnesota, Missouri, North Dakota, the northern peninsula of Michigan, South Dakota except the Black Hill district, Wisconsin and in limited portions of contiguous states, and also for trips wholly within the states of Michigan, on the Milwaukee railroad, the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic railroad, the Lake Superior & Ishpeming railroad and the Marquette & Southern railroad.

For travel wholly in the state of Minnesota the books are good on the Minnesota & St. Louis railway. They are good for exclusive travel in North Dakota and in South Dakota, except the Black Hills district, and in Wisconsin on the Illinois Central railroad, the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic railroad and the Green Bay & Western railroad.

Millions for Barge Canal Soon. ALBANY, N. Y., Dec. 31.—Barge canal completion contracts, calling for the expenditure of $5,243,861, shortly will be awarded. State Engineer Williams made this announcement here today. Of this amount $2,001,851 will be paid out of the $27,000,000 bond issue, authorized by the November electorate. Settlement of the remainder will be covered by old canal funds.

The Warsaw Gate City
Warsaw, Ill., Dec. 31, 1915.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Farmers' Grain and Supply Co. will be held in Dremland theatre, on Saturday, January 8, 1916, at 1:30 p. m., for the purpose of electing three directors to serve the full term of three years, to succeed Messrs. Jos. Fry, J. L. Daugherty and Ed Wollbrink, and transact other important business. This company has had a very successful year. The volume of business for 1915 has been very gratifying. It has provided the best market in this part of the state, paying the highest market prices at all times, and having made a small profit, the directors have authorized the payment of a 5 per cent dividend upon all of the stock now upon the company's books. Checks in payment of this dividend will be mailed out the first week of 1916. It is proposed at this meeting to increase the capital stock from $10,000 to $15,000, and there is no doubt that it will meet the approval of the stockholders, and others may be induced to subscribe. At 2:30 p. m., immediately following the business meeting, Mr. M. R. Meyers, editor of the "Co-operative Journal," will speak upon an interesting subject; he has been a pioneer in the development of co-operation among the farmers. The public is cordially invited to be present. At 12 o'clock at Grant Hotel a free special dinner will be given; admission will be by ticket. This special banquet is provided by the board of directors to the stockholders.

With the dawn of 1916 larger activities are in prospect during of probation work, that is to promote the wise and more extended use of this system. A study of juvenile delinquency and probation in rural districts is planned. This propaganda will be strongly supported by the men's movement as well as by the Y. P. S. of this district. A few days ago the National Probation association got in touch with the men's movement of this vicinity for the purpose of co-operation in this work of saving the young. The probation work is a home mission work the church must take a hand in, if she will follow in the steps of her master, who declared that he has come to seek and to save that which was lost. Probation is also a social service, since it has its educational and religious as well as its social and economic aspects. Few if any social reforms have made more progress since the beginning of the present century, than has probation. One of its first and foremost principles is: The human soul is more precious than anything else, founded on Christ's teaching: "What shall it profit a man if he shall gain the whole world and lose his own soul?" In perfect agreement with Christ, the slogan of the new system is: What shall it profit society if it protects the whole world's property and thousands of young minor delinquents and children of tender age lose their own souls? Judges have testified that of 50,000 young offenders and minors, 30,000 have been wrongly treated by the law. Probation is not merely a "system" or a beautiful doctrine, the fulfillment of which must be kept for the millennium, but probation is rather a most important, practical step and a constructive work for the gradual improving
