

ITCHING, BLISTERED SKIN-ERUPTION ALL HIS LIFE, NOW CURED

Nov. 19, 1914.—"All my life, until about a year ago, I was troubled with blisters and sores over my entire body. The itching and burning was terrible, and I could hardly sleep. I used many treatments that were unsuccessful and did not give me any relief. I started using Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap and they helped me wonderfully. I WAS RELIEVED AT ONCE, and after about two dozen applications I can say that I was free and cured of that awful disease. My skin now is as clear as anybody's." (Signed) Geo. Whiteker, Jr., R. F. D. No. 64, Caledonia, N. Y. Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap are sold by all druggists.

IS YOUR TOILET SOAP SAFE? Many toilet soaps contain harsh, injurious alkali. Resinol Soap contains absolutely no free alkali, and to it is added the Resinol medication. This gives it soothing, healing properties which clear the complexion, comfort tender skins and keep the hair healthy.

PROOF OF WILL

State of Iowa, Lee County—In district court. To all whom it may concern: Notice is hereby given, that on the 3rd day of January A. D., 1916, a paper was opened and read by the Clerk of the District Court of Lee County, Iowa, purporting to be the last will and testament of Eugene Sullivan, late of Lee County, in the State of Iowa, deceased; and that proof of the genuineness of said instrument will be heard in the District Court of said County at Keokuk, on the 28th day of January A. D., 1916, at the hour of 2 o'clock p. m. of said day, being the 11th day of January term, 1916, of said court, when all persons interested in said will are required to be present and make their objections to the same, if any they have. In witness whereof, I hereunto set my hand this 3rd day of January, 1916. O. R. JOHNSTON, Clerk of the District Court. By Albert Vollers, Deputy.

Asks Council to Enforce Ordinance Against Spitting

As is generally known, there is a city ordinance against spitting on the sidewalks. One Keokuk citizen who feels that this promiscuous expectation is providing a means for the spreading of grippe, has sent a communication to the city council asking that the ordinance be enforced. A clipping is enclosed, taken from a Chicago paper, which records the arrest of four men for expectation, as one of the moves in Chicago's war against the grippe. The council is heart and soul in the wish to stop the practice of spitting on the walk, but because of the difficulty in keeping a close watch for breakers of this city ordinance, the council can only appeal to the men of the city to stop this nuisance. "No man with real manhood would think of spitting on the walk," said Commissioner Collins this morning. It is an axiom that grippe can be caught by breathing germs through this source and Mr. Collins believes that it would be a preventative measure if Keokuk citizens would only be a little more considerate.

Passing of the Private Bank. Marshalltown Times Republican: The bank examiners of Iowa report that 22 private banks were chartered as state banks during the year 1915 and this is as it should be. The strong and sound private banks of Iowa are rapidly recognizing that a state charter and state regulation is a certificate of character for any bank. If the public knew that its money deposited in a private bank is loaned to the banker without security the institution of the private bank would disappear from Iowa. Many of them have been found but that kind have nothing to lose and everything to gain from state regulation. The other kind should not be permitted to use the name "bank" as an easy method of borrowing money with which to feed cattle or speculate in land.

The President's Opportunity. The State Press: President Wilson now has an opportunity to make an appointment he has long been reported as favoring. Whether or not the president ever gave cause for the impression the correspondents have had ever since he went into the white house that he would like nothing better than to be able to make William Howard Taft a justice of the United States supreme court, we do not know, but such an impression has long been abroad.

What the War Moves Mean

[United Press Leased Wire Service] NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—The Anglo-French abandonment of the Gallipoli peninsula campaign brings into prominence a new military leader on whom the British will inevitably build hopes for the future. General Sir Charles Monro has shown large qualities of decision, independence and efficiency since he was appointed to the command of the Gallipoli operations last October and immediately recommended that the peninsula be evacuated. His report was not taken as the final word by the British government until Lord Kitchener himself went to the Gallipoli and confirmed the soundness of General Monro's decision. The new commander was thereupon given the task of removing the Anglo-French forces. The problem facing him was one of the most difficult of the war, but he succeeded in getting his men away with practically no losses. It would be hard to match this exploit in the annals of successful military retreats. General Monro now goes from the Gallipoli to France to take command of the first British army corps, in succession to Sir Douglas Haig. He will occupy the same position in relation to the new British commander-in-chief that General Haig filled when Viscount French commanded on the continent. As such, he will hold the principal field command in the forthcoming offensive which the British intend to develop in

AUTO SKIDS AND HITS STREET CAR

Slippery Condition of Pavement and Rails Responsible for Accident Which Occurred Yesterday.

LITTLE DAMAGE DONE

Driver of Auto, J. W. Smith, Sustains Bruised Wrist, But That is the Only Injury.

The slippery condition of the streets yesterday morning was responsible for a collision between a street car and a Ford truck at Fourth and Blondeau streets. The driver of the truck, J. W. Smith, sustained a bruised wrist, but there were no other injuries, and a passenger in the truck was not injured.

Smith was coming down Blondeau street shortly after 10 o'clock, and when he was at the east side of the Keokuk club, going towards Fourth street, he heard an approaching car. He put on the brakes to stop his machine, but skidded on account of the icy condition of the pavement. The motorman of the car, which was headed toward Main street, and coming down the incline from Concert street, put on the brakes, but his car slid because of slippery rails.

The machine skidded into the side of the car. Smith, who was driving the truck, put out his hand to save himself as he fell forward, and sustained a bruised wrist. The machine was somewhat damaged, a headlight being broken, and spokes knocked out of the wheel, and the axle slightly bent.

RIOTERS MAY BE SENT BACK HOME

Youngstown Sheet and Tube company and the Republic Iron and Steel company, were to decide late today whether to submit compromise terms to the mill officials as a basis for settling the East Youngstown strike.

American Federation of Labor organizers today advised the men to return to work. If the mills would boost their pay from 19% to 23 cents an hour, the mills have offered 22 cents; the men want 25. East Youngstown merchants today planned a movement to oust Mayor W. H. Cunningham, who they claim did not enforce the ordinance against congregation of crowds prior to the riots. The merchants hold Cunningham responsible for not providing sufficient protection.

Brigadier General J. C. Speaks announced that if the situation continues quiet, he will begin sending the 2,500 troops home today. Labor organizers said if the men go back to work at 23 cents an hour, it will be a substantial victory for the union. There are 13,000 workers idle, half of them being strikers. Prosecutor Henderson characterized as "absolutely unfounded" reports that two Austrian laborers who came here recently from Yonkers, N. Y., had instigated the strike to stop manufacture of war supplies. Henderson quizzed both the men who are held, charged with participating in the riot.

Croxton has not yet succeeded in bringing the two factions together. Turf saloons in both Mahoning and Trumbull counties remained closed on state orders.

France this spring. The most amazing fact in the evacuation of Gallipoli is the failure of the Turks to punish the retreating troops. Large quantities of German ammunition must have arrived at Gallipoli since the opening of communications between Berlin and Constantinople and the Turks certainly knew the British and French were re-embarking on their transports. Yet the Ottomans apparently were afraid to move to the attack. The incident confirms the frequent criticism of the Turks that they are far better warriors on the defense than when fighting offensively. This fact must give increased confidence to the British concerning the security of Egypt.

"When a man ain't got a cent, an' he's feeling kind of blue, An' the clouds hang dark and heavy, and won't let the sunshine through. It's a great thing, Oh my brethren, for a feller wat to lay His hand upon your shoulder in a friendly sort of way.

"It makes a man feel queerish; it makes the teardrops start, An' sort of feel a flutter in the region of the heart; You can't look up and meet his eyes; you don't know wat to say When his hand is on your shoulder in a friendly sort o' way.

"O the world's a curious compound, with its honey and its gall, With its cares and bitter crosses—but a good world all; An' a good God must have made it—leastwise that is what I say When his hand is on your shoulder in a friendly sort of way." —James Whitcomb Riley.

Will Wed at Edina, Mo. At Edina, Mo. tomorrow morning at 5:00 o'clock will occur the marriage of Miss Bertha Emma Maloney to Mr. Bernard J. Schneider. Following the ceremony which will be performed in the Catholic church at Edina, the bride and groom will come to Keokuk and a wedding supper will be served at the groom's home. From here they will leave on their honeymoon, and will be gone two weeks or more. Miss Maloney is a graduate nurse from St. Joseph's hospital and is popular with a large circle of friends. Mr. Schneider is a tinner in the employ of the Seither, Cherry company.

Wedding of Interest. The following from the Portland Oregonian tells of the wedding of Miss Nelle Johnston, a former Keokuk resident, and will be of interest to friends of the family here: The residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. Lincoln Johnston was the scene of a charming home wedding at 4 o'clock Wednesday, December 29, when their daughter, Miss Nelle Margaret Johnston, and Paul Francis Harrington, of Great Falls, Mont., were married by Rev. Luther R. Drott, D. D.

The bride was gowned in silk net over satin, trimmed with silver lace, and she carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. The altar was banked with palms and ferns, and pink chrysanthemums and palms were used throughout the rooms. Mrs. W. B. Knapp and Mrs. W. O. Feenaghty were in charge of the refreshments. The table, which was decorated with a crystal bowl of Opheleia roses, and Paul Francis Harrington, of Great Falls, Mont., were married by Rev. Luther R. Drott, D. D.

Previous to their departure and immediately following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Harrington were entertained at a chafing-dish supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Mickle. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Harrington, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Mickle, Miss Vivian Mickle and Frank Johnston. Many charming affairs were given in the bride's honor. Mrs. M. B. Henderson, Miss Louise Brace and Miss Abbie Oliphant honored the bride with thimble parties at their various homes. Miss Ella Camp entertained with an Orpheum theatre party, followed by a luncheon at the Hotel Portland. At the close of an afternoon of bridge at the home of Miss Mickle, a bouquet of violets and chrysanthemums was presented to Miss Johnston, from which showered many beautiful towels and handkerchiefs. Following a thimble party given by Mrs. Arthur Kornahrens, Miss Johnston was "sprinkled" with handkerchiefs from a large sprinkling can suspended over the tea table. "Hearts" was the diversion at an evening party given by Mrs. Ione Townsend Wells in honor of Miss Johnston and Mr. Harrington. Installation of Officers. The installation of officers of Colfax Rebekah lodge, will be held tomorrow night at Odd Fellows hall.

Late Market Quotations

Long Commission Co. Grain Letter. [Furnished by Long Commission Co., 402 1/2 Main, Telephone No. 100.] CHICAGO, Jan. 10.—Wheat—With no news of any influential kind developed this morning in wheat, the market has had a comparatively narrow range and has been largely local. The visible supply has not increased as much as expected and the total has not as yet crossed last year's figures. The car situation has kept down a large part of accumulation at western points, while grain in transit at the seaboard has probably decreased considerably, in spite of complaints of car shortages. The clearance for the week were very large, from America, and are likely to keep so. There will undoubtedly be an effort made to bring at least some wheat from Australia even at a higher rate of freight to discourage over-confidence in some of our cash grain houses. Patience is the chief requisite of investment interests in wheat at any time and this is especially true at this time, altogether there are very good reasons to believe that such patience will be very well rewarded before the end of the crop year.

Corn—A wave of buying opened the corn market higher, and the high level has been maintained most all the session. The volume of receipts are of poor corn. Warehouse interests have been buying the No. 4 and the better grades, while industries have taken the sample grades, leaving the 5 and 6 grades for the shipping demands which exist. Prospects of cold weather promise a larger movement.

Oats—Oats were higher with corn, but not disposed to advance to any great extent. Current receipts are largely of low grade oats, many of these receipts being bin burnt oats and these are not in good demand. The prospects of low grade grain receipts especially, oats are likely to bring a better demand for the better grades in store. The primary receipts have been very liberal. However, there was a slight decrease in the visible supply.

Grain Review. [United Press Leased Wire Service.] CHICAGO, Jan. 10.—Sharp upturns in northwest wheat markets, sent shorts scurrying for cover in the wheat pit in early trading today, but the longs took their profits speedily and shot the market down again. May opened 1/4 up, at 126 1/2, sold later to 127 1/2, but slipped back to 125 1/2 on later trading. July, which opened 1/4 up at 118 1/2, lost 1/4 later.

Corn had a strong undertone on good demand, May ruled at 78 1/2, after opening slightly higher, and July sold at 78 1/2, 1/2 above Saturday's close. Oats trade was active and the market strong, May selling around 48 1/2 and July at 47 1/2.

Provisions again were higher, despite enormous hog receipts and a slump in prices at the yards.

DOCTOR'S WIDOW IS ON TRIAL

Cushing demanded a separate trial for Mrs. Mohr. The latter cannot be given a fair trial jointly with the negro, he said, and claimed that it deprived her of her full quota of challenges of jurors. Their joint defense, he said, is opposed to Mrs. Mohr's. The motion was overruled and Justice Stearns ordered Sheriff Arthur J. Wilcox to begin impaneling a jury.

A jury to try Mrs. Mohr was completed at 1:15 p. m. today when Charles F. Dragan of Burrillville, a tall hand, was selected as juror number 12. The defense and state may nominate a number, however, as no challenges yet have been exercised.
