

CHURCH FORGETS MODERN PROBLEMS

One Man Answering McAllister's Query, Says It Is Too Easy Worshipping Ancient Heroes.

WILL COMPLETE SERIES

Baptist Minister Will Deliver Second of His Talks on Why Church Seems to be Slighted.

Rev. F. B. McAllister stated today that he would complete the reasons this Sunday, "Why Mr. Man Did Not Attend Church," and do it in such a way that he would slight none.

Answering your several questions as to why we do not attend church, my answers would be as follows: Working six days each week, I want Sunday for myself.

The modern church is too commercial; there is a constant appeal for money, church subscriptions, bazaars, markets, home and foreign missions tax the pocketbook.

The church is too fond of worshipping ancient heroes to pay attention to modern problems. Occasionally a minister takes the courage to preach about the present and is denounced as a radical and being vulgar, uncouth, etc.

All Letters Are Frank.

Rev. McAllister said that all the men wrote with equal frankness and yet none were harsh in their criticism. One gentleman said he knew a minister that was crooked. Another was having too good a time to be a Christian.

When the pastor was contending for his point of view last week, news were more attentive in the crowded church than those who had written the reasons for not attending. And not only were they assisted, said Rev. McAllister, but many afterwards suggested that they had similar criticisms against the church, but had either not formulated them, or not been able to assist the church and its members to profit by the point of view of the man outside, and then, to assist the writer of the reason in seeing the point of the church. He replied, he said, with equal frankness and candor.

A Cloak for Fear. St. Paul Pioneer Press: If you scratch the standpat republican who affects the most sneering disregard of Roosevelt you will uncover a man who is most afraid of what may happen when the convention meets in Chicago.

"If congress really wants to do something for the people in the way of better postal service," suggests the Webster City Freeman-Tribune, "it should abolish the abuses of the franking privilege and enact Hon. Frank P. Woods' bill proving that drop letters should require but 1 cent postage."

WOMAN WEAK, DIZZY, NERVOUS

Health Restored by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Jamaica, N. Y.—"I suffered greatly with my head and with backache, was weak, dizzy, nervous, with hot flashes and felt very miserable, as I was irregular for two years. One day when I was feeling unusually bad my sister-in-law came in and said, 'I wish you would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound.' So I began taking it and I am now in good health and am cured. I took the Compound three times a day after meals, and on retiring at night. I always keep a bottle in the house."—Mrs. L. N. DURNHAM, 35 Globe Ave., Jamaica, N. Y.

Women who recover their health naturally tell others what helped them. Some write and allow their names and photographs to be published with testimonials. Many more tell their friends. If you need a medicine for Women's Ailments, try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) for anything you need to know about these troubles.

TWELVE BELOW IS MARK LAST NIGHT

Mercury Insists on Staying in Cellar Last Night, But is Scheduled to go Higher Tomorrow.

IOE MEN NOT UNHAPPY

Five Inch Ice on Wednesday Night and More Added Last Night, Makes Prospect Look Good.

Twelve below zero was the coldest weather last night, according to the official report from the weather office here. The temperature was below zero all day yesterday, but showed some signs of thawing out today. The highest temperature reached yesterday was four below zero. No wind was blowing last night, which was a typical crisp, cold winter night. The cold was so intense that most people hugged the radiators and the streets were practically deserted. Only those people were out who found it absolutely necessary to be out.

The low temperature marks showed a rise of five degrees for today as compared with yesterday. It is expected that warmer weather will come tomorrow. The temperature last night was 7 below at 7 o'clock. This morning at 7 o'clock, it was 10 below.

Good Ice Being Made. The ice men are smiling now, and will be able to start their ice harvest if a sudden warm wave does not follow the cold wave. Ice froze to the depth of five inches Wednesday night. When ice freezes as quickly as this, it is of good quality and clear, one of the shippers stated. An additional five inches, and the ice will be ready for harvest. Eight inch ice is frequently cut, and many of the local shippers will cut this thickness. The ice demanded by the Burlington route, which is one of the largest local shippers, should be ten inches thick, however.

It looked for a while last week, as if it might be difficult to get any ice here. The warm wave melted most of the ice out of the lake near Keokuk, and the ice men were wondering what would happen.

COUNTRY CLUB'S ANNUAL MEETING

Directors Are Re-elected at Session Which Was Held Last Night and Reports Were Read.

SHOW CONDITION GOOD

Discussion of Preliminary Plans for Rebuilding Club Also Was Held at This Meeting.

Reports showing the Keokuk Country club to be in good condition were made at the annual meeting which was held last night. Directors were re-elected, and these will choose the officers at some future meeting. There was discussion of the preliminary plans for the building of the new club house.

The directors chosen at the meeting last night were the following: Ira W. Willis, J. W. Hulskamp, Leonard Matless, John W. Collier, J. P. Sheldon, Stephen Irwin, and C. F. McFarland. These directors will meet shortly and will choose the president and other officers of the club. C. F. McFarland is at present the president of the club. Reports were read at the meeting last night showing that the club is in good condition. The club had a good season last year in spite of the fire and handicap imposed by the fire and the poor weather conditions which interfered somewhat with the festivities.

Back to Your Plowing. Philadelphia Record: Into the room of the country editor came a bluff old farmer with his 18-year-old son. "I've come for a little information, sir," he said, hopefully. "I shall be delighted to do what I can for you," was the polite reply. "Well, this son of mine wants to go into the literary business, and I thought you would be able to tell us if there was any money in it. It's a good line, isn't it?" "Y-e-e-s," replied the editor, hesitatingly. "I've been at it myself for a good many years, and—"

The Warsaw Gate City

Warsaw, Ill., Jan. 14, 1916.

The Hancock County Farmers' Institute which met Tuesday at Odd Fellows hall, was a success in every way in spite of the inclement weather. The addresses by Mr. Pervier both afternoon and evening were attentively listened to by an interested crowd composed mostly of farmers, with a sprinkling of citizens. Mrs. McMurry's lectures on "Domestic Science," to the ladies, at the Presbyterian church, both afternoon and evening, were well attended, indeed, to a surprising degree, weather considered, and were much enjoyed by all who were there. Interest is growing greatly in this department. There were twenty-two more than last year, some of the specimens could not be improved on. There were a number of coops of the poultry, all bred by local breeders. No prizes offered. The following are the prize winners in the corn show:

- 10 Ears Yellow Corn. First prize—J. L. Hodges. Second prize—Adam Koch. Third prize—C. L. Ferguson. Fourth prize—Fred Bruder. Single Ear Yellow. First—Fred Bruder. Second—J. L. Hodges. Third—C. R. Clark. Fourth—J. C. Mulch. 10 Ears Yellow Corn. First—C. H. Schadd. Second—C. H. Schadd.

Methodist church of which he was a long member. Mrs. Henry Jacobs died last night, after a short illness.

The following is the program of the farmers' "Short Course" to be held in Warsaw January 25 to 28, inclusive, four days, place of meeting will be indicated later: Tuesday, January 25—At 10:30 a. m., lecture on "Soils," by Mr. Frank S. Mann of Gilman, Ill.; at 1:30 p. m., subject of "Soils" continued by Mr. Mann. January 26—10:30 a. m., lecture on "Feeding Farm Animals," by Mr. W. H. Smith of Urbana, Ill.; at 1:30 p. m., Mr. Smith will talk on "Breeding Farm Animals." January 27—10:30 a. m., C. O. Bird of Urbana, Ill., will talk on "Binder and Mower Troubles," and at 1:30 p. m., he will further talk on "Adjustment of Plows and Fixtures." January 28—10:30 a. m., Mr. Coverdale will lecture on "Sweet Clover's Place in Soil Building and Soil Fertilization." At 1:30 p. m., he will Speak on "Sweet Clover and How to Feed it." Nathaniel Robert Davidson of Wythe township died at 11:15 p. m., Tuesday, January 11, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ida Myers, Warsaw, after an illness of about two weeks; his death was caused principally by old age. He would have been ninety-five years old February 25, 1916. Born in Fredericks county, Delaware, married in August, 1846, to Miss Matilda Ronche, he came to Warsaw with his family January 1, 1870, and had resided in this county near Warsaw ever since. His wife preceded him in death January 6, 1912. Eight years after coming to Warsaw he joined the Wythe Congregational church, and had remained a member ever since. He was the last surviving member of a family of eight, four brothers and three sisters. He leaves to mourn his death three daughters, Mrs. Mary Ament, Wapello, Iowa; Mrs. Ida Myers, Warsaw, and Mrs. Margaret Durfee of Mendon, Ill. His funeral was held from the Wythe Congregational church, at 11 a. m., Thursday, January 13. Rev. J. M. Thompson of Warsaw officiating.

Mercury was 6 degrees above zero at noon Wednesday, and falling; northwestern breeze. Mrs. Henrietta Jacobs, wife of Henry Jacobs of Warsaw, died from pneumonia, January 11, after an illness of only a week, aged sixty-nine years. Deceased was born in Germany and came to this country at the age of two years. She leaves her husband, three daughters, Mrs. W. Linkerman, of Walker township; Mrs. A. Linkerman, Mrs. John Koehler, and two sons, John and Samuel Jacobs. Her two sons died in infancy. Besides these she leaves, one sister, two brothers and twenty-four grandchildren.

Two old residents of Warsaw who died this week, had nearly filled out a century. Mr. John Young, who died in Keokuk, and was buried in Warsaw at 11 a. m. Thursday, was ninety-three, and Mr. Nathaniel Robert Davidson, who died Tuesday in Warsaw, would have been ninety-five on February 25. There is more sickness this winter than for many past winters, mostly colds and a few cases of pneumonia; doctors are very busy.

Several Warsaw citizens attended the men's meeting at Hamilton last Sunday. Judge J. Crawford opened
