

Pre-Eminence In Distinctive Rings

Besides being old ring makers with a knowledge of what constitutes a finely made ring, we represent exclusively the best ring makers in America.

You will find every Ayres & Chapman ring unique, exclusive and distinctive besides being the finest product of the ring makers' craft.

Our 1916 stocks of fine rings is now completed by the addition of the season's newest designs.

Heavy, solid, weighty rings for men. Mannish rings for women who want strong, bold designs. Lighter, dancier designs that meet the requirements of every shade of estheticism.

Our $5.00 value in ladies' rings is the best ever shown.

—The Burlington Gazette says of the robbery of members of the "Nobody Home" troupe which played here Friday. Baggage car No. 1254, containing the effects of the "Nobody Home" troupe, which appeared at the Grand Thursday night, was robbed while it was stationed on a side track near Washington street some time Thursday night or early yesterday morning. The articles stolen are valued at an aggregate of about $250. The most valuable of the things taken was a gold vanity case, estimated to be worth $150.

—Alumni of Iowa Wesleyan are rejoicing over the fact that with a bare two hours of grace left, Henry county and Mt. Pleasant accomplished the impossible by raising one hundred thousand dollars for Iowa Wesleyan shortly before midnight. This campaign is unique in the history of all such endeavors. The huge sum was raised with the help of only one large subscription, one for five thousand dollars. Men who are familiar with such campaigns say that there is not another on record where one hundred thousand dollars was secured without the aid of at least one ten thousand dollar subscription.

—Yesterday, the birthday anniversary of President McKinley, was observed in Keokuk as well as the nation over, as "Carnation day." The flower decorated many lapels. In the city. During the past few years the custom of wearing a red carnation on McKinley's birthday has become nationwide. The martyred president was a great lover of flowers and was particularly attached to the red carnation. After his death some of his intimate admirers inaugurated the custom of wearing red carnations on his anniversary as a tribute of respect to his memory. The custom spread from state to state and soon came into national observance.
