STORY OF FIFTY YEARS AGO.

Illustrated Article in This Paper Contains Facts Everybody Should Know.

A story of more than 50 years ago, true and full of human interest is told on page 2 of this paper. The story, which is illustrated, details the history of an old prescription, and how it got its name. This prescription, which was written on June 9, 1855, for Rev. Fr. John O'Brien of St. Patrick's Parish, Lowell, Mass., cured Father John of a severe cold and throat trouble and so restored him to health he was able to resume his work.

CONCERT COMPANY AT U. P. CHURCH

Large Audience Pleased With Excellent Program Rendered Last Night.

The Maude Stevens Concert company proved to be a high class attraction at the United Presbyterian church last night as one of the numbers of the Century Entertainment course. The company was composed of Edith Welsh, violinist and accompanist; Maude Stevens, impersonator of boys and girls, and Charlotte Chamberlin, whistler and accompanist. The program given was an exceptionally fine one and pleased a large audience.

CITY NEWS.

—Rev. J. C. Hughes of the Second Presbyterian church, held a very interesting service on Monday night at the county jail under the auspices of the Y. P. S. C. E. of the Christian church. These meetings have been held each week by this society for the past two years, and have been a means of doing much good. Anyone interested in work of this kind are welcome to attend these meetings.

—This evening C. W. Kellogg, manager of the Mississippi River Power Co. of Keokuk, will meet with the city council at Port Madison to discuss the alleged damage the city has sustained to its sewers, built and to be built, by the erection of the dam.

The Health Alarm

often sounds first in the doctor's office when some healthy looking specimen of humanity, undergoing examination for life insurance, is told that his blood pressure is too high.

Increased blood pressure is no longer confined to old age; it is frequently found in men in their 40's who are otherwise healthy. In such cases it points to approaching degeneration of the arteries—a condition which in turn indicates these errors of diet that often end in various diseases of the stomach, kidneys, liver, nerves and heart.

Among these errors of diet is coffee drinking, because of the drug, caffeine, in coffee, the constant use of which weakens the walls of the arteries. Medical authorities now insist that in all cases of high blood pressure there must be total abstinence from coffee, tea and other harmful beverages.

Hard to give up coffee? Not at all, when one uses instead the pure food-drink—

Instant Postum

This delicious beverage is made of wheat, roasted with a little wholesome molasses. It is then reduced to a soluble powder, a level teaspoonful of which with hot water makes a perfect cup instantly.

Instant Postum tastes much like mild Java coffee, but is absolutely free from the drug, caffeine, or any harmful ingredient. It does contain those vitalizing elements of the grain which make for normal balance of the system.

ELVASTON, ILL.

Yes, the ground hog saw his shadow. Take his advice and stay in where it is warm for another six weeks.

Skating, coasting and bob-riding are the amusements of the day. On February 2 a jolly crowd piled into a bob-sled and started for the home of Miss Laura Campbell. Arriving there they immediately started for the hill to coast. After several "spills" and Miss Crystal Garvey being run over, they left for the creek to enjoy a turn at skating. Returning to the house about 10 o'clock, the crowd were served with judge and apples and enjoyed a good old fashioned taffy pull.

Those present were the Misses Laura Campbell, Crystal Garvey, Edna Thompson, Alma Martin, Mae Grauf, and Elsie Stump; Messrs. Earl, Peary and Cliff Grauf, Russell Campbell and Floyd Stump. Hiram Ingersoll, while helping to separate some hogs from his herd, January 28, when the ground was so badly frozen, had the misfortune to have a big hog run against him, throwing him violently to the ground and breaking the bones of a finger on his right hand. Being unable to walk he was carried to the house and fears were entertained that his leg was broken. Upon the doctor's examination however, these fears were dispelled. Mr. Ingersoll is quite an old man and the bruise on his knee was such that he is still unable to be up and suffers considerable pain.

Monday evening the Eastern Star had a called meeting, at which time the degrees were conferred upon Rev. and Mrs. Todd. Afterward dainty refreshments of pineapple fluff and several kinds of cake were served. Thursday evening the Keokuk Electric and the Elvaston basketball teams met in combat. The Electricists were beaten by a score of 36 to 8. Elvaston may be a little place but she is hard to beat. Thursday was Emma Martin's birthday, so the pupils of Brown school, where Emma taught this year, were loaded into a bob and came in and surprised her, bringing a gift of remembrance with them.

John Howe Caldwell was born in Greene county, Kentucky July 9, 1826. Died in Elvaston, Ill., January 31, 1916, at the age of 89 years, 6 months and 22 days. When he was four years old his parents moved from Kentucky to Elvaston county, Ill., where they resided for two years, then moved to
