KINDEL DIVANETTE

An unexpected guest need not distress you if you have a Divanette in your home. One minute it is an exquisitely designed, handsomely finished settee, and the next it is a luxurious, full sized bed with mattress and springs and all the bedding in place.

The Divanette does not look convertible, but it is. It is easy to open, two simple movements, ridiculously easy to operate it.

Its comfortable mattress is filled with fluffy, aerated cotton felt, it never packs, it never gets lumpy, it can easily be removed for cleaning. The heat from a radiator or a sun bath will fluff it up like new. Its springs are the Kindel Suspension weave kind, made with helical coils around the entire edge, not just at the ends, as in most springs. They cannot sag and are guaranteed absolutely. There is no spring made which can compare with the Kindel Suspension for resiliency and comfort.

The Divanette really provides an extra room—a bed room—without the added expense of bed room furniture. The Divanette way is the most convenient way to provide for unexpected guests.

The convenient money-saving, space-saving, time and work-saving features of this beautiful piece of furniture mean a great deal to every busy housekeeper. Get one today and let it pay for itself in the cost of the extra room it saves.

Made in golden, fumed or waxed finishes. Prices $50.00 to $60.00 with or without mattresses.

POINTS OF SUPERIORITY Of the DAV-EN-O Over all Other Combinations

1. A really good bed spring.
2. A thick mattress instead of a pad.
3. Holds all bed clothes, even to pillow, made up ready for use.
4. Plain seat which will not wrinkle.
5. Covering wears twice as long.
6. Removable upholstery—perfect cleanliness.
7. Steel frame construction instead of wood which would warp.
8. Positively guaranteed never to get out of order.
9. Absolutely sanitary on account of "knockdown" metal construction and all removable parts.
10. Head and foot rails to keep pillows in place.

No. 1999. Daveno. Fumed oak finish, mission design, plain seat and back, covered with Spanish imitation leather, tow over moss with felt top, a good $28.00 value; sale price $30.00.

—In the superior court Saturday morning, attorneys for Morgan Meyers, who is suing the Keokuk Electric company for damages for alleged injuries he received when he was put off the Warsaw car, resisted the recently filed petition of the Keokuk Electric company asking that the case be transferred to the district court because of the fact that the defendant is not a resident of the place where the action was started. Judge McNamara has taken the matter under advisement and will render a decision soon. Judge McNamara recently refused the petition of the Keokuk Electric company to have the case transferred to the federal court and the attorneys for Morgan Meyers state that the petition constituted a pleading and that another one could not be made.
