To the Ladies of Keokuk and Vicinity

You are invited to the Procter & Gamble Educational Department Cooking school to be conducted this week at the Masonic Temple (banquet room), under the auspices of The Daily Gate City. Miss Harriet H. Ellis will be in charge. The cooking school is absolutely free and nothing is offered for sale. The first session will be at 2:30 Monday afternoon and the program is as follows:

MONDAY

*Feather Omelet Sauce Soubise Doughnuts
Baking Powder Biscuit White Cake*

This school is identical with the one conducted last year by The Gate City and which gave such general satisfaction to the ladies. The Gate City hopes that a larger number will this year take advantage of this free educational school to profit by Miss Ellis' experience and teaching.
