CHIEF ENGINEER SCALDED.

Steam Flue Bursts, Burning Him Terribly.
Des Moines.—While standing on top of one of the mammoth boilers in the steam power plant of the Des Moines Edison light company, the chief engineer, E. E. Blackmer, was scalded and disfigured when at 3 o'clock Tuesday night a flue in the boiler burst and a great shower of steam sprayed over his body.

When the flue burst the steam from five of the great boilers rushed into the chief engineer's face. The scalded upper portion of his body was badly burned that the skin peeled off from the hip to the knee when his clothing was removed.

Mr. Blackmer had climbed to the top of one of the boilers and was turning the steam into the extra boiler for the night when suddenly the flue gave way like a paper bag several feet below. The firemen rushed to his side and while they were caring for the injured man all the steam in the plant escaped and left the city in utter darkness where electric lights are depended on for illumination.

The engineer was taken immediately to Mercy hospital and Drs. Priestly and McCarthy were called. The skin on Mr. Blackmer's face and arms peeled off soon after the accident, and upon removing his clothing the skin on his chest, back and one of his legs peeled off. The house physician, Dr. Roberts, stated that Mr. Blackmer would undoubtedly recover, although the burns on the upper portion of his body were very deep.

MURDERS MAID; KILLS SELF

They Were Lovers and Friends Expected Them to Marry Soon.
Des Moines.—What began harmlessly enough as a lovers' quarrel, developed into a murder and suicide, William Dohrer fatally wounding Florence Fuhrmeister and then killing himself.

The scene of the tragedy was the porch of the Fuhrmeister home, six miles north of this city. Here the girl dwells with her mother and grandfather, while her lover lived a few rods down the road. The two had been devoted to each other for over a year and it was generally understood that their marriage was to take place in a short time.

All was well between the two when Dohrer came to call his mother, but before long the girl's mother heard voices raised as if there was some disagreement. She did not interfere, however, deeming it prudent to leave them alone. The evening wore on until 11 o'clock.

Suddenly two shots were heard in great succession. Rushing out, her mother saw Florence fall to the floor of the porch, the blood spurting from a wound in the breast, while Dohrer still occupied a sitting position in his chair. He had evidently fired upon the girl without rising.

SEVERE STORM HITS BOONE.

Hay Barns Destroyed and Cattle Killed by Lightning.
Boone.—Hay barns were destroyed and cattle were killed during the severe electrical, rain and wind storm which swept through here Wednesday night. A hay barn of Will Bass, residing north of Boone, was destroyed as was a large barn belonging to Arthur Nelson. A fine steer, the property of Fred Zurtz and J. N. Bass was killed by lightning. Washington on the Northwestern between Denison and Carroll tied up train traffic for a short time. Two wash trucks on a branch near Neenah knocked out the service there. Nearly five inches, the heaviest rainfall for years, visited Boone and vicinity.

AUTO RAN OVER BLIND MAN.

Barney Ward of Ida Grove Asks $5,000 Damages for Accident.
Ida Grove.—Barney Ward, the old-time Ida county citizen, a blind man, who was run over and terribly injured in Moline last April by an automobile belonging to the Deer-Clarke Motor Car company, has brought suit through his attorney, M. M. White of this city, for $5,000 damages. The auto was a freight truck, weighing 15,000 tons, and was being run by a boy of sixteen. The truck struck Ward on both legs broken, a shoulder broken, his back wrenched and his body terribly bruised and for several months his life was despaired.

WIDOW DEMANDS DAMAGES.

Sequel To Legal Battle Over An Insurance Policy.

Des Moines.—As a sequel to the legal fight between C. C. Crowell of Des Moines and his daughter-in-law over the life insurance left by the late Emmett Crowell, a suit has been brought in district court in which the young widow demands $20,000 damages from her father-in-law for alleged slander. She alleges that he circulated stories in Des Moines and Minneapolis calculated to injure her reputation.

Young Crowell was connected with the Northwestern National Life Insurance company at Minneapolis and when he died he left a life insurance policy for $10,000. Shortly before his death he had borrowed $500 from his father and assigned the insurance policy to him as security. Crowell sought to collect the entire amount of the policy, but the widow claimed he was only entitled to the amount he had loaned his son. Judge Howe, before whom the case was tried, held in favor of the widow. Since then the relations between Mrs. Crowell and her father-in-law have been very much strained.

BURNING OIL OVERFLOWS.

Manager Throws Himself In Mud Puddle to Extinguish Flames.

Waterloo.—Fire in the Standard Oil company's east side plant here destroyed $15,000 worth of property. F. W. Smith, the local manager, was horribly burned and escaped death by throwing himself into a pool of mud and water.

The fire started at about 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon when a tank that was being filled from a car ran over. The oil poured into the office room and was ignited when it came in contact with a gasoline engine. The building was immediately a mass of flames. The tanks immediately began to leak, preventing an explosion, but allowing the burning oil to destroy barns and buildings and one horse was burned to death.

Mr. Smith, the manager, attempted to stop the engine used to pump the oil when the overflow began, but before he succeeded the oil reached it and the fire followed. His clothing took fire before he could leave the building. Rushing out he threw himself into a puddle of mud and water and extinguished the flames. He is horribly burned about the face head and arms, but it is believed he will recover. There was no insurance on any of the property destroyed.

SHOT, DEFENDING HIS BRIDE.

Father of Husband Also Killed By Alleged Defamer of Girl.

New York, Aug. 30.—Defending the honor of the girl he had just married, John Pelletier, a bridegroom of 19, was fatally shot by her defamer, Henry Green in a little flat at 149 Cherry Street. His white-haired father, fighting also for the good name of the girl, was killed instantly by a bullet through his heart.

It was all the sequel of a pretty wedding four weeks ago, when old Joseph Pelletier closed up the little shop under his home and embraced both his boy and pretty Alice Bandino, whom the priest joined in matrimony. The embracing meant something, because things had been said about Alice in the little foreign settlement, things that linked her name with other men whom she did not marry, things that meant she was not worthy to be John's wife. But the patriarch had searched out all these rumors and had found they were false.

When Green, in the guise of the bridegroom's father, attacked him and Green, drawing a revolver, shot son and father. Green was arrested.

240 SALOON MEN ENJOINED.

All Assemble in Court Room and Agree to Terms Imposed Upon.
Davenport.—Over 240 saloonkeepers of Davenport and Scott county, together with their attorneys, assembled in the court room Monday, where a permanent decree of injunction was issued against them, containing the following stipulations which they agreed to:

- Close every day at 10 p. m.
- No free lunches.
- No wine rooms.
- No screens or blinds.
- Payment of mule tax quarterly in advance.
- Women and children not to be sold intoxicating liquors.
- While the decree made no mention of closing by private agreement with the prosecution, all saloons are not to open Sundays until 2 o'clock in the afternoon. But one saloonkeeper refused to agree to the terms of the decree and was closed by injunction.

To Fair Grounds for Honeymoon.

Des Moines.—At the state fair grounds, Monday, it is safe to say there are no happier young people than Samuel Slade and his newly wedded wife. They are doing the state fair as a honeymoon. Slade and pretty Anna L. Carlson, aged 19, came to the city from Boone bright and early this morning. They were married in the first couple of hours and early in the afternoon they were on their way to the fair. When Deputy Clerk Thornton reached the court house this morning, Slade and his bride were waiting for him.

Get $5.00 But Missed $500.00.

Waterloo.—While en route to Waterloo to see the Barnum & Bailey circus, John Emert of Dewart was known of a five-dollar bill by an unrobbed pickpocket. Mr. Emert carried $500 in bills in another pocket, but this was not touched. He was bringing the money to Waterloo to make a deposit in a bank.

SIX WEEKS FOR PRACTICE.

BATTLESHIPS WILL THEN PREPARE FOR PACIFIC CRUISE.

Route for Return Trip Not Settled—Several Commanding Officers Will Be Relieved.

Washington.—The Atlantic fleet under Admiral Evans, which sailed from Hampton Roads Monday, will remain for two weeks at the southern drill grounds, 40 miles off the Chesapeake capes, practicing fleet and squadron formation. Then will come the regular fall target practice, lasting probably four more weeks.

Acting Secretary Newberry said Tuesday the ships would then go to the navy yards in rearranged order, where, in two weeks, they should be put in perfect condition, the actual start for the Pacific cruise being made about the middle of December. None of the itineraries so far prepared by the navy department is final. If the decision as to route of the big ships is in favor of a return by way of Cape Good Hope the fleet will sail from San Francisco about the end of next summer straight away across the Pacific, calling at Honolulu and probably heading thence for Australia. If the Suez route is selected, then the fleet will probably, after leaving Puget Sound, swing to the northwest, skirting the coast of British Columbia and the Aleutian islands, cross the Pacific by the shortest great circle route, which will take the ships close to Japan, and thence to Manila, where they will make a short stop before passing through the Straits of Malacca and entering the Indian ocean.

The navy department will relieve some of the present commanding officers of the battleships, before this cruise is begun, because they will have already served nearly the full term of sea duty. Officers who have already had two full years of sea service in their present commands include Captains Barry of the Kentucky, Herbert Winslow of the Kearsarge and Comly of the Alabama.

ATTEMPT TO KILL CORTELYOU?

Package Addressed to Him Explodes in Philadelphia Post Office.

Philadelphia.—The explosion of what appears to have been a large percussion cap in a package addressed to Secretary of the Treasury George B. Cortelyou created excitement in the Nicetown substation of the Philadelphia post office Tuesday.

The package, which was collected from a box in the northern section of the city, was received by Clerk Roberts, who says it was about four inches long by two inches wide and three-fourths of an inch thick. When Roberts brought his steel cancellations die down upon the stamp the package exploded and was torn to pieces. Roberts was unhurt. The pieces of paper were put together and the package was found to have been addressed to Secretary Cortelyou, Washington, the address having been cut from a newspaper and pasted on the package.

Chief Postal Inspector James B. Cortelyou, a brother of the secretary, is trying to solve the mystery surrounding the explosion, though most of the authorities think the package was mailed as a joke. There was not sufficient explosive matter in it to have done injury to anyone. What was in the package aside from the explosive cap the officials will not say.

GROSS EARNINGS OF RAILWAYS.

Enormous Increase in 1906 Over the Previous Year.

New York.—The gross earnings of the railroads of the United States during 1906, according to the fortieth annual number of Poor's Manual, issued Tuesday, made the enormous increase over 1905 of $234,442,516. The net earnings increased $104,728,224.

This was done in spite of a heavy increase in operating expenses due to higher wages and increased cost of material. Over 71,000,000 more people traveled by rail in 1906 than in the preceding year, while the railroads moved 1,610,099,829 tons, as compared with 1,435,321,748 tons in the preceding year.

The total assets of all railroads are reported as $17,534,381,633 or more than six times the total money in circulation in the country.

Women May Stop Strike.

New York.—The New York papers announce that Helen Gould, Mrs. Charles H. Mackay and Mrs. J. G. Phelps Stokes, representing the women stockholders in the Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies, held a secret conference late last week on the strike situation, and took action looking to a settlement of the difficulty. After the conference, according to the printed stories, Miss Gould cabled to her brother, George J., who is in Europe, to come home at once. It is reported that he sailed last Sunday.

Fatal Electrical Storm.

St. Louis.—During an electrical storm that swept over St. Louis Wednesday and covered a radius of about 100 miles, Henry Albrecht, aged 14, was killed at the village of Lake in St. Louis county, by lightning. Mary Schmitz was badly burned by the bolt. In St. Louis two street cars were struck by lightning and the passengers frightened, but not injured. Trinity Methodist church was struck and damaged, and the North Market street police station was struck, knocking down and shocking Lieut. Martin O'Brien.

British Marriage Ban Raised.

London.—Marriage with a deceased wife's sister finally has become legal in Great Britain, the house of lords Monday evening having passed the bill sanctioning such unions, by 98 to 54 votes.

Japanese City Is Burned.

Hakodate, Island of Yezo, Japan.—Fire broke out Monday morning in the city of Hakodate. The fire broke out in the fireproof building of this report, and before it could be got under control nearly 70 per cent of the city was in ashes.

WHAT THE WOMEN WORE.

Of Course the Story Teller Didn't Really Mean Just That.

A gentleman recently returned from that quiet little Maryland resort, Ocean City, has a tale to tell of conditions that are really sensational. And the worst of it was that he did not know they were sensational at all. He was out calling the other evening, and the conversation started with the shirtwaist man, who, the returned wanderer said, was to be found in great quantities at the summer resort. Then he told about the habit everybody down there had contracted of going without hats. This is the way he told it to an interested company:

"You see everybody down there going about just the same. The men never wear coats; they go about in just their shirts and trousers, and the women are just like them."

VERY BAD FORM OF ECZEMA.

Suffered Three Years—Physicians Did No Good—Perfectly Well After Using Cuticura Remedies.

"I take great pleasure in informing you that I was a sufferer of eczema in a very bad form for the past three years. I consulted and treated with a number of physicians in Chicago, but to no avail. I commenced using the Cuticura Remedies, consisting of Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Pills, three months ago, and to-day I am perfectly well, the disease having left me entirely. I cannot recommend the Cuticura Remedies too highly to anyone suffering with the disease that I have had. Mrs. Florence E. Atwood, 18 Crilly Place, Chicago, Ill., October 2, 1905. Witness: L. S. Berger."

Puzzled.

The bard from the city had sold sufficient verses to spend a week in a rural boarding house. Waving off the swarms of June bugs and mosquitoes, the bard sat penning his lines by the yellow light of a kerosene lamp.

"How I love this madrigal!" he mused to himself.

The horny-handed farmer, who sat greasing his boots, looked up in surprise.

"Gracious!" he drawled. "Where is she?"

"Who?" asked the astonished bard.

"Why, the gal you just said you loved."

How a Hog Farm Shows Profit of $27,833 in Eight Years.

This is the subject of a short series of articles by the man who owned the hog plant, ran it and made the money. He tells how. They begin in an early issue of The National Stockman and Farmer. The Revised Psalm.

The father's peroration was superb. "And" departing, leave behind you," he concluded, "footprints on the sands of—"

But here the son rudely interrupted.

"Footprints?" he sneered. "Who wants to leave footprints?"

"Then what would you leave, my boy?" the old man inquired.

"Tracks," said the youth, haughtily.

"Tracks of my 90-horse power racer, to be sure. Am I a dog or a working-man that I should leave mere footprints?"

Nature's Gift Wasted.

A Scotchman who recently took the street car trip on the gorge route, the New York side of Niagara river, was much disgusted with the hawkers of views and "Teddy bears," who make the afternoon hideous and do their best to spoil nature's grandeur. As he alighted from the car he looked angrily at the shouting vendors and then at the Whirlpool rapids. "What's the use of having a big river like that," he asked, "if you don't drink those fellows in it?"

Animal Intelligence in Massachusetts.

John Talbot of Rock Knolls, Mass., enjoys the distinction of having a trained hen that will jump over his clasped hands, even if held quite high from the ground. Uncle John trained the hen himself. A cat is owned by a Byfield man that will eat raw green corn, and will even strip down the hucks in the field in an effort to get the corn.

In Self-Defense.

Gabriel—Say, what did you let that pestiferous party in for?
St. Peter (wearily)—He used to be an insurance agent and I either had to let him in or be talked to death.

BAD DREAMS

Frequently Due to Coffee Drinking.

One of the common symptoms of coffee poisoning is the bad dreams that spoil what should be restful sleep. A man who found the reason says:
"Formerly I was a slave to coffee. I was like a morphia fiend, could not sleep at night, would roll and toss in my bed and when I did get to sleep was disturbed by dreams and hobgoblins, would wake up with headaches and feel bad all day, so nervous I could not attend to business. My writing looked like bird tracks; I had sour belchings from the stomach, indigestion, heartburn and palpitation of the heart, constipation, irregularity of the kidneys, etc."
"Indeed, I began to feel I had all the troubles that human flesh could suffer, but when a friend advised me to leave off coffee I felt as if he had insulted me. I could not bear the idea, it had such a hold on me and I refused to believe it the cause."
"But it turned out that no advice was ever given at a more needed time for I finally consented to try Postum and with the going of coffee and the coming of Postum all my troubles have gone and health has returned. I eat and sleep well now, nerves steadied down and I write a fair hand (as you can see), can attend to business again and rejoice that I am free from the monster coffee."

Ten days' trial of Postum in place of coffee will bring sound, restful, refreshing sleep. "There's a Reason." Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. Some physicians call it "a little health classic."

Horrible Example

"My dear," said Mrs. Strongmild, "I want you to accompany me to the town hall to-morrow evening."
"What for?" queried the meek and lowly other half of the combine.
"I am to lecture on the 'Dark Side of Married Life,'" explained Mrs. S., "and I want you to sit on the platform and pose as one of the illustrations."
