DEATHS IN TORNAO

SEVERAL TOWNS IN NEBRASKA ARE PARTLY WRECKED.

COLLEGE IS DEMOLISHED

Institution at Bellevue Suffers Severely—Loss of Life Heaviest at Louisville—Cyclone in Missouri.

Omaha, Neb.—Twelve persons are known to have been killed and a score injured by a tornado which swept over the northern part of Story county at five o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

The storm, which gained velocity on its way south, started in Omaha about 4:30. At Bellevue the college buildings were damaged to the extent of probably $50,000 and several persons were injured, none fatally. The storm then moved on to Louisville, Richfield and Springfield, where the principal damage and loss of life occurred.

Bellevue College Wrecked. The storm was the most severe that ever struck eastern Nebraska. The damage to the college buildings at Bellevue was heavy. The tower was blown from Park hall and the building wrecked. Lowry hall and Rankin hall were unroofed.

The panic-stricken students ran to the basement, and in this way many fatalities were probably averted. The college stables were wrecked and all the horses killed. A number of small buildings and stores in the village were blown down.

Moving southward, the tornado struck Fort Crook, damaging several of the barracks buildings, but nobody was injured. In the town of Fort Crook, however, a number of buildings were entirely wrecked.

Loss of Life at Louisville. Springfield, Neb.—A tornado late Tuesday afternoon wrecked the towns of Louisville, Bellevue and Richfield, killing several persons and injuring a large number. The heaviest loss of life and injured is reported from Louisville, a junction point of the Missouri Pacific and Burlington railroads in Cass county.

Cyclone in Missouri. St. Joseph, Mo.—A cyclone which swept the country half a mile north and half a mile east of Waston, Mo., in the northwest corner of the state, completely demolished the house and barn on the Good farm. The occupants, Mel Cox, wife and son, escaped serious injury by seeking refuge in the cellar.

Damage in Illinois. Rock Island, Ill.—A tornado Monday afternoon swept through Mercer and Henry counties, touching several towns and doing considerable damage. Mrs. Gotch, an elderly woman, was killed at Cleveland, where the storm demolished a school, injuring several children. The depot of the Rock Island road at Colona was wrecked.

At Millersburg 15 houses were destroyed or damaged and two persons were slightly injured.

Several Deaths in Texas. Fort Worth, Tex.—The destructive tornado which caused several deaths and ruined property in Oklahoma extended as far south as Gainesville, Tex., and towns in that section. Hall at Gainesville damaged crops and broke windows. The residence of Thomas Nance was blown down and his family narrowly escaped death.

Storm Ruins Town. Little Rock, Ark.—The Postal Telegraph company here has received a message saying that about half of the inhabitants of Gilliam, La., have been either killed or injured by a tornado and urging that relief be sent at once.

Later advices say that all the houses in Gilliam except two are demolished. Gilliam is a hamlet of between 75 and 100 inhabitants.

MICHIGAN SOLID FOR TAFT.

Republican Convention Instructs for Secretary of War.

Grand Rapids, Mich.—Michigan's delegation to the Republican national convention was instructed Tuesday by the state Republican convention to "cast an undivided vote of the whole state in favor of the nomination of Secretary Taft." The following delegates-at-large were chosen by unanimous vote: E. D. Stair, Detroit; John W. Blodgett, Grand Rapids; Frank W. Giehrst, Alpena, and James McNaughton of Calumet.

Millionaire's Son Arrested. St. Louis.—Robert W. Fullerton, son of S. H. Fullerton, millionaire lumberman of St. Louis, is in San Francisco in the custody of detectives, according to telegrams received here Tuesday. The telegrams also state that the arrest was made at the instance of District Attorney Jerome.

In New York Fullerton will answer to a warrant procured by Gladys Hobart, charging breach of promise and offenses said to have occurred when a party of Cornell students went to New York "on a lark."

Alleged Counterfeiters Caught. St. Louis.—Three ex-convicts were arrested here Wednesday by order of the federal authorities, on the charge of counterfeiting, and in the room which the police raided, at Spruce and Second streets, molds, machinery and bogus coins were found.

Crushed Under Falling Building. Mazomanie, Wis.—William Royston, a carpenter who was crushed under a falling building during the tornado on Monday afternoon, died from the effects of his injuries.

Bad Fire in East St. Louis. East St. Louis, Ill.—Twenty-seven families were rendered homeless by a fire that late Monday gutted the plant of the General Roofing company and, driven by a high wind, communicated to and destroyed 27 cottages.

THREE MORE MEN MISSING

NEW VICTIMS OF MRS. GUNNESS MAY BE REVEALED.

Reports of Physicians Fail to Establish Cause of Woman's Death—Facts About Body.

Laporte, Ind.—Evidence to establish the identity of three additional victims of Mrs. Bella Guinness was the most positive development of a day filled with contradictory happenings.

The new victims of Mrs. Guinness are supposed to have been John Moe of Elbow Lake, Minn.; Henry Gerhart of Scandinavia, Wis.; a small town near Iowa, from which Ole O. Budsberg came, and George Brady of Tuscola, Ill.

The reports of the four physicians who conducted the post mortem examinations on the bodies found in the ruins of the Guinness home April 28 were given to the coroner's jury. They fail to establish the manner in which the woman and three children met death and it is probable that the coroner's jury will return an open verdict regarding them.

The reports made to the coroner's jury by Drs. J. L. Gray, H. H. Long, J. H. William Meyer and F. T. Wilcox revealed several circumstances, the existence of which has been carefully guarded from public knowledge. This is particularly true of the document signed by Dr. Gray and having to do with the adult body, supposed to be that of Mrs. Guinness.

The new facts brought to light concerning the body are as follows: That the right arm is practically complete and that most of the left forearm and hand are in existence. Hitherto the complete arm had been known as the left and the right arm was supposed to have been completely consumed in the fire.

That three rings, two containing inscriptions, had been found on the hands.

The rings presented a puzzle which thus far has not been solved. The inscriptions contain initials which are unaccountable except upon one hypothesis, that being that the ornaments were the property of Peter Guinness' first wife, that she presented them to Mrs. Guinness, or that she obtained possession of them after his death and that she wore them on the night when the house was burned.

WORK IS NEARLY DONE.

Congress Will Be Ready to Adjourn May 25.

Washington.—The supply bills of congress, in which appropriations are to be made for the support of the government for the next fiscal year, beginning on July 1, are in such condition in both houses that if no other legislation, it will be possible to reach a final adjournment by May 25.

There are 14 of these general measures, carrying an aggregate of almost a billion dollars, and of these the house of representatives, in which all of them originate, has passed 12, all but the military academy and the general deficiency bill. Both of these carry comparatively small sums, both are of such character that they seldom arouse opposition, and both could be disposed of in very brief order if necessary. The academy bill will be reported to the house early this week and the deficiency bill not later than Thursday.

The senate is not so well along as it could be on account of the fact that that body must necessarily take up the bills after they have been considered, and passed upon by the house. The senate is, however, unusually close upon the heels of the lower body and in addition to the deficiency and academy bills, has left only the post office and the sundry civil bills. These, however, are two of the largest of the appropriation bills, carrying as they do between them about one-third of the aggregate appropriation made for the session. Both unquestionably will arouse much discussion in the senate and it is probable that the greater part of the time for the next two weeks will be given for their consideration.

C.—Over the narrow and forsaken stretch of country that juts out in sand dunes into the Atlantic ocean, the aeroplane invented by the Wright brothers, Dayton, O., aeronautes, Wednesday made two flights with apparently the most successful results. ## VREELAND BILL TO PASS

HOUSE AGREES TO VOTE ON CURRENCY MEASURE.

Further Consideration of Brownsville Affair is Postponed Until December 16 by the Senate.

Washington.—At 4:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon the house will vote on the Vreeland currency bill. The best information indicates that the bill will be passed by a small majority.

When the house met at 11:30 a. m. a resolution, or order, was reported from the committee on rules, in substance as follows: That the bill be taken up for consideration and passage; that amendments be limited in number to one; that general debate proceed until 4:30 p. m., the time being evenly divided between the two sides of the house; that at 4:30 the bill be voted on.

This resolution was adopted under suspension of the rules by a roll call vote.

The further consideration of the Brownsville affair was postponed Wednesday by the senate until December 16 next. This decision was reached after an extended exchange of views among senators. Mr. Foraker after urging the appointment of an early day for voting on his bill moved that it be taken up next December. After a motion by Senator Culberson of Texas to vote on the bill next Saturday was laid on the table, Mr. Foraker's motion was adopted by a vote of 62 to 6. Mr. Foraker gave out a statement saying that while he could not have passed the bill now, he thinks he has insured its passage by the postponement.

Three thousand persons, including representatives of political, official and social life in Washington and who occupied seats on the stands composing a great quadrangle, were interested spectators of the ceremony. Flags and colors of 21 American republics floated in the breeze over the grandstands, while the coats of arms of these countries were displayed at many places about the stands. Over the speakers' portion of the president's stand were the colors of the United States and Brazil, the latter in honor of Ambassador Nabuco.

On the president's stand were seated the cabinet, the supreme court, the diplomatic corps and members of the senate and house. John Barrett, the director of the bureau, introduced Secretary Root as the presiding officer.

Miss Laura—Very. Can imitate almost anything.

Young Hankinson—They have a remarkably clever parrot over at the Casterlins', Miss Laura. It can imitate the sound of a kiss to perfection. Is that among the accomplishments of your feathered friend here in the corner?

Miss Laura (indignantly)—No, sir. He does not attempt an imitation of a sound he is not accustomed to hear. Mr. Hankinson. Of that I can assure you.

BOY KEPT SCRATCHING.

Eczema Lasted 7 Years—Face Was As Raw—Skin Specialists Failed, But Cuticura Effected Cure.

"When my little boy was six weeks old an eruption broke out on his face. I took him to a doctor, but his face kept on getting worse until it got so bad that no one could look at him. His whole face was one crust and must have been very painful. He scratched day and night until his face was raw. Then I took him to all the best specialists in skin diseases but they could not do much for him. The eczema got on his arms and legs and we could not get a night's sleep in months. I got a set of Cuticura Remedies and he felt relieved the first time I used them. I gave the Cuticura Remedies a good trial and gradually the eczema healed all up. He is now seven years old and I think the trouble will never return. Mrs. John G. Klump, 80 Niagara St., Newark, N. J., Oct. 17 and 22, 1907."

Economical Physician.

Ambassador Wu Tingfang was once, it is alleged, telling about a certain selfish politician. He said: "The man reminds me of a doctor of Shang hai. A mandarin came to this doctor for advice. He could not sleep, had no appetite, suffered a good deal from depression and nevertheless was taking on fat at an alarming rate. 'We'll soon put you in condition again,' said the physician. 'What you need is exercise, good food and rest. Four times a week you can come here and put in the morning polishing my floors.' 'But why not my own floors?' the mandarin inquired. 'Mine,' said the physician, 'are larger.'"

A New Definition.

Senator Harts, who has introduced at Albany a bill against the sale and manufacture of cigarettes, has many original views. These he has the talent to express in terse and striking terms.

Discussing medicine, in which he places none too great faith, Senator Harts said neatly at a recent Albany banquet: "Medicine is the art of amusing the patient while nature cures the disease."

CHANGE IN FOOD

Works Wonders in Health.

It is worth knowing that a change in food can cure dyspepsia. "I deem it my duty to let you know how Grape-Nuts food has cured me of indigestion. 'I had been troubled with it for years, until last year my doctor recommended Grape-Nuts food to be used every morning. I followed instructions and now I am entirely well. 'The whole family like Grape-Nuts, we use four packages a week. You are welcome to use this testimonial as you see fit.'"

The reason this lady was helped by the use of Grape-Nuts food, is that it is predigested by natural processes and therefore does not tax the stomach as the food she had been using, it also contains the elements required for building up the nervous system (that part of the human body is in perfect working order, there can be no dyspepsia, for nervous energy represents the steam that drives the engine. When the nervous system is run down, the machinery of the body works badly. Grape-Nuts food can be used by small children as well as adults. It is perfectly cooked and ready for instant use.

RAILROAD BUILDER OF NORTH DELIVERS STRONG SPEECH.

MUST CONSERVE RESOURCES

Says Crisis is Near at Hand Unless Best Judgment is Used.

Washington, D. C., May 15.—Starting was the warning sounded yesterday at the conference of governors at the White house, of the danger the nation confronts in soil and in forest depletion. The governors listened and talked and applauded, but took no action. This is left for today, the last day of the conference.

The resolutions committee was in session all day and will report in the morning. A supplementary meeting of a number of governors followed the day's session and a committee consisting of the governors of Kentucky, Missouri and Nebraska was appointed to bring in a suggestion for a permanent organization of governors, independent, perhaps, of any other organization which may be found by the conference. The president opened the morning and afternoon sessions, which were presided over by Governor Johnson of Minnesota and Governor Deneen of Illinois, respectively.

The president then announced James J. Hill, chairman of the board of directors of the Great Northern railroad as the first speaker of the morning session. Mr. Hill's appearance on the platform called forth a hearty ovation.

Mr. Hill said that not only the economic but the political future is involved, and added:

"Every nation finds its hour of peril when there is no longer free access to the land, or when the land will no longer support the people. Disturbances from within are to be feared more than attacks from without."

"It would not be strange if they in their desire for change attempt to pull down the pillars of their national temple. Far may this day be from us. But since the unnecessary destruction of our land will bring new conditions of danger, its conservation, its improvement, to the highest point of productivity as promised by scientific intelligence and practical experience, appears to be a first command of any political economy worthy of the name."

Mr. Hill in conclusion said:

"Reviewing the spirit of the days that created our constitution, the days that carried us through civil conflict, the spirit by which all further enduring work in the world will be wrought, demanding thought as Washington and Lincoln thought, only for the highest good of all the people, we may as the result of the deliberations and the conclusions reached here today give new meaning to our future, new luster to the ideal of a republic of living federal states; shape anew the fortunes of this country and enlarge the borders of hope for all mankind."

VREELAND BILL PASSED.

Insurgent Republicans Fail to "Cut Much Ice."

Washington, D. C., May 15.—The Vreeland currency bill, agreed upon by the republican caucus, was yesterday put through the house under a special rule by a vote of 184 to 145. Fifteen so-called insurgents of the majority party voted with the democrats, who went on record solidly against the measure.

The closing moments of the debate were replete with excitement and republicans enthusiasm caused by the refusal of the great majority of the democrats to go on record for the Williams bill, which had been offered by Mr. Kahn of California as a substitute for the Vreeland bill, in accordance with a well laid plan of the majority leaders to ascertain where the democrats stood on the proposition, which, it was claimed by several is supported by Mr. Bryan. Ninety-three democrats voted "present," which aroused the republicans to a high state of hilarity at the expense of the minority. Only a handful of democrats had the temerity to vote "aye" or "no." The action of Mr. Kahn was due to the refusal of Mr. Williams to present his bill as a substitute, which, under the rule, he was specially authorized to do.

WILSON WANTS TO QUIT.

Friends Urge Him to Stay With Administration.

Washington, D. C., May 15.—Secretary Wilson will retire soon from the cabinet. His friends, however, hope that he will remain until the end of this administration.

The friends to whom Secretary Wilson confided this information begged him to refrain from tendering his resignation at this time. They pointed out that the farmers needed him now more than they ever did, and that his department had reached the point where it was beginning to reach the benefit of his labor. Although he would not promise to reconsider his determination to resign, Secretary Wilson did assure his friends that he would not hand his resignation to the president until he had consulted them again.

NAME DEBS FOR PRESIDENCY.

Socialists Nominate Him at Chicago On First Ballot.

Chicago, May 15.—Eugene V. Debs was nominated on the first ballot for president of the United States by the socialist party national convention.

Phil Calgary of Missouri presented the name of Debs in a speech assailing President Roosevelt for "undesirable citizens" remarks and declared the president to be "the most despicable coward the world has ever known." He denounced Secretary of War Taft of having drunk the health of the czar of Russia. He also cast aspersions at W. J. Bryan. John Spargo of New York seconded the nomination of Debs.
