

OTTUMWA, IOWA.

(Special to Bystander.) The Mt. Zion A. M. E. church of Ottumwa, Iowa, held a revival meeting, beginning on October 17. On October 21 Rev. R. H. Cato of Cedar Rapids, one of the most able and gifted gospel preachers of the Chicago conference, began and conducted the meetings, giving a real and true knowledge of salvation to sinners and real instruction, encouragement and inspiration to all who would receive it. Some of the subjects he preached on were: "The Christian's Praying Infirmity"; "Regeneration," St. John 3:3; "Christ's Constraining Love," II Co. 5:14; "Christian's State and Character," Rom. 8:1; "Future Punishment," Jeremiah 18:21; "Gilead Balm and Physician," Jer. 8:21.

Taking up his second subject, "The Present Condition in the World," he says the Christian is in the world, but not of the world, for by purchase they are heavenly pilgrims here on earth. In the world for Christ's sake (reference St. John 17:18-20). In the world for the world's sake for light (reference St. John 17:16).

In the conclusive remarks on the third or last subject, the "Christ's Own by His Unalterable Attachment to His Followers" was proven by His love for the world. His gentleness and through his love and gentleness and our practical belief in Jesus we are made God's unobstructive channel.

With grateful hearts on last Friday, November 5, the people bade good bye to Rev. Cato, who left for Cedar Rapids, Iowa, on Saturday morning, November 6th.

The meetings were well attended and as a result fifteen new members were added to the church.

Beware of Cheap Substitutes. In these days of keen competition it is important that the public should see that they get Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and not take substitutes sold for the sake of extra profit. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has stood the test and been approved for more than forty years. Obtainable everywhere.

MACON, MO. NEWS.
The Woman's Club of Macon, Mo., is becoming more and more a very helpful organization in the community. It is bringing the women in closer touch with each other, regardless of denomination, from their general meetings and the advancement of their interests in April, 1915, and in a very interesting in club work and its usefulness is far-reaching. Mrs. Ida L. Garnett is president; Mrs. Ida Ansell, secretary, and Mrs. Annie Adams, treasurer. Mrs. Garnett is untiring in her interest. She seeks to bring all the good women of the town into the club, that they may all be actively engaged in helping each other.

The art department, under the supervision of Mrs. Hattie Nichols, is making fine progress. All the women are learning to do some kind of needlework. On Saturday, November 6th, the Woman's club served luncheon and had a cake sale at Mr. Henderson's store for charitable purposes. The women took the deepest interest in the movement and there was never seen a more appetizing quantity of good things to eat than was served between the hours of 10 a. m. and 10 p. m. Everybody seemed to take interest in the affair.

CLINTON, IOWA.

Mrs. Leah Hopkins has been confined for some time to her home on account of illness. Her friends hope for an early recovery.

The Second Baptist church and parsonage have been in the hands of painters, adding much to its appearance, of which the members are very proud.

Mrs. Elizabeth Cooper is convalescing from her recent illness, much to the gratification of her friends.

Rev. W. W. Williams and wife were agreeably surprised a fortnight ago when a number of the members and friends dropped in upon them, the visitors taxing the capacity of the parsonage. A shower of many good things was the result, for which the recipients are truly grateful.

The members of the Second Baptist church are making preparations for a bazaar to be held for three days, beginning on Thanksgiving day with a dinner.

Everything around the A. M. E. church savors of success this year, for which the members are grateful. The pastor, who, as everyone has reason to believe, is a man of ambition. Already his presence has been felt, and his methods for business greatly evidenced. With Rev. W. W. Williams as the leader our people look for the standard of the church to be raised to the degree it has not known for some years.

Mrs. M. O. Culberson has returned to her home, after several weeks as a patient in Agatha hospital, where she is slowly improving.

The Ladies' Sewing Circle of Bethel A. M. E. church will hold a three day and the guests departed at a late hour, wishing much happiness and success to Mr. and Mrs. Clarke in their new location.

Mrs. Davenport remains the same. Rev. Smith is reported better in this writing.

IOWA CITY, IOWA.
The masquerade party given by the G. S. U. I. last Saturday evening was a decided success. A flashlight picture was taken. Douglas Miller, representing a blonde woman, was the best masked man and Hubert London, representing a brunette, was a close second.
Mrs. Bertha Watkins is in town and will remain the rest of the winter. Sunday school is proving very interesting under Miss Graves' leadership, and membership is increasing. Christian Endeavor was led by Miss Ruth Southall, president.

Milton Fields has been somewhat indisposed the last week or ten days. Mrs. Moore is recovering from an attack of the grippe.
Iowa City is looking forward to the Ames football game November 18th. Rev. Wharton will be in Iowa City on Sunday.
The G. S. U. I. will meet as usual next Saturday evening.

A Word About Telephone Manners

MOST people these days pay more attention to telephone manners than they used to, but—well, we won't say it.

The telephone "Hello" is no longer in use among particular people. It is becoming obsolete because it is both meaningless and time-wasting. It's an ungraceful and rude little word and—there's a better way.

In the modern, up-to-date business establishment the telephone is answered thus: "Jones & Company, Mr. Smith speaking."

This same man in his home will answer his telephone thus: "Mr. Smith speaking."

When his home telephone is answered by a servant, he has instructed her to say, "Mr. Smith's residence."

When one is through talking a cheery "Good-bye" ends the conversation pleasantly. It's one of those little things in life that are worth while.
