

Daily Globe.

BY H. P. HALL. NO. 17, WABASH STREET, ST. PAUL. Terms of Subscription to the Daily Globe...

THE WEEKLY GLOBE.

The Weekly Globe is a mammoth sheet, exactly double the size of the Daily. It is just the paper for the farmer, the merchant, the manufacturer...

Daily Globe Advertising Rates.

Fourth Page 5 cents per line every insertion. First Page 25 cents per line every insertion. Second Page 15 cents per line every insertion...

ST. PAUL, THURSDAY, JANUARY 17, 1878.

THE WEEKLY GLOBE READY.

The first number of THE WEEKLY GLOBE will appear this morning. It is a mammoth sheet, double the size of the daily, and is furnished so low that it places it within the reach of every one.

Call for a Democratic Caucus.

The Democratic Senators and members of the House are requested to meet at the Chamber of Music of Representatives on Thursday at 7:30 p. m.

To Our City Patrons.

Canvasers are at work as rapidly and energetically as possible, but so much ground has to be gone over that many have not been reached at all.

The St. Paul horse writer in a Chicago paper would find a more familiar subject in the bull.

REAL ESTATE has fearfully depreciated in value in Germany since the demonization of silver.

DAN VOORHEES and Geo. H. Pendleton in the Senate, and George B. McClellan Governor of New Jersey. What a change.

SENATOR BRECK, of Kentucky, made one of the most sensible speeches and strongest arguments in favor of the silver dollar.

The question is whether milk cows should be stabled with their heads or tails to the west. Reserved for the next annual message.

CHINA, India and Japan took in the course of trade alone last year, one hundred and twenty-five millions of silver, twenty-five millions more than produced by the world.

Those distinguished Senators who dodged the intermediate vote on the Matthews resolution yesterday, are marked men. Their names will be looked for on the final vote.

The Senatorial windbag is something tremendous. While the business of the country is prostrated this windbag must be delivered ad infinitum and hence it is not probable that a direct vote will be secured on the silver bill for a month or more.

The clause in the Bland Silver Bill allowing any one having silver bullion to take it to the mint and have it coined on the usual terms has been stricken out in the Senate, and this strikes out Germany's $200,000,000 of demonized silver. Leave that out hereafter.

It is difficult to say whether old Simon Cameron's trouble is the widow or the lawyer. So far the trio have had it nip and tuck with the widow a little behind.

And the widows of Ashur are loud in their wail. And the idols are broke in the temple of Baal.

Wanna does the steel come in in the popular loan scheme of the Secretary of the Treasury? You can hardly believe he is a better man than when he falsified his own record by supporting the act for the benefit of the bondholders in 1869—for we have not seen any signs of repentance—and, therefore his goal for the new funding plan seems suspicious.

Suppose Hayes should adopt the New York Tribune idea, and abandoning everything else, undertake to rally the Republican party to the defense of the gold bulls, wouldn't Blaine, Conkling, and the like have more cause than ever for accusing him of conspiring to destroy the Republican party? It couldn't carry three States in the Union on the Jay Gould-Ried platform.

The bulls of the New York market made a little disturbance yesterday, but their day is about over. The increasing certainty of silver being re-monetized has put a stop to the upward tendency of gold. The gold holders may make a temporary rise, but the crushing weight of fifty millions of silver will soon settle upon their fading hopes of forming a world-wide gold combination.

Ms. HOAGS of the river improvement committee selected by the St. Paul convention has persuaded the House committee to report the appropriations for removing obstructions from the Mississippi, Missouri and Arkansas rivers, in a separate bill, instead of including them in the river and harbor bill.

The committee will report bills appropriating $45,000 for the remainder of the fiscal year ending June 1st and $450,000 for the next fiscal year.

A POLITICAL JUDICIARY.

The Republican party has been guilty of numerous crimes, false to its professions and false to the people. There are no degrees in treason, and grades in offenses against civil liberty are merged in treachery.

When the Constitution was being framed the power of the President to appoint and remove judges was bitterly opposed on the very ground that he would reward political friends.

Conkling would doubtless be pleased if Key would resign from the Cabinet to run for Governor of Tennessee in the interests of a committee of New York speculators and State honor; he might be happy if the pliancy of the New York jobbing ring in Indiana affairs should make official life uncomfortable for Carl Schurz; but he would swell more like a turkey cook than ever if Mr. Evans' pressing law business should draw him back to private life.

The vote in the Senate yesterday, on a motion to bury the Matthews silver resolution in a committee, was as follows: Ayes, 19, being Democrats 6, Republicans 13; absent men 16, southern 1, western 8, nones 31, being Democrats 17, Republicans 14; eastern men 2, southern 9, western 20. The dodgers are not counted in this analysis.

GLOBULETS.

Governor McClellan now.

Victor Emmanuel is to be buried to-day.

Greenbacks are worth now about 98 per cent in gold.

The planet Venus was at its brightest for the year last night.

The United States life saving service rescued during 1877 7,461 lives and $1,718,647 worth of property.

The book containing the applications for space in the American section of the Paris exposition is closed.

It is estimated that there are in the United States 200,000 opium eaters who consume 6,125,388 grains daily.

The Eastern money lenders' threat against the West was well answered in Senator Voorhees' peroration yesterday.

Mr. Wood's proposed tariff bill provides for only 500 dutiable classes of goods, in place of over 1,600 now on the tariff list.

The silver dollar was obsolete in 1873 as a legal tender, say the goldites. Why then was it undertaken to abolish an obsolete thing?

The suspended Chicago pawnbroker paid two per cent. a month on his borrowed capital. In the long run that beat his cent per cent. business.

The man who answers questions for the Cincinnati Commercial says a marriage ought not to be postponed on account of any weather short of an earthquake.

The total amount of grain in store at Chicago last Monday was 2,888,000 bushels. At the corresponding time of last year the amount in store was 7,100,000 bushels.

Mexican silver dollars, which were equally legal tender with the United States silver dollar, are and equal to them in standard silver, are now worth about 96 per cent in gold.

Sixteen hundred persons passed through Chattanooga in December en route to Texas. There is a large and increasing migration from Alabama and North Carolina to the Lone Star State.

Hell was the principle subject of discourse in New York churches Sunday. To Christians it ought not to matter much whether there is a hell or not. Let the sinners agitate themselves over that question.

The needy shoemakers of Lynn, Mass., received assistance in money and provisions before they had been one day on their strike. The needy, however are but a small proportion of the three thousand who have quit work.

The first annual regatta of the Mississippi rowing association is to be held in June next, at Peoria. The citizens have already pledged $200,000 to cover expenses, and the arrangements it is promised will be on an extensive scale.

Mackey, the American who gave a grand dinner to Grant in Paris, is accused of meditating the purchase of the title of Count. If so, his countrymen will give him several titles without charge. They will count him a snob, a fool, a sapshead, etc.

Jeff. Davis says that Gen. Harney in youth was physically the finest man he ever saw—tall, straight, manly, broad-shouldered, gunpowdered, and able to run faster than all most any Indian. "He once won a race with a dog and was a wonderful hunter and boatman."

Blaine's highest vote in the Cincinnati convention was on the last ballot, when the vote stood Blaine 351, Hayes 384, Brewster 31. It was a narrow escape, and Blaine must feel happy when he thinks he did escape the chance and the temptation of becoming a fraudulent President.

If we cannot fatten on human gore in the indirect way of having our markets enlarged and selling prices increased by a general European war, we can console ourselves with the charitable reflection that England and Germany are as badly afflicted as is our country, with hard times.

The leading advocates of silver re-monetization do not agree with the goldites that the silver bill lost votes during the recess. They claim, instead, that votes have been gained for the silver bill in Congress by members discovering during their holiday visits that there is no escape from the demand of the people for silver.

President Diaz of Mexico says the United States government exacts, as a condition of recognition, a pledge that forced loans shall not be imposed upon American citizens in that country. Of what use is it to exact such a pledge? The next revolutionary leader who seizes the office now filled by Diaz will not be bound by the promise.

Senator Christianity, it is reported, refuses to sign the report proposed by Senator Angus Cameron, of Wisconsin, for the committee which visited South Carolina last fall. The report was written by James Redpath, the notorious bloody-shirt correspondent, and probably contains more flights of a lying imagination than Mr. Christianity can endorse.

Unless the Senate and House at Washington adopt some measures to secure a better attendance of their members and full votes on all questions of importance, it will be in order for the leading newspapers of the country to apply a corrective, by publishing each morning a list of the absent or not voting Senators and Representatives, with the names of those absent, and the reasons for their absence, as shown by the record.

Senator Christianity, it is reported, refuses to sign the report proposed by Senator Angus Cameron, of Wisconsin, for the committee which visited South Carolina last fall. The report was written by James Redpath, the notorious bloody-shirt correspondent, and probably contains more flights of a lying imagination than Mr. Christianity can endorse.

Unless the Senate and House at Washington adopt some measures to secure a better attendance of their members and full votes on all questions of importance, it will be in order for the leading newspapers of the country to apply a corrective, by publishing each morning a list of the absent or not voting Senators and Representatives, with the names of those absent, and the reasons for their absence, as shown by the record.

Senator Christianity, it is reported, refuses to sign the report proposed by Senator Angus Cameron, of Wisconsin, for the committee which visited South Carolina last fall. The report was written by James Redpath, the notorious bloody-shirt correspondent, and probably contains more flights of a lying imagination than Mr. Christianity can endorse.

Unless the Senate and House at Washington adopt some measures to secure a better attendance of their members and full votes on all questions of importance, it will be in order for the leading newspapers of the country to apply a corrective, by publishing each morning a list of the absent or not voting Senators and Representatives, with the names of those absent, and the reasons for their absence, as shown by the record.

Senator Christianity, it is reported, refuses to sign the report proposed by Senator Angus Cameron, of Wisconsin, for the committee which visited South Carolina last fall. The report was written by James Redpath, the notorious bloody-shirt correspondent, and probably contains more flights of a lying imagination than Mr. Christianity can endorse.

Unless the Senate and House at Washington adopt some measures to secure a better attendance of their members and full votes on all questions of importance, it will be in order for the leading newspapers of the country to apply a corrective, by publishing each morning a list of the absent or not voting Senators and Representatives, with the names of those absent, and the reasons for their absence, as shown by the record.

Senator Christianity, it is reported, refuses to sign the report proposed by Senator Angus Cameron, of Wisconsin, for the committee which visited South Carolina last fall. The report was written by James Redpath, the notorious bloody-shirt correspondent, and probably contains more flights of a lying imagination than Mr. Christianity can endorse.

Unless the Senate and House at Washington adopt some measures to secure a better attendance of their members and full votes on all questions of importance, it will be in order for the leading newspapers of the country to apply a corrective, by publishing each morning a list of the absent or not voting Senators and Representatives, with the names of those absent, and the reasons for their absence, as shown by the record.

Senator Christianity, it is reported, refuses to sign the report proposed by Senator Angus Cameron, of Wisconsin, for the committee which visited South Carolina last fall. The report was written by James Redpath, the notorious bloody-shirt correspondent, and probably contains more flights of a lying imagination than Mr. Christianity can endorse.

Unless the Senate and House at Washington adopt some measures to secure a better attendance of their members and full votes on all questions of importance, it will be in order for the leading newspapers of the country to apply a corrective, by publishing each morning a list of the absent or not voting Senators and Representatives, with the names of those absent, and the reasons for their absence, as shown by the record.

Senator Christianity, it is reported, refuses to sign the report proposed by Senator Angus Cameron, of Wisconsin, for the committee which visited South Carolina last fall. The report was written by James Redpath, the notorious bloody-shirt correspondent, and probably contains more flights of a lying imagination than Mr. Christianity can endorse.

Unless the Senate and House at Washington adopt some measures to secure a better attendance of their members and full votes on all questions of importance, it will be in order for the leading newspapers of the country to apply a corrective, by publishing each morning a list of the absent or not voting Senators and Representatives, with the names of those absent, and the reasons for their absence, as shown by the record.

Senator Christianity, it is reported, refuses to sign the report proposed by Senator Angus Cameron, of Wisconsin, for the committee which visited South Carolina last fall. The report was written by James Redpath, the notorious bloody-shirt correspondent, and probably contains more flights of a lying imagination than Mr. Christianity can endorse.

Unless the Senate and House at Washington adopt some measures to secure a better attendance of their members and full votes on all questions of importance, it will be in order for the leading newspapers of the country to apply a corrective, by publishing each morning a list of the absent or not voting Senators and Representatives, with the names of those absent, and the reasons for their absence, as shown by the record.

Senator Christianity, it is reported, refuses to sign the report proposed by Senator Angus Cameron, of Wisconsin, for the committee which visited South Carolina last fall. The report was written by James Redpath, the notorious bloody-shirt correspondent, and probably contains more flights of a lying imagination than Mr. Christianity can endorse.

Unless the Senate and House at Washington adopt some measures to secure a better attendance of their members and full votes on all questions of importance, it will be in order for the leading newspapers of the country to apply a corrective, by publishing each morning a list of the absent or not voting Senators and Representatives, with the names of those absent, and the reasons for their absence, as shown by the record.

Senator Christianity, it is reported, refuses to sign the report proposed by Senator Angus Cameron, of Wisconsin, for the committee which visited South Carolina last fall. The report was written by James Redpath, the notorious bloody-shirt correspondent, and probably contains more flights of a lying imagination than Mr. Christianity can endorse.

Unless the Senate and House at Washington adopt some measures to secure a better attendance of their members and full votes on all questions of importance, it will be in order for the leading newspapers of the country to apply a corrective, by publishing each morning a list of the absent or not voting Senators and Representatives, with the names of those absent, and the reasons for their absence, as shown by the record.

Senator Christianity, it is reported, refuses to sign the report proposed by Senator Angus Cameron, of Wisconsin, for the committee which visited South Carolina last fall. The report was written by James Redpath, the notorious bloody-shirt correspondent, and probably contains more flights of a lying imagination than Mr. Christianity can endorse.

Unless the Senate and House at Washington adopt some measures to secure a better attendance of their members and full votes on all questions of importance, it will be in order for the leading newspapers of the country to apply a corrective, by publishing each morning a list of the absent or not voting Senators and Representatives, with the names of those absent, and the reasons for their absence, as shown by the record.

Senator Christianity, it is reported, refuses to sign the report proposed by Senator Angus Cameron, of Wisconsin, for the committee which visited South Carolina last fall. The report was written by James Redpath, the notorious bloody-shirt correspondent, and probably contains more flights of a lying imagination than Mr. Christianity can endorse.

Unless the Senate and House at Washington adopt some measures to secure a better attendance of their members and full votes on all questions of importance, it will be in order for the leading newspapers of the country to apply a corrective, by publishing each morning a list of the absent or not voting Senators and Representatives, with the names of those absent, and the reasons for their absence, as shown by the record.

Senator Christianity, it is reported, refuses to sign the report proposed by Senator Angus Cameron, of Wisconsin, for the committee which visited South Carolina last fall. The report was written by James Redpath, the notorious bloody-shirt correspondent, and probably contains more flights of a lying imagination than Mr. Christianity can endorse.

Unless the Senate and House at Washington adopt some measures to secure a better attendance of their members and full votes on all questions of importance, it will be in order for the leading newspapers of the country to apply a corrective, by publishing each morning a list of the absent or not voting Senators and Representatives, with the names of those absent, and the reasons for their absence, as shown by the record.

Senator Christianity, it is reported, refuses to sign the report proposed by Senator Angus Cameron, of Wisconsin, for the committee which visited South Carolina last fall. The report was written by James Redpath, the notorious bloody-shirt correspondent, and probably contains more flights of a lying imagination than Mr. Christianity can endorse.

Unless the Senate and House at Washington adopt some measures to secure a better attendance of their members and full votes on all questions of importance, it will be in order for the leading newspapers of the country to apply a corrective, by publishing each morning a list of the absent or not voting Senators and Representatives, with the names of those absent, and the reasons for their absence, as shown by the record.

Senator Christianity, it is reported, refuses to sign the report proposed by Senator Angus Cameron, of Wisconsin, for the committee which visited South Carolina last fall. The report was written by James Redpath, the notorious bloody-shirt correspondent, and probably contains more flights of a lying imagination than Mr. Christianity can endorse.

Unless the Senate and House at Washington adopt some measures to secure a better attendance of their members and full votes on all questions of importance, it will be in order for the leading newspapers of the country to apply a corrective, by publishing each morning a list of the absent or not voting Senators and Representatives, with the names of those absent, and the reasons for their absence, as shown by the record.

Senator Christianity, it is reported, refuses to sign the report proposed by Senator Angus Cameron, of Wisconsin, for the committee which visited South Carolina last fall. The report was written by James Redpath, the notorious bloody-shirt correspondent, and probably contains more flights of a lying imagination than Mr. Christianity can endorse.

Unless the Senate and House at Washington adopt some measures to secure a better attendance of their members and full votes on all questions of importance, it will be in order for the leading newspapers of the country to apply a corrective, by publishing each morning a list of the absent or not voting Senators and Representatives, with the names of those absent, and the reasons for their absence, as shown by the record.

Senator Christianity, it is reported, refuses to sign the report proposed by Senator Angus Cameron, of Wisconsin, for the committee which visited South Carolina last fall. The report was written by James Redpath, the notorious bloody-shirt correspondent, and probably contains more flights of a lying imagination than Mr. Christianity can endorse.

Unless the Senate and House at Washington adopt some measures to secure a better attendance of their members and full votes on all questions of importance, it will be in order for the leading newspapers of the country to apply a corrective, by publishing each morning a list of the absent or not voting Senators and Representatives, with the names of those absent, and the reasons for their absence, as shown by the record.

Senator Christianity, it is reported, refuses to sign the report proposed by Senator Angus Cameron, of Wisconsin, for the committee which visited South Carolina last fall. The report was written by James Redpath, the notorious bloody-shirt correspondent, and probably contains more flights of a lying imagination than Mr. Christianity can endorse.

Unless the Senate and House at Washington adopt some measures to secure a better attendance of their members and full votes on all questions of importance, it will be in order for the leading newspapers of the country to apply a corrective, by publishing each morning a list of the absent or not voting Senators and Representatives, with the names of those absent, and the reasons for their absence, as shown by the record.

Senator Christianity, it is reported, refuses to sign the report proposed by Senator Angus Cameron, of Wisconsin, for the committee which visited South Carolina last fall. The report was written by James Redpath, the notorious bloody-shirt correspondent, and probably contains more flights of a lying imagination than Mr. Christianity can endorse.

Unless the Senate and House at Washington adopt some measures to secure a better attendance of their members and full votes on all questions of importance, it will be in order for the leading newspapers of the country to apply a corrective, by publishing each morning a list of the absent or not voting Senators and Representatives, with the names of those absent, and the reasons for their absence, as shown by the record.

Senator Christianity, it is reported, refuses to sign the report proposed by Senator Angus Cameron, of Wisconsin, for the committee which visited South Carolina last fall. The report was written by James Redpath, the notorious bloody-shirt correspondent, and probably contains more flights of a lying imagination than Mr. Christianity can endorse.

Unless the Senate and House at Washington adopt some measures to secure a better attendance of their members and full votes on all questions of importance, it will be in order for the leading newspapers of the country to apply a corrective, by publishing each morning a list of the absent or not voting Senators and Representatives, with the names of those absent, and the reasons for their absence, as shown by the record.

Senator Christianity, it is reported, refuses to sign the report proposed by Senator Angus Cameron, of Wisconsin, for the committee which visited South Carolina last fall. The report was written by James Redpath, the notorious bloody-shirt correspondent, and probably contains more flights of a lying imagination than Mr. Christianity can endorse.

Unless the Senate and House at Washington adopt some measures to secure a better attendance of their members and full votes on all questions of importance, it will be in order for the leading newspapers of the country to apply a corrective, by publishing each morning a list of the absent or not voting Senators and Representatives, with the names of those absent, and the reasons for their absence, as shown by the record.

Senator Christianity, it is reported, refuses to sign the report proposed by Senator Angus Cameron, of Wisconsin, for the committee which visited South Carolina last fall. The report was written by James Redpath, the notorious bloody-shirt correspondent, and probably contains more flights of a lying imagination than Mr. Christianity can endorse.

Unless the Senate and House at Washington adopt some measures to secure a better attendance of their members and full votes on all questions of importance, it will be in order for the leading newspapers of the country to apply a corrective, by publishing each morning a list of the absent or not voting Senators and Representatives, with the names of those absent, and the reasons for their absence, as shown by the record.

Senator Christianity, it is reported, refuses to sign the report proposed by Senator Angus Cameron, of Wisconsin, for the committee which visited South Carolina last fall. The report was written by James Redpath, the notorious bloody-shirt correspondent, and probably contains more flights of a lying imagination than Mr. Christianity can endorse.

Unless the Senate and House at Washington adopt some measures to secure a better attendance of their members and full votes on all questions of importance, it will be in order for the leading newspapers of the country to apply a corrective, by publishing each morning a list of the absent or not voting Senators and Representatives, with the names of those absent, and the reasons for their absence, as shown by the record.

Senator Christianity, it is reported, refuses to sign the report proposed by Senator Angus Cameron, of Wisconsin, for the committee which visited South Carolina last fall. The report was written by James Redpath, the notorious bloody-shirt correspondent, and probably contains more flights of a lying imagination than Mr. Christianity can endorse.

Unless the Senate and House at Washington adopt some measures to secure a better attendance of their members and full votes on all questions of importance, it will be in order for the leading newspapers of the country to apply a corrective, by publishing each morning a list of the absent or not voting Senators and Representatives, with the names of those absent, and the reasons for their absence, as shown by the record.

Senator Christianity, it is reported, refuses to sign the report proposed by Senator Angus Cameron, of Wisconsin, for the committee which visited South Carolina last fall. The report was written by James Redpath, the notorious bloody-shirt correspondent, and probably contains more flights of a lying imagination than Mr. Christianity can endorse.

Unless the Senate and House at Washington adopt some measures to secure a better attendance of their members and full votes on all questions of importance, it will be in order for the leading newspapers of the country to apply a corrective, by publishing each morning a list of the absent or not voting Senators and Representatives, with the names of those absent, and the reasons for their absence, as shown by the record.

Senator Christianity, it is reported, refuses to sign the report proposed by Senator Angus Cameron, of Wisconsin, for the committee which visited South Carolina last fall. The report was written by James Redpath, the notorious bloody-shirt correspondent, and probably contains more flights of a lying imagination than Mr. Christianity can endorse.

Unless the Senate and House at Washington adopt some measures to secure a better attendance of their members and full votes on all questions of importance, it will be in order for the leading newspapers of the country to apply a corrective, by publishing each morning a list of the absent or not voting Senators and Representatives, with the names of those absent, and the reasons for their absence, as shown by the record.

ASSEMBLED WISDOM.

HOW IT WORKS ITS WAY ALONG.

Announcement of Committees in Both Houses—Speech by Hon. I. Donnelly on the Silver Question.

Senate—Sixth Working Day.

The special order, the resolution favoring the re-monetization of silver and the repeal of the suspension act, and the fact that it was understood that Senator Donnelly would make the principal argument in favor of the resolution, drew to the Senate Chamber to-day quite a number of spectators, including several ladies, while several members of the House improved the opportunity to brighten up on the question.

Mr. Donnelly handled the question with great force, reading largely from authorities, and made a marked impression upon the minds of his hearers, as was shown in the close attention paid to him throughout. Our report below shows the action taken.

The announcement of the standing committee was a relief to the members, many of whom felt a natural anxiety as to the positions they would be called upon to fill. The expression of opinion was that President Wakefield had exercised good judgment in his selections. St. Paul has reason for congratulation in the fact that her Republican Senator, C. D. Gilliland, has the chairmanship of the railroad committee, one of the most important, and also has a place in the judiciary committee, while Senator Morton, the Democratic Senator, has a place on several important committees.

NORMAL SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

St. Paul, Jan. 16.—On motion of Senator Drexler the committee on public buildings were instructed to examine the Normal School buildings and report such repairs, if any, as are needed to prevent loss and destruction of property.

BILLS INTRODUCED.

By Senator McClure, amending the act relating to the collection of duties on goods imported by the United States.

By Senator Smith, to allow the United States to issue bonds to fund the floating debt of the country.

By Senator Rice, allowing the catching of fish in Kandiyooh county with nets at all seasons of the year. He asked that the rule be changed so that the bill put upon its passage, position is closed by Senator McClure and Morton, and the bill took its regular course.

By Senator C. D. Gilliland, making regular in Ramsey county a county charge. It makes paupers a charge upon relative upon penalty paupers collectible by law, poor only to be county charges when relatives cannot be found with means to support such persons.

By Senator C. D. Gilliland, making regular in Ramsey county a county charge. It makes paupers a charge upon relative upon penalty paupers collectible by law, poor only to be county charges when relatives cannot be found with means to support such persons.

By Senator C. D. Gilliland, making regular in Ramsey county a county charge. It makes paupers a charge upon relative upon penalty paupers collectible by law, poor only to be county charges when relatives cannot be found with means to support such persons.

By Senator C. D. Gilliland, making regular in Ramsey county a county charge. It makes paupers a charge upon relative upon penalty paupers collectible by law, poor only to be county charges when relatives cannot be found with means to support such persons.

By Senator C. D. Gilliland, making regular in Ramsey county a county charge. It makes paupers a charge upon relative upon penalty paupers collectible by law, poor only to be county charges when relatives cannot be found with means to support such persons.

By Senator C. D. Gilliland, making regular in Ramsey county a county charge. It makes paupers a charge upon relative upon penalty paupers collectible by law, poor only to be county charges when relatives cannot be found with means to support such persons.

By Senator C. D. Gilliland, making regular in Ramsey county a county charge. It makes paupers a charge upon relative upon penalty paupers collectible by law, poor only to be county charges when relatives cannot be found with means to support such persons.

By Senator C. D. Gilliland, making regular in Ramsey county a county charge. It makes paupers a charge upon relative upon penalty paupers collectible by law, poor only to be county charges when relatives cannot be found with means to support such persons.

By Senator C. D. Gilliland, making regular in Ramsey county a county charge. It makes paupers a charge upon relative upon penalty paupers collectible by law, poor only to be county charges when relatives cannot be found with means to support such persons.

By Senator C. D. Gilliland, making regular in Ramsey county a county charge. It makes paupers a charge upon relative upon penalty paupers collectible by law, poor only to be county charges when relatives cannot be found with means to support such persons.

By Senator C. D. Gilliland, making regular in Ramsey county a county charge. It makes paupers a charge upon relative upon penalty paupers collectible by law, poor only to be county charges when relatives cannot be found with means to support such persons.

By Senator C. D. Gilliland, making regular in Ramsey county a county charge. It makes paupers a charge upon relative upon penalty paupers collectible by law, poor only to be county charges when relatives cannot be found with means to support such persons.

By Senator C. D. Gilliland, making regular in Ramsey county a county charge. It makes paupers a charge upon relative upon penalty paupers collectible by law, poor only to be county charges when relatives cannot be found with means to support such persons.

By Senator C. D. Gilliland, making regular in Ramsey county a county charge. It makes paupers a charge upon relative upon penalty paupers collectible by law, poor only to be county charges when relatives cannot be found with means to support such persons.

By Senator C. D. Gilliland, making regular in Ramsey county a county charge. It makes paupers a charge upon relative upon penalty paupers collectible by law, poor only to be county charges when relatives cannot be found with means to support such persons.

By Senator C. D. Gilliland, making regular in Ramsey county a county charge. It makes paupers a charge upon relative upon penalty paupers collectible by law, poor only to be county charges when relatives cannot be found with means to support such persons.

By Senator C. D. Gilliland, making regular in Ramsey county a county charge. It makes paupers a charge upon relative upon penalty paupers collectible by law, poor only to be county charges when relatives cannot be found with means to support such persons.

By Senator C. D. Gilliland, making regular in Ramsey county a county charge. It makes paupers a charge upon relative upon penalty paupers collectible by law, poor only to be county charges when relatives cannot be found with means to support such persons.

By Senator C. D. Gilliland, making regular in Ramsey county a county charge. It makes paupers a charge upon relative upon penalty paupers collectible by law, poor only to be county charges when relatives cannot be found with means to support such persons.

By Senator C. D. Gilliland, making regular in Ramsey county a county charge. It makes paupers a charge upon relative upon penalty paupers collectible by law, poor only to be county charges when relatives cannot be found with means to support such persons.

By Senator C. D. Gilliland, making regular in Ramsey county a county charge. It makes paupers a charge upon relative upon penalty paupers collectible by law, poor only to be county charges when relatives cannot be found with means to support such persons.

By Senator C. D. Gilliland, making regular in Ramsey county a county charge. It makes paupers a charge upon relative upon penalty paupers collectible by law, poor only to be county charges when relatives cannot be found with means to support such persons.

By Senator C. D. Gilliland, making regular in Ramsey county a county charge. It makes pa