RESPONSE OF THE GLOBE.

Times are unusually active in this enterprising borough. Farmers in this vicinity have been sailing under short canvas for fear of the hoppers, for several years past, and though injured somewhat, yet in general, they are much better off than some parts of the State that have never seen a locust, and are generally improving their places and buying necessary commodities.

THE FEATURE OF SPECIAL INTEREST.

The feature of special interest at present is the advent of the dramatic company of Walters and Steinmetz, who are presenting to the people of the place some of the finest dramas of the day.

THE MANY PATRONS OF THE GLOBE.

The many patrons of the GLOBE here as well as elsewhere, were much pleased with their paper of the 10th, and style it the best single copy of a daily newspaper ever issued in the State.

THE PRISONER ACCUSED OF CRIMINAL ASSAULT UPON A GIRL OF THIRTEEN—AN INTERVIEW WITH THE PRISONER—VISIT TO THE SCENE BY A "GLOBE" REPORTER—THE SUMMER RESORT OF THE JOHNSON FAMILY—WHAT THE PARENTS OF THE GIRL SAY—A TALK WITH THE GIRL AND ALSO WITH DR. MATTOCKS.

About 6 o'clock yesterday morning, a couple of Swedes named Peter Nelson and Nels Johnson delivered at the police station as a prisoner a third Swede named John Olson, whom the two former charged with having, during the previous night, violated the person of Johanna Nelson, aged thirteen years, the daughter of the above named Peter Nelson. Olson was at once locked up to await judicial investigation.

ABOUT 6 O'CLOCK YESTERDAY MORNING.

A GLOBE reporter having been detailed to investigate the matter, the prisoner, Olson, was visited in his cell at the police station. He is a dark complexioned man, somewhat above the average stature, and said he was aged 48 years.

HE LOOKED AS IF HE HAD BEEN DRINKING HEAVILY.

His eyes being blood-shot and heavy, and the result of some "alcohol," as he termed it, he appeared to be in a state of intoxication. He speaks English very imperfectly, and, as in addition thereto, he is reported to be of the average of intelligence, he was very difficult to understand.

HE STATED THAT HE HAD KNOWN NOTHING OF THE MATTER.

He stated that he had known nothing of the matter, and that he had been charged in short, he was, as he said, drunk at the time it happened, if it happened at all, having seen nothing of the "kicking" administered to him on the night previous. CHANDLER'S FUR TO FLY.

[Chaska Valley Herald.]

Maj. Strait will return home about the 20th of this month, and then will make Chandler's fur fly, from that time on until the meeting of the convention. We do enjoy this little "pleasantness" of our Republican friends.

OH! NO.

[Morris Tribune.] That the district convention to be held at Minneapolis, was known by parties here fully two weeks before the committee met. It wasn't a put up job, oh! no.
