An exchange remarks that "Indian agents and religion don't seem to harmonize." True. Religion stands very little show where the opportunities to steal are so great as at an Indian agency.

The Chicago Times at last concedes that the Potter committee has made out a case—that it has developed facts sufficient for the moral, though not the legal, impeachment of Hayes.

ORVILLE GRANT thinks that his big brother, although he now declares that he will on no account accept the Presidential nomination in 1880, can be educated up to it.

A HUNDRED and forty rounds of ammunition is the persuasive power taken by Mac Kenzie's troops across the Rio Grande to bring the Mexican horse thieves to terms.

It is somewhat astonishing that Gov. Hampton should have deemed it necessary to send his attorney general to Washington to explain the conflict of authority between the State and federal officers of South Carolina.

The dissection of the African gorilla which, recently died at the New York zoological garden, is said by Dr. Chapman to be strongly corroborative of the Darwinian theory.

It is not at all likely that the beheading of Hoedel, the man who attempted the assassination of the Emperor William, will have a tendency to repress socialism in Germany.

The queen's message on the prorogation of parliament on Friday is as brief and concise a history of the diplomatic transactions of the past year as could well be written.

Another wealthy New Englander, who claims to be perfectly sane, has been incarcerated in a lunatic asylum, and a great commotion has been created.

ity, hitherto dormant, may be aroused to such activity as to render their incarceration a matter of expediency.

THE YELLOW SCOURGE.

The terrible ravages caused thus far and the alarming spread of the yellow fever epidemic call for the exercise of a broad charity by those who are remote from the scenes of the pestilence.

Already a loud call has come from Mississippi for aid from the North. The entire town of Grenada has been depopulated by the plague, until less than two hundred sound persons remain to nurse and provide for the large number down with the fever.

Clinton avenue M. E. church. Preaching by the pastor, Rev. David Tice, at 10.30 A. M. and 8 P. M.

THE SOCIAL GRACES.

Finally, be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another; love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous.

pleasit it is for brethren to dwell together in unity?"

Love and pity are two other attributes of the true Christian. Love for each other and for all mankind is the corner-stone of the church; pity for the unfortunate and sorrowing is one of the most beautiful of the Christian graces.

Courtesy is another of the virtues enjoined upon the church. It is observed to a certain extent among "our set."

The practice of the social graces ought to be particularly enjoined upon the members by the clergy. For greater unity between them we do not look until real Christianity becomes the rule instead of the exception in our churches.

Mr. Spurgeon is ill again. His church is, however, engaged in preparing to celebrate the completion of the twenty-fifth year of his pastorate.

The Rev. Dr. Alex. Burns, of Simpson Centenary College, Iowa, has accepted the principalship of the Wesleyan Female College, Hamilton, Kan.

The foundation for a $500,000 Jesuit college in San Francisco has been begun. It will be in every respect an institution with all the requirements for modern education.

To add to the attractions of the preaching of Mr. Rosvalley, the converted Jew, it is announced that during the services he will sing some hymns in Hebrew and English.

In Berlin, with a population of 1,000,000, only 35,000 persons attend public worship, and there are 20,000 burials every year without any religious service. This is worse than Chicago.

Norwich Bulletin: A prudent lady applied to a free-Bible distributor the other day for a large copy. She said it was handy to press flowers in, and it made a nice ornament for the centre-table.

"Young man," said a minister to a youth of his congregation, "do you know what relations you sustain in the world?" "Yes, sir; two cousins and a grandmother; but I do not intend to sustain them much longer."

Two Mormon apostles have been preaching in Switzerland with some success, especially among the women, but the people of Orbe mobbed them, and the police declined to protect them and forbade them to hold their services.

A woman of Godrich, Ont., aged 53 has just received a divine message to go to Hamilton and fast. She has obeyed, and passed seventeen days without tasting food. On a previous occasion she says she fasted forty-five days.

Dr. Haven, of the Methodist Episcopal church of America, has been suggesting an ecumenical Methodist conference to the Wesleyans of England, who have appointed a committee to consider the matter and report next year.

The Catholics' Young Men's National Union will petition to Congress for the appointment of Catholic chaplains in the army and navy. The Union claims that the rank and file of the army and navy are more than two-thirds Catholics.

A Presbyterian has issued a book called "Baptism in a Nutshell." A Baptist paper jocosely remarks the appropriateness of this for Presbyterian brethren, as a nutshell will hold enough water for purposes of sprinkling.

The ordinary sacred concerts which continue to be tolerated are sacred frauds. At a sacred concert in Boston the leading cantatrice sang "Pretty as a picture," which was encored four times, and "Don't Tickle Me" was called for three times.

Burlington Haulage: It would make a stone image turn green with envy to observe the expression of profound abstraction that settles down on the face of a worshipper when the contribution basket gets within about three pews of him.

Dr. Watson, of Evansville, Ind., says that since the Ohio & Mississippi railroad changed their whole track from St. Louis to Cincinnati, one Sabbath day, there has been more accidents and deaths upon it than ever before, and travelers shun it whenever they can.

The steeple of the Episcopal Church of the Holy Trinity in Brooklyn is now being thoroughly repaired. An elaborate scaffolding has been erected from the pavement to the top of the spire. Every worn and broken stone is to be removed and new ones substituted.

The opposition officially made in England by ecclesiastics of the Established Church to the Reformed Episcopal Church, has greatly tended to draw attention to the new movement, and to swell its ranks. The Reformed Episcopalians are exceedingly happy over the notice they have had.

The First Presbyterian church of Cincinnati has just celebrated its semi-centennial with great rejoicings, and the gathering of as many of its old members as could conveniently be brought together. Twenty-four of the original 333 who formed the church in 1828 were at this festival.

Lord Penance has delivered judgment in the matter of the last appeal with reference to the famous Hatham case of ritualism. His lordship now rules that the side screen and the additional step to the altar must be removed, but that the chancel screen may remain, with the cross upon it, though the gates must be removed and the panels painted, so as not to exhibit any representation on the screen.

An impostor has appeared in Beirut, Syria, claiming to be Jesus Christ. His first act was to have his photograph taken for general distribution. An old lady wanted him to try his powers of healing on her, but he declined making an attempt on account of urgent business at Jerusalem. He said his time had not yet come for the performance of miracles, but that when it did he would show the people something very striking in that line.
