

THE SWAMP SCOURGE

YELLOW JACK'S HAUNT AT VARIOUS PLACES

The Disease Slowly Spreading at Memphis - Situation at Grenada and New Orleans - Unchanged Reports From Other Points Encouraging - Contributions for the Sufferers.

GRENADEA.

GRENADEA, Aug. 19.-The mortality is terrible. The scene cannot be described. Dr. Mandeville, an experienced yellow fever physician, says he never saw anything that would begin to compare with it.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 19.-The chief of police has received instructions to remove the bills from the iron crenelated wagons, and to instruct drivers of vehicles to drive slow when passing in localities where there are persons suffering from fever.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 19.-The twenty-seventh annual meeting of the American association for the advancement of science will convene here Wednesday.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.-The collector at Pensacola telegraphs there is no yellow fever in that harbor, nor has there been this season.

BALTIMORE, Md., Aug. 19.-The police of this city have received $570 from Memphis and Grenada. A dispatch from Memphis says that the disease has been entirely eradicated in this city to-day for Grenada is $300.

EUROPEAN EVENTS.

Movements of the Porte Indicating a Determination to Stillify the Berlin Congress - Progress of Austrian Occupation - Important Session of the International Monetary Congress.

THE MONETARY CONGRESS. PARIS, Aug. 19.-At today's sitting of the international monetary conference Groesbeck explained the monetary condition of the United States treasury, showing its advance towards redemption of specie payment.

PORT SAID, Aug. 19.-Two new cases and one death. LITTLE ROCK. LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Aug. 19.-At a meeting of the board of health to-day, the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That there has been no case of yellow fever reported to the board of health, or within its knowledge, that there is no occasion for alarm or flight concerning its introduction here during the existence of the rigid quarantine adopted by the board, and that the health of the city is satisfactory.

MOBILE, Aug. 19.-The health officer certifies to the board of trade there is no case of yellow fever in the city or county.

PENSACOLA. WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.-The collector at Pensacola telegraphs there is no yellow fever in that harbor, nor has there been this season.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.-The following telegrams explain themselves: WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.-Hon. C. L. Northrop, United States district attorney, Greenville, S. C., has your dispatch in regard to Redmond. His frauds and violence led directly to the killing of Ladd.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 19.-The board of health of this city has received the following in executive session this evening: WHEREAS, From telegrams received by this department, and from published accounts in various papers, it is ascertained that there are misrepresentations, either through ignorance or malice, have been and are continued to be made in relation to the existence of yellow fever in this city; therefore

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 19.-New cases, 129; deaths, 42. THE MARKS. The presiding officers of the cotton exchange and chamber of commerce have addressed a communication to the postmaster general protesting against interference with the United States mail by quarantining authorities in towns and cities of the States of Arkansas, Texas, Tennessee, Louisiana and Mississippi.

ST. PETER. The investigation Not Being in Progress, and the "Globe" Failing to Arrive, Made a Dull Monday. [Special Telegram to the Globe.] ST. PETER, Minn., Aug. 19.-It has been a remarkable day at St. Peter, for the investigating committee has not been in session, and people well had exhausted the subjects brought under particular notice by Saturday's proceedings.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 19.-E. B. Martindale filed his voluntary petition in bankruptcy to-day. His liabilities, amounting in the aggregate to $310,000, all secured by mortgages on his real estate, valued at $593,000. The valuation is about two-thirds of the appraised value of the property made when the mortgages were executed.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 19.-E. B. Martindale filed his voluntary petition in bankruptcy to-day. His liabilities, amounting in the aggregate to $310,000, all secured by mortgages on his real estate, valued at $593,000. The valuation is about two-thirds of the appraised value of the property made when the mortgages were executed.

VALUABLE TRAIN BELONGED BY INDIANS. CHICAGO, Aug. 19.-Col. Geo. L. Shupe, of Idaho, a merchant trader, there was here to-day a train of his valued at $100,000, which he had information had been beleaguered by Indians. His partner, McCaleb, was killed by the savages, and the train was captured by them. The whole train would be captured and destroyed. Gen. Sheridan was absent, and he was going to Omaha to seek assistance from Gen. Crook.

THE GENERAL LAW COUNCIL TO HOLD. ST. LOUIS, Aug. 19.-Judge Snyder, of the circuit court at Belleville, Ill., to-day decided that the general law council of East St. Louis may hold the city records, books, papers, etc., pending the final decision by the supreme court as to which council and which officers were legally elected.

SENATOR BLAINE PAINFULLY INJURED. AUGUSTA, Me., Aug. 19.-Senator Blaine and family, while driving yesterday, were caught in a violent storm, which frightened the horse, and it ran away, wrecking the carriage. The Senator only was injured, receiving many painful bruises.

WISCONSIN REPUBLICAN CAMPAIGN. [Special Telegram to the Globe.] MADISON, Aug. 19.-Hon. Horace Rublee, chairman of the Republican State central committee returned here after ten days' absence to-day, and the work of the campaign will be vigorously commenced.

LARGE GRAIN RECEIPTS AT TOLEDO. TOLEDO, O., Aug. 19.-During the forty-eight hours ending at noon to-day, the receipts at this point were: Wheat, 1,100 cars; corn, 220 do; oats, 28 do, an aggregate of 56,000 bushels.

RESUMED WORK. POTTSVILLE, Pa., Aug. 19.-The breaker boys employed for the advance of wages last week resumed work to-day, on the basis of wages previously paid.

ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND. CINCINNATI, O., Aug. 19.-W. J. M. Gordon, wholesale druggist, suspended. Liabilities $100,000.

TURF, BALL AND OAR.

Racing at Saratoga-The League Ball Championship-Fair Oared Race for $1,000.

THE TURF. RACING AT SARATOGA. SARATOGA, Aug. 19.-First race, three-fourths of a mile, won by Pique's Lady Darcy, lapsing Rhodanthemus four lengths behind. Time, 1:19 1/4.

THE LEAGUE BALL CHAMPIONSHIP. CHICAGO, Aug. 19.-The League ball championship match between the Chicago and Boston clubs, which was held at Chicago to-day, resulted in a draw.

THE FAIR OARED RACE. CHICAGO, Aug. 19.-The fair oared race for $1,000, which was held at Chicago to-day, resulted in a draw.

TERRIBLE TRAGEDY.

FATAL ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING AT RUSH CITY.

A Pistol in the Hands of Miss Grace Pratt Discharged, Killing Miss Anna Ruberg - The Ball Tossed Effect in the Forehead and the Girl Dies Without Regaining Consciousness-Self-Murder, Wife-Murder and Other Criminal Deaths-Lake Propeller Sunk, and a Miscellaneous Record of Mishaps.

[Special Telegram to the Globe.] RUSH CITY, Minn., Aug. 19.-The saddest calamity that ever befell our little village occurred this morning at about 8 o'clock. Miss Anna Ruberg being accidentally shot and killed by Miss Grace Pratt, daughter of Capt. F. H. Pratt, of this village. It happened as follows: Miss Ruberg, daughter of John Ruberg, of this place, was at Mr. Pratt's store to purchase some ribbon, and Miss Grace Pratt was chatting and laughing together examining the ribbon, when Grace espied a small cartridge pistol on the shelf behind her, and thinking to show it to Anna, handed it off, but just as it struck the counter, the hammer bit something which caused it to go off while the pistol was within a foot or so of Miss Ruberg.

THE BALL ENTERING HER HEAD. THE BALL ENTERING HER HEAD on the right side and fell forward upon the counter, then upon the floor, and did not utter a word. She was struck senseless, and never knew what hurt her. Miss Pratt was terribly frightened, and uttered scream after scream, and ran into the house, telling her folks what had happened. The neighbors and John Ruberg, when the news came, rushed into the store. Mr. Ruberg with them, and his grief was terrible. The girl was placed upon a couch, and Dr. Lamb called, but nothing could be done. She died about an hour without having recovered her senses. The body was taken to the Swedish Lutheran church, and the sad news communicated as gently as possible to her mother. The shock was terrible, and the mother is nearly bereft of her senses.

HAVING BEEN Hysterically. Miss Pratt, who so unfortunately was the cause of the untimely death of her school-mate, and her mother, Mrs. Pratt, are nearly crazy with grief. The shock has cast a gloom over the town that will be felt for a long time to come. Mr. Ruberg has one other daughter, the youngest, the oldest, Anna, was the pet. She was just past 15 years old, and budding into womanhood. She died about an hour without having recovered her senses. The body was taken to the Swedish Lutheran church, and the sad news communicated as gently as possible to her mother. The shock was terrible, and the mother is nearly bereft of her senses.

THE OARS. BOSTON, Aug. 19.-A match has been made between Faulkner and Reagan of this city, and Ward Bros., for a pair oared race, three miles, for $1,000 a side.

BUTLER'S BID. Address to the Workingmen's Association of New York, in Which He Fairly Straddles His New Political Hobbies. NEW YORK, Aug. 19.-Gen. Butler addressed a meeting of several workingmen associations this afternoon. He said there had not been a fair division in this country, or within the last generation, between capital and enterprise and labor, for the reason that most of the money invested in enterprise was borrowed capital and must pay large interest, and then that interest was to be got again, it must be got out of labor. The whole result of the money invested in enterprise has been in favor of money to men of money. Let all property be taxed just once and no more, then the taxes would be levied on a man with capital, doing nothing for the good of his kind, shall have a better opportunity in society than the man who has no property, and who is content with the only one who would work for the workingman.

MACKENZIE'S RAID. THE TROOPS RETURN TO A STEAMER SHIP WITHOUT ARRESTING A THIEF OR GETTING UP A FIGHT. NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 19.-A Galveston Yacht Club steamer, the "Mackenzie," was captured by the late of the 16th Col. Young, with a battalion of cavalry, crossed the Rio Grande and surrounded New Town. Early in the morning he charged the town, for the purpose of capturing the steamer. The steamer was captured, and the crew of about 300 men, an active and reliable business man. No cause can be assigned for the capture of the steamer, which was a man of independent and depressed, occasioned mostly by poor health. The financial condition of the steamer was not known, but the captain being the only one in possession of the combination of the safe, which is not yet open.

DANVILLE, Va., Aug. 19.-Haddock of Warwick, was instantly killed by lightning last evening, on the way from church. His wife and two children were in the carriage with him. The wife escaped, but the children were seriously injured.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.-Emile Graythers was arrested on board the German steamer Mosel on arrival here yesterday, at the instance of the authorities of Norway, charged with forging bills to the amount of 176,000 marks. The prisoner has consented to return to his native land for trial and will sail on the Mosel.

THE QUINCY, ILL. BANK FAILURE. QUINCY, Ill., Aug. 19.-The following notice was posted on the doors of the First National and Quincy Savings banks this morning: "In order to do equal justice to all parties and to insure the full and speedy payment of all their claims, the directors of the Quincy National Bank and the Quincy Savings Bank have decided to close both banks. Officers and directors of these institutions have decided to close both banks in full, and that they will be paid the cash. Assets now on hand are sufficient to pay a large part of the indebtedness. The action caused by the insolvency of a large manufacturing house of this city. (Signed) C. M. Pomroy, president; U. S. Finford, cashier." The failure of the bank has caused but little or no excitement. Our citizens all feel that the bank will pay its liabilities in full and will resume in a very short time.

WASHINGTON ITEMS. WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.-Subscriptions to the 4 per cent loan to-day, $1,201,000. On and after September 15, a light will be shown from the light-house recently erected on Port Austin reef to Saginaw, Lake Huron. The light will be fixed every for one minute, followed by five consecutive red flashes of twelve seconds each.

FEARS FOR THE U. S. STEAMER WYOMING. WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.-Naval circles are becoming alarmed for the steamer Wyoming, signalled Friday morning last off Cape Henlopen, short of coal and under sail. It is likely the Wyoming was blown off the coast in the recent gale.

ALMOST A CLEAR SWEEP. MONTREAL, O., Aug. 19.-The dividend sheet of the late firm of Bond Bros., brokers, insolvent, shows liabilities $99,000, upon which the assets will only pay a quarter of a cent on the dollar.

DEPRESSING TRADE DOLLARS. CHICAGO, Aug. 19.-The banks of this city to-day refused to pay over 95 cents for trade dollars, and it is said will pay but 90 cents to-morrow.

DOUBLE MURDER IN IOWA.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Aug. 19.-A cold blooded double murder was committed near Pacific Junction, twenty miles south of this city, Saturday evening. The victims were John Tyrans and Wm. Dorn, both about five miles distant, and were found at the side of the road literally riddled with shot.

DOUBLE MURDER IN IOWA. COUNCIL BLUFFS, Aug. 19.-A cold blooded double murder was committed near Pacific Junction, twenty miles south of this city, Saturday evening. The victims were John Tyrans and Wm. Dorn, both about five miles distant, and were found at the side of the road literally riddled with shot. Dorn was known by his fellow laborers to have a hundred dollars on his person when he quit work Saturday evening, and it is supposed this was the incentive to the deed. Circumstances point to a young man named Jas. McCreary, another workman at the quarry, as the guilty party. He was arrested to-day, and his father and brother, John McCreary left the quarry Saturday with a shot gun and when taken into custody he had an unusual quantity of money on his person. Lynching is strongly talked.

HE STARTS ON A JUNKETING TOUR TO MINNESOTA AND CALIFORNIA - CAPTURED BY AN INTERVIEWER AT BUFFALO, HE GIVES HIS VIEWS OF POLITICAL AFFAIRS. CLEVELAND, Ohio, Aug. 19.-Postmaster General Key and party arrived here from the East this evening on their way to Minnesota and California, the party consisting of the postmaster general, his wife and two daughters, S. A. Key and wife, Dr. J. H. Baxter and wife, John Simpson and wife, and others. They left on the early morning train for Chicago.

VIEW OF POLITICS. BUFFALO, Aug. 19.-Postmaster General Key, speaking of the rumors of his candidacy as governor of Tennessee, by the anti-inflation Democrats and Republicans, says: "I have never given it very serious thought as I never have aspired to be governor of Tennessee. As to the rumor associated with General Grant on a Presidential ticket in 1880, the postmaster general answers they would have to find something a great deal worse to say before making him very unpopular. With reference to Southern politics he said the tendency of the Democracy was towards an exclusive legal tender currency, and that the greenback movement would make no progress, that the success of the Democracy in national affairs would result in a general demoralization of the financial situation. As to South Carolina, he said he had no objection to the secession of that State, and that he would support the Union act and general demoralization of the financial situation. As to South Carolina, he said he had no objection to the secession of that State, and that he would support the Union act and general demoralization of the financial situation.

THE SHOCK OF HIS DEATH. A very heavy lightning storm passed over the city early Saturday night, and the lightning struck in several places in the county, burning five or six hay stacks and fatally injuring one small boy. The weather is warm and intensely damp and murky.

THE SHOCK OF HIS DEATH. A very heavy lightning storm passed over the city early Saturday night, and the lightning struck in several places in the county, burning five or six hay stacks and fatally injuring one small boy. The weather is warm and intensely damp and murky.

THE SHOCK OF HIS DEATH. A very heavy lightning storm passed over the city early Saturday night, and the lightning struck in several places in the county, burning five or six hay stacks and fatally injuring one small boy. The weather is warm and intensely damp and murky.

THE SHOCK OF HIS DEATH. A very heavy lightning storm passed over the city early Saturday night, and the lightning struck in several places in the county, burning five or six hay stacks and fatally injuring one small boy. The weather is warm and intensely damp and murky.

THE SHOCK OF HIS DEATH. A very heavy lightning storm passed over the city early Saturday night, and the lightning struck in several places in the county, burning five or six hay stacks and fatally injuring one small boy. The weather is warm and intensely damp and murky.

THE SHOCK OF HIS DEATH. A very heavy lightning storm passed over the city early Saturday night, and the lightning struck in several places in the county, burning five or six hay stacks and fatally injuring one small boy. The weather is warm and intensely damp and murky.

THE SHOCK OF HIS DEATH. A very heavy lightning storm passed over the city early Saturday night, and the lightning struck in several places in the county, burning five or six hay stacks and fatally injuring one small boy. The weather is warm and intensely damp and murky.

THE SHOCK OF HIS DEATH. A very heavy lightning storm passed over the city early Saturday night, and the lightning struck in several places in the county, burning five or six hay stacks and fatally injuring one small boy. The weather is warm and intensely damp and murky.

THE SHOCK OF HIS DEATH. A very heavy lightning storm passed over the city early Saturday night, and the lightning struck in several places in the county, burning five or six hay stacks and fatally injuring one small boy. The weather is warm and intensely damp and murky.

THE SHOCK OF HIS DEATH. A very heavy lightning storm passed over the city early Saturday night, and the lightning struck in several places in the county, burning five or six hay stacks and fatally injuring one small boy. The weather is warm and intensely damp and murky.

THE SHOCK OF HIS DEATH. A very heavy lightning storm passed over the city early Saturday night, and the lightning struck in several places in the county, burning five or six hay stacks and fatally injuring one small boy. The weather is warm and intensely damp and murky.

THE SHOCK OF HIS DEATH. A very heavy lightning storm passed over the city early Saturday night, and the lightning struck in several places in the county, burning five or six hay stacks and fatally injuring one small boy. The weather is warm and intensely damp and murky.

THE SHOCK OF HIS DEATH. A very heavy lightning storm passed over the city early Saturday night, and the lightning struck in several places in the county, burning five or six hay stacks and fatally injuring one small boy. The weather is warm and intensely damp and murky.

THE SHOCK OF HIS DEATH. A very heavy lightning storm passed over the city early Saturday night, and the lightning struck in several places in the county, burning five or six hay stacks and fatally injuring one small boy. The weather is warm and intensely damp and murky.

THE SHOCK OF HIS DEATH. A very heavy lightning storm passed over the city early Saturday night, and the lightning struck in several places in the county, burning five or six hay stacks and fatally injuring one small boy. The weather is warm and intensely damp and murky.

MURPHY'S SHOT.

The Alleged Unlawful Offer by Young Ash.

Yesterday there occurred in our village the saddest tragic scene that ever happened in all this vicinity. A young man named Samuel Ash, son of William Ash, of Beaver Dam, Wis., and nephew of C. D. Ash, of this place, was shot by Capt. W. M. Murphy, one of his place, and there are great fears one of his wounds is mortal.

SAMUEL ASH WAS 19 YEARS OF AGE. He arrived here from his home the 2d of July last on a visit. His cousin, George, wished him to help him on the farm, which he had just bought and disposed, but boyish. Through work there, he came to town yesterday morning, having his satchel with him.

THE MURDERER. That morning at 10 o'clock, Mr. Murphy told his little daughter, nine years old, to go and ask his uncle in a pasture near a railroad bridge, above town. Being timid she asked that her half sister, fourteen years old, might go with her, and consent was given that the latter and the other brother might go. The children went to Mr. Murphy's house and the young man, aged eight years, and his eldest daughter, taking the railroad track they went about half way from the highway crossing to the bridge. There they saw a man, whom they thought was seeing a man being refused to go toward them, they turned off and got over the fence into the pasture toward the road. The eldest Cora, who had been with the children, went further toward where the shot was fired. The man they saw came opposite Key and party, and shot at them. He lived in certain houses about there and what was being answered he soon made his wife propositions to her, which she refused. He offered her money to accept of his request. He walked toward her, when the other children, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They all went and came down to where they were. He turned toward town and the children went to Mr. Murphy's house, and he told them that Murphy's near by, and her daughter, Young Ash said he was, and that he would turn to the railroad. He screamed and he returned to the house, and he would not come to him, said he would not hurt them, and only had tried to scare them. They