

MINNEAPOLIS NEWS

Specially Reported for the Daily Globe

MINNEAPOLIS GLOBELETS.

Hon. W. W. McNeil returned from a two weeks' visit to New York and the cities of the East last night before last.

More than half the funds necessary to construct the new boom below the falls has already been subscribed.

Shipments of flour yesterday 3,600 barrels. Wheat received, 15,400 bushels. No. 1, 85c; No. 2, 82c; No. 3, 65c.

Messrs. White & Morrison will break ground for their new flouring mill this fall, and commence the erection thereon.

Capt. Bennett, late commander at Fort Snelling, has got his carpet bag all packed and will leave for Fort Snisseton in a day or two.

Mr. Ernest Sturtevant has become infatuated with the stage, and will accompany the Murray combination to St. Paul and Stillwater.

The Harmon society yesterday sent $50 to the yellow fever sufferers in Memphis—the proceeds of their concert given the early part of this week.

Three companies of the Seventh cavalry arrived at Fort Snelling a few days ago. They are the companies of Capt. Benham, Freeman, and Williams.

Miss Susie M. Johnson, inspirational speaker, will lecture at Good Templar's Hall, corner Mendota and Chicago, Washington avenue, at 10:30 a. m., Oct. 6.

John L. Bough, who was arrested for drunkenness on Thursday, and attempted suicide by hanging himself by his suspenders, was sent to jail for five days.

About eighty men are at work getting out stone for the new railway bridge at Sank Rapids, on which will cross the Minneapolis, St. Cloud & Sank Rapids railway.

The school board meets this morning at 9 o'clock, at the office of Mr. D. Morrison, at which meeting the teachers' pay rolls will be presented and ordered paid next week.

Rev. R. P. Sample, of Westminster Presbyterian church, who has been visiting Colorado for some weeks past, is expected home today, and will fill his pulpit on Sunday next.

While lifting a heavy sawsucker from the floor to a block yesterday, Mr. Henry L. Moore allowed the machine to fall, and as a consequence lost a large slice of flesh from the calf of one leg.

The mayor and comptroller were yesterday signing and preparing the $50,000 East Side water works bonds. They have all been taken by one banking house in Boston, that of Geo. W. Ballou & Co.

The rumor is current upon the street that a merchant at Howard Lake, a station on the St. Paul & Pacific Railroad west of this city, shot his son, taking him for a burglar. The young man is not expected to live.

The Minneapolis Rifle club will hold a business meeting this evening, at Henry Morse's office, at 8 o'clock. All members are requested to be present, as business of importance will be brought before the club.

It is not about time the Democrats and Nationalists begin to think about organizing a Donnelly club in Minneapolis? Elsewhere throughout the district this is being done. Let Minneapolis not be behind in the good work.

Work is steadily progressing on the Washburn mill foundation. It will extend from First to Second street—across an entire square, and will be the largest single building west of Chicago, and the largest flouring mill in the world.

Judge Reynolds left on the train last evening for the purpose of exhibiting his judicial ermine in the political arena in Morris to-night. It is shameful to force the judge into this position, and shows the straits to which the pine land ring are driven.

Yesterday afternoon a farmer about half drunk drove rapidly up Washington avenue, and on turning the corner of Nicollet avenue, the pole of his wagon knocked down two ladies who were crossing the street. He was taken to the station house and fined for fast driving.

Sheriff Thompson left for St. Peter yesterday afternoon, taking to the insane asylum Mr. Phillip Hasselbach, of the Orchestrian Concert hall, and a daughter of Mr. Canney of this city. It is thought and hoped that both these cases will prove temporary, and will yield readily to treatment.

The Reformed Hebrew society of this city open the season with a party under the management of Prof. Veit, Monday evening next at the professor's new hall in the Richardson block, corner of Third street and First Avenue South. Tickets will be $1, and the entire proceeds will be devoted to the religious society under whose management it is given.

Elsewhere Mr. P. O. Chilstrom recommends in a communication to the Globe the formation of a Donnelly club here in Minneapolis. Good. That is the right movement for the time, and the time is almost ripe for the movement. Let the united National and Democratic committees put the ball in motion, and people will discover that Washburn does not own all of Minneapolis.

Charley Revere is a universal genius. Not content with running a first class stock farm, holding the position of assistant cashier in a number one bank, being director, commissioner, agent of a thousand and one associations, societies and lodges, and man in an amateur minstrel troupe, boss manager of private theatricals, etc., etc., he has now taken a class in elocution at the State university. Chilstrom does know how to make himself useful.

The Globe omitted to mention the fact yesterday that the touching appeal of the Republican committee for funds with which to aid their sinking cause, first saw the light through the medium of the Workman, a weekly paper published in this city in the interests of the laboring classes. And in this connection it will be proper to say that the Workman is one of the ablest and most interesting publications in the State, and is doing yeoman service in educating the working people of Minnesota in the political issues now presented to the public.

Mr. E. C. Stevens, of Beaver Dam, Wis., is in the city. He is the senior member of the firm of Stevens & Germain, who are building and operating elevators on the extension of the Hastings & Dakota railway. They are now building a large elevator at the new town of Emmet, and another at Sacred Heart, between Emmet and Granite Falls. Mr. Stevens is about as thriving town, and growing with the most remarkable rapidity. Mr. Stevens has been an operator in wheat in Wisconsin for twenty-five years, and Mr. Germain was formerly sheriff in Beaver Dam.

Grand Excursion to St. Louis. On Sunday, October 6th, at 8:20 p. m., a grand excursion will leave the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, for St. Louis. Tickets for round trip only $20, and good until October 16th to return.

A DONNELLY CLUB.

Important Suggestion—A Donnelly Club Asked For—Who Will Start It?

Editor Globe, Minneapolis Department.

Again the time has come when politics are more or less discussed and the voice of the candidates heard in the land. The double-barreled thunder, along with its lesser relative in this city, are convulsed daily over the fact that the Globe dares breathe the thought that Washburn is not as innocent and pure as a cooling dove, and Ignatius Donnelly the embodiment of all wicked thoughts.

The farmer, the man who with honest, hard toil and the sweat of his brow earns his livelihood, the man whom the money sharks never, except at times such as this, care one fig for, is now receiving the most marked attention from their city friends—and between the lot who are crying, Mr. Farmer, you are being robbed by our opponents and those who are protesting innocence of such heinousness, matters are developing to an interesting degree.

To a disinterested observer, desiring to on election day cast his vote so that it will be most worthy and deserving, there seems to be a duty assigned which is to calmly and thoughtfully, amid the political thunder, slush and bonanza by which his country is fastened, and which he is compelled to select the men who, in his judgment, ought to be elected as public servants, and, after a determination is made, set about to forward their election.

In regard to who ought to be supported for Congress from the Third district, it now seems plain people in general are agreed upon one thing—that it should be a man who has the interests of the whole people at heart, and qualifications, and industry sufficient to subvert those interests. In this city, the home of Washburn, there are many to be found who doubt that he is the man in view of this fact, and with the example set by St. Paul, would it not be well for those who favor Donnelly to organize, to concentrate their forces, and make such a fight for the man of their choice as will show that they are awake to the issues of the day. It has been asserted by a morning paper that Donnelly men are scarce here. Judging from what can be heard by mingling with voters in Hennepin county, this statement is not well founded. Let the word be sounded, and a club will be formed in support of Donnelly such as will make sure at heart those of our Republican friends who deem it their duty to support Washburn.

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 4th, 1878.

RELIGIOUS.

The Blessing and Opening of the New Church of the Holy Rosary, Corner of Fifth Street and Nineteenth Avenue, South Minneapolis.

The Dominican order, long renowned in the history of the Catholic church as leaders in literature, art and missionary enterprise, are in our midst. On next Sunday at 10 a. m. the Right Rev. Bishop Grace, of St. Paul, will bless their new church in South Minneapolis, in the above named locality.

The church is a fine structure, and is being erected by the Rev. Fr. Thos. L. Power, who is at work night and day to build it up.

The Fathers are great advocates of Western colonization; and, in this respect, their coming to the United States is likely to be an event in the history of the State. The head of the order in the United States is expected to preach next Sunday. A mission will be given the church a week after its opening.

THE COURTS.

Dist. Court. The following decisions have been filed with the clerk of the court:

Thomas Coleman vs. the Mississippi River Boom company. Demurrer sustained, with leave to amend.

O. J. Evans vs. the county commissioners. Court orders judgment for plaintiff for $1,000, in accordance with the award of the jury.

W. W. Huntington vs. Charles F. Gilman, confirming the title of plaintiff to certain real estate in Snyder's addition.

Little Falls (Morrison county) Transcript, Sept. 26: Last week the wheat buyers in this place got to bidding against each other, and the price was paid by Houde on Thursday. The buyers are still paying St. Paul prices and estimating that the yield will have been fully twenty-five bushels, if it had been all saved.

Janeville (Waseca county) Argus, Oct. 1: Very little wheat is coming in yet. Not enough to keep the Plummer and Kellogg mills running. Farmers are not in a hurry to thresh this year, and many are in no haste to sell at present, even when the grain is threshed. Gosper and Hosmer are pushing the sorghum making and are doing good work. The amber cane makes beautiful syrup this year, and we believe considerable sugar will be made.

Little Falls (Morrison county) Transcript, Sept. 26: Last week the wheat buyers in this place got to bidding against each other, and the price was paid by Houde on Thursday. The buyers are still paying St. Paul prices and estimating that the yield will have been fully twenty-five bushels, if it had been all saved.

Windom (Cottonwood county) Reporter: Mr. Woodruff, of Mountain Lake township, has threshed and is in his yield: Two thousand and thirty-five bushels of oats, thirty acres, five acres of which yielded 105 bushels per acre. His barley went forty-two bushels per acre. In Big Bend township threshing is in full blast. Williams, Rank & Allen furnish us with cylinders ranging from early morn till dewy eve. Wheat is yielding from ten to fifteen bushels per acre, oats from thirty to fifty and barley thirty to forty.

Fairbault (Rice county) Republican, Oct. 2: Mr. Henry Hoover, of Cannon City, has brought into our office some corn of the kind known as Compton's Early, which was planted on the 20th day of June, and yet ripened nicely. Last year Mr. H. planted one pound of Burbank seedling potatoes in the field, which he harvested on the 15th of the month. This year, from one and one-half bushels of seed he raised fifty bushels. Considerable wheat is being marketed in Dundas, the price paid ranging from 50 to 60 cents for new and $1.00 for old.

New Ulm (Brown county) Herald, Sept. 27: No. 3 wheat will yield within one pound as much flour as last year's No. 1, and the flour is allowed to be particularly good. That is the difference in point of yield between the two grades is only a fraction over 4 per cent. But the difference in the money which mills and elevators offer for the two grades is still nearly 4 per cent. after the recent revision of prices by the Millers' association. How is this? Farmers ought to be able to get more yet for their No. 3 wheat.

Winmar (Kandiyohi county) Republican Gazette: John Johnson, of Lake Johnson, on last Saturday threshed 472 bushels of wheat in seven hours. Lars Nelson, of Lake Andrew, raised 424 bushels of wheat from fourteen acres, or nearly thirty and one-third bushels to the acre. The receipts of wheat here are not very heavy, but probably not averaging more than 1,000 bushels a day. Threshing has been very much delayed, farmers being so far behind with their haying that it has been most impossible to get the sufficient help to run the machines.

Madella (Watonwan county) Times, Sept. 27: We learn that an acre of amber cane, raised by Geo. Ash, will yield about 300 gallons of syrup. If he receives half that quantity of syrup after paying for making, at a cent per gallon, will return him $75—a pretty good sum from one acre. From our observations, we judge that the price between grades of wheat will be lessened, as it proves there is not as much difference in the grades in the yield of flour. One gentleman informed us that he took some wheat to the mill for which in New Ulm he could get offered but 24 pounds in flour so low was the grade by weight, and he received about 35 pounds per bushel here.

Long Prairie (Todd county) News: Some parties in the county have raised wheat

STATE FARM AND CROP NOTES.

Dundas (Rice county) News, Sept. 28: Old wheat is worth $1, and sold from 50 to 90 cents in this market.

New Ulm (Brown county) Review, Oct. 2: The farmers are busy bringing their grain to market, but are not at all satisfied with the prices offered them by our grain merchants.

Wells (Fairbairn county) Weekly Advocate: The blackleg is around among the cattle again. Several farmers have lost a number of calves. Salspeter seems to be the best preventive.

Watonsville (Steele county) Journal, Sept. 26: Mr. W. F. Sherman, of the Clinton Falls mill, made a statement to us the other day in regard to the amount of flour he is turning out from the new wheat. After taking a full trial of the grain he says his customers 25% pounds of four per bushel of rejected wheat, and 25 to 30 pounds of flour per bushel of No. 3 and 4 wheat. He gives 27 pounds in exchange for the latter. Yesterday he sold a lot of his toll wheat at 62 cents per bushel. No higher grade has been received at his mill. The flour, although dark in color, is of a good quality, and gives good bread. He thinks that as soon as the grain becomes thoroughly seasoned it will improve in both quality and yield.

Hastings (Dakota county) Union, Oct. 2: Wheat only brings from 30 to 40 cents at the elevators west of Glencoe. This in a great measure suppresses the ambition of the farmers along the line. It is almost utterly impossible for the farmers to get their grain threshed in the vicinity of Bird Island. Ed. Stone, one of our old townsmen, has the only machine in that vicinity, and he says that it is not worth the trouble to run. It may be some satisfaction to our Dakota county farmers to learn that the "hoss wheat" land" out in Benville only yields 27 pounds of flour from seven to ten bushels of fifty-two pound wheat. It can only get about 30 and 40 cents per bushel, after hauling it in some cases twenty miles.

Alexandria (Douglas county) News, Sept. 26: Farmers who have their grain in stack in the fields, should take warning from the big fire in Osage and Orange townships, which so much grain was destroyed early this week, and plow around their stacks, and burn broad strips outside the plowing.

St. Cloud (Stevens county) Journal, Sept. 26: Mr. M. G. Gaspard, who has been through the upper part of this county, informs us that much of the wheat about Richmond is not yet stacked. There is also a scarcity of threshing machines in that direction.

Rushford (Fillmore county) Star, Sept. 26: John Green brought down from El-dred's farm one and one-half miles from the city, a handful of ripe strawberries—second growth. John says this was in many places white with blossoms.

Hokah (Houston county) Blade, Sept. 28: Millers are complaining about wire used on the self-binders injuring their machinery, and we heard one say the other day that they would be compelled to reject all wheat where these machines are used.

Austin (Mower county) Transcript, Sept. 26: From Grand Meadow the report comes that threshing progresses slowly, and farmers have sold very little wheat. They have been less than a dozen cars loaded shipped from this place since harvest.

Glencoe (McLeod county) Register, Sept. 26: Unless five threshers are put to work where there is one now not a quarter of the grain in the county will be ready for the market before the 1st of October. Threshing is giving a more satisfactory grade of wheat to the State.

St. Cloud (Stearns county) Times, Sept. 25: It is said that Don Stevenson put up 6,000 tons of hay for Forts Quebec and Custer, the contract price being $28 per ton, while the cost of putting it up did not exceed $18. The farmer and partners realize a profit of $60,000.

Farmington (Dakota county) Press, Sept. 25: A Lakeville correspondent reports: As the sweating process is supposed to be over, threshing has commenced again in good earnest, but with very varied results, the yield of wheat ranging from four to twenty-five bushels to the acre.

Albert Lea (Enterprise) Wm. Pickle, of the town of Nunda, threshed his wheat from twenty-two acres, last week, and it yielded twenty bushels to the acre, weighing fifty pounds to the bushel. It was of the Fife variety. Mr. Foster, his next neighbor, only got about five bushels to the acre, his wheat being the Lost Nation.

Sank Center (Stearns county) Herald: Mr. C. Truman threshed his wheat last week, and got 675 bushels from 32 acres—a yield of a little over 21 bushels to the acre. Owing to the lodged and tangled condition of the grain, a great deal was wasted in harvesting, and Mr. Truman estimates that the yield would have been fully twenty-five bushels, if it had been all saved.
