Pence's Opera House, for ladies and New artists appear nightly at the Summer Garden theatre and a good variety show is given every evening. The council committee on claims will meet at the office of the city comptroller this morning at 10 o'clock. The name of the boy drowned in Casey's lake on Thanksgiving day was Joseph Wood. He will be buried to-day. The saw-mills have nearly all shut down for the winter, and the boys are packing their carpet-sacks for the woods. A. F. Jackson, Esq., an old citizen of Minneapolis, now located in Renville county, left his plow in the furrow and was yesterday shaking hands with crowds of friends The funeral of John A. Armstrong will

What is the matter with the street railway time? Or does the company intend to run their cars by a time of their own? As it now is their time does not agree with that of anybody in the city. Why not regulate by the Northfield time as the railroads do?

Mr. B. F. Taylor has probably gone back to his home in Chicago very much disgusted with the pagans of Minneapolis, who crammed the Academy of Music to listen to Billy Emerson, and jammed the Opera House to witness Peep-o'-Day Boys, and left him to a "beggarly account of empty benches." Well, what of it?

Geo. B. Hall, passenger agent of the great through route to the South and West via the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul and the Central of Iowa railroads, has just returned from a trip over to the Missouri river, and reports that the whole of the southwestern country will come to Minneapolis next year, and all by the great through route.

Mr. George K. Shaw will be in this city about the middle of December, for the purpose of looking the ground over with a view of establishing that morning paper. Mr. Shaw will meet with a cordial welcome from his old friends in Minneapolis, and if any man can make a morning paper succeed in this city he is the man.

Budd Reeve says he knew that "Old Charley" could not stand the existence of a rival; and so, when Budd purchased old Brutus, Charley just simply laid down and died of sheer envy. Brutus is now the cham-pion animal. It is just lovely to see him and his handsome owner taking an airing on Hennepin avenue these pleasant days. And he's fast, too, (Brutus, not Budd)-his every motion being a standing challenge to any other horse in the city.

Dr. Webb and wife, of Cincinnati, Ohio, are in this city and have taken a suite of rooms at Hoblett's boarding Seventh street for the winter. Dr. Webb is the only brother of Mrs. President Hayes, and is a leading physician of Cincinnati. Mrs. Webb is a sister to Hon. Stanley Matthews and it is through her that "the government" is related to that distinguished statesman. Dr. Webb is suffering from ill health, and comes to try the healing virtues of our Minnesota winters, manifesting very good taste in selecting Minneapolis as the place in which to take his medicated atmos-

THE HOUSE CALENDAR.

Disposal-Some Important Measures. [Washington Special (Nov. 27) to Cincinnati Enquirer.

The calendar of the House of Representatives, which has just been officially prepared, is larger, say the clerks, than any calendar that has been ready for a second session of Congress for years. It is a document of thirty-five pages, and contains seven reports of committees and bills undisposed of, which means that they have had partial consideration; five house bills and resolutions, with Senate amendments; 116 from the Senate on first and second reading; four concurrent resolutions: ninety-one bills in committee of the whole on the state of the union, and 225 bills on the private calendar. Just about one eighth part of these bills will get through. One of the first bills to be taken up next week will be reported by Mr. Knott, from the judiciary committee, to provide for the further distribution of the Geneva award. At the last session it was made the special for Wednesday next. Among the House bills, with Senate amendments, is one to re peal so much of the resumption act as authorized the secretary of the treasury to dis pose of United States bonds and redeem and sancel the greenback currency. Among the bills from the Senate on first and second reading are the following: Bill extending the time for the construction of the Northern Pacific railroad; act directing the secretary of war to purchase a lot of ground situated ng the date of the commencement of certain pensions, and granting arears in certain cases; act to authorize the States of Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, respectively, to commence and prosecute suits against the United States in the supreme court of the United States; act to amend the act approved March 3, 1873, authorizing the award to the Vincennes university of certain vacant and abandoned lands in Knox county, Indiana. In committee of the whole on the state of Union, the first bill on the list is that grantng pensions to soldiers and sailors of the lexican war. This bill last session blocked the way of all other business on the public calendar, except such as could be taken up by unanimous consent or by a two-thirds vote. If its friends choose to hold it there it will again block the way, to the exclusion of a large number of important bills, among which are the following: Providing for ar-rears of pensions; providing for the transfer of the Indian bureau to the war department; for the appointment of a commission

tively the same position as the Mexican pensition to it, it blocks out all other business, and so long as it holds its place no bill on the private calendar can be got rid of except by unanimous consent on what is called ob ection day. About the only bills on this calendar that have much show are those for
