ST. PAUL, FRIDAY, MARCH 7, 1879.

SENATOR MILLER'S vote on the swamp land bill was incorrectly reported yesterday. He voted no, plump and strong.

REPRESENTATIVE KOONS by some untoward accident was reported as favoring the bill reducing the pay for publishing the laws in the newspapers to fifty dollars per paper. Mr. Koons is a sensible man, and consequently in favor of giving the people the laws, and paying the papers a very moderate price for the work.

The Legislature wisely concluded not to disturb the publication of the laws in the newspapers, and the law was allowed to remain as it has been for ten years past, while the usual appropriation was made. There was, in the House, a very determined opposition to the publication or to the amount paid, and at one time it seemed as though that branch of the legislature would go on record in favor of absolute repeal or reducing pay to so small a sum as to render the law unworkable.

It is due Senator Hill, of Winona county, to say that his opposition to the swamp land bill was based on no narrow ground, as might have been supposed from the printed report of the speech. He did not complain of the division, or that his locality did not receive a proper proportion of it. For eighteen years he has been a consistent and persistent opponent of all land grants and subsidies, and his course on the swamp land bill was in accordance with his life policy.

The Legislature is indulging in the usual all-night session incident to the last day of the session. As no bills can be passed today, the work is practically ended, and nothing now remains but the dry detail of enrollment. Nearly a thousand bills were introduced, and of these, three hundred and sixty-three had reached the Governor up to 2 o'clock this morning.

Among the notable events of the closing day and night was the defeat of the omnibus swamp land grant bill in the House, the passage of both W. M. Campbell's and J. N. Stacy's brass kettle bills, the change of the immigration bill leaving the board to appoint its own Secretary and reducing the expenditures for two years from $12,000 to $6,000, and the passage of the St. Paul boom bill allowing the Minneapolis Boom company thirty cents per thousand for sorting.

THE CLOSING HOURS. The Legislature is indulging in the usual all-night session incident to the last day of the session. THE DEMOCRACY OF MINNESOTA. The Globe publishes the ringing address of the Democratic legislative committee to the Democracy of Minnesota. It is a terse, but truthful arraignment of the Republican party and a concise statement of what the Democratic party, though contending but one branch of Congress, has been able to accomplish. The following platform, emanated by the address, will commend itself to every patriotic citizen, regardless of party affiliations:

No class legislation. Free trade and equal taxation. A currency based upon coin. Equally among the States, and each left to control its own local affairs.

There is something more for the Democratic party in Minnesota to do besides enunciating principles. There should be united, harmonious action and vigorous organization. The Democracy gained one Congressman in the State last fall, and with harmony and vigorous organization, might have gained two. They very nearly secured control over one branch of the legislature, and if a proper canvass had been made in every Senatorial district the Democrats would have had a working majority of the Senate.

MINNEAPOLIS NEWS.

Special Report for the Daily Globe. MINNEAPOLIS GLOBE LETTERS. Social dance at Curtis hall this evening. John Peterson was arrested last evening for being "blind" drunk.

The W. C. T. union met this afternoon at 3 o'clock, at 224 Hennepin avenue. A meeting of the Lurline Boat club was decided to purchase two new shells.

Scandia lodge K. of P. No. 6, worked in the second and third degree last evening. There will be morning and evening service at St. Mark's to-day--morning at 10:30, evening at 4 o'clock.

A drunken scurrage occurred at a low dive at Long Lake Wednesday, when pistols were used, but no damage done. The regular monthly meeting of the Bethany Home Sisterhood will be held to-day at 2 o'clock. It will be an open meeting.

The Mechanics' and Workmen's Loan and Building association will hold their monthly meeting at the Alderman at to-morrow evening at 7:30. A brother of Alderman A. C. Hangan, ben: sjudged insane, was taken to St. Peter yesterday afternoon by Officer West and a deputy sheriff.

John Ollis, who was injured by falling from a locomotive on Monday, was taken to the Cottage hospital yesterday, and last evening was much better. The regular corps of loggers registered at the police station last night. The proposed stone pile will do away with a number of the unwelcome guests.

The March session of the Hennepin Free Baptist church, will be held in the Free Baptist church, commencing this afternoon, continuing on Sunday. On Wednesday Officer West was nearly coming to an untimely end at the hands of a mad man, who seized him by the throat and well nigh throttled him before the lunatic could be secured.

Following are the officers of the Lurline Boat Club for the coming season: President, W. L. Bassett; vice-president, E. L. Frick; captain, S. B. Chase; directors, A. E. McMullin, F. S. Hinkle; coxswain, Tony Levering. It is rumored on the street that the $100,000 appropriation will be used for erecting buildings at Fort Snelling, which will be commenced as soon as practicable. A L. Frick, captain of the fort to this city is also talked of, and a new depot at the fort is decided on by the C. M. & St. Paul Railroad company.

The team of E. L. Lenneman, a granger from Frankfort, Crow river, made it lively for light vehicles on the street yesterday afternoon. They started from Sixth street on Nicollet avenue, dashed up Washington to Hennepin avenue, and on to Second street, where they were stopped. In their hurry they were in contact with the buggy of Judge Ames, which was driven by Miss Ames, and it was a miracle that she and her lady friend were not thrown out. The judge's buggy lost a wheel in the encounter. The team was pluckily stopped by Ed H. Fraxon, who jumped into the wagon at the peril of his horse, and by sheer strength brought them to a stop.

Found After Many Days. On Oct. 19, 1877, an unknown man applied at the tables of A. W. Hawkins & Bro. and hired a top buggy and harness for the purpose of taking a drive. As he had a horse with him, and mentioned the names of several parties in the city, he was allowed to take the horse and wagon out leaving any deposit. The buggy and harness were never returned, and after several fruitless searches, Mr. Hawkins gave the thing up as dead. Yesterday afternoon a young man, Mr. Hawkins saw a young man driving a buggy which looked very much like the one he had lost. He followed the man to a hotel on First street, kept by Mr. Rosback, where the horse and buggy were stable. On examining the buggy and harness he discovered that it was the same as taken from his tables on October 19, 1877.

Officer Dault was called and arrested the young man, who took before the court on a charge of larceny. He followed the man on the name of Comstock, and his residence as Eden Prairie. He stated that his brother Frederick E. Comstock had been at a farm in Swift county, as Frederick E. Comstock who hired the buggy, is dead, having committed suicide, an account of which was given in the Globe of January 18, 1877. It is probable that the case will be dismissed.

OBITUARY. Death of Vicar General Knudtz, of Milwaukee. Milwaukee, March 6.—The Very Reverend diocesan agent of the board, at the St. Cecilia at 10 o'clock of the morning, aged 74. He was attacked with the first symptoms of the disease at 8 A. M., hourly growing worse. Since his dangerous attack of illness three weeks ago, his condition was not such as to cause apprehension, as shown by the fact that he conducted early services at the cathedral this morning. Father Knudtz was born in Sweden, and came to this country with Archbishop Henni, who was stationed at Detroit at the time of the cholera epidemic in 1834, and performed herculean labor in attending upon the sick, expending every dollar of his private fortune and ran deep in debt in his self-sacrificing duty. This with the financial revision of 1837 loaded him with a burden which took years to lift. He came to Milwaukee in 1842, and has since his general fifteen years. He was high-ly esteemed by his flock, and the people of this city and State. Arrangements for the funeral will be made Saturday.
