STRUNG UP.

And He Did It Himself-The Last of Earth for One Poor Mortal-The Usual Legal Inquiry. Yesterday morning at 6:30 o'clock Joh

Gottschammer, one of the proprietors of the Metropolitan butcher shop at No. 219 East eventh street, left his residence on Sixth street and proceeded, as was his custom, to open the store. On entering he walked to a room in the rear of the shop occupied as a sleeping apartment by August Remeke, one f the employes, and told him to get up. Receiving no reply he entered the room, lit the gas, but found only a dog occupying the Supposing the man had staid out all t and would soon return, Mr. Gottschammer prepared to open the place for business Having occasion to go to a small room in the rear of the store, he discovered on open-ing the door the body of Reineke hanging by the neck from a rope tied to the ceiling. The position of the body, as it appeared in the dim light with the hands drawn up and the fent ignt with the habes trawn by and the feet just touching the floor, so frightened the finder that for some time he was unable to move. He finally reached the door and notified Officer Gibbons of the find. Coroner Davenport was summoned, who cut'the body down, removed it to the rear room and ordered an inquest to be held at 10 o'clock. THE INQUEST. .

At the appointed time a jury consisting of Nippolt, William Funk, John H. Schurmeier and E. H. Milham were impanelled, and the

"I could not speak even if I wanted to.

Whenever I spoke they bit at me. God for-

Iu his pockets were found a plug of to-bacco, three keys, a diary of 1872 with the names of John Reineke and John Link written on the fly leaf.

John Gottschammer, sworn; Knew the deceased only by the name of August; decame to the shop about two weeks ago and asked for work; he was taken on trial and was a first class workman; he said he came from Dakota Territory; he was very quiet and did not talk much; never saw him drink any liquor; on Monday he said that people were talking about him, and asked for ten dollars; did not give him the money for fear he would go away, and as he was a good workman I wanted him to remain; at 10 o'clock as I was going to church; he stood in the door of the shop; do not know any thing of his past history or what his religious views were.
Officer Gibbons, being sworn, testified that John Gottschammer called him across the street at 7:20 o'clock and told him that a man in his employ had hung himself; went and looked at the body and then sumnoned the coroner.

Emil Gottschammer, sworn: First sav

the deceased about three weeks ago; he ame to the shop and asked for work; hired nim at $20 a month and board; he did not talk about himself at all; on Friday noon he came to me and asked for $10; he said the men in the boarding house were joking him; told him to wait until evening and I would give him the money; at night he came to me and said he did not want the money; he gave his name as August: did not hear him say what his other name was; last saw him alive about 10 o'clock Sunday morning

Charles Stenzel sworn: Am employed by Mr. Gottschammer; have known the de-ceased since he came to work here; he was very quiet; told me his name was Angust Reineke, and that he came from the other side of Minneapolis; never said any thing about his history; saw him last alive Saturday night; on Friday he said the people in this country were not using him right.

Silas Gottschammer, sworn: Saw the deceased last alive Sunday night about 10 o'clock; he was standing in front of the store as I passed by.

Matilda Webb, sworn: Keep a boarding house at 215 Seventh street; deceased has boarded at the house since the 3rd ult., do not know any thing in regard to him; one boarders named McKenzie him about the girls; appeared insulted and said everyone thought he was "that everyone thought he was not very smart, but he understood what they all meant;" saw him last alive Sunday noon; thought from his actions he had been drink-

President Sibley stated the substance of representations made to him by Mr. Richard Chute, on behalf of the business men of Minneapolis, Mr. Chute having been commissioned to consult with citizens of commissioned to consult with citizens of St. Paul with a view of uniting the two cities in furtherance of the project of building or completing a direct railway line between Montreal and Minneapolis and St. Paul, by way of Sault Ste. Marie, and being authorized to represent that the project, as presented on the part of Minneapolis, has a connection with any local railroad built or projected. Gen. Sibley then offered the following resolutions, which were adopted:
"WHEREAS, The board of trade and the cit-owing resolutions, which were adopted:

"Whereas, The board of trade and the citizens of Minneapolis generally, have expressed a desire to unite with the people of this city, in geeking a common outlet by rail, on the south side of Lake Superior, so as to form, with the links now proposed in Michigan and Canada, a through line to ocean navigation; therefore

"Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed by this chamber to meet and confer with the committee of the board of trade of the city of Minneapolis, with a view to form, if practicable, a joint organization to forward the building of a railway from the two cities, to connect with the Michigan line under construction on the south shore of Lake Superior, and with the Canadian line contemplated to be built to the Sault Ste. Mary's, and that said committee report the result of their deliberation to this chamber at the earliest convenient period.

"Resolved, That said committee be and they are hereby vested with authority on the part of this chamber to correspond with the managers of the Michigan railroads referred to, and with the authorities of the Dominion of Canada, or others charged with the conduct of the proposed line on Canadian soil, with reference to the measures taken, or which will speedily be taken to perfect their lines respectively, so as to constitute an all-rail connection by way of the Sault Ste. Marie to the city of Montreal."

LAKE VADNAIS PARK.—This magnificent property is situated just 5½ miles north of the Metropolitan hotel, on one of the most beautiful lakes in the State. The property belongs to a partnership recently dissolved by the death of one of the partners, and is offered by us at less than fifty per cent. of its value. There are about 500 acres in the tract, with three-quarters of a mile front upon the lake. For picturesque scenery and beautiful surroundings, this property is not surpassed in the State. Its accessibility to St. Paul (only half an hour's drive) commends it as infinitely superior as a summer reserved to the reaches of the surpassed of the summer reserved to the reaches of the surpassed in the State. Its acceptable of the surpassed in the State.
