The real estate transfers in Minneapolis during the past week aggregated $91,153.

The Young Men's Bar Association are looking for suitable rooms in which to locate.

W. E. Chamberlain's confectionery store has been closed up. Jessie Williams will dispose of the stock to satisfy creditors.

The Street Railway company and the Lysdale Railway company brought out their big snow plows, yesterday morning.

The ladies are making preparations to attend Mrs. Dr. Burner's private lecture at the Academy of Music on Monday afternoon.

The Reform club held their regular meeting in Harrison Hall last evening. The attendance was fair despite disagreeable weather.

The inclement weather yesterday had a damaging effect on the business in the markets yesterday. But few vegetables were taken to town.

The Metropolitan theater company left for St. Paul early yesterday morning, and presented "The Bunker's Daughter" at the Opera house last night.

Seats are now on sale for Mrs. Livermore's lectures next week, and may be reserved without extra charge at Klages, under the Academy of Music.

At a fight at Lako Minnetonka, the other day, Jim Wiley was badly banged up. The courts in Minneapolis will probably hear of the case in a day or two.

The council committee on roads and bridges held a meeting, yesterday afternoon, to hear the propositions of the newly organized company that proposes to heat the city by steam.

On Sunday evening a meeting of Irishmen will be held at the school building adjoining the church of the Immaculate Conception, for the purpose of forming a permanent organization for the relief of sufferers in Ireland.

The next lecture in the Reform Club course will be delivered by Dr. Van Anden, pastor of the Centenary M. E. church. The subject is "The Bible and Literature," and will occur on the evening of February 10th, in Harrison hall.

The department of American History of the Minnesota Historical society will hold their monthly meeting on Monday evening, in the library of Rev. E. D. Neile, at Macalester college. Among the interesting features a paper on the ancient quartz workers of Morrison county will be read.

It will be remembered that a short time since Johnnie Motie, a lad who ought to have known better, gave his mother a pounding with a club, and was arraigned before the municipal court for assault and battery. Now, as a sort of a revenge, or something else, he turns about and swears out a warrant for the arrest of his "big" sister for stealing from his wood pile.

The committee appointed by President Chute, of the board of trade, to attend the funeral of the late Horace Thompson, at St. Paul on Sunday, are as follows: Dorius Morrison, G. A. Bragg, J. C. Whitney, Geo. H. Keith, S. C. Gale, L. Fletcher O. A. Pray, N. B. Harwood, Anthony Kelly, W. McNair, Geo. A. Pillsbury, T. A. Harrison, A. C. Rand, C. T. Hatch and C. H. Prior.

A horse owned by Joachim Lang, the Riverside avenue grocer, got up an impromptu runaway yesterday that discounts anything of the kind witnessed in Minneapolis for some time. The animal started on Eighth avenue south and came tearing up Washington avenue at a terrible rate of speed.

At Fourth avenue south the animal took the sidewalk and scattered men, women and children right and left. In front of West's saloon a young lady named Jennie Mahoney, residing on Fourth avenue south, was knocked down and badly bruised. Besides the bumps and bruises of small note, she received a scalp wound four inches in length, and the shock to her nervous system was anything but pleasant. Two men were badly shaken up and another had the wind knocked out of him, so that at first it was thought he was killed. He finally recovered and was able to go home. The animal was captured near the St. James hotel.

Jennie Webster, Jennie White and Cora Roach, a trio of soiled doves, deposited their monthly fine of $12.

Charles Severson and Charles Anderson had a slight misunderstanding and as the result Anderson got his eyes beautifully frescoed. They were both brought before the court for a hearing. The evidence being carefully weighed Anderson was discharged, and Severson was sent down to the county jail for ten days.

THE BALDWIN MYSTERY. Death of the Wife of the Victim of Grief. CINCINNATI, Jan. 30.—On the heels of the revival of speculation as to the Baldwin homicide last March comes the announcement of the death of Mrs. Katie Baldwin, wife of Harry Baldwin, the victim of that mysterious tragedy, at an early hour this morning. They had been married scarcely three months, when her husband was shot down in the street by some one whose identity has not yet been discovered. It is a relief to the loss of her husband was increased by the reports that his killing was the result of association with a woman of doubtful character. This report has been contradicted by testimony, but the mystery of her husband's death preyed upon her so that she gradually sank until she fell an easy victim to typhoid pneumonia. She leaves a posthumous child only three months old.

The Milwaukee exhibition fund is now $22,000, and they are bound to have $150,000.
