

CITY GLOBULES.

District court special term calendar to-day before Judge Brill. Yesterday, Penbly Bros. & Co. paid $404 duties on imported liquors.

The Arion singing society will give a concert at the Athenaeum next Monday. The new iron roof around the Capitol grounds is being painted a bright black.

"Song service" to-morrow at 4 p. m. at the rooms of the Young Men's Christian association. The work of demolition of the dangerous wall around the burned Davidson block is progressing satisfactorily.

Mr. Edward Patterson, of Pine City, well-known in St. Paul, dropped dead in the street in that place yesterday. The last of the tar and gravel walks put down in the Capitol grounds, some two or three years ago, was torn up yesterday.

The State reform school board met yesterday. No business beyond passing upon the ordinary bills for March was transacted. To-morrow (Sunday) there will be an evening entertainment, the last of the season, at the Turner hall. The programme is most promising.

A motion for alimony will be made in the district court to-day by the plaintiff in the divorce suit of Theresa Frey against her husband, Henry Frey. The funeral of George Crusen, who died from injuries received on Thursday morning, will take place this morning from the Assumption church at 9 o'clock.

Having completed the cutting off and sloping of the Capitol grounds, a force is now engaged in removing the rubbish and cleaning up the grounds generally. A fine pickled weighing thirty-two pounds was displayed in the St. Nicholas hotel last evening. The fish was caught at Lake Como yesterday afternoon by K. Knauff.

A glance up and down Third street any time between 5 o'clock in the morning and 5 in the evening will convince the most skeptical that St. Paul is enjoying a general business boom. Stone masons have resumed work on the building being erected by Mayor Dawson, corner of Fifth and Wacouta streets, for the headquarters office of the St. Paul & Duluth railroad company.

Mr. Daniel Smith, a merchant of Pine City, while driving across Snake river Thursday, broke through the ice and himself and horse were drowned. Mr. Smith's body was recovered by some Indians. Peter Hanson came down from the pincier last Thursday and celebrated his advent by indulging in a tangiefoot tot. He was arraigned at the police court yesterday and discharged upon the payment of $5.

Thursday and made a holy show of herself by standing along Washington street in front of the Metropolitan hotel. The court remarked that her visits to the police court were becoming too numerous and she was sent to the House of Good Shepherd for ninety days.

An entertainment of the Metropolitan club took place last evening at the Metropolitan hotel. The attendance was large and embraced many of our best citizens, together with their ladies. Dancing was kept up to a late hour, interrupted for a brief season to allow the guests an opportunity for a collation and a promenade. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the evening the reception was pronounced one of the most enjoyable of the season.

Mr. E. A. Bunker, of Northfield, has been in the city for a few days past, preparatory to leaving for Kansas City, where he intends making his residence in future. He has bought out Mr. Stevens' interest in the auxiliary newspaper business, which Mr. Stevens has transferred to Mr. Bunker established there a few years ago, and which has grown into a money making success. Mr. Stevens retires to engage actively in the real estate business, in which he has become largely interested.

Yesterday Judge D. A. J. Baker filed a complaint in the district court against Hanscy county or the county commissioners. The suit is brought to recover possession of four acres, more or less, of land in the south half of the southwest quarter of section 29, township 33, range 25, which the complainant alleges was wrongfully seized and is yet held by the county commissioners of Ramsey county. The land in question was taken for roadway purposes between this city and Minneapolis.

The police on the Fort street beat near Seven corners were somewhat exercised on Thursday night to discover the cause of a peculiar sawing noise in the vicinity of "Fischbein Bros." dry goods store. The mystery was solved on Friday morning by the discovery of a fine fat muskrat who had fallen through the gratings in front of Fischbein Bros' store, and had improved his term of solitary confinement by gnawing the sash of the cellar window. He was lassoed and finds a quiet home in a barrel at the butcher shop near the corners.

Elaborate preparations have been made by the clergy connected with the Church of the Assumption parish for the celebration of the nine hundredth anniversary of the order of St. Benedict. Masses will be celebrated to-morrow, Monday and Tuesday, at both morning and evening service. On Tuesday morning Bishop Grace will celebrate high pontifical mass, assisted by all the clergy of the parish. The musical selections will be particularly fine, a number of selections having been arranged for the choir especially for the occasion.

Owing to the immense rush for Damaged Goods, we are obliged to close this Department, opposite the Wigwam, during the morning hours, but will open at One O'clock p. m., Daily, and will remain open until Six O'clock in the evening. We find ourselves obliged to do this in order to get up and deliver goods as sold, and keep the stock in selling order. Our main store, the Wigwam, will remain open during the day, as usual.
