ST. PAUL, MONDAY, JUNE 21, 1880.

ONE has to go away from home to hear the news. A good many papers are publishing the statement that snow fell in Minnesota on Monday last. No one in this State was able to see anything at all resembling snow.

WINDOM'S exodus report was almost as sickly as the Presidential boom. He delayed its submission until the last day of the session, evidently to prevent criticism of its contents.

THE old and thoroughly exploded story that at the time of the New York riots Mr. Seymour promised to call for a large detachment from the army of the Potomac, so as to allow the rebels to march unmolested into Washington, has again been revived.

CHARLES O'CONNOR still adheres to the cause of Tilden, and says he is the only candidate who can carry the State of New York. He justly regards him as a man of pre eminent executive ability, who would effect great reforms in the administration of our affairs.

THERE is a very general complaint in the large cities as to the careless slipshod manner in which the census has been taken. St. Louis claims to have been defrauded out of at least a hundred thousand population, and New York, Brooklyn and Baltimore, and other cities, claim that they are represented as much smaller than they have supposed themselves to be.

A FIRST-CLASS newspaper idiot has made the suggestion that the Democratic party honor itself by nominating Grant for the Presidency, and discarding all the eminent men whose names have been mentioned in connection with the office, and the Chicago Times seriously urges the adoption of the suggestion.

GRANT FOR PRESIDENT IN 1884. Though the election of 1880 has not yet taken place, a certain class of politicians have already begun to plan for the campaign of 1884, and if the November election results as it is almost certain to result—in the defeat of the Republican ticket—these plans will crystallize into action, and the thought of to-day will be the motive of the future.

IT has been given out in certain quarters that after a few years' experience of Democratic rule, the Republican party will be glad to have so reliable a man as Grant to call upon to bear its standard, and this is accompanied by the assurance that if called upon four years hence, Grant will not refuse to lead the forlorn hope.

GRANT is yet a young man, and can afford to wait four years longer for an additional term in the White House. If Garfield is defeated in November, as he certainly will be, Grant's friends will refer to the fact as a demonstration of the truth of their claim that the ex-President alone, of all members of the Republican party, could carry the country.

ANOTHER SUICIDE. Another Old Settler Ties a Stone about His Neck and Jumps into the River. Between four and five o'clock yesterday morning the body of a man was discovered floating in the river opposite the warehouse of the Kookuk Northern Line, at the foot of Jackson street.

FOR the past ten or twelve days he had been in the habit of sleeping at the Wild Hunter hotel on Jackson street, leaving there on Friday afternoon last. He was seen alive on Friday evening, and the supposition is that he deliberately drowned himself on Friday night or early Saturday morning.

TURF AND FIELD.

Game Horses Dead on the Track—The Coming Races and the Coming Horse—The National Game—Miscellaneous Sporting Notes.

Tract Fatalities. Saturday was a particularly unfortunate track day, Glengariffe, a promising steed chaser, having been instantly killed in the inaugural day's racing of the Coney Island club, and the noted trotter Lew Scott dropped dead on the track at Bradford, Pa., after winning his race in the free 'or for all class in three straight heats, in 2:29, 2:31, 2:28 1/2.

TILDEN AND SEYMOUR. There is every indication that by the time the Democratic convention gets fully organized for business the Presidential question will be greatly simplified by the withdrawal of a majority of those who are now reckoned as aspirants for the position.

Trinket to the Front. H. C. McDowell's great five-year-old filly Trinket, with the unequalled five-year-old record of 2:19 3/4, appears to be coming on nicely in her work, and promises this season to show even a more wonderful turn of speed than last year.

With the two leading candidates out of the way there will be no lack of good material from which to make a President. There are more than a score of other self-sacrificing patriots who are willing to be immolated upon the altar of their country, and many of them would doubtless prove to be very honest, capable and trustworthy public officials.

Grand Circuit Programme. The programme of the grand central trotting circuit, including Cleveland, Buffalo, Rochester, Springfield and Hartford—the pentennial of 1880—is announced. The settings are all identical as to purses and classes, and amount to $16,500 for each meeting, or a total of $82,500 for the circuit.

HOW THE NEXT PRESIDENT WILL BE NOMINATED. The national Democratic convention of the people will meet next Tuesday at Cincinnati. It will be composed of 738 delegates. There are 369 electoral votes—so the number of delegates to the convention is just double the number of Presidential electors.

IN the Democratic convention each delegate has only one-half a vote—for instance, Minnesota has ten delegates, but only five votes; New York has seventy delegates, but only thirty-five votes—while the convention will have 738 delegates, they can cast only 369 votes.

THE National Game. The seventh week of the league contest did not result in any material change in the positions of the several clubs.

THE RECORD. Chicago, Worcester, Providence, Troy, Buffalo, Cincinnati, Games won, Games lost.

IN the national contest the Nationals have secured a commanding lead, which is being increased with every week's play.

Miscellaneous Notes. The Coney Island handicap, to be run on the 27th inst., has nineteen acceptances.

IMPOSING CEREMONIES.

Laying the Corner Stone of the New German Catholic Orphan Asylum Yesterday. The ceremony of laying the corner stone of the new German Catholic orphan asylum, on Ninth street, between Exchange and Fort streets, took place yesterday afternoon, and in some respects was one of the most imposing demonstrations ever witnessed in this city.

Chicago this Week. The thoughts of lovers of turf sports, if not their steps, will be turned toward Chicago this week, the occasion being the first great summer running meeting of the Jockey and Trotting club. The sport was inaugurated Saturday, with four hotly contested races, affording any amount of amusement and excitement to the large number of spectators in attendance.

Trinket to the Front. H. C. McDowell's great five-year-old filly Trinket, with the unequalled five-year-old record of 2:19 3/4, appears to be coming on nicely in her work, and promises this season to show even a more wonderful turn of speed than last year.

UNIVERSALISTS.

State Convention at Albert Lea—Large Attendance and Interesting Proceedings. FIRST DAY—MORNING SESSION. ALBERT LEA, June 18, 1880.—I sent this evening, by telegraph, the announcement that the Universalist State Convention commenced its annual session for 1880 in this city, at 10 A. M. to-day, together with a few items of its doings, but did not give any general report of its proceedings.

THE president being absent, the convention was called to order by the standing clerk. Rev. G. S. Gowdy, of Albert Lea, was elected president, pro tem. The opening prayer was made by Rev. J. H. Tuttle, of Minneapolis.

THE committee on credentials made a partial report, giving the names of about forty delegates. A large additional number came by this evening's train, which arrived after the convention had adjourned for the day.

THE committee on arrangements submitted the following order of exercises for the entire session, which was adopted: FRIDAY, JUNE 18, 1880. 3:30 to 3:40 P. M.—Business. 3:40 P. M.—Discussion of Sunday school matters.

EUROPEAN EVENTS. THE Irish Land Bill in Parliament—Government Proposition for Plenary Amnesty in France—Short and Humorous Session of the International Commission Anticipated—Miscellaneous.

IRISH DISTRESS—PARLIAMENT. LONDON, June 19.—Home rulers have resolved to oppose progress on the bill for relief of Irish distress until the government reduces the bill founded on the principle of a new clause to be proposed by the chief secretary, for Ireland enlarging the power of local boards of awarding compensation to occupiers of land, passage in the house of commons of local option resolution, giving the inhabitants of any district the right to purchase the land, and licenses to public houses shall be renewed or not, will oblige the government to introduce a bill regulating liquor licenses.

AMNESTY IN FRANCE. PARIS, June 19.—Gambetta at a meeting of senators and deputies to discuss the amnesty question, said that in the provinces as in Paris, public opinion has accepted amnesty as necessary. The conservative and republican parties, and all the prominent members of the press, have unanimously favored it.

IRISH LAND BILL. LONDON, June 19.—The second reading of the Irish land bill in the house of commons, is fixed for the 22d inst. The bill provides that until the 31st December, 1881, ejectments for non-payment of rent in certain scheduled districts where distress is prevalent, shall be suspended, and the tenant shall be entitled to the benefit of the law relating to the rent of 1870, and the tenant shall be entitled to compensation in the discretion of the judge of the county court if non-payment of rent is claimed by the landlord, and the tenant is willing to continue in occupation on reasonable terms as to rent, arrears of rent and otherwise, and such terms are unreasonably refused by the landlord. The bill meets disapproval on the part of the landlords, who denounce it as confiscation. The newspapers oppose the bill unqualifiedly.

BURLESQUE RELIEF BILLS. LONDON, June 19.—In the house of commons last night, Lord Eoch, liberal, gave notice he would introduce two bills intended as a burlesque on the Irish relief bill. One empowering the prime minister or home secretary, to fix and remit rates, prescribe the mode of cultivation according to the wishes of the tenant, and regulate the price of agricultural implements, and artificial manure, and the other empowering the minister, or home secretary, to fix the rate of interest on borrowed money, all private contracts on these matters to be subject to the approval of the minister of the bills to go upon paper. But they illustrate the view that British property holders take of the Irish bill.

PROTESTANT PROTEST. A meeting of the Protestant Reformation society was held last night at Exeter hall, to protest against the intended appointment of the marquis of Ripon as viceroy of India.

ASSESSOR'S NOTICE. First and Last Call. All tax-payers who have been served with blanks for the listing of their personal property for taxation for the year 1880, will please make their returns of the same without delay.

Garfield on His Travels. PITTSBURGH, June 19.—General Garfield, accompanied by Congressman Conger and Willets of Michigan, Humphreys of Wisconsin, and Major Townsend of Ohio, passed through en route to Cleveland this evening. They were met by a large number of friends, and in response to a call for a speech, said: Gentlemen—I would rather be excused from making a speech. There will be plenty of speech making between now and November. I understand Pittsburgh is all right for the party, and that you are prospering here in your industry. Hoping we will all have good times between now and November and thanking you for this reception I bid you good evening.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

Gathered by the Special Reporters of the Daily Globe. STILLWATER. The Apple river logs are now in the boom. Saturday night was fine and clear, and the lively stables did a good business.

THE steamer Jonnie Hayes left yesterday with an excursion for the Falls. The excursion was gotten up by D. M. Swain's employees. The board of education hold a meeting next Thursday evening, at which time a principal will probably be chosen for our public schools.

THE children's services at the M. E. churches yesterday were very interesting and well attended. The morning was fine and the churches were moderately well filled with people, of course.

THE Taylor's Falls Journal advises that Vezzie's and Staples' horses will trot at that place on Saturday, and the track will probably be laid this week.

THE services this evening were in accordance with the printed programme; prayer meeting at seven, and preaching at eight. Rev. J. H. Tuttle delivered a very able and interesting discourse at the eight o'clock services.

THE young gentlemen have purchased shot-guns and are "laying for" the reporter of that sheet. There is a horrible state of affairs at South Stillwater, resulting from the efforts of a gentleman in that place to stop the sale of liquor there. His object is a good one and all good citizens agree to this, but the means that he has adopted seem to be of rather doubtful propriety.

THE young gentlemen had presence of mind enough to dive as soon as they struck the water, so they were not struck by the wheel. It was a long dive, but they all made it safe enough, and came to the surface all right.

THE suit of Judge Leslie, pending for some time past, was decided in favor of the railroad company on the grounds that there was no cow killed on the 9th of May. Mr. L. will take an appeal.

THE Todd County Argus says: Sank Centre (Stevens county), is filled to overflowing with generous hearted, whole souled men, who are building up a town that is an honor to the northwest.

THE LATE DR. BOARDMAN.

End of a Distinguished Divine—Death of Heart Disease—The Record of a Useful Life, Embracing Forty-Three Years of Service as a Pastor. [Philadelphia Times, 17th.] Rev. Henry A. Boardman, D. D., for forty-three years pastor of the Tenth Presbyterian church, at Twelfth and Walnut streets, died at his residence, 1311 Spruce street, yesterday morning at 7 o'clock, of heart disease.

HE was one of the most able theologians perhaps in this country, and during his long and busy career received many high recognitions of his worth and service. In addition to his calling as a pastor he was the author of several important works, in which he won for himself a wide celebrity.

HENRY AUGUSTUS BOARDMAN was born in 1808, in Troy, New York. He graduated at Yale College, in 1829, with high honors, and delivered the inaugural address. Afterward he entered the Princeton Theological seminary, and graduated there in 1833.

HE was one of the most able theologians perhaps in this country, and during his long and busy career received many high recognitions of his worth and service. In addition to his calling as a pastor he was the author of several important works, in which he won for himself a wide celebrity.
