

Daily Globe

Official Paper of the City & County

Printed and Published Every Day in the Year

BY H. P. HALL.

NO. 11 WABASH STREET, ST. PAUL.

Terms of Subscription for the Daily Globe

By carrier, (7 papers per week) 70 cents per month

By mail (without Sunday edition) 6 papers per week, 60 cents per month

By mail (with Sunday edition) 7 papers per week, 70 cents per month

THE SUNDAY GLOBE.

By mail the SUNDAY GLOBE will be one dollar per year.

THE WEEKLY GLOBE.

The WEEKLY GLOBE is a mammoth sheet, exactly double the size of the Daily.

It is furnished to single subscribers at $1, with 15 cents added for pre-payment of postage.

Subscribers should remit $1.

ST. PAUL, TUESDAY, JULY 6, 1890.

THE GLOBE FOR THE CAMPAIGN.

Aid the Cause by Circulating Democratic Literature.

Democratic county, city and town committees cannot do more efficient service than by extending the circulation of the GLOBE.

Let the people of the land receive light.

The price of the daily GLOBE is sixty cents per month.

Committees or others can make their own computation of time and remit accordingly.

Anyone sending five daily subscribers for the campaign will receive an extra copy free.

The weekly GLOBE is $1.15 per annum, postage paid.

It will be sent during the campaign for fifty cents.

Friends of the cause should interest themselves to see that the circulation of the GLOBE is rapidly increased.

BILL WASHBURN will be unanimously nominated for Congress by the Republicans of the Third Minnesota district to-morrow.

This is as it should be. He is one of their representative men.

He has been branded by a Congressional committee as a bribe giver and corruptionist.

He is the acknowledged representative of timber thieves, and aside from trying to save his purchased seat his chief efforts in Congress have been to pass a bill to shield the pine land thieves.

Of course, he ought to be unanimously renominated by the Republicans. He's one of 'em.

We should judge that the Windom boom had struck the Republican party of Ramsey county amidships.

Capt. Blakely is the Republican Nephew of the Second Ward, and previous to last night his last public appearance was as god-father of the Windom boom.

Last night he assembled himself grand, gloomy and peculiar at the court house to hold a caucus, but the affair was as dead as the aforesaid boom.

Even his colored brother Hilyard deserted him, and the captain, like the last rose of summer, was left blooming alone.

As he solemnly adjured himself he was heard to warble:

The Windom boomer's lot is not a happy one—happy one.

The harmony at present existing in the Democratic ranks is the subject of much envious remark in the Republican newspapers.

They alude very flippantly to the lion and the lamb lying down together, and all that sort of thing.

They should remember that such evidences of harmony were prophecies of the millennium, and if the Democratic party shall be the means of bringing that era about it will have achieved its manifest destiny.

At present there is no contention in the Democratic fold. It can take place only in case of the intrusion of a few Republican wolves, and as the scripture makes no mention of such an animal, the party will be excusable if it kicks out any that may seek to enter the fold.

THE ST. PAUL "PIONEER," an able Republican journal of the northwest, observes of Gen. Hancock that he is "a gallant soldier who did his duty nobly and bravely."

How are we to reconcile this to the verdict of the New York Times that Gen. Hancock is "an epauletted nobody?"

How, indeed.—N. Y. World.

Easy enough. Gen. Hancock is very popular in St. Paul, and has some very warm personal friends among Republicans who are also friends of the P. P.

That concern soul to the devil long ago and has no political convictions that imperil business interests.

Garfield's friends in Minnesota are simply the rank and file of the Republican party. They rather like to be snubbed by the P. P., and hence that concern toadies to the local Hancock sentiment and throws in a little slush for Garfield to keep its standing in its party.

This is high toned journalism.

A SAGE PULPITEER in St. Paul on Sunday evening gave utterance to the statement that the newspaper is fast losing its hold on public opinion; that the newspaper utterly fails as an organ of opinion, but that the pulpit and the platform shape public opinion.

This oracle spoke to nearly a hundred and fifty people, the majority of whom were so eagerly capable of forming an opinion or to give that opinion voice at the polls.

The smallest newspaper that is printed reaches five times the number of people, and is read by large numbers of intelligent voters.

The leading dailies are read by thousands where the preacher is heard by tens, and it is preposterous to suppose that men can read so much and not be influenced by what they read.

The general verdict will be that the preacher who gave utterance to the sentiments quoted would do well to obtain a little wisdom before setting himself up as an oracle in a community of the intelligence that St. Paul boasts.

THE VICE PRESIDENCY.

The silence of the Republican newspapers as to the qualifications of their candidate for Vice President, is rendered more significant by their covert attacks upon Mr. English, the nominee of the Democratic party for the same office.

They acknowledge that in every walk of life he has conducted himself with propriety, but are continually harping on the fact that he has been a successful business man, and is now wealthy.

They call him a "money grabber," and an extortioner, seeming to overlook the fact that every man who has won a competence, is open to the same accusation.

They have not charged, however, that he ever extorted from any man more than his due, and if such a charge should be made, it could not be substantiated.

In view of the ever-present possibility that the President may die before the experi-

THE FOURTH.

(Continued from First Page.)

Mr. Getty took a fair lead and won the race in about one and a half minutes.

The best performance was a swimming race, participated in by J. J. and P. W. Parker, W. Blakely, B. F. Schurmeier, G. W. James, G. C. Squires and W. S. Getty.

A fine performance of physical skill was given, and the race was very evenly contested.

Mr. Squires won by a few feet. The course was 500 feet for a gold badge.

PRESENTATION OF PRIZES.

The visitors then repaired to the canopy, where the presentation of prizes took place.

The first prize, the citizens' cup, a solid silver vessel, was presented to Mr. W. S. Getty in behalf of the winning crew, the "Itasca."

Judge Flandrau was set down for the presentation speech, but owing to his presence in court he was forced to send his regrets.

The address was acceptably made by Col. J. H. Davidson.

Then presented to the cup the speaker alluded to the pleasure derived from the annual regatta, which were all the more appropriate as coming on a national holiday.

The benefits derived from physical culture were eloquently alluded to, and the speaker adverted to the great interest taken in the sport throughout the country.

The speaker thought it was far better to leave college at the foot of the class, with a sound body, than to win intellectual accomplishments at a sacrifice of health and vitality for the moment.

The practice of physical development afforded the highest order of culture and sport, and the speaker traced the origin of many exercises from the period of the Olympic games as practised by the Greeks.

The crew were congratulated for the excellent manner in which they acquitted themselves, and the speech was greeted with applause.

The "Coronet," a gold badge, was then presented to Mr. J. J. Parker, the winner of the first single scull race, by Miss Tinkham.

The young lady made a charming speech, complimenting the winner on his skill, and attributing the victory, not so much to physical superiority, as to having possessed a well filled scull.

The double ender was received with laughter.

The next prize was a gold tub, presented by Miss May Banning to Mr. W. S. Getty, winner of the tub race.

Miss Banning presented the prize in a charming manner, expressing delight at the achievement.

The composition was classic in its allusions and was received with applause.

Messrs. Granger and Getty, the winners of the double scull race, were then each presented with a miniature gold oar.

The presentation speech was made by Miss Broden who acquitted herself in an exceedingly pleasant and clever manner.

Following this the "May" was presented to Capt. Howe, in behalf of the winning crew, the "New Gig."

The address was made by the Hon. Geo. L. Otis, who made a most delightful speech. He congratulated both crews, and said that while the laurels should not be taken from the victors, the vanquished boat had never been manned by a better crew.

Both crews had made an elegant beginning, and the race was most exciting.

It was a friendly contested race, nobly won by a noble display of valor and skill.

The speaker happily consoled the vanquished crew, and his address was heard with great pleasure.

The prize for the swimming race, a gold badge, with a cunningly devised leap frog within, was then awarded to Mr. Squires by Miss Krantz.

The young lady made a clever and very appropriate speech, and it was received with applause.

The visitors then dispersed, having enjoyed a season of pronounced and very delightful pleasure.

Picnic at St. Michaels Church.

The grounds were crowded from 10 o'clock in the morning until late in the evening.

At Father Gallagher, after thanking the parties who had contributed to make the picnic so amusing, asked as a favor that those present would disperse, owing to the late hour.

The city band was in attendance, and the amusing games indulged in were numerous.

To-day that the picnic was enjoyed would be but a faint expression of the sentiments of those participating, who left the grounds with the audible expressions that if ever the members of St. Michael's church have a picnic again they would be sure to attend.

Great praise is due to Mrs. Jas. Trodden, Mrs. Jordan and Mrs. Costello, assisted by Mrs. Devlin, who has been known to be ever ready to do a good work when necessary.

The fireworks last night.

The open grounds in the vicinity of Madison school house, all the streets and house yards of that neighborhood and the upper slope of Wabash street were filled last evening from 8 to 10 o'clock by a great multitude gathered to witness the announced display of fireworks.

The exhibition was better than usual and was gone through without delay or accident.

When the final piece, a grand fiery placard reading "Good night," had been burned out, the crowds, slowly filing down Cedar, Wabash and St. Peter streets, were treated to the sight of showers of rockets and Roman candles in every part of the city visible from that quarter, and to the rattling and cracking of fire crackers, pistols and guns in every direction.

Some of the numerous private and neighborhood exhibitions of fireworks were quite extensive, and it is, perhaps, unnecessary to remark to anyone who has witnessed the patriotic manifestations that the patriotism which manifested itself in the burning of gunpowder, has been the most prominent and noisy feature of our three days' celebration.

Miscellaneous Notes.

The choir of the German Lutheran church of Tenth and Washburn streets, had a picnic yesterday, attended by most of the young folks of the congregation.

About three thousand persons went out to Lake Platan yesterday, to attend a picnic and witness the sports advertised to take place there.

The inadequacy of the preparations for the entertainment of so large a number was disappointing to most of the crowd.

A gentleman, who declined to give his name, walking on Seventh street, between Cedar and Minnesota streets, about 10 o'clock last evening, had a narrow escape from death, a pistol being passed through his hat, and his body for two or three inches deep, enough to make it bleed freely.

The pistol was probably fired by some reckless celebrator.

At Red Wing.

REDWING, Minn., July 5.—The Fourth of July was celebrated here to-day in the grandest style for many years.

The proceedings were opened by a street parade of the fire department, this A. M., headed by the city band and the police force.

Foot racing and a great many other sports were carried on in the streets up to noon, when the horse-racing, which was held out at the fair grounds, took place and lasted till seven this evening.

Among the trotting horses entered were Hamiltonian Chief, Membrino, Lollap and several others.

The racing was very interesting and some fair time was made.

A grand display of fireworks, on the river bank, and a ball under the auspices of the fire department will close the proceedings of the day.

The city was filled with many visitors from the surrounding country and the streets presented a very lively appearance.

Fatalities at Milwaukee.

[Special Telegram to the Globe.]

MILWAUKEE, July 5.—One murder, two or three fatal accidents and a long list of minor casualties mark the celebration of our national independence here.

In the course of a bloody row at a picnic in the town of

THE FOURTH.

(Continued from First Page.)

Mr. Getty took a fair lead and won the race in about one and a half minutes.

The best performance was a swimming race, participated in by J. J. and P. W. Parker, W. Blakely, B. F. Schurmeier, G. W. James, G. C. Squires and W. S. Getty.

A fine performance of physical skill was given, and the race was very evenly contested.

Mr. Squires won by a few feet. The course was 500 feet for a gold badge.

PRESENTATION OF PRIZES.

The visitors then repaired to the canopy, where the presentation of prizes took place.

The first prize, the citizens' cup, a solid silver vessel, was presented to Mr. W. S. Getty in behalf of the winning crew, the "Itasca."

Judge Flandrau was set down for the presentation speech, but owing to his presence in court he was forced to send his regrets.

The address was acceptably made by Col. J. H. Davidson.

Then presented to the cup the speaker alluded to the pleasure derived from the annual regatta, which were all the more appropriate as coming on a national holiday.

The benefits derived from physical culture were eloquently alluded to, and the speaker adverted to the great interest taken in the sport throughout the country.

The speaker thought it was far better to leave college at the foot of the class, with a sound body, than to win intellectual accomplishments at a sacrifice of health and vitality for the moment.

The practice of physical development afforded the highest order of culture and sport, and the speaker traced the origin of many exercises from the period of the Olympic games as practised by the Greeks.

The crew were congratulated for the excellent manner in which they acquitted themselves, and the speech was greeted with applause.

The "Coronet," a gold badge, was then presented to Mr. J. J. Parker, the winner of the first single scull race, by Miss Tinkham.

The young lady made a charming speech, complimenting the winner on his skill, and attributing the victory, not so much to physical superiority, as to having possessed a well filled scull.

The double ender was received with laughter.

The next prize was a gold tub, presented by Miss May Banning to Mr. W. S. Getty, winner of the tub race.

Miss Banning presented the prize in a charming manner, expressing delight at the achievement.

The composition was classic in its allusions and was received with applause.

Messrs. Granger and Getty, the winners of the double scull race, were then each presented with a miniature gold oar.

The presentation speech was made by Miss Broden who acquitted herself in an exceedingly pleasant and clever manner.

Following this the "May" was presented to Capt. Howe, in behalf of the winning crew, the "New Gig."

The address was made by the Hon. Geo. L. Otis, who made a most delightful speech. He congratulated both crews, and said that while the laurels should not be taken from the victors, the vanquished boat had never been manned by a better crew.

Both crews had made an elegant beginning, and the race was most exciting.

It was a friendly contested race, nobly won by a noble display of valor and skill.

The speaker happily consoled the vanquished crew, and his address was heard with great pleasure.

The prize for the swimming race, a gold badge, with a cunningly devised leap frog within, was then awarded to Mr. Squires by Miss Krantz.

The young lady made a clever and very appropriate speech, and it was received with applause.

The visitors then dispersed, having enjoyed a season of pronounced and very delightful pleasure.

Picnic at St. Michaels Church.

The grounds were crowded from 10 o'clock in the morning until late in the evening.

At Father Gallagher, after thanking the parties who had contributed to make the picnic so amusing, asked as a favor that those present would disperse, owing to the late hour.

The city band was in attendance, and the amusing games indulged in were numerous.

To-day that the picnic was enjoyed would be but a faint expression of the sentiments of those participating, who left the grounds with the audible expressions that if ever the members of St. Michael's church have a picnic again they would be sure to attend.

Great praise is due to Mrs. Jas. Trodden, Mrs. Jordan and Mrs. Costello, assisted by Mrs. Devlin, who has been known to be ever ready to do a good work when necessary.

The fireworks last night.

The open grounds in the vicinity of Madison school house, all the streets and house yards of that neighborhood and the upper slope of Wabash street were filled last evening from 8 to 10 o'clock by a great multitude gathered to witness the announced display of fireworks.

The exhibition was better than usual and was gone through without delay or accident.

When the final piece, a grand fiery placard reading "Good night," had been burned out, the crowds, slowly filing down Cedar, Wabash and St. Peter streets, were treated to the sight of showers of rockets and Roman candles in every part of the city visible from that quarter, and to the rattling and cracking of fire crackers, pistols and guns in every direction.

Some of the numerous private and neighborhood exhibitions of fireworks were quite extensive, and it is, perhaps, unnecessary to remark to anyone who has witnessed the patriotic manifestations that the patriotism which manifested itself in the burning of gunpowder, has been the most prominent and noisy feature of our three days' celebration.

Miscellaneous Notes.

The choir of the German Lutheran church of Tenth and Washburn streets, had a picnic yesterday, attended by most of the young folks of the congregation.

About three thousand persons went out to Lake Platan yesterday, to attend a picnic and witness the sports advertised to take place there.

The inadequacy of the preparations for the entertainment of so large a number was disappointing to most of the crowd.

A gentleman, who declined to give his name, walking on Seventh street, between Cedar and Minnesota streets, about 10 o'clock last evening, had a narrow escape from death, a pistol being passed through his hat, and his body for two or three inches deep, enough to make it bleed freely.

The pistol was probably fired by some reckless celebrator.

At Red Wing.

REDWING, Minn., July 5.—The Fourth of July was celebrated here to-day in the grandest style for many years.

The proceedings were opened by a street parade of the fire department, this A. M., headed by the city band and the police force.

Foot racing and a great many other sports were carried on in the streets up to noon, when the horse-racing, which was held out at the fair grounds, took place and lasted till seven this evening.

Among the trotting horses entered were Hamiltonian Chief, Membrino, Lollap and several others.

The racing was very interesting and some fair time was made.

A grand display of fireworks, on the river bank, and a ball under the auspices of the fire department will close the proceedings of the day.

The city was filled with many visitors from the surrounding country and the streets presented a very lively appearance.

Fatalities at Milwaukee.

[Special Telegram to the Globe.]

MILWAUKEE, July 5.—One murder, two or three fatal accidents and a long list of minor casualties mark the celebration of our national independence here.

In the course of a bloody row at a picnic in the town of

THE FOURTH.

(Continued from First Page.)

Mr. Getty took a fair lead and won the race in about one and a half minutes.

The best performance was a swimming race, participated in by J. J. and P. W. Parker, W. Blakely, B. F. Schurmeier, G. W. James, G. C. Squires and W. S. Getty.

A fine performance of physical skill was given, and the race was very evenly contested.

Mr. Squires won by a few feet. The course was 500 feet for a gold badge.

PRESENTATION OF PRIZES.

The visitors then repaired to the canopy, where the presentation of prizes took place.

The first prize, the citizens' cup, a solid silver vessel, was presented to Mr. W. S. Getty in behalf of the winning crew, the "Itasca."

Judge Flandrau was set down for the presentation speech, but owing to his presence in court he was forced to send his regrets.

The address was acceptably made by Col. J. H. Davidson.

Then presented to the cup the speaker alluded to the pleasure derived from the annual regatta, which were all the more appropriate as coming on a national holiday.

The benefits derived from physical culture were eloquently alluded to, and the speaker adverted to the great interest taken in the sport throughout the country.

The speaker thought it was far better to leave college at the foot of the class, with a sound body, than to win intellectual accomplishments at a sacrifice of health and vitality for the moment.

The practice of physical development afforded the highest order of culture and sport, and the speaker traced the origin of many exercises from the period of the Olympic games as practised by the Greeks.

The crew were congratulated for the excellent manner in which they acquitted themselves, and the speech was greeted with applause.

The "Coronet," a gold badge, was then presented to Mr. J. J. Parker, the winner of the first single scull race, by Miss Tinkham.

The young lady made a charming speech, complimenting the winner on his skill, and attributing the victory, not so much to physical superiority, as to having possessed a well filled scull.

The double ender was received with laughter.

The next prize was a gold tub, presented by Miss May Banning to Mr. W. S. Getty, winner of the tub race.

Miss Banning presented the prize in a charming manner, expressing delight at the achievement.

The composition was classic in its allusions and was received with applause.

Messrs. Granger and Getty, the winners of the double scull race, were then each presented with a miniature gold oar.

The presentation speech was made by Miss Broden who acquitted herself in an exceedingly pleasant and clever manner.

Following this the "May" was presented to Capt. Howe, in behalf of the winning crew, the "New Gig."

The address was made by the Hon. Geo. L. Otis, who made a most delightful speech. He congratulated both crews, and said that while the laurels should not be taken from the victors, the vanquished boat had never been manned by a better crew.

Both crews had made an elegant beginning, and the race was most exciting.

It was a friendly contested race, nobly won by a noble display of valor and skill.

The speaker happily consoled the vanquished crew, and his address was heard with great pleasure.

The prize for the swimming race, a gold badge, with a cunningly devised leap frog within, was then awarded to Mr. Squires by Miss Krantz.

The young lady made a clever and very appropriate speech, and it was received with applause.

The visitors then dispersed, having enjoyed a season of pronounced and very delightful pleasure.

Picnic at St. Michaels Church.

The grounds were crowded from 10 o'clock in the morning until late in the evening.

At Father Gallagher, after thanking the parties who had contributed to make the picnic so amusing, asked as a favor that those present would disperse, owing to the late hour.

The city band was in attendance, and the amusing games indulged in were numerous.