

CITY GLOBULES.

The Board of Public Works is to meet at 9 o'clock this morning, to pass upon certain estimates only.

Box No. 21 of the fire alarm clock has been changed from Eighth and Robert streets to the corner of Fifth and Minnesota streets.

The drill of Damascus commandery at the rink last evening was a success and was witnessed by a large number of delighted spectators.

A harmless runaway took place on Minnesota street yesterday forenoon, in which a young man named Getty had a narrow escape from injury.

Workmen were engaged yesterday in putting up the cornice over the facade and roof of the new market house at the Washabaw street entrance.

Holders of preferred stock of the St. Paul & Sioux City company are encouraged by rumors that the directors of the company will declare a dividend about August 1.

An action was commenced in the district court yesterday by Harvey Lewis against E. P. Webb to recover the sum of $611 for services, board and provisions furnished.

Parties who wish to correct their assessments should read the official notice of the county auditor in another column, calling attention to the meeting of the board of equalization.

A depreaved looking wretch, named Carl Kraft, was before his honor yesterday charged with vagrancy. He didn't attempt a plausible defense, and was sent to the quay for fifteen days.

Sheriff Nugent, of Wright county, was in St. Paul yesterday in hopes of obtaining a clue to the whereabouts of a gang of horse thieves who have been raiding Wright county.

The grand street parade of Damascus commandery takes place this evening. It will be an imposing pageant, and no doubt Bridge square and Third street will be crowded with spectators.

The Democrats of Kandiyohi county are up and doing; they have arranged for an open air mass meeting at Wilmar on Saturday afternoon next, which will be addressed by Gen. B. W. Johnson and other prominent men.

Capt. J. W. French, of "Wild Jim," the Western rifle shot, is to give exhibitions of his skill at the Broadway rink Thursday, Friday and Saturday. He is an expert, and will give very interesting exhibitions.

The Damascus Commandery and members of the police force will give an exhibition drill this evening at Bridge Square. The St. Paul and Minneapolis ends of the Great Western Band will supply the music.

Anna Kantermann, the chronic toper, was arrested on Walnut street last night in company with a disreputable male companion. The Sixth ward officers were both drunk, and on this account were lodged in the cooler.

Mr. A. O. Bailey yesterday shipped a car load of ginseng and snake root. The ginseng consisted of about eight thousand pounds contained in twenty large casks, and the remainder of the car load was made up of snake root in sacks.

A grizzly faced old party named Fred Meyers, was at the police court yesterday, charged with indulging in tanglefoot. The same man was up on Saturday, being let down light on account of his getting drunk yesterday he put up $8 for the fun, and was discharged.

A soldier named Lizzie Wilson was arrested Sunday night for creating a disturbance on Jackson street. The case was called yesterday morning and she was fined $10, with the appearance of the sum of $14, put up as bail, was declared forfeited. She appeared later in the day, pleaded guilty and was fined $5.

A traveler named W. A. Moore stepped up to the lunch stand in the Jackson street depot yesterday morning and called for a cup of coffee, leaving his valise on the platform. He returned in a few moments, and lo! the grip sack had vanished. It contained a rubber overcoat and several articles of clothing.

Last night a drunken hoodlum went into Caldwell's saloon and called for a glass of C. & S.'s best sour mash. The beverage was no sooner set up than he gave the bottle a toss, and the contents went flying about the room. He was about to inaugurate a drink, when proceedings were stayed by Officer Cook, who yanked him to the cooler.

James Anderson, of Minneapolis, leased a horse and buggy with his week's wages yesterday and came to St. Paul to see the sights. He visited the "Pinaroff" variety dive, on West Third street, where he boozed up on the midriff and then gave vent to a camp-meeting howl. He was cared for by Officer McMahon, who laid him on the shelf.

Last night a message came to the city hall stating that an aged man had broken his leg at Park Place. Officer Lowell was sent up, and the sufferer was found to be an infirm old party who has been limping around town as a beggar. His leg was not broken by a falling ram, as he was assisted to the city hall, and will be sent to the hospital this morning.

A fly young duffer who furnishes the chin music for a Jackson street clothing house rode up to city hall on a white charger last night and enquired if the authorities here would request the police at Minneapolis to arrest two travelers of the name of Jones and Frank Manship, who were about to explain when a GLOBE reporter happened to come along, on seeing whom the young idiot put the spur to his horse and drove off as if struck by a lightning bolt.

Saturday night a couple of festive youths named Thomas Jones and Frank Manship engaged in a game of fifteen ball pool at Temple's number fifteen ball from the pocket and playing a smaller ball in its place. Jones was didn't make the transfer, but he was close of the game Manship refused to pay for the game on the grounds that it had been won by fraud. A fight ensued, at the height of which both men were yanked to the cooler. Yesterday the parties were before Judge McGrorty. Jones was discharged and Manship was fined eight dollars or ten days in the cooler.

Nearly all the St. Paul business men whose families are spending the season at White Bear, have returned to the St. Paul & Duluth company to change the time of one of the morning trains from White Bear, from 8:55 A. M. to 7:40 A. M., so that it will arrive at St. Paul twenty-five minutes earlier than now. The company desires to accommodate its patrons and may make the change to-morrow morning, though, as it involves the changing of time of Stillwater trains and a partial revision of the general time table it may have to be delayed a few days. The gain of twenty-five minutes, in the morning is of considerable importance to the signers, as it will enable them to stay at their normal time for beginning the business of the day.

Saturday evening a reuelion took place at the Merchants hotel, which might have resulted in serious consequences. The row was between Peter Hanson, the third cook at the hotel, and David Black, the steward. Hanson was coming up stairs with a barrel of charcoal, some of which tipped out and spilled on the floor. Black ordered him to clean it up, which he refused to do, whereupon the former took hold of Hanson and ran him out of the kitchen. Hanson seized a cleaver and made at Black, who parried the blow with a dough bowl. Hanson was arrested, and the hearing took place yesterday morning. The testimony being substantially as stated above. Hanson stated that Black seized him by the throat and choked the life out of him, but he was rescued by the steward. Black acknowledged the choking, and Hanson did not deny the cleaver business. Both men should have been fined, but Hanson only received a fine of $10, or fifteen days in the cooler.

Business at the police court yesterday opened with a hoop-la which has not been noticeable for many days. There was the man who yesterday drank and disorderly cases, in addition to which a number of hearings came up on continuances. The bull-pen was jammed with offenders, and the eight by twelve court room groined with its pack of begrimmed, dirty and congealed mass of humanity. There was a babble of tongues. The ballista stood at the door and kept back the gang of onlookers struggling to get in, and for whom there was no standing room. The court mopped his brow with an insurance blotter, the clerk swore (his witnesses) in a dozen languages, the figure of justice grew dizzy and almost upset her steady, the lawyers fought over the witness, which made the city attorney tear his hair, and hizzon, for the life of his soul could not hear half the testimony, while the only happy men were the reporters, who enjoyed the circus and only lacked an ell of inspired lead, with illustrative accompaniments, to make the scene immortal.

Bishop Whipple, accompanied by the Rev. E. W. Wilson, arrived in the city last evening, en route for the Indian reservation in the north part of the State. The bishop goes first to Leech Lake, where he will consecrate, on Friday, a new church erected during the past year. This makes the sixth church erected for Indian service since the bishop first interested himself in the welfare of the "untutored savage" in this State. The bishop will also visit Cass Lake, Red Lake and White Earth, at each of which points he will confirm a number of members of the church, all converts from among the Indians. This trip of the bishop will occupy from two to three weeks, and the GLOBE is pleased to know that his health is such as to permit him to undertake so arduous a journey.

Fans, Fans, Fans. Biggest stock in the city, from 5 cents to $5, at the 99-cent store, Bridge Square.

The Free Exhibition of Japanese Brocade Brae.

As the time for the auction draws near, the excitement and interest increases in the exhibit of Oldties and Gems, under the Metropolitan hotel, and if such spontaneous expressions of admiration as constantly greet the car accounts for aught, then there are but few things shown that will leave our city, as they are to be auctioned next Thursday afternoon.

Don't forget the sale of real estate corner of Washabaw street and College avenue, this morning.

Railroad Officials Dismissed.

CLEVELAND, O., July 19.—B. C. Harris, A. R. Smith and T. A. Fellows, ticket agents, and Geo. Meyers, depot master, have been summarily dismissed from service in the Union passenger depot for violation of rules in buying and selling tickets. All have been employed in the depot many years and were highly respected and trusted.

Ought to Have Been Kicked Out.

[Applison Recorder.]

The office-holders' convention, lately held in Minneapolis, nominated W. D. Washburn for Congress. Had the said Washburn received his just deserts, he would have been kicked out of Congress for his bribery and corruption; but the Pine Land ring was potent with lobbyists at Washington.
