

CITY GOBULES.

Sleighing took a benefit yesterday. There were more fine rigs on the streets than have been before witnessed since the snow fell.

Be sure and come to the song service to-day, at 4 p. m., in the Y. M. C. A. rooms. B. S. Clark, Esq., will have charge of the singing.

The ice men have got the surface of their field of operations above the bridge pretty well cleared of snow, preparatory to raising next season's crop.

The signal station at Breckenridge, Minn., will be removed to Fargo, D. T., on Dec. 1st, 1880, by order of the acting chief signal officer of the army.

The divorce case of Eichorn vs. Eichorn came before Judge Brill yesterday on the application of Mrs. Eichorn for alimony. The motion was taken under advisement.

The friends of Prof. Priem will regret to learn that for purely personal reasons he has tendered his resignation as director of the Mannerich singing society.

Champion lodge No. 13, K. of P., will visit Stillwater next Tuesday, the 30th inst., to assist the lodge of that city in conferring Third ranks on some twenty new members.

John O'Donnell, a son of the old dar, was up yesterday for tackling the deadly bug juice. He acknowledged the weakness, received a five days' sentence, and took his medicine like a man.

The St. Paul branch of the Irish land league will hold a meeting to-morrow evening at 7:30 p. m., at Pines IX hall, which will be addressed by Dillon O'Brien, James J. Egan and M. J. O'Connor.

The sum of $130.25 was paid into the custom house yesterday, as duties on a valuable importation of musical instruments imported from Germany by Maj. Bobler of the New Ulm Regiment.

Joe Leighton's four mules, which were lost after being taken off the cars, as detailed in the GLOBE a couple of days ago, were found yesterday morning out near Lake Como and were returned to their owner.

The case of Julia T. Greenleaf against P. Kagan on trial for an accounting, was resumed before Judge Simons yesterday forenoon. Mrs. Greenleaf occupied the stand all morning, and at noon the court adjourned until to-morrow at 10 a. m.

The clock, chair and looking glass stolen from the cabin of the Mary Barnes were recovered yesterday, by Officer Clouse. The clock and chair were recovered from a second hand store, corner of Seventh and Isabella streets, and the mirror was found at Rosenbaum's on Seventh street.

The hay business was what commercial reporters would probably call "dull, weak and nominal" yesterday. There were a large number of loads on the market, but sales were slow, and mainly made on private terms, which were rather below prices as quoted yesterday.

Rev. Dr. Sonnenschein, of St. Louis, a distinguished Rabbi, a most eloquent orator, will deliver a lecture in the English language at Mount Zion temple, corner Minnesota and Tenth streets, this afternoon at 2:30 p. m. A cordial invitation is extended to the general public.

A bankrupt penitentiary named Simon Paschall, with the air of a brigand and the lazy appearance characteristic of the latter, was seen by a hunter yesterday, charged with being a vagrant. He pleaded guilty, stated that he had no wealth and asked to be sent to the bastille. He was accommodated with a thirty day's stretch.

Maple wood is selling on the streets for $7 a cord. This high price is due to the scarcity caused by the early setting in of cold weather. The dealers and shippers of wood were fully prepared to deal up with the unexpected demand. The dealers seem to think that, with a few days more of mild weather, such as has been experienced the last few days, they will be fully able to provide for all orders hereafter.

A gentleman was seen last night at the Windsor with a very bloody hand, done up in a cloth, hunting a doctor to dress his wound. Being questioned as to the way the thing happened, he said there was nothing the matter with it. Probably he was asleep when the accident occurred or when he got hurt in a fight or it may be that he was in a state of somnolence when talking with the reporter, but he didn't look like it.

About 2 o'clock, yesterday afternoon, two men named Peter Hankel and Nick Kline engaged in a quarrel in a barn owned by John Peters, situated in the rear of Wabasha street. During the fracas Kline seized an iron bar and dealt his opponent a crack on the skull, over the left ear, making an ugly scalp wound. Kline was arrested by Officer Clouse, and Hankel was taken to Dr. Abbott, who dressed the wound, after which he was locked up to appear as a witness.

An action was commenced in the district court yesterday by William Dawson against H. A. Munger, A. Lyon, T. C. and G. S. Smales, managers of the bank of Fairbault. The complaint is alarmingly voluminous and covers several reasons of legal cap, embodying almost fifty distinct sections. The action is brought to recover an unpaid certificate, and judgment is asked against each of the defendants for $3,335 with interest.

Mr. E. T. Sumwalt, who returned yesterday from a trip through the Wisconsin lumber yards, from which he draws the supplies for his business, reports that the stocks at all mills and yards are very much broken, owing to the heavy fall trade. The early setting in of winter has given lumbermen a chance, which they are improving to the utmost, of going into the woods a good deal more than usual. Should there be good snow through the usual winter they expect to bank more than ever before.

Stees Brothers, Thursday evening, on an order transmitted by telegraph to Peabody Bros. & Co., forwarded to Detroit, Becker county, a burial case for Mrs. H. H. Brown. Mr. Brown is a prominent lawyer of New Orleans, who has for nine years spent his summers on Detroit and Pelican lakes, and has lately bought land and erected a cottage near Detroit. It is presumed he has been detained there this season later than usual by the sickness of Mrs. Brown. He will arrive here today in charge of his wife's body, en route to New Orleans.

Sergeant West, of Minneapolis, visited St. Paul, yesterday, and identified the young man committed on Friday for forgery as an old-time crook and penitentiary bird. His name is John Schimidt alias John Beck, and he has served a term for a similar offense. Before his arrest in this city he did a brisk business with his pen in Minneapolis, having forged several checks in that city during the winter of 1879. He signaled his advent in St. Paul by stealing a looking glass and forging a check, and on his way to this city, he cabaged an overcoat belonging to a baggage man on the Short Line road. He is now where he will do the least harm, and will, no doubt, be railroaded.

Benjamin Levenson was arraigned at the police court yesterday charged with appropriating funds belonging to a Seventh street merchant named S. Rosenbaum. David Levenson, a brother of the prisoner, was also wanted for embezzlement but could not be found. The true whereabouts of the case is this: A few days since the brothers received four overcoats and the same number of coats from Rosenbaum to sell on commission. After disposing of the goods the Levensons refused to hand over the proceeds unless Rosenbaum consented to the retention of $15 on an old debt. He refused and swore out a warrant for their arrest. The hearing was continued until Monday and defendant was committed in default of $200 bail.

The East-bound express on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad, which left Minneapolis a few minutes after 7 o'clock, might have been last met with a long delay and truly escaped a disastrous accident. At South Minneapolis, the cars which are equipped with the self-acting switch movement, failed to connect at a point where the sleeping cars branches and jumped the rails. The train was made up of two sleeping cars, a passenger, smoking and baggage car. All but the latter left the track at a time when the train was running better than eighteen miles an hour. The construction and fright of the passengers was indescribable. The conductor pulled the bell cord and the air brake brought the train to a speedy halt in time. The sleeping cars broke away from the other coaches and almost telescoped. The track was torn up for more than a block.

and the situation looked frightful. Fortunately the cars were stopped before they could delay a train was made up and the passengers reached St. Paul after 11 o'clock.

FARMERS AND MECHANICS BANK.
Confirmation of Sale of Assets and Unimpaired Payment of all Liabilities Provided For.

The failure of the Farmers and Mechanics' bank came before Judge Brill yesterday, on the application of the assignee, Mr. C. D. O'Brien, for an order confirming the report of sale of assets of the bank. The report, which contains a detailed statement of the sale, sets forth that the entire assets of the bank have been sold to Henry H. Moore, Jr., of St. Louis county, for a consideration of $119,738.71. In addition to this the assignee has cash on hand to the amount of $3,646.11, and holds releases from depositors and other creditors for $22,618.13, making a total of cash and releases amounting to $45,887.95.

Following is a statement of the amounts due the creditors of the bank:
Due depositors.....$32,761.83
Due certificates.....13,708.00
Due cashiers' checks.....6.50

Total.....$45,887.95
Cash on hand.....$23,369.82
Releases of claims.....22,518.13
Total.....$45,887.95

As seen by the above, this square the books. Great credit is due the assignee for the admirable manner in which he has facilitated so satisfactory a settlement, and Messrs. Farrington and Wharton will receive the thanks of the creditors for the personal sacrifices made in their behalf.

MOUNT ZION.
A Fair For the Benefit of this Worthy Institution.

The fair of "Mount Zion" congregation is to commence December 13, and continue December 14, 15, 16 and 17, and close Saturday, December 18. All necessary preparations have been made to make this fair one of the most interesting and attractive in every particular which ever was held in this city. The ladies and gentlemen who have charge of the matter have resolved that no efforts shall be spared to please one and all who should favor them by their attendance. This being the first Hebrew fair which was held here, it is hoped that it will be liberally patronized. The entire proceeds will be donated for the erection of a new temple. The members of the Hebrew congregation own already our good citizens a debt of gratitude for the liberal subscriptions they have received for their noble enterprise—of building a new temple. This true, liberal spirit shall never be forgotten, and fully reciprocated whenever an opportunity should present itself.

Let us hope, and trust that the forthcoming fair will be made a great success, and that one and all will spend many pleasant evenings at the beautiful Sherman hall, where the fair will be held, in earnestly desired.
