

Daily Globe. Official Paper of the City and County of St. Paul, Minn. Printed and Published Every Day in the Year by H. P. HALL, No. 17 WABASH STREET, ST. PAUL.

Terms of Subscription for the Daily Globe. By carrier, (7 papers per week), 70 cents per month. By mail, (with Sunday edition), 4 papers per week, 60 cents per month.

By mail, (with Sunday edition), 7 papers per week, 80 cents per month.

ST. PAUL, MONDAY, NOV. 29, 1880.

A NEW ENTERTAINING PUBLICATION

"The Home"

Will be the name of a new weekly publication to be issued at St. Paul, Minn. It will be, as its name indicates, entirely devoted to the home circle—non-sectarian and non-political.

Advertisements inserted save upon the cover, and nothing of an objectionable character admitted on any terms.

"The Home" will be carefully and ably edited, and will contain a large amount of original matter. It will have a LETTER DEPARTMENT, to which the public, and especially ladies, are invited to contribute.

The "Letter Department" is designed as a means of communication between subscribers, who can discuss household and social topics, but in order to accommodate all, the communications should be brief.

The ladies of Minnesota and adjoining States will find "THE HOME" a publication devoted to their advancement and encouragement.

There will also be a SCHOOL CHILDREN'S DEPARTMENT, in which short letters from school children will be acceptable. These letters should not exceed twenty printed lines in length, and may be much shorter.

The first number will be issued for Christmas, but will be printed about Dec. 15. The second number will bear date Jan. 1, 1881, and thereafter the issue will be made weekly.

Sample copies will be sent to any one writing a postal card giving postoffice address.

"THE HOME" will be sent postpaid to any address for one year for ONE DOLLAR. Any one sending five dollars and five names will receive an extra copy for one year as a reward for the service.

There are $368,450 in United States 4 and 4 1/2 per cent. bonds owned in Minnesota. Females own $67,400 of the amount and males the remainder.

Even under the favorable conditions of the past few years—an unparalleled increase of commerce and trade—the shipping tonnage of this country has decreased over a hundred thousand tons within the past year.

In connection with the rumors that Don Cameron is to have a cabinet position under Garfield, comes an interview with Don's father, Simon, in which he expresses the warmest admiration for Garfield, and thinks he will do the right thing in all matters of public concern.

It is said that Mr. Hayes will discuss the question of civil service reform in his annual message to be read to Congress next month. Mr. Hayes evidently believes in the wisdom of looking the stable door after the horse has been stolen.

One of the most surprising incidents on record has just been made public. After being in the hands of executors for twelve years, the estate of the late Thad. Stevens proves to have increased in value instead of having been completely used up by costs as is usually the case.

On Monday last arrived in our city via the Wisconsin & Minnesota railroad, Mr. E. F. Barrett, of the St. Paul Daily Globe.

This proposition said to be incorporated in Secretary Sherman's annual report to fund the five per cent. bonds coming due in June next into a short four per cent. bond is a good one.

The Central and Union Pacific railroads are about to be consolidated into one corporation. The officers of the two roads applied to the interior department for an opinion as to whether such consolidation would be legal under the laws creating the companies.

This article appears in a Michigan journal: Amos James, Esq., proprietor of the Huron House, Port Huron, Mich., suffered so badly with rheumatism that he was unable to raise his arm for three months.

Horace Maynard, who has been a standing candidate for office for the past thirty years, and has generally managed to slip in somewhere at the public order, is in the field as an applicant for the Senatorship from Tennessee. The Republican papers, while acknowledging that the Democrats will have a majority in the legislature, say there is a prospect of several members acting independently on the Senatorial question.

Mr. Garfield will no doubt take the advice of Horace White and his associates in the Independent Republican party of New York for what it is worth.

THE CHIPPEWAS OF MINNESOTA. A quotation elsewhere from the annual report of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs does not appear to exaggerate the progress of the Chippewas of White Earth and Red Lake.

It is believed that the boom has about run its course, and that a pretty serious indication of it, may be seen in the fact that large operators have been persistent sellers of stocks whenever the market would take them.

Senator-elect Arthur P. Gorman has taken up his residence in Washington, where he occupies the elegant mansion of Ex-Gov. Swan, and in which he will reside during his senatorial term.

Ex-Governor Newell, of New Jersey, who is now governor of Washington Territory, has established what is known as the "Newell Colony," a thriving settlement in that section of the Union.

The Lowell Citizen says: "There is not a lawyer among the twenty-four members of the New Hampshire Senate, and it is expected its business will be transacted with harmony and dispatch."

Connecticut people think they've got something remarkable in a dog which shows a decided preference for the Baptist church. Not at all remarkable. Of course, every canine has dogma.

At the Sunday Science club yesterday Mr. Alexander read an entertaining paper on the development of life on the planet and illustrated his ideas with numerous drawings on the black board.

The Englishman, who was a great hunter, asked the American tourist if they had packs in America, and the tourist replied: "You bet they do! Why, I've known a Louisville man to have four of 'em in his sleeve!"

Assistant Secretary of State John Hay and John G. Nicolay, both of whom were private secretaries at the White House during Mr. Lincoln's administration, say that it will be a year at least before their joint biography of Lincoln is ready for publication.

The little chapel which stands over the grave of M. Thiers is so filled with tributory wreaths and bouquets of immortelles that they overflow, and have to be hung about the walls out side. On the door of the chapel hangs a photograph of the dead statesman and a short sketch of his life.

M. Challeme-Lacour, the French ambassador, was the person most cheered at the lord mayor's dinner. He is said to have looked very handsome in a profusely gold-brocaded coat. He is stalwart, and would be soldier-like in appearance except for his perfectly white complexion.

The anti-Masonic Presidential ticket, headed by Gen. Phelps, of Vermont, was supported by two Connecticut voters, one in Willington and the other in Redding. The electors named were six in number. As there were but two ballots cast it is evident that at least four of the electors did not support their own ticket.

Col. James L. Pugh, of Barbour county, who will succeed Mr. Pryor as United States Senator from Alabama, said in accepting the Democratic caucus nomination: "We will plant ourselves on local self-government, crystallize the solid South and never go back on the Northern Democracy. Everybody in the South is satisfied."

Mr. Herbert Spencer is to start on his philosophical tour of the world in the spring of 1881. He will be accompanied by two secretaries, and it is not unlikely that his friend, Prof. Huxley, will, for biological purposes, form one of the party.

Victor Hugo has often promised to visit in state the little city, Besancon, in which he was born, but has never yet managed to fulfill his desire. His first visit was drawn in a little house that now looks on the Square Archeologique. His parents were at the time basking on their way northward from the court of Madrid. Fourier, too, was a native of Besancon, and so was Proudhon.

Mr. Heman has just written a letter expressing great admiration for Garibaldi. "The men of action who made Italy," he says, "are Victor Emmanuel and Garibaldi, and their names will always be coupled in history with a common glory." This letter having been communicated to Garibaldi, he has shown great gratification.

One of the most popular medicines now before the American public is Hop Bitters. You see it everywhere. People take it with good effect. It builds them up. It is not as pleasant to the taste as other bitters, which are mostly a whisky drink. It is more like the old-fashioned bonnet tea that has done a world of good. If you don't feel just right try Hop Bitters.—Nunda News.

SPECULATIVE SURGINGS.

Unaccounted Activity in Wall Street—A Crash in Stocks not Probable—Reasons of a Vanderbilt Raid on the Gold Interest.

The whirl upward in the stock market within the past few days, although not of sensational proportions, has been a surprise to almost everybody on the street.

Mr. Vanderbilt and associates have combined against Gold and Sage for the purpose of compelling them to cover or settle large short contracts in the Vanderbilt specialties and the grangers; also, that the managers of the Northwestern have determined to declare whatever scrip dividend they decide upon before the new year, so as to evade the law of Illinois, which is said to prohibit the payment of scrip dividends after that date.

Mr. Philo Parsons, a wealthy citizen of Detroit, has given $50,000 to Olivet college, a Michigan institution.

Mr. Eugene Schuyler is expected at Belgrade shortly, to enter upon his duties as minister of the United States to Spain.

Commander Sullivan D. Amos, United States navy, died of pneumonia at his residence at Providence, B. I., on Monday.

Hannibal Hamlin has served in the Senate longer than any other public man. No other public man has done so little.

Mr. Glenn, the great California grain-raiser, is said to have harvested enough wheat this year to load twenty large ships.

The Paris Voltaire publishes a rumor that General Sieles is about to supersede Governor Noyes as American Minister to France.

A colored lady, boasting of the other day of the progress made by her son in arithmetic, exultingly said, "he is in the mortification table."

Sir Edward Thornton, the British minister at Washington, has returned to that city for the winter and last week called on Mr. Everts at the State Department.

The government of Italy proposes to do honor to the late King Victor Emmanuel by the erection of a monument in Rome, which is to cost $1,800,000.

A strikingly handsome St. Louis lady, a decided blonde, with rich, light brown hair deep blue eyes, pearly complexion, and an almost faultless mouth, has spent the last twelve years in looking for a perfect man.

Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes has written a poem for the two hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the settlement of Cambridge, Mass., which will be read by one of the school children.

Senator-elect Arthur P. Gorman has taken up his residence in Washington, where he occupies the elegant mansion of Ex-Gov. Swan, and in which he will reside during his senatorial term.

Ex-Governor Newell, of New Jersey, who is now governor of Washington Territory, has established what is known as the "Newell Colony," a thriving settlement in that section of the Union.

The Lowell Citizen says: "There is not a lawyer among the twenty-four members of the New Hampshire Senate, and it is expected its business will be transacted with harmony and dispatch."

Connecticut people think they've got something remarkable in a dog which shows a decided preference for the Baptist church. Not at all remarkable. Of course, every canine has dogma.

At the Sunday Science club yesterday Mr. Alexander read an entertaining paper on the development of life on the planet and illustrated his ideas with numerous drawings on the black board.

The Englishman, who was a great hunter, asked the American tourist if they had packs in America, and the tourist replied: "You bet they do! Why, I've known a Louisville man to have four of 'em in his sleeve!"

Assistant Secretary of State John Hay and John G. Nicolay, both of whom were private secretaries at the White House during Mr. Lincoln's administration, say that it will be a year at least before their joint biography of Lincoln is ready for publication.

The little chapel which stands over the grave of M. Thiers is so filled with tributory wreaths and bouquets of immortelles that they overflow, and have to be hung about the walls out side. On the door of the chapel hangs a photograph of the dead statesman and a short sketch of his life.

M. Challeme-Lacour, the French ambassador, was the person most cheered at the lord mayor's dinner. He is said to have looked very handsome in a profusely gold-brocaded coat. He is stalwart, and would be soldier-like in appearance except for his perfectly white complexion.

The anti-Masonic Presidential ticket, headed by Gen. Phelps, of Vermont, was supported by two Connecticut voters, one in Willington and the other in Redding. The electors named were six in number. As there were but two ballots cast it is evident that at least four of the electors did not support their own ticket.

GLOBELETS.

Colonel Thomas A. Scott and party arrived at New Orleans on Sunday.

Ex-Senator Lot M. Morrill, of Maine, is very ill at his home in Portland.

Timothy Filkins says the only way to keep a woman's mouth shut, is to shut her up.

Senator Davis, of West Virginia, is building a railroad up the north branch of the Potomac river.

Ex-Collector Simmons, of Boston, has made a fortune of $500,000, and says he is "out of politics."

Within the four rooms constituting George Benoroff's library, there are twelve thousand volumes.

Governor-elect Bigelow, of Connecticut, is seriously ill at New Haven, with symptoms of typhoid fever.

Mr. Philo Parsons, a wealthy citizen of Detroit, has given $50,000 to Olivet college, a Michigan institution.

Corporal punishment has been reinstated in the public schools of Utica by order of the school commissioners.

Mr. Eugene Schuyler is expected at Belgrade shortly, to enter upon his duties as minister of the United States to Siberia.

Commander Sullivan D. Amos, United States navy, died of pneumonia at his residence at Providence, B. I., on Monday.

Hannibal Hamlin has served in the Senate longer than any other public man. No other public man has done so little.

Mr. Glenn, the great California grain-raiser, is said to have harvested enough wheat this year to load twenty large ships.

The Paris Voltaire publishes a rumor that General Sieles is about to supersede Governor Noyes as American Minister to France.

A colored lady, boasting of the other day of the progress made by her son in arithmetic, exultingly said, "he is in the mortification table."

Sir Edward Thornton, the British minister at Washington, has returned to that city for the winter and last week called on Mr. Everts at the State Department.

The government of Italy proposes to do honor to the late King Victor Emmanuel by the erection of a monument in Rome, which is to cost $1,800,000.

A strikingly handsome St. Louis lady, a decided blonde, with rich, light brown hair deep blue eyes, pearly complexion, and an almost faultless mouth, has spent the last twelve years in looking for a perfect man.

Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes has written a poem for the two hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the settlement of Cambridge, Mass., which will be read by one of the school children.

Senator-elect Arthur P. Gorman has taken up his residence in Washington, where he occupies the elegant mansion of Ex-Gov. Swan, and in which he will reside during his senatorial term.

Ex-Governor Newell, of New Jersey, who is now governor of Washington Territory, has established what is known as the "Newell Colony," a thriving settlement in that section of the Union.

The Lowell Citizen says: "There is not a lawyer among the twenty-four members of the New Hampshire Senate, and it is expected its business will be transacted with harmony and dispatch."

Connecticut people think they've got something remarkable in a dog which shows a decided preference for the Baptist church. Not at all remarkable. Of course, every canine has dogma.

At the Sunday Science club yesterday Mr. Alexander read an entertaining paper on the development of life on the planet and illustrated his ideas with numerous drawings on the black board.

MINNEAPOLIS NEWS.

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 27.—The Minneapolis subscribers to the DAILY GLOBE are requested to leave the amount of subscriptions at their homes or leave word where the collector should call for the payment thereof.

A new $150,000 hotel at Lake Minnetonka, is talked of to be built by the St. P. & M. railroad company.

A religious meeting for boys will be held at the rooms of the W. O. T. U., 224 Hennepin avenue, this evening.

Prof. F. M. Woodman, until recently of the public schools, has been admitted to the bar, and opened an office in the city.

The Lurline boat club will soon inaugurate a series of entertainments to be given at the Nicollet house during the winter.

The dedication of the elegant and commodious hall erected by the West Side Turnverein will occur on Tuesday evening, Dec. 6.

Mr. L. W. Aldrich, mayor of Sheboygan, Wis., and a successful miner, is in the city, accompanied by his wife, a sister of Mrs. C. B. Leonard.

The new Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul baggage house, which is about half completed, will be the best building of the kind in the Northwest.

A few days more and the walls of the great Pillsbury mill will be completed and the millers discharged. The seventh and last story is nearly finished.

The managers of the Y. M. C. A. have decided to discontinue their daily prayer meetings for a time. Services will hereafter be held on Tuesdays and Fridays instead.

To-morrow evening a sociable, consisting of a musical, literary exercises, etc., will be given by the Reform club at Harrison hall. An unusually good programme has been prepared.

Last night the ladies' waiting room at the Manitoba depot was about filled with ladies, as well as the two baggage rooms. New facilities will soon be absolutely necessary to keep pace with the increasing business of the company.

The Republican papers are much exercised as to who will be appointed deputy sheriff. That is a question that rests entirely with the Sheriff-elect Eastis, and he is quite competent to make a selection without the advice of any one.

The United States circuit court has granted a injunction restraining the Minneapolis Agricultural and Mechanical association from disposing of the fair grounds during the pendency of the suit brought by Thomas H. Canfield to recover the property.

The railway managers adopted a happy plan of avoiding any confusion in the time of departure and arrival of the numerous trains on the short line. The trains will arrive and depart at such times as to insure that the arrangement to confuse the public or the company.

Irishmen and others who are favorable in assisting Parnell and the Land League in Ireland, are requested to meet at the Robert Emmet Literary association hall, over city bank, at 7:30 p. m. on Wednesday, Jan. 1, 1881, for the purpose of organizing a land league in Minnesota.

At the Sunday Science club yesterday Mr. Alexander read an entertaining paper on the development of life on the planet and illustrated his ideas with numerous drawings on the black board.

The Englishman, who was a great hunter, asked the American tourist if they had packs in America, and the tourist replied: "You bet they do! Why, I've known a Louisville man to have four of 'em in his sleeve!"

Assistant Secretary of State John Hay and John G. Nicolay, both of whom were private secretaries at the White House during Mr. Lincoln's administration, say that it will be a year at least before their joint biography of Lincoln is ready for publication.

The little chapel which stands over the grave of M. Thiers is so filled with tributory wreaths and bouquets of immortelles that they overflow, and have to be hung about the walls out side. On the door of the chapel hangs a photograph of the dead statesman and a short sketch of his life.

M. Challeme-Lacour, the French ambassador, was the person most cheered at the lord mayor's dinner. He is said to have looked very handsome in a profusely gold-brocaded coat. He is stalwart, and would be soldier-like in appearance except for his perfectly white complexion.

The anti-Masonic Presidential ticket, headed by Gen. Phelps, of Vermont, was supported by two Connecticut voters, one in Willington and the other in Redding. The electors named were six in number. As there were but two ballots cast it is evident that at least four of the electors did not support their own ticket.

Col. James L. Pugh, of Barbour county, who will succeed Mr. Pryor as United States Senator from Alabama, said in accepting the Democratic caucus nomination: "We will plant ourselves on local self-government, crystallize the solid South and never go back on the Northern Democracy. Everybody in the South is satisfied."

Mr. Herbert Spencer is to start on his philosophical tour of the world in the spring of 1881. He will be accompanied by two secretaries, and it is not unlikely that his friend, Prof. Huxley, will, for biological purposes, form one of the party.

MINNEAPOLIS NEWS.

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 27.—The Minneapolis subscribers to the DAILY GLOBE are requested to leave the amount of subscriptions at their homes or leave word where the collector should call for the payment thereof.

A new $150,000 hotel at Lake Minnetonka, is talked of to be built by the St. P. & M. railroad company.

A religious meeting for boys will be held at the rooms of the W. O. T. U., 224 Hennepin avenue, this evening.

Prof. F. M. Woodman, until recently of the public schools, has been admitted to the bar, and opened an office in the city.

The Lurline boat club will soon inaugurate a series of entertainments to be given at the Nicollet house during the winter.

The dedication of the elegant and commodious hall erected by the West Side Turnverein will occur on Tuesday evening, Dec. 6.

Mr. L. W. Aldrich, mayor of Sheboygan, Wis., and a successful miner, is in the city, accompanied by his wife, a sister of Mrs. C. B. Leonard.

The new Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul baggage house, which is about half completed, will be the best building of the kind in the Northwest.

A few days more and the walls of the great Pillsbury mill will be completed and the millers discharged. The seventh and last story is nearly finished.

The managers of the Y. M. C. A. have decided to discontinue their daily prayer meetings for a time. Services will hereafter be held on Tuesdays and Fridays instead.

To-morrow evening a sociable, consisting of a musical, literary exercises, etc., will be given by the Reform club at Harrison hall. An unusually good programme has been prepared.

Last night the ladies' waiting room at the Manitoba depot was about filled with ladies, as well as the two baggage rooms. New facilities will soon be absolutely necessary to keep pace with the increasing business of the company.

The Republican papers are much exercised as to who will be appointed deputy sheriff. That is a question that rests entirely with the Sheriff-elect Eastis, and he is quite competent to make a selection without the advice of any one.

The United States circuit court has granted a injunction restraining the Minneapolis Agricultural and Mechanical association from disposing of the fair grounds during the pendency of the suit brought by Thomas H. Canfield to recover the property.

The railway managers adopted a happy plan of avoiding any confusion in the time of departure and arrival of the numerous trains on the short line. The trains will arrive and depart at such times as to insure that the arrangement to confuse the public or the company.

Irishmen and others who are favorable in assisting Parnell and the Land League in Ireland, are requested to meet at the Robert Emmet Literary association hall, over city bank, at 7:30 p. m. on Wednesday, Jan. 1, 1881, for the purpose of organizing a land league in Minnesota.

At the Sunday Science club yesterday Mr. Alexander read an entertaining paper on the development of life on the planet and illustrated his ideas with numerous drawings on the black board.

The Englishman, who was a great hunter, asked the American tourist if they had packs in America, and the tourist replied: "You bet they do! Why, I've known a Louisville man to have four of 'em in his sleeve!"

Assistant Secretary of State John Hay and John G. Nicolay, both of whom were private secretaries at the White House during Mr. Lincoln's administration, say that it will be a year at least before their joint biography of Lincoln is ready for publication.

The little chapel which stands over the grave of M. Thiers is so filled with tributory wreaths and bouquets of immortelles that they overflow, and have to be hung about the walls out side. On the door of the chapel hangs a photograph of the dead statesman and a short sketch of his life.

M. Challeme-Lacour, the French ambassador, was the person most cheered at the lord mayor's dinner. He is said to have looked very handsome in a profusely gold-brocaded coat. He is stalwart, and would be soldier-like in appearance except for his perfectly white complexion.

The anti-Masonic Presidential ticket, headed by Gen. Phelps, of Vermont, was supported by two Connecticut voters, one in Willington and the other in Redding. The electors named were six in number. As there were but two ballots cast it is evident that at least four of the electors did not support their own ticket.

Col. James L. Pugh, of Barbour county, who will succeed Mr. Pryor as United States Senator from Alabama, said in accepting the Democratic caucus nomination: "We will plant ourselves on local self-government, crystallize the solid South and never go back on the Northern Democracy. Everybody in the South is satisfied."

Mr. Herbert Spencer is to start on his philosophical tour of the world in the spring of 1881. He will be accompanied by two secretaries, and it is not unlikely that his friend, Prof. Huxley, will, for biological purposes, form one of the party.

MINNEAPOLIS NEWS.

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 27.—The Minneapolis subscribers to the DAILY GLOBE are requested to leave the amount of subscriptions at their homes or leave word where the collector should call for the payment thereof.

A new $150,000 hotel at Lake Minnetonka, is talked of to be built by the St. P. & M. railroad company.

A religious meeting for boys will be held at the rooms of the W. O. T. U., 224 Hennepin avenue, this evening.

Prof. F. M. Woodman, until recently of the public schools, has been admitted to the bar, and opened an office in the city.

The Lurline boat club will soon inaugurate a series of entertainments to be given at the Nicollet house during the winter.

The dedication of the elegant and commodious hall erected by the West Side Turnverein will occur on Tuesday evening, Dec. 6.

Mr. L. W. Aldrich, mayor of Sheboygan, Wis., and a successful miner, is in the city, accompanied by his wife, a sister of Mrs. C. B. Leonard.

The new Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul baggage house, which is about half completed, will be the best building of the kind in the Northwest.

A few days more and the walls of the great Pillsbury mill will be completed and the millers discharged. The seventh and last story is nearly finished.

The managers of the Y. M. C. A. have decided to discontinue their daily prayer meetings for a time. Services will hereafter be held on Tuesdays and Fridays instead.

To-morrow evening a sociable, consisting of a musical, literary exercises, etc., will be given by the Reform club at Harrison hall. An unusually good programme has been prepared.

Last night the ladies' waiting room at the Manitoba depot was about filled with ladies, as well as the two baggage rooms. New facilities will soon be absolutely necessary to keep pace with the increasing business of the company.

The Republican papers are much exercised as to who will be appointed deputy sheriff. That is a question that rests entirely with the Sheriff-elect Eastis, and he is quite competent to make a selection without the advice of any one.

The United States circuit court has granted a injunction restraining the Minneapolis Agricultural and Mechanical association from disposing of the fair grounds during the pendency of the suit brought by Thomas H. Canfield to recover the property.

The railway managers adopted a happy plan of avoiding any confusion in the time of departure and arrival of the numerous trains on the short line. The trains will arrive and depart at such times as to insure that the arrangement to confuse the public or the company.

Irishmen and others who are favorable in assisting Parnell and the Land League in Ireland, are requested to meet at the Robert Emmet Literary association hall, over city bank, at 7:30 p. m. on Wednesday, Jan. 1, 1881, for the purpose of organizing a land league in Minnesota.

At the Sunday Science club yesterday Mr. Alexander read an entertaining paper on the development of life on the planet and illustrated his ideas with numerous drawings on the black board.

The Englishman, who was a great hunter, asked the American tourist if they had packs in America, and the tourist replied: "You bet they do! Why, I've known a Louisville man to have four of 'em in his sleeve!"

Assistant Secretary of State John Hay and John G. Nicolay, both of whom were private secretaries at the White House during Mr. Lincoln's administration, say that it will be a year at least before their joint biography of Lincoln is ready for publication.

The little chapel which stands over the grave of M. Thiers is so filled with tributory wreaths and bouquets of immortelles that they overflow, and have to be hung about the walls out side. On the door of the chapel hangs a photograph of the dead statesman and a short sketch of his life.

M. Challeme-Lacour, the French ambassador, was the person most cheered at the lord mayor's dinner. He is said to have looked very handsome in a profusely gold-brocaded coat. He is stalwart, and would be soldier-like in appearance except for his perfectly white complexion.

The anti-Masonic Presidential ticket, headed by Gen. Phelps, of Vermont, was supported by two Connecticut voters, one in Willington and the other in Redding. The electors named were six in number. As there were but two ballots cast it is evident that at least four of the electors did not support their own ticket.

Col. James L. Pugh, of Barbour county, who will succeed Mr. Pryor as United States Senator from Alabama, said in accepting the Democratic caucus nomination: "We will plant ourselves on local self-government, crystallize the