

CITY GLOBULES

Frosted ears and noses were quite the thing yesterday.

The instances of "nipped" fingers and noses yesterday were quite numerous.

The receipts of the street car company on Christmas day netted the employes the sum of nearly five dollars each.

Frank Mayo, of Van the Virginian, at the Opera house to-night. Seats can be secured during the day at the box office.

Deputy Sheriff Spiel visited St. Peter yesterday, having in charge Hugh Sweeney, committed to the hospital for the insane.

Bricklaying on the uncompleted buildings in the city, was temporarily suspended yesterday, the weather being too warm for outdoor work.

A marble cutter, named Joseph Widman, while walking on the short line railroad track, yesterday, had his hands and one side of his face frozen.

Judge Simons took up the special term cases yesterday, but as the lawyers were slow in coming to time, they were continued to the next term.

A deputy United States marshal arrived in St. Paul last night from Brainerd having in custody a man named Frank Slater, charged with selling whiskey to Indians.

A citation was issued from the United States court yesterday requiring C. H. Pettit to appear and answer as garnishee in one of the Harwood suits Monday next.

Information of insanity was filed yesterday against John Hammerle, who for some time has been an inmate of St. Joseph's hospital. The hearing will take place to-day.

The members of the Firemen's life insurance association held their annual election of trustees for the St. Paul district at the Hook and Ladder parlors on Wednesday evening next.

A man named C. W. Connors was arrested by Officer D. Corsey last night for the larceny of a coat and cap from Miss McDonald, residing on Mississippi street. He will have a hearing to-day.

A dispatch was received at department headquarters yesterday stating that Major Jiggs and his command had returned to Ft. Keogh from Poplar river, leaving the garrison at that point in good shape.

Robert McCarthy, of the Red River valley, arrested for trespass on government lands, pleaded guilty before Judge Nelson yesterday and was sentenced to a fine of $45 and to be imprisoned until sundown.

The case of the State against August Ziegler, charged with altering public records, was called in the police court yesterday and the hearing was continued to the 31st of January. Defendant was held in $500 bail.

Mr. Stuart Rice, well and favorably known in St. Paul will leave by way of the Sioux City road this afternoon for a trip to Puget Sound, Washington Territory. He goes on the inspection, and if the prospects prove favorable, will locate in that country.

The Rev. S. G. Smith, pastor of First M. E. church, will deliver a lecture at the Clinton avenue M. E. church, Sixth ward, Thursday evening, on his travels in Italy and Rome, for the benefit of the Ladies' Parsonage Aid society. Admission twenty-five cents.

Frank Johnson and A. Nelson, two festive Swedes, were before hizzoner yesterday on the familiar charge of too much budget. They were each fined $5 and $5 each was imposed, and they were discharged on payment of the duets.

Additional contributions to the fund for the benefit of the Protestant orphan asylum: C. W. Griggs, $25; Smith & Lewis, $5; J. B. Sanborn, $10; W. H. Sanborn, $1.50. Several of the solicitors have not yet reported, but will without doubt report before the close of the present week.

According to dispatches received yesterday Sitting Bull and his warriors have arrived at Milk river where a halt was ordered. Scout Allison advanced to Fort Keogh bringing with him some of the chiefs. The halt was occasioned by disaffected Indians, of which there are quite a number.

About dark last night two tramps and petty crooks named Robert Kelly and "Darby" Bill, of Minneapolis, were caught in the act of robbing a clothing store on Seventh near Sibley street. They were run in by Officer DeCoursey.

State Treasurer Kittleson is carefully nursing two of the fingers of his right hand. Mr. Kittleson indulged the little ones of his household in a handsome Christmas tree. Unfortunately the tree took fire from one of the tapers, in extinguishing which the second and third fingers of his right hand were painfully though not seriously burned.

The case of the State ex rel Edwin Gribble against Michael Lux and others, in which application was made for a mandamus compelling defendants to deliver over certain ballots cast at the June election, was to have come before Judge Wilkin at chambers yesterday. A postponement was asked for and the hearing was continued until 2 o'clock this evening.

Private George Lee, company H, Sixth cavalry, awaiting trial under charge of desertion, is to be sent from Fort Snelling to Fort Omaha, Neb., under charge of Second Lieut. J. C. F. Tilton, Fifth infantry, with Sergeant Charles Dumont, company K, and Private Harry Hunge, company H, Fifth infantry, as guard. After delivering the prisoner Lieut. Tilton and the guard will return to Fort Keogh, Montana.

Prof. Carel, an accomplished teacher of the French language, has inaugurated a movement for establishing a French circulating library in this city. He has already imported from Paris some 575 volumes of choice French literature and has them ready for the use of the library. His rooms are at the corner of Jackson and Seventh streets and our French citizens or those familiar with the language should encourage his enterprise.

Wm. M. (Billy) Cumbley, book-keeper for C. Gotzian & Co., has good reason to remember the "Merry Christmas" of 1880. His Christmas gift was a check for $500 from the house and a notification that his salary had been advanced from date. Billy was keeping the matter very quiet, being a modest gentleman, but the handsome act of the firm, and Billy's good luck deserve the publicity it will secure by mention in the widely circulated GLOBE.

Articles of incorporation of the Duluth water company were filed in the office of the secretary of state yesterday. The incorporators are H. C. Kendall, Henry Clarke, H. W. Pearson, A. M. Miller, E. A. Gilbert, and L. Mendanhall, and their purpose in associating themselves together, is the furnishing of the necessary water supply to the village of Duluth. The capital stock is placed at $25,000, and the highest amount of indebtedness at any one time is limited to $10,000.

An amusing little case, to employ Artemus Ward's kangaroo simile, named Edward Baker, was before hizzoner on yesterday, charged with getting bolded, bulldozing his better half, and being particularly perdition about the house. The jolly little cuss, who had gotten over his tantrum, said he was a cobbler, and that he hoped the prosecution would not last. The court was about to give him ninety days for the bad break, when the continuance was asked until to-day. It was so ordered.

A burly Norwegian named J. G. Braumberg was arraigned at the police court yesterday charged with committing a most dastardly assault on Mrs. Annie Oleson. The defendant and complainant reside on Rosabel street within a few doors of each other, and it was alleged that the woman had been attacked and beaten on the street. Counsel for defendant demanded a jury trial and although the testimony of complainant and eye witnesses was conclusive the jury brought in a verdict for defendant.

A gullible youth named Joe Turner complained to Capt. Clark last night that he had been bilked out of $30 by a star boarder at No. 100 Washington street. Counsel for defendant represented that he was a doctor on Sunday night, and it was at first sight. Yesterday he states that he went shopping with her and presented her with a new cloak, hat, nuba and a chain, and after which she "touched" him for $50. Officer Bremer went to look up the girl and the case will come up to-day.

The alarm of fire from box No. 13 at 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning was occasioned by the discovery of flames issuing from the roof of the two-story frame building No. 903 East Seventh street, owned and occupied by Mr. A. P. Weller. Engine and hose carts Nos. 1 and 3 turned out, and a vigorous stream on the roof soon smothered the flames. The fire caught in the second story from a defective chimney. The loss is chiefly by water, the hat-rooms, stock and fixtures being badly soaked. The amount may foot up $200 and is insured.

Sunday evening when the sliding was good, two of the boys named William Jones and John Hallowell, hired a livery cab and took the flyer for a spin on Dayton's bluff. On the way out they took "something," and returning they stopped at a gin mill near the harvester works. At this juncture some other fellow's robe got into their cutter, but for the life of them they could not tell how it happened. They were afterwards arrested for fast driving, and yesterday they were up on the charge of larceny and disorderly conduct. The charge was badly mixed, and they squared themselves by paying $20 and costs each.

Wiley Mathis, son of John Mathis, the popular and enterprising Third street carpet dealer, passed the eighteenth mile post of his existence Sunday, in honor of which called quite a number of his young friends called upon him, with many testimonials of friendship and good wishes, being the "son of his father," and inheriting a large share of his hospitable disposition, Wiley did the honors in such a manner as to leave his guests in doubt as to whether they were at the individual birthdays that were being celebrated, or was a pleasant affair and will not be remembered by, and especially by pair families.

One cold is sometimes contracted on top of another, the accompanying cough becoming settled and confirmed, and the lungs so strained and racked that the production of tubercles frequently follows. Many existing cases of pulmonary disease, which are now carelessly allowing themselves to drift through the preliminary symptoms, controlled by the fatal policy of allowing a cold to take care of itself. On the first indication of a cough or cold, or any throat or lung trouble, resort promptly to Dr. J. Hayes Expectant, a safe curative of long established reputation, and you may avoid the consequences of such dangerous trifling.

A small house on Temperance street, near Pearl street, took fire yesterday about noon. It was occupied by a German family, and the life being alone in the house, was terribly alarmed. In her excitement she seized her baby, and rushing out doors crying fire, dropped the infant in the snow. That much was secure from fire anyway. Lena Ludwig, a neighbor, and Charles Coles rendered prompt and gallant assistance, and by hard work and liberal use of snow, extinguished the flames without turning in an alarm. It was a close call for being turned out upon a most innocent day. Damage, beyond mental alarm, trifling.

John Dodge, the widely known and popular chief clerk of the Merchants, has many souvenirs of the esteem in which he is held by his friends, but Christmas day brought him a gift which it can be said with no disrespect to other givers, will be more sacredly cherished and highly esteemed than anything else in his collection. It is a beautiful Christmas present of his own. John's first knowledge of it being when the presentation was made.

It is these little occasions, said hizzoner, Judge O'Brien, addressing the two worthy bailiffs, Messrs. Dowling and Mullins, yesterday, as the doughty officers pricked up their ears and adorned with a little red and white, and the beautiful gift was the Christmas present of Mrs. Dodge, the conception of the idea being her own. John's first knowledge of it being when the presentation was made.
