

CITY GLOBULES.

The flag at city hall is at half mast in memory of Capt. Rhodes.

Last night Officer O'Keefe collared a lumber drunk on Minnesota street and yanked him to the tower.

In response to a telegram Dr. Murphy will visit Worthington to attend ex-Gov. Miller who is stricken with paralysis.

A quiet wedding occurred last night, the high contracting parties being Mr. William Forten and Miss Amanda Brandt. No cards.

If the party who advertises the loss of a spaniel pup will call on Officer DeCoursey on the Merchants' beat, he may learn of the dog's whereabouts.

A plat of the rearrangement of Michael's sub-division of block 14, Robertson & Van Etten's addition, was filed in the register of deeds' office yesterday afternoon.

Edward Sweeney, the insane man, who was brought to St. Paul last week, was taken to the hospital yesterday by the chief of police of that city, which of late years has been his place of residence.

Monday, February 21, at 7:30 o'clock, Washington lodge No. 1, order of Sons of Herman, will dedicate their new hall, corner St. Peter and Seventh streets. All the members with their families are invited to attend.

At the dedication of the Druids' new hall, Seventh and St. Peter streets, to-night, interesting lectures will be delivered by Dr. Stone and Mr. A. B. Curry. Dr. Stone is the secretary on ancient Druidism and Mr. Curry will briefly outline its modern history.

At the annual meeting of the directors of the Capital building society, the following named gentlemen were elected officers for the ensuing year: A. R. Kiefer, president; D. D. Merrill, vice president; O. E. Terry, secretary; H. Saahlgard, treasurer; Fr. F. Wilde, Attorney.

The bond of J. A. Reed, as warden of the State penitentiary, in the sum of $12,000, for the faithful performance of his duty, approved by the Governor, was filed with the secretary of state yesterday. The sureties are Isaac Staples, of Stillwater, and John T. Meagher, of Mankato.

New Mexico evidently wants to cultivate friendly as well as commercial relations with St. Paul. Yesterday George Stahlmann, the tobaccoist, received an order from the distant city of Santa Fe for a dollar's worth of corn-cob pipes. This looks as if the were arranging their wigs for the pipe of peace.

The public block on Fourth street below Seven Corners is becoming noted for its nightly orgies. Early yesterday morning Officer Baer was called up stairs two or three times to quiet a ruction between a man named Monroe and his wife. The former was crazy with alcohol and threatened his infant and wife.

Four of a kind, deuces, with any kind of a hand to beat, were before hizzoner yesterday, charged with vagrancy. They gave the names of Joe Lantry, John Kelly, Wm. McFarland and John Casper, and they are expected to appear on general principles, having been born on holidays. They went to the bastille for thirty days each.

Rev. J. B. Cotter, of Winona, lectures this evening at St. Michael's church. Owing to the fame of Father Cotter as a lecturer, and his many warm friends in St. Paul, it is expected a large audience will greet him during his lecture in our midst. Let all his temperance friends give him a crowded audience at St. Michael's church, Sixth ward, this evening.

About 8 o'clock last night a man visited the Italian restaurant, on West Third, near St. Peter street, and purchased an oyster stew, in payment of which he tendered a $2 bill, receiving in return $1.75 in coin. Shortly afterwards he discovered that one of the coins was counterfeit, which took him back to the restaurant. The proprietor refused to exchange the coin, and a tussle was prevented by the interference of Officer Cook.

At a late hour last night, near the Seventh street bridge, two members of the Eclipse Bowling club, on their way home, ran across the prostrate form of a man who had fallen into a snow drift and gone to sleep. He was drunk and almost frozen to death. The gentlemen put him on his feet and escorted him all the way to Wabash street, where he was turned over to Officer McMahon, who took him to city hall and thawed him out.

A lively runaway occurred on Jackson street about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon which luckily resulted in no serious consequences. As Mrs. Milan and daughter were driving on Jackson street, their horse became frightened and ran away, overturning the cutter and throwing the ladies out at the corner of Seventh and Jackson streets. Fortunately neither of them were hurt. The animal was captured and the cutter was badly cracked.

A young man named Joseph Willis was arraigned at the police court yesterday charged with embezzlement. The complaint was made by one J. M. Cooley, who alleged that he had sold defendant a horse for $25 on the statement that M. B. Farrell would go security for the purchase money. When the case was called, Mr. Egan said there was no chance to substantiate such a flimsy charge and he characterized the affair as bogus. Defendant was straightway discharged.

The modern music which has paralyzed history and torn the Venetian lace from the idols which mankind has cherished, for lo, these many years, and above them as so many venerable and antiquated fronds, has snatched from mankind another of her most beloved delusions. This time the modern strumpet has seized upon the fable of John Brown, whose soul the good little Sunday school boys has been taught to believe, goes marching on. Nothing of the kind; the venerable old snoozer loomed up at the police court yesterday morning. He was trying to work the Merchants' free lunch yesterday morning and was run in drunk. He was sent to the room for five days and his soul will not perigrate until the time is up.

Proceedings of the Common Council.

Special Meeting.
St. Paul, Feb. 14, 1881.

Vice President Grace in the chair.
Present—Ald. Allen, Dowling, O'Connor, Otis, Ringwald, Cornish, Mines, Mr. President—8.

COMMUNICATIONS.
From His Honor the Mayor—

Vice President and Common Council, St. Paul.

GENTLEMEN: I have deemed it my duty to call you together this evening for discussion as you may see fit to pay proper respect to the memory of the late President of the Common Council, William Rhodes.

I served several years as a member of the Common Council with Mr. Rhodes, and during the past three years since he became President of the Council I have come in almost daily contact with him in matters connected with our city and city government.

Ald. Rhodes, for the past few years having retired in a great measure from business, devoted a large part of his time to the interests of the city. And I can truthfully say that in the death of Ald. Rhodes the City of St. Paul has lost one of its most efficient and valuable citizens. Very respectfully,

WM. DAWSON, Mayor.

Accepted and ordered placed on file.

Ald. Cornish arose and moved that a Committee of five to be appointed by the President be appointed to draft suitable resolutions, and to make whatever arrangements they may deem proper in regard to the funeral.

The motion prevailed and the President appointed as such Committee Ald. Cornish, Allen, Dowling, Otis and Ringwald.

Ald. Allen asked to be excused from acting as said Committee, as it would be impossible for him to attend the duties of the same as they should be attended to.

Ald. Allen was excused and on motion the President and City Attorney was added to said Committee.

Adjourned until Tuesday, the 15th inst., at 3 o'clock P. M., at which time the Committee on resolutions were requested to report.

Vice President of the Council.
THOS. A. PRENDERGAST, City Clerk.

Regular and Adjourned Meeting.
St. Paul, Feb. 15, 1881.

Vice President Grace in the chair.

Present—Ald. Dowling, O'Connor, Otis, Ringwald, Cornish, Mr. President—6.

The matter of the vacation of parts of Van Ingen, De Bow and other streets, as per notice of City Clerk, dated Sept. 18, 1880, was postponed and laid over until the next regular meeting of the Council.

Tuesday the 1st day of March, A. D. 1881, at 3 o'clock P. M.

East Third and other streets—change of grade—

The matter of the change of grade on East Third, Wabasha, Broadway and Rosabel streets was postponed and laid over until Tuesday, the 1st day of March, A. D. 1881, at 3 o'clock P. M.

Ald. Cornish, chairman of committee to draft resolutions of respect to the memory of our late President, Wm. Rhodes, presented and read the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted, to-wit:

WHEREAS, We are called to mark with appropriate action our sorrow at the death of the Honorable President of the Common Council, William Rhodes, who has so suddenly been taken from our midst, and

WHEREAS, During the many years of his residence among us, he has ever been an honest and true man, a most public spirited citizen, and a most faithful public official, discharging his duties with high ability and unswerving integrity; bearing the highest esteem of all, and receiving the utmost confidence of his business and official associates; and

Resolved, That as a perpetual memorial of the great worth of the departed, and the high esteem in which he was held by his associates in the city government, and the entire community, these resolutions be spread at length upon the records of the council proceedings.

Resolved, That we tender to the bereaved family our deepest sympathy in their hour of affliction, and that the city clerk cause to be prepared a correct copy of these resolutions and transmit the same to the family of deceased, and that copies thereof be furnished to the city papers for publication.

Upon the conclusion of the reading of the foregoing, Ald. Cornish moved as a further tribute of respect to the deceased that the Council do now adjourn (this being a regular meeting) until Friday, the 18th inst., at 7:30 o'clock P. M.

The motion prevailed and the Council adjourned.

THOS. GRACE,

THOS. A. PRENDERGAST, City Clerk.
